MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE and MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1936

MINUTES AND REPORTS

WITH THE STATISTICS

GARDNER, MAY 18, 19, 20, 1936

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS.—President, Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. John Albree, Swampscott; Treasurer, Rev. Oliver D. Sewall, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Oliver D. Sewall, Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Oliver D. Sewell, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation.....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the National Home Boards.

THE JORDAN & MORE PRESS
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Oliver D. Sewall, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

According to the vote of the Conference, contributions for the year 1936 are divided as follows, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing church:

American Board	41.00%
National Home Boards	42.50%
Council for Social Action	2.50%
Mass. Cong'l Conference and Missionary Society	13.00%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1.00%

Checks should be made payable to Oliver D. Sewall, Treasurer.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit it desired in the next Year-Book.

Honorary Life Membership in the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society may be secured by a gift of thirty dollars, by a church or individual. Gifts made at different dates within the limits of any one fiscal year may be applied to Honorary Life Membership, if the wish for such application is expressed when the gifts are made.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1936, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Oliver D. Sewall, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty--five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

MINUTES OF THE 137th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

MONDAY AFTERNOON

The Conference was called to order exactly at 2.00 o'clock by the Moderator, Rev. David N. Beach of Springfield.

The Service of Worship was conducted by the Chaplain of the Conference, Rev. Raymond Calkins of Cambridge. His subject was "The Credentials of Christ." The authenticity of the church is its serviceableness, and the proof of Christianity is in biography rather than in theology.

The Moderator announced the appointment of committees as follows:

Business Committee — Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Chairman, Mrs. Chester L. Grover, Rev. S. Lawrence Johnson, Rev. C. Donald Plomer, Rev. Ralph H. Rogers, Rev. Samuel R. Swift.

Credential Committee: Rev. Henry Lincoln Bailey, Rev. J. William L. Graham, Rev. Stephen C. Lang.

Deacons Appointed to Serve at the Communion Service Tuesday Evening: E. G. Watkins, C. C. Rathbun, E. W. Tandy, W. M. Tenney, A. H. Nourse, J. A. Pearson, Frank Derby, W. P. Hawley, Benjamin F. Holden, Charles Davis.

The Chairman of the Nominating Committee announced a vacancy in the office of Recording Secretary and nominated Rev. William L. Boicourt of Shirley, who was elected.

Rev. Harry W. Kimball presented a resolution concerning the establishment of a Department of Religious Education, which was referred to the Business Committee.

The "Advance Reports" of the Conference committees, which had been sent by mail to pastors and delegates, were submitted for discussion as follows:

The report of the Committee on Religious Education was presented by Rev. Harry T. Stock, Chairman. This committee has been exceedingly active during the year and has functioned through sub-committees, four of which have had age-group assignments. The chief recommendation is the reiterated request for a Department of Religious Education, with a full-time Secretary.

The report of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare was presented by Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald, Chairman. He urged the consideration by all the churches of the resumé of Conference resolutions 1932–1935, as found on pages 12 and 13 of the Advance Reports.

The first of the two new resolutions was amended by deleting certain sentences from the preamble and substituting in the resolution the word "Commonwealth" for "State." It was adopted as follows:

Because of our deep concern for those high principles and noble traditions which have made Massachusetts great, we view with grave apprehension the spirit being shown by the present administration in our Commonwealth. We appeal to every conscientious citizen, regardless of race or creed or social status, to do his utmost to restore decent government to Massachusetts. For it is our firm belief that one of the needs of the present hour is for honest men in the places of responsibility in our Commonwealth.

Therefore be it resolved: That at the coming state elections the conscientious citizens of our Commonwealth are urged to make every effort, after a careful examination of their records, to put out of public office all those who are using that office for their own selfish ends, and to elect in their places trustworthy public officials who can be counted upon to maintain the noblest traditions of our great Commonwealth.

The second resolution relative to the Teachers' Oath Law occasioned sharp discussion and Prof. Alfred K. Lane of Tufts College, by request, spoke from the platform. This resolution was also amended and adopted to read as follows:

Although the State Legislature may have taken action on the repeal of the Teachers' Oath Law before the Conference meets, the Committee is so vigorously opposed to all legislation of this kind that it believes the Conference should put itself on record in this matter. The Committee feels that true patriotism cannot be compelled. It regards the Oath Law as an unwarranted interference with intellectual freedom, democratic principles, and Christian ideals. It seems to us to be an unnecessary discrimination against the teachers of our Commonwealth.

Therefore be it Resolved: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference calls for the repeal of the Teachers' Oath Law and for unremitting opposition to all kindred measures as insidious steps in the direction of that coerced conformity with set patterns of political thought which has marked the regimes of both fascism and communism. We declare such coercive methods to be repugnant to the traditions of our country, to intellectual liberty and to Christian sincerity. We therefore call upon the people of our churches to mobilize their moral and spiritual power in behalf of a new crusade for freedom.

The Report of the Woman's Department was presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Z. Grabill, Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work, who was given applause by the Conference.

The report of the Committee on the Future Policy of the Conference to The Board of Pastoral Supply was presented by Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Chairman. The Conference adopted the first seven recommendations and referred the eighth recommendation to the Business Committee.

The seven recommendations adopted are as follows:

1. That the Board of Pastoral Supply be maintained in its present relation to the Massachusetts Conference and other New England Conferences, but with a clearer definition of areas of responsibility and operation.

2. It is recommended that churches aided by the State Conference should all go directly to the state office for advice as to pastors and policies.

3. It is recommended that in the true spirit of Congregationalism the way be left open for independent churches to seek advice as to new pastors through the Board of Pastoral Supply, the state office, or any other channel desired.

4. It is recommended that closer contacts be maintained between the Board of Pastoral Supply and the State Office relative to all suggestions made to Massachusetts churches regarding pastors. This should be carried out through personal conversations between the President of the Conference and the Secretary of the Board.

5. It is recommended that when vacancies occur in Massachusetts churches and letters are sent by the Board to such churches offering the aid of the Board, such letters should include the suggestion that both the State Office and the Board are ready to assist in any way possible. This will follow the practice of other New England Conferences.

6. It is recommended that after the settlement of a pastor, when there is need in a church for outside advice in matters of policy and problems within the church, the church should confer with the state office, rather than with the Board of Pastoral Supply.

7. It is recommended that the President of the State Conference should always be included among the Massachusetts representatives of the Conference on the Board of Pastoral Supply.

The report of the Grant Study Committee was adopted. This included an approval of the work of the American International College as a missionary enterprise and the endorsement of the work of providing opportunity for religious instruction at Massachusetts State College.

It was Voted: That any further action as suggested by this report be left with the Trustees' Committee on Aided Churches.

It was moved and carried that the amendment to Article IV of the By-Laws which had been laid upon the table last year, be taken from the table.

The following amendment was then adopted:

That in Article IV, paragraph entitled "Voting Members" of the By-Laws, after the words "(including the members of the Board of Trustees)" there be added within the parentheses the words "and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus."

The report of the Committee on Missions and Apportionment was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Hugh Penney, and the report was accepted and the following recommendations adopted, approved by the Board of Trustees for presentation to the Conference were adopted:

1. That the Goal for Apportionment giving for 1936 be set at $350,000. This is the same figure as adopted last year, but represents about a 10 per cent advance over the Apportionment giving of 1935.

2. That the receipts from Apportionment giving for the year 1936 be divided, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing churches, according to the following schedule:

American Board	41. %
National Home Boards	42.5%
Council for Social Action	2.5%
State Work (including 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society)	14. %
	100%

3. That the receipts from Apportionment giving for 1937 be divided, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing churches, according to the following schedule:

American Board	40. %
National Home Boards	41. %
Council for Social Action	2.5%
State Work	15.5%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1. %
	100%

4. That grants to aided churches be made with the clear understanding that a contribution to the Apportionment shall be made by them each year.

The Conference then took a recess until 4.00 o'clock.

The Conference resumed its session at 4.00 o'clock. Miss Margaret Slattery of Boston gave an address on: "Thy Kingdom Come — but not Now." This was a most compelling address, urging sacrificial acceptance of the disturbing social results of Jesus' teaching. The auditorium was crowded, with many standing, and a loud speaker was installed in an adjoining room for an overflow meeting.

Four simultaneous supper conferences were held by the laymen, the women, the young people and the Preaching Mission Committee.

The young people met at 6.00 o'clock in the dining hall of the church. One hundred and ninety young people sat down to supper. Professor Ralph S. Harlow of Smith College gave an address on "Our Religion — Suppose it Really Worked." A forum period followed the address. A concluding worship service was conducted by the Rev. Joseph Reeves of Winchendon.

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Department was held at a supper meeting May 18, Mrs. Ethelbert V. Grabill, the Chairman, presiding. One hundred and fifty women were present. Members of the Executive Committee and other Standing Committees were elected. Mrs. Mary R. Carver, Secretary, gave a review of the year's work. Mrs. Grabill gave a fine presentation of the activities in the Districts and the plans for the future, urging the use of the Missionary Herald, the Cent-a-Meal Boxes, and suggesting a united women's organization in each church.

MONDAY EVENING

The service of worship was conducted by the Chaplain of the Conference under the theme: "The Twofold Ministry." In the words of Jesus to the impotent man, "Thy sins be forgiven" and "arise," Jesus showed once for all that the spiritual and social gospel are one.

Music was furnished during the evening by the Nevin Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Walter B. Eaton.

Greetings from Gardner were felicitously presented by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan, and by his Honor James A. Timpany, Mayor of Gardner. On behalf of the Conference, the Moderator, Rev. David N. Beach, made suitable response.

Our most distinguished layman, for more than forty years a world traveler and a crusader for righteousness, Mr. Fred B. Smith, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the General Council of the Congregational and Christian Churches, gave the address of the evening, on the topic, "The Church of Tomorrow." Mr. Smith brought, at the opening of his address, the greetings of the Regional Conference of the Southeast, recently held at Burlington, North Carolina, and the greetings also of the New York Conference through Superintendent Walter H. Rollins. The evening session was adjourned after the singing of the hymn, "Faith of our Fathers."

TUESDAY MORNING

The Business meeting was called to order at 9.00 o'clock by the Moderator, who opened the session with prayer.

The report of the Treasurer was then presented by Mr. Sewall. He commented upon the decline not only in gifts from the churches, but the even greater decline in receipts from invested funds. Bequests have also fallen off. Referring to the fears once expressed by Dr. Emrich that the Home Missionary work of the state would suffer as a result of the merger, Mr. Sewall urged that only an increased emphasis upon the missionary motive can ever restore or advance the giving of the churches.

The auditor's report was presented and read by the President of the Conference.

It was Voted: That the reports be accepted and printed.

It was Voted: That the recommendation accepted yesterday fixing the 1937 distribution of apportionment giving, be reconsidered and that the question be referred to a joint committee of the Business Committee and the Committee on Missions and Apportionment.

Rev. Henry Lincoln Bailey presented in an impressive manner the Necrology of the Conference, giving brief items of interest in the life and work of pastors and former pastors who have died during the past twelve months.

Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary of the Conference, then presented his report, which may be found in printed form elsewhere in these Minutes.

The President of the Conference, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, then presented a comprehensive, forward looking report, which may be found elsewhere in these Minutes.

Rev. Frank Jennings, Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, presented a brief report in which he recognized that the Congregational churches of Massachusetts include in their membership one-third of all the Protestants in the Commonwealth.

The following officers and committees were elected:

Moderator — Mr. Wilbur E. Rowell, Lawrence.
Vice-Moderator — Rev. Clarence E. Hellens, Fall River.
Recording Secretary — Rev. William L. Boicourt, Shirley.

G. Robbins, Pittsfield.

Nomnating Committee — Mrs. Horace F. Holton, Brockton; Rev. Harry L. Oldfield, West Springfield; Rev. C. Donald Plomer, New Bedford; Rev. John M. Trout, Sandwich.

At 11.15 the Chaplain of the Conference led his service of worship on the theme, "And now Abideth Hope." It may not be true that while there is life there is hope, but it is true that while there is hope there is life.

The Council for Social Action through the chairman, Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald, then presented Prof. Earl M. Winslow, who recently resigned as Professor of Economics at Tufts College in protest against the Teachers' Oath Law, who spoke upon the subject, "The Threat of Fascism to a Christian Social Order."

Prof. Winslow also spoke with others at a luncheon hour discussion, held by the Social Action group at the Chestnut St. Methodist Church.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The session was resumed at 2.00 o'clock. Home and Foreign work was considered with Rev. Hugh Penney in the chair. Secretary George N. White spoke with fire and understanding of the present need for even more aggressive work by the American Missionary Association on behalf of the rights of personality among the underprivileged of our land.

Rev. Frank C. Laubach of the American Board of Foreign Missions then spoke. He has developed in Mindanao, Philippine Islands, a system for teaching illiterates to read, which has elicited the enthusiasm of educators everywhere and has aroused hope among that half of the world's population which does not yet know how to read. One result of his address was that an offering was taken to help defray the expenses of his proposed world trip in the interest of his language charts. This offering amounted to $115.72.

The report of the Boston Seaman's Friend Society was then presented by Rev. Roy G. Pavy, who emphasized the little realized cruelty and bitterness of life on the sea.

At 4.00 o'clock the Rev. Harry R. Butman of Edgartown, Massachusetts, presented most felicitously and effectively the case for the Federated Church.

The Rev. Harry W. Kimball of Needham presented "A Forward Looking Program for Massachusetts Congregationalism." He spoke to the resolution presented on Monday, calling for an appropriation of $6,000 for the establishment of a Department of Religious Education, with a full-time secretary. A spirited discussion followed this presentation in which twelve men and one woman participated. The recommendation of the Business Committee was then adopted that an appropriation of $600 be granted to the Committee on Religious Education for the purpose of dramatizing the need for strengthening the work of religious education through our churches in the Commonwealth with the hope that new resources may soon be discovered to engage the services of a full-time secretary of Religious Education and Young People's Work.

Section No. 8 of the Report of the Committee on the Future Policy of the Conference to the Board of Pastoral Supply, which was referred yesterday to the Business Committee, was brought before the Conference by the Business Committee with its recommendation that the grant to the Board of Pastoral Supply be increased from 1 5-6 cents per member to 2 cents per member pro rata.

In the discussion which followed, Rev. Charles C. Merrill, Secretary of the Board of Pastoral Supply, presented certain reasons which convinced the Conference of the need of a larger grant. As a result, the following amendment was adopted:

Section 8. In view of the report of the work rendered to Massachusetts by the Board of Pastoral Supply, in view of the decrease of revenues from normal sources, and in view of the fact that three other Conferences have voted to increase their grants to two cents per member, it is recommended that in place of the additional grant of $800.00 made this year by the Board of Trustees, Massachusetts increase its annual grant to the Board of Pastoral Supply from $1\frac{5}{6}$ cents per member to $2\frac{1}{3}$ cents per member, pro rata.

The Business Committee then presented the following resolution which had been submitted by Rev. George H. Douglas of Westford, which was adopted: In view of the opportunity which we shall have to vote on local option at the state election in November:

Be it Resolved: That the State Conference urge each of its constituent churches to bring before its community the facts of its own liquor selling situation and so appeal in the strongest way to its people to vote no-license.

Rev. Hugh Penney for the Joint Committee of the Business

Committee and the Committee on Missions and Apportionment reported back to the Conference the recommendation adopted Monday afternoon concerning the distribution of apportionment giving for the year 1937 which it was voted to reconsider: The Committee recommended that the vote passed Monday afternoon regarding the division of Apportionment giving for 1937 be rescinded and that the receipts from apportionment giving for the year 1937 be the same as for the year 1936, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing churches, namely according to the following schedule:

American Board	41. %
National Home Boards	42.5%
Council for Social Action	2.5%
State Work (including 1% for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society)	14. %
		100%

These recommendations were adopted.

At this point the Conference received the invitation of the Eliot-Union Church of Lowell, Rev. Hugh Penney, pastor, to hold its session in 1937 in that church. The invitation was gratefully accepted.

TUESDAY EVENING

The session began at 7.30 with music with Mr. Walter B. Eaton at the organ, also directing the church quartet and chorus.

The scripture lesson was read by Rev. Russell Henry Stafford, and prayer was offered by Chaplain Calkins.

The work of the Board of Ministerial Aid was presented by Rev. Austin Rice of Wakefield, following which an offering was taken amounting to $155.25 for Ministerial Relief.

Rev. Russell Henry Stafford of the Old South Church, Boston, preached a sermon of great power on the equality of all nations before God, as revealed in the prophecy of Amos 1:6 to 2:16.

The communion service was conducted by Rev. Baldwin W.

Callahan, Minister of the entertaining church, assisted by Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, President of the Conference.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

The Conference was called to order at 9.00 o'clock by the Moderator, who led in prayer.

He then presented on behalf of the Committee on Religious Education Dean James Muilenburg of the University of Maine, who in his address and during the discussion which followed, infused vitality and optimism into that which, tragically enough, is too often assumed to be deadening, namely, Religious Education.

At 10.15, under the general topic, "The Church Facing its Problems," Rev. Lionel Whiston of Fitchburg spoke on "Evangelism." Evangelism is not good news, but the bearing of it, and the evangelist must himself first be the embodiment of it.

Rev. Raymond B. Blakney, of Williamstown, spoke on "Devotional Life." He related an interesting experiment in placing the sermon near to the beginning of the service, with the definite purpose of preparing the congregation for the culmination of the hour in worship.

Mrs. Royal G. Whiting, of Weston, spoke for "Social Action," beginning with a beautifully presented life of Christ as it might be told were He to have lived in the world of our century.

Rev. Paul G. Macy, of Worcester, spoke for "Missions," urging the realization of two facts: first, that all available financial resources of the American Board have been exhausted; and second, that there are, nevertheless, many reasons for encouragement. Our educational and medical work has made distinct advancements as compared with seven years ago. He urged that Congregationalists everywhere read, mark, learn and inwardly digest the Massachusetts issue of the new missionary booklet called "Custodians of the Pilgrim Spirit."

A report of the Business Committee was presented by Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Chairman, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Be it Resolved: That the Massachusetts Conference expresses its appreciation of the splendid hospitality afforded by the First Congregational Church of Gardner and its pastor in the generous provisions made for the 137th Annual Meeting of the Conference.

It likewise expresses its appreciation of the hospitality of the city of Gardner as expressed by its Mayor, and of the co-operation of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Chestnut Street Methodist Church, the Unitarian Society and the order of Eastern Star in preparing delightful meals for the Conference guests.

The Conference expresses its appreciation of the very capable leadership of the retiring Moderator, of the unusually effective work of the Program Committee and of the faithful service of all other committees and individuals whose thought and prayers have made for a truly great Conference.

The Conference learns with regret of the illness of Dr. A. Z. Conrad, of Boston, and extends to him its sympathy and goodwill.

The Conference also sends greetings to Rev. Arthur J. Covell, of Arlington, whose illness has caused us to miss his counsel and fellowship.

The Conference appreciates the friendly greeting of the New York Conference extended through Dr. Fred B. Smith and extends its own good wishes to that Conference for a very successful meeting.

The Conference also sends its greetings to Rev. Arthur Barber, of Lawrence.

Rev. Clifford O. Simpson, of Arlington, spoke of the informal discussion periods to be held in connection with the General Council meeting at South Hadley in June.

Rev. Henry Lincoln Bailey, Chairman, then read the report of the Committee on Credentials, which is as follows:

Number of churches represented:
By pastor only	114
By pastor and one delegate	54
By pastor and two delegates	88
By one delegate only	13
By two delegates	21
Total number of churches represented	290
Number of individuals, minus duplicates	528
Official and honorary, minus duplicates	27
Total net enrollment	555

The Recording Secretary, in co-operation with the staff, was authorized to complete the Minutes.

Voted: That the Conference be adjourned after the benediction by the Chaplain.

The concluding service of worship was then conducted by the Chaplain, whose subject was, "Religion as Music."

ALFRED V. BLISS, Secretary.

WILLIAM L. BOICOURT, Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

Inasmuch as a primary obligation of the Conference is to serve its ministers, we have several times this year invited the pastors of the churches to meet together in order that they might "consider one another, to arouse one another to love and good works."

The first occasion was the Annual Convocation at South Hadley in September. It would not do to say that we "broke the ice" for the General Council, rather — that we enjoyed the Cream of the Hospitality of Mount Holyoke College.

The addresses by Dean Potter, Professor John C. Bennett, Dr. Harry W. Kimball and Rev. Ronald J. Tamblyn gave the delegates helpful suggestion for their study and work through the months that followed. Many pastors were good enough to say that the program this year was worthy of its predecessors.

In November with the assistance of Dr. Goodsell, Dr. Burton and Dean Graham, five Churchmanship Conferences were held across the state. We were entertained by Paul Macy at Plymouth-Piedmont Church, Worcester; George Cary at the Bradford Church, Haverhill; Dr. Raymond Calkins at the First Church, Cambridge; Carl Knudsen at the Church of the Pilgrimage, Plymouth, and by Ray Gibbons at the First Church, Northampton. At these one-day sessions some of the problems of the modern effective church received thorough consideration, particularly those relative to the outreach of the church into the community and into the foreign field.

The quickening of the thought of the younger ministers toward the missionary program of the church was attempted by two conferences for pastors ordained within the last eight years. With Dr. Fagley's help, meetings were held in Watertown with Dr. Camp and in Northampton with Albert Penner, to which all the younger pastors of the state were invited.

In February, about the time of the Springfield Study Conference, yet in no way conflicting with that inspirational program, and again with the assistance of Dr. Fagley, pre-Lenten conversations were held at eight strategic centers for the pastors of the vicinity. The ministers of Essex and Andover met with Howard Bozarth at Haverhill, those of Pilgrim with Joseph McCorison at Braintree, Theodore Lathrop of Framingham entertained the ministers of that locality, and Roy Minich, of Malden, the pastors of Woburn Association. The Old Colony pastors met with William B. Mathews at New Bedford, the Cape pastors with Carl Schultz at Hyannis and the Worcester and Brookfield men with Earl Steeves in Leicester. Robert Underwood was the host to the ministers in the vicinity of Fitchburg.

While there is no question as to the inspirational value in the fellowship and varied program of these several types of meetings, it would seem as though in an ordinary year it would be much better to have fewer meetings and to continue them through longer periods, putting on at one time a more comprehensive and intensive program. Because there are over five hundred pastors in the state there seems to be wisdom in a plan of sectional convocations. To maintain the morale of its ministers, broadening their outlook, stimulating their thinking, building up their sense of comradeship and unity in a great cause, quickening their spiritual life, — this is one of the first and most important duties of our Conference. For this important work there should be always available sufficient funds to secure the best possible leadership. The caring for these Convocations might well be the obligation of the Committee on the Standards for the Ministry. We pride ourselves upon the standards for Congregational pastors set by this committee. We might well assign to them the responsibility of encouraging our pastors to maintain this high level of efficiency and spirituality.

Because the General Council meets this June in Massachusetts and the National Preaching Mission in Boston in December, the Trustees have thought well to omit the usual Convocation this fall.

In addition to these formal gatherings it has been a great satisfaction to have had so many informal meetings with individual pastors in their homes and beside my desk. It is a rare and sacred privilege which we have, as members of the Staff, in sharing the intimate and personal problems, aspirations and achievements. There was real uplift and encouragement when so many pastors individually responded to my invitation to join in the quiet moments of intercession each morning during Lent.

II. Associations

During the year several more Associations have adopted new constitutions, modeled after the form prepared under the direction of the State Office. Closer uniformity in organization will undoubtedly lead to a freer interchange of plans and programs, and to easier cooperation in matters of our common concern.

Last winter representatives from each Association met to discuss the possibility of synchronizing the dates of the semi-annual meetings of our twenty-one Associations. A schedule was developed whereby in both spring and fall, through a period of five weeks there would be but two meetings on any one day and these would be in adjacent territory. According to latest reports every Association has approved this arrangement, although in some instances it has required a change in by-laws. Such cooperative spirit strengthens the bonds of fellowship.

From my acquaintance with the working of the different Associations I have noticed three important matters that should receive careful thought. Perhaps it may be permissible for me, in this general meeting, to refer to these improvements in administration because they affect, not alone the individual groups but the wellbeing of our Conference as a whole. First, there is a laxity in some Ordination Councils. Failure to hold to the standards recommended by this Conference and the General Council may seriously embarrass the Conference in years to come. Another advance might be made by greater care in the important work of Nominating Committees. Too much thought cannot be given to the selection of leaders within the Association or of representatives of the Association in the larger work of the Conference. In the third place, I have discovered that the Association meetings best attended and most interesting are those for which a responsible committee has given adequate time and thought to the preparation of the program. It is expecting too much to ask the entertaining pastor to take the full charge of this responsibility.

III. Committees

You will be interested to know that at last the benevolence giving of our churches shows signs of improvement. This is true not only for the country as a whole but also here in Massachusetts. For instance, the comparative figures for the first four months of the past several years show that since 1927 there has been a gradual decrease, from $105,000 to $40,000 in 1935. Last year we dropped below the previous year something like $7,000. For the months of January, February, March and April in 1936 the gifts of the churches to our whole missionary work has increased over the amount in 1935 by $2,000. It should be noted that the bulk of this increase was in gifts to the work of the American Board, and not to our state work. We have reason, as a missionary-minded church, to thank God and take courage. Evidence is here of the value of the work that has been done by our state committee on Missions and Apportionment and the corresponding committees in the Associations.

Reference ought to be made to the excellent report of the Committee on Religious Education concerning the work accomplished and the program contemplated, particularly by the sub-committees on Young People's Work and on Summer Conferences. We are fortunate in having this well qualified, volunteer group, led by Dr. Harry T. Stock, Secretary of the national Education Society, willing to give their enthusiastic and intelligent guidance to this important department of Education.

In considering the appointment of a full time secretary for this department no one would question the importance of this work with young people. A member of the staff, charged with leadership in education, not alone for Children and Youth, but for Adults as well, and for education, — not only in Religion, but in Social Ethics and Missions, — would be a great asset. Inasmuch as some may question the advisability of incurring additional expense at the present time, it might be borne in mind that we have not yet tapped all the leadership resources available at the Congregational House. There are other national leaders, resident in Massachusetts, members of our churches, related to our Associations, who might be willing to put at our disposal some of their free time and much of their valuable experience. Quite properly the hearty thanks of this meeting should be extended to Dr. Stock for his generous assistance.

As in recent years, the administrative work of the Religious Education Committee has been done by Mrs. Allbright. She has, in a like capacity, served the State Young People's Committee. For the Conference, Mrs. Allbright has had charge of the Peace Plebiscite assisting the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, and has been the Managing Editor of the News Letter. It is a testimony of her popularity that she has been called upon frequently to speak before Young People's and Church School groups.

The Laymen's Committee, under the leadership of Mr. Wilfred Chapin, has made considerable progress in organizing the church men in several Associations. They planned a second Laymen's Supper Conference for this Annual Meeting with the definite intention of securing the attendance of a larger proportion of men. This year our committee has joined with those of the other New England states in promoting the Isles of Shoals Laymen's Conference, over the first week-end of August.

Congregationalism began in New England at Plymouth as a layman's Church. Functionally a Congregational Church is a laymen's organization. One of the great needs of today is to enlist the enthusiastic support of laymen and reawaken a sense of responsibility for the life and work of the Church. Several of our pastors have with marked success used a Laymen's Retreat for their officials. Over a week-end they have gone apart with their men to think together concerning the things of the Kingdom. Not every pastor or church is able to do this. Here is an opportunity for the Conference to promote a general program of Laymen's Retreats. The facilities of Andover-Newton Seminary are available for such a purpose. Our plans for the future should include a definite advance along this line. But aggressive work on the part of this committee as of the other Conference committees is dependent upon sufficient funds being provided by the churches to enable them to meet their opportunities.

IV. Evangelism

If one may rightly judge by the reports received from the churches, the past Lenten period has been one of marked spiritual development. More and more our churches are using this season for special services and our pastors are themselves giving able educational and religious leadership to their own people. Some valuable original material was prepared this year for Young People both by Paul McElroy in Manchester and Dr. H. D. Gray of South Hadley.

The Preaching Mission Program has been used with varying degrees of success in twelve of our churches. The season, the preparation, the program and the missioner, — these all have had much to do with determining the beneficial results. As the pastors have entered heartily and sympathetically into this program they have discovered its great possibilities for a sane evangelism.

The Conference appreciates the willing spirit of the ministers of the State who went out as Missioners. It was not always easy for them to leave their own churches, to give of their time and strength to this work, — nor for their churches to have them away, — and we would take this occasion publicly to thank them. We are well aware, too, of the splendid cooperation on the part of the pastors of the churches visited in making prayerful preparation for these services.

V. The Flood

As a result of our appeal for contributions toward a fund to aid parishes seriously affected by the flood, about three thousand dollars have been subscribed. The contributors have been churches, associations and individuals, 200 in number. We are hopeful of receiving checks from many more. Will you let this announcement be a reminder of the need and an invitation to participate.

VI. Staff

It gives me pleasure to express great satisfaction with what has been accomplished in his first year of service by the Field Secretary, George A. Tuttle. Realizing that his work would be effective only as it was built upon a foundation of good-will and friendly relationships, Mr. Tuttle has sought in various ways to meet ministers and church people of western Massachusetts. He has already made more than one hundred such contacts, and some fifty-eight churches have definitely turned to him for service in one form or another. He has given special study to the fifty or more churches receiving financial aid from the Conference. Of these twelve might be considered as problem fields and have required particular investigation. One federation of churches has been consummated and preparations are under way for another. Other realignments are under consideration. There is every indication that Mr. Tuttle is becoming a strong tie binding the churches and associations of western Massachusetts more closely to one another and more understandingly and cordially to the State Conference itself.

The past year has been a very active one for Mrs. Carver. As Secretary of the Woman's Work she has been accountable for the details of the Woman's Department, committee meetings, public meetings, supply lists for schools and hospitals, parsonage boxes, programs for local societies, together with many speaking appointments on behalf of the Home Boards.

For the Conference she has continued her oversight of appointments for Missionary Speakers and of the Missionary Projects. Information regarding the missionary work, both at home and abroad, together with recent letters from the field are always available from Mrs. Carver.

Mention should be made of an achievement in cooperation between the Conference and the Congregational Church Union of Boston. Many of you know of the very helpful work of this latter organization in aiding and directing building programs of our churches in Greater Boston and vicinity.

The C. C. U. has gained a wide experience, has assumed large responsibility and has made heavy investments, but recently its income has materially diminished.

Our Board of Trustees, at the suggestion of the Directors of the C. C. U., has decided to enter into a cooperative relationship with them. The plan provides for a joint "Committee on Churches and Parsonages" which shall confer on building Grants and make united recommendations to the Church Building Society. Thus will the Trustees and the Staff of the Conference become acquainted with the activities and methods of the Union and have a share in advising and counseling a new department. The arrangement is purely tentative and may be discontinued or developed as experience warrants.

This venture in the unification of Congregational interests in Boston may warrant further advance along this line. It is the outcome of the advice and vision of Dr. Frederick Harlan Page and is typical of the continued service to the Conference of its beloved and esteemed President Emeritus.

VII. The Future

Looking ahead, I have already suggested several objectives for our endeavor, — for instance, a comprehensive and intensive Convocation for Ministers; a definite plan of conferences for Laymen; the gradual development of a Department of Education; the provision of funds for Conference Committees in order that they may more fully meet their responsibilities.

Due to our declining income, the Trustees have been forced to reduce the salaries of some of our missionary pastors below the amount they should receive. The Board is about to inaugurate a definite program of further retrenchment in missionary Grants. We ought to plan, however, to maintain all truly missionary enterprises in the State, and to give each worker whom we do continue, an equitable and adequate salary. By encouraging some churches to unite, by requiring others to attempt self-support, and by transferring to local support some work which is not strictly a Conference obligation, we hope to carry on an aggressive program this year without drawing too heavily upon our capital resources.

A cooperative plan is being developed whereby the News Letters of the several State Conferences will be published simultaneously and will contain common material in the way of illustrations and general church news. To secure the benefit of this cooperative enterprise we will need to make radical changes in the publication of our News Letters. While the Board of Trustees favors this step, its inception will incur considerable initial expense, and its success will depend upon the assistance of every pastor and church.

In many communities there is great need of a thorough and complete religious survey. We ought to know, regarding several cities, the social and religious trends in order to plan wisely for a realignment of our churches.

With the impending increased migration of colored people to the North, we must prepare to support an enlarged program for our colored churches.

To maintain the annuities of retired ministers in our state at a minimum rate of $500, last year we gave to the Ministerial Boards a special appropriation. This year we were asked to do the same thing, but as yet have not done so. Next year the necessary contribution for this purpose will be a larger amount. The justice and heart appeal of this request is so apparent that we should be prepared to meet our obligation to the full.

Next fall the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America will conduct a National Preaching Mission in 25 leading cities of United States and Canada. Boston is to be one of these. The Mission will be held there Dec. 3, 4, 5, 6. Having had a little insight into the purpose and methods of the National Preaching Mission Committee, I have every expectation that the meetings in Boston will be productive of great spiritual good for all the churches of the Commonwealth, and particularly for our Congregational churches, inasmuch as we already have had some experience with, and have learned the value of, the Parish Preaching Mission.

To Boston there will come some fifteen of the outstanding religious leaders of the nation for these four days. Among the names that are better known stand those of Albert W. Beaven, E. Stanley Jones, Lynn Harold Hough, T. Z. Koo, George A. Buttrick, Douglas Horton, Muriel Lester, Daniel A. Poling, Merton S. Rice, Francis B. Sayre and Robert E. Spear. These will come, not to put on an exhibit of great preaching, nor to solve all our problems, not to raise money nor to promote any particular cause. They will come with the sincere desire to create the assurance that our needs can be met only by rededication; that our problems will be solved only by response to spiritual power and that the solution will be found, not in these visitors but in ourselves. Their one intent will be to help our people realize that the Christian Gospel is the greatest thing in the world, — more so than foreign missions, than religious education, than cooperatives. The purpose of the National Preaching Mission is to rebuild the foundations of Faith, to impart a new vision of God and convictions regarding God.

The program for the three week days will include on each morning a session for ministers, with the general theme, "Effective Preaching", and discussing on the successive days the Preacher, Preparation for Preaching, Preaching for the Mind of Today. On each morning there will also be a session for women, to consider the theme, "The Responsibility of Women for a Christian World." During the morning there will be a radio address. At noon each day there will be a public service in some down-town church, — also a luncheon for key laymen with an address and a similar luncheon for women.

On each afternoon from two to five o'clock there will be two groups of seminars for ministers and church leaders covering ten different vital subjects. At half past four there will be a Young People's session with an address and an opportunity for questions. At 6.00 o'clock there will be a supper conference for church workers. Each evening there will be a mass meeting, having the definite purpose of uplifting Jesus Christ as the power of God unto Salvation, — and within a radius of 25 miles there will be extension meetings in outlying centers. The Mission will close with a general meeting Sunday afternoon.

The ultimate purpose of this whole-souled, sacrificial effort is to arouse churches to sense the value of, and to inspire our leaders with enthusiasm for a program of individual parish missions. The important feature of the whole endeavor is this final general arrangement for a week or more of special services in local churches, these to be conducted by the pastor or a neighboring pastor or an evangelist.

Here is a program, therefore, that I believe the Congregational churches of Massachusetts should enter into most heartily. Not within twenty-five years, not since the Men and Religion Forward Movement, has there been such a concerted and genuinely religious effort on the part of the Protestant Churches of America.

I hope that it will be possible to offer every Congregational minister in the state free entertainment in Boston during this period, and that each church will be represented by some lay folk as well as the pastor. The National Preaching Mission is not an undertaking regarding which we can be indifferent or critical. Its very purpose and spirit make it a movement by which will be judged our worthiness to be leaders in the Christian Church.

God moves in a mysterious way
  His wonders to perform.
He plants His footsteps in the sea,
  And rides upon the storm.

Ye faithful saints, fresh courage take,
  The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
  In blessing on your head.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

It is an honor and a joy to report to you on the state of the churches in the Conference, especially the churches with which the Conference is cooperating financially. This is the first time that I have been asked to make an annual report. I do it now because the work heretofore done by the Registrar is now combined with the duties of the Secretary. Dr. Henry Lincoln Bailey, who served the Conference as Registrar for 27 years, had a passion for figures and statistics. He made them strut across the stage, clothed with life, and at times adorned with beauty. Dr. Bailey is truly a good man to follow but a hard man to equal. Massachusetts Congregationalism owes him an incalculable debt of gratitude. He has collaborated with me in preparing portions of the statistics for the national and state year books.

We have 26 churches, each with a thousand members or over. The largest is Holyoke, Second, with 1,883 members. The largest church school is Dorchester, Second, with 1,075 members.

In Massachusetts there are many elements that on the surface present divisive differences. There are three areas where these differences are most conspicuous: first, among peoples of native and foreign stocks; second, between the white and the colored races; third, between the people in the city and those in the country.

I.

In the first area, the people of foreign stock still have a voting majority. Among our total population of 4,249,000 people, 1,000,000 are foreign born, 1,700,000 are native born children of foreign parentage, leaving 1,500,000 of us of native American stock — 27 foreign to 15 native people in this old Puritan commonwealth, where up to 1691 no one could vote in the colony unless he was a member of the Congregational church. The percentage of people of foreign stock in Massachusetts and in several of our cities is as follows: Massachusetts, 64.2%; Boston, 71.50%; Chelsea, 84.4%; New Bedford, 77%; Brockton, 60%; Fall River, 78.4%; Worcester, 69.1%; Newton, 53%; Peabody, 71.1%. I welcome this as a pentecostal opportunity for the Kingdom of God. We are still preaching the gospel of Christ and doing his work in this commonwealth in 13 different foreign languages, the Polish work in Easthampton being discontinued, temporarily I hope. We have 35 foreign-speaking churches of recognized standing with a total membership of 3,254 members, a goodly number of people to save for Christ, many of whom, but for our faithful foreign pastors, might today be atheists and communists. Today, some of our foreign pastors, notably the Finns, are showing the friendly spirit of Christ to the atheist and the communist and in many cases are winning them for Christ. Christ is the only power, so far as I know, that will profoundly unify native and foreigner, Jew and gentile, bond and free, and fashion them into one happy people.

The Swedes seem to have been the first foreign group to organize churches in Massachusetts, our Swedish church in Worcester having been organized in 1880, and the Swedish churches in Lowell and Roxbury being organized the next year. No one of these three churches receives aid from the Conference.

Our work with our foreign-speaking people to me is exceedingly important. Their young people are proving themselves in school and in business and the professions to be keen and clean, ambitious and industrious.

We are reducing our grants, however, in nearly all our foreign fields. The Portuguese work in Falmouth has been discontinued as such; the Swedish churches in Beverly and in Rockport, Pigeon Cove, are planning to come together as a yoked field under one pastor; the two branches of the Cilician Armenian Church in Cambridge have within a month voted to come together as one united church; the Swedish church in Fitchburg has already promised to go ahead without financial aid from the Conference, beginning next fall.

Wherever there is a foreign-speaking church near an English-speaking church, the two churches should consider uniting as one church, all in a friendly, democratic spirit. On this spirit depends the coalescing of these two types of churches into one Church of Christ, made rich and strong by the union of two national cultures.

II.

An insane racialism threatens to disrupt the unity of our nation, our educational system, and even of our church. Christ has the power to unite all groups in himself. Racialism in the church rests on the assumption that the church is a social club and not a brotherhood in Christ. In the early church Paul had great difficulty setting Peter right on this matter. In the second chapter of Galatians, which deals with this, you will see why Dr. Lyman Abbott long ago remarked that if Peter was the first Pope, Paul was the first Protestant. We have four colored churches that the Conference is aiding and we count these four ministers and their people among our most loyal Christian workers in the state. The aid to our colored church in Amherst was discontinued on the death of their faithful minister, Rev. C. A. Gooding, last winter. Our wisest race leaders realize that the best way for any group to advance is not by coercion, but by showing themselves intellectually and morally superior. And many of our colored people are doing just this.

III.

The obstinate question still persists: "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" We answer, "Yes, come and see." In our cloud of answering witnesses I can see Mary Lyon, Russell H. Conwell, Marshall Field, Dwight L. Moody, William Cullen Bryant, Eugene W. Lyman, Emily Dickinson, Dr. Dyer, medical missionary in China, Miss Truesdell, another missionary in Africa, all and many others equally worthy and useful, who have come out of our little hill towns of less than 2,000 population. Are our rural towns producing such leaders today? Yes, some of them are. We think it is important to maintain the work of Christ with dignity and effectiveness in the rural towns of Massachusetts. From 1920 to 1930 in the United States at large there was a mass emigration from country to city. Massachusetts shared in this movement. In numbers, in the United States for example, there was a net total movement from country to city of 1,137,000 in 1922. For 1930, 1931, 1932, the tide reversed and ran to the country. But in 1933 and 1934 it was over 200,000 a year from country to city. In this city trek the ages 18 to 30 predominated. This means vigorous young people, seeking richer economic and cultural opportunity, many of them taking with them their savings from farming. The country towns lost money by this depletion. They had fed, clothed, educated and maintained the health of these youth for 15–30 years. O. E. Baker of the Department of Agriculture in Washington estimates that between 1920 and 1930 the rural contribution to the city in the United States, for the young people, in these four items of food, clothes, education and health, amounted to $1,400,000,000 a year. Of course this city population increase raised property values and promoted trade generally. This increase has probably been largely Protestant. With immigration a minus quantity now, but originally largely Roman Catholic, the general trend in the city ought to be helpful to our Protestant churches.

New England today has a well organized rural movement. The New England Town and Country Church Commission of which Dr. Kenyon Butterfield was President until his death last winter, and he has been succeeded by Rev. Hilda L. Ives — this Commission is studying and surveying the country towns, with a view to an "adequate and therefore a Christian rural civilization," more effective church work, more cooperation, fewer churches, more yoked fields, more Larger Parishes. It is cooperating with the denominational officers, the Massachusetts Council of Churches, the Extension Service of the Federal Department of Agriculture, and various other farm and rural organizations. I had the honor to be connected with it while in Maine and am still a member of its Board of Directors.

Affiliated with this, and acting as a source of supply for it, is the Inter-Seminary Commission for Training of the Rural Ministry, which is a piece of interdenominational cooperation among Yale, Hartford, Andover Newton, Boston University, and Bangor Theological Schools, to give special assistance to the rural churches of New England, especially in training ministers in the understanding of rural life and people, and in the special technique of the Larger Parish. Dr. Butterfield says in his book on "The Christian Enterprise among Rural People," "For effective church work the small, independent, open country church is doomed. Nor is the outlook more hopeful for the weak, competitive village church."

Our one Larger Parish in Massachusetts, at Rochester and Lakeville is doing valiant work with a reduced staff at present. We hope for a new member for the staff very soon. A Larger Parish is in the incubating stage in three different areas in the state, and I hope that within the year ahead they may all three break through the shell and come out into the light of day.

In regard to the rural church and community, Massachusetts especially needs:

1. A stronger sense of the importance and dignity of the rural church and community.

2. A larger understanding and appreciation of the rural and the city church, by each other.

3. A more frequent exchange between rural and city ministers. The Harvard and the Leyden Churches in Brookline, our church at West Newton and the Baptist churches in Melrose and Fall River last Sunday had five of our finest rural ministers preach in their pulpits, in observance of Rural Sunday.

4. The city should in some way compensate the country for the cost of its contribution to the city, which I have already referred to.

5. The rural ministry should have a spiritual and financial dignity so as to command a long, and in many cases the life, service of the minister.

6. The rural community should enjoy more of the cultural advantages enjoyed by the city, such as, musical concerts, public forums, adult education. I happen to be on the advisory committee of the Boston Center for Adult Education, and we would welcome any request for aid from any community in the state in this matter of adult education.

7. The rural church should more effectively follow its young people who move to the city, and the city church its young people who move to the country.

8. The rural church would be greatly encouraged and helped if city people, when they are in the country for a day, or a longer vacation, would attend the services or other functions of the rural church.

The Conference is cooperating with a number of our larger city churches which are doing valiant and valuable service amid the shifting currents of race and nationality, student and boarding house. Instead of retreating to the suburbs they are driving down their tent posts, and strengthening their lines and giving light and hope and courage to those who greatly need their help.

The inevitable trend today is toward cooperation and unity. Denominationalism as an end in itself has long outstayed its welcome. It has no more future than a cake of ice in May. We rejoice in the rich heritage of each one of the major denominations. But today these heritages belong to all of us. No denomination has any copyright on any of its sacred rights, memories or possessions. Our only hope of going ahead is in going ahead together. The federated church and the Larger Parish are steps in this direction. The union of the Christian denomination and the Congregational is another step ahead. The recent decision of the great Methodist Episcopal Church to unite with the Methodist Church South and the Methodist Protestant Church, in one strong group, is another step ahead, except for its abject surrender to race prejudice in segregating the Negro churches in a Conference by themselves. Unions like these were taking place in Canada in the Methodist, the Presbyterian and the Congregational fellowships, for a hundred years, preparing the way for the coming of the United Church of Canada, in 1925.

Our Roman Catholic friends have been far wiser than we have been in forming their churches. Counting only those persons 13 years old and over, the average size of a Roman Catholic church in the United States is 900 members, while the average size of a Protestant church is 178 members. In Massachusetts the average size of a Roman Catholic church is 1,659 members, 13 years of age and over, and of a Protestant church 243 members. The average size of our Congregational churches this year in Massachusetts is 268 over 13. In 1900 our average size per church, over 13, was 180. We are improving.

I am glad to report our spirit of interdenominational cooperation as revealed in this fact, namely, that out of the 55 federated churches, including united churches of various kinds, in this commonwealth today, 49 of these 55 have Congregational churches in them.

But the federated church is only a step forward — an important step in the right direction. There is something better in the future. I see the federated church up the street and I am proud of it. But beyond the federated church, farther up the road, beyond the colored church, beyond the foreign-speaking church, away on ahead up the hill I see gleaming in the sunlight of the new age the United Church of Christ in North America.

NECROLOGY

HENRY LINCOLN BAILEY

Twenty-one men holding their standing in ten of our Associations have been promoted to a higher fellowship within the year, Worcester Central losing five and Hampshire four. Their ages ranged from 87 to 52, averaging almost exactly 69 years. Three were pastors installed, three pastors, four pastors emeritus, and eleven were out of the pastorate, most of them on the retired list because of age or infirmity. Only five were born in this state, but 15 died here. Two were English, one Scotch, one a native of Barbadoes, while Vermont produced three, Maine, New York and Ohio two each, and Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Minnesota one each. Death came to one each in Maine, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, Florida and Quebec. Fourteen colleges from Glasgow to Chicago and Beloit, and fourteen seminaries, again from Glasgow to Chicago, contributed to the making of these ministers. Five had no pastorates outside of Massachusetts, and two had none inside. Their range included most of New England and the middle west, reaching to Utah and California on the west, and to Quebec, the American Church in Berlin, and Harpoot.

George Irving Adams had a short pastorate in Vermont. When health permitted he was a teacher, chiefly in Pennsylvania, retiring to a farm in Boylston before he was 50. William Baker Allis was early and briefly at Haverhill, Arlington and Waltham, his connection being chiefly with the New York Conference. George Albert Furness had a five-year pastorate at West Tisbury, and stayed on as a resident ten years more. Clarence A. Gooding, a black brother from the West Indies, came to Amherst a score of years ago as a cabinet maker. In 1920 he was ordained as a Methodist and in '29 he took over our Hope Church also. Within the past year he transferred his standing to Hampshire Association and died in the true faith. Tragedy stalked the pathway of Marshall N. Goold. His first pastorate was stopped by illness. He was a chaplain in the Boer war, and served through the World War on the Belgian front, twice gassed, twice wounded. With exceptional literary talent, he was persuaded to serve Union Church in Worcester as pastor for nine years, interrupted by ill health which finally caused a self-inflicted death. Frederick Burnham Lyman, fifteen years at Fairhaven and Shrewsbury, gave up for health reasons in 1915, living thenceforth in Maine. Robert William McLaughlin had a single pastorate here, at Piedmont Church, Worcester, after service in Wisconsin, Michigan and New York, and followed by three years at the American Church in Berlin.

Harlan Paul Metcalf, pastor at Warwick and Wendell since 1934 had served a number of churches as assistant pastor in Iowa, Michigan and Ohio, and in Y. M. C. A. work in Indiana and Minnesota, since 1900. After a 15-year pastorate at Madison, Ohio, he came to the little parish in Franklin County where he died last week.

Charles Lincoln Morgan was the first pastor of Hope Church, Springfield, 60 years ago. In 1880 he went to Illinois for 14 years. He came back to minister 10 years to Central Church, Jamaica Plain, went back to Illinois for another 14 years, and then became pastor of Payson Park in Belmont for nine years. Jesse Gilman Nichols had a 12-year pastorate at Hamilton and then began a service at South Hadley lasting 29 years. Ira William Pierce, born in western New York, was virtually a Canadian, by education and pastorates in Quebec before and since his five-year service at Harpoot under the American Board. He lodged his credentials with the Suffolk West Association in 1915 and never transferred back. I cannot think of Thomas Cole Richards as a bird of passage, yet he had seven pastorates in 38 years, two in Connecticut and five with us, at Dudley, Warren, Westboro, Bethany in Quincy, and Mystic in Medford, where he has been pastor emeritus since 1928. He was a prolific publicist and author. Charles Loring Skinner had 30 years of pastoral service in Maine and New Hampshire, broken by a year at Harwich Port and later by a year as superintendent of the Walker Home at Auburndale, after which he had nine years at Greenwich, Hamilton and Douglas.

Among all these commissioned officers in the Lord's army, one had received the field marshal's baton, and the whole Congregational host gasped at the news of Jay Thomas Stocking's unexpected death. Mounting steadily to the height where it is difficult to estimate how much one parish differeth from another parish in glory, he came back last year to the city of his longest service but to another church. And suddenly he was not, for God took him. He was on our Conference program last year, inspiring us. And while we were in session another brother passed out without warning when Carlyle Summerbell dropped after speaking at the Unitarian annual meeting. He had been pastor of Christian churches in Swansea and Fall River, as well as prominent elsewhere.

Joseph Brainerd Thrall had time to spend six years at Pepperell and ten at Leicester in the midst of transcontinental moves from California to Connecticut to Utah to New York and Massachusetts to South Dakota to North Carolina, and he lacked less than a month of reaching 86. Last week Frederick James Ward, briefly pastor emeritus at Southampton after a dozen years of service there, ended his career. Of English birth and Baptist training, he had three Baptist pastorates in this state before going to Southampton. Carey Herbert Watson was 23 years with Greenfield First Church and later made pastor emeritus, and five years at Phillipston. Charles Burditt Williams, ordained a Baptist 39 years ago had two Congregational pastorates in New Hampshire and two with us at Greenwich and Colrain. Charles Henry Williams, trained a Methodist, stepped like several others from Boston University into our ranks, with pastorates in Cambridge, Gloucester and Jamaica Plain, and wielding our moderator's gavel in 1925. Frederick Arthur Wilson was pastor seven years at Billerica and 31 at the Free Church in Andover, becoming church clerk and pastor emeritus in 1920.

Besides these 21 members of our Conference, there are 13 others who have ministered in the past to one or more of our churches. August L. Anderson was six years with the First Swedish Church in Worcester, and twice had a two-year pastorate in Orange. Truman D. Childs was at Rochester, Chatham and Manomet for two years each. William Weston Evans was two years at Northbridge Center, and had very recently ended his five years at West Brookfield. Frank Hugh Foster of Oberlin began his career in the North Reading church for two years. William H. Hainer ministered to the Christian Church in New Bedford four years half a century ago. Joseph Burnett Long was pastor three years at Woods Hole. Caleb Lamb Rotch spent a dozen years in two pastorates at Stoughton, and was also at Edgartown, North Rochester and Lakeville. Frank C. F. Scherff organized our German church at Clinton in '87, remaining four years. Charles Howard Shank began his ministry with nine years at the Christian church in North Dighton. William Frederick Slocum, identified with Colorado College nearly half a century, began with a six-year pastorate at Union Church, Amesbury. Charles E. Stenman spent eight years with our Finnish churches in Worcester and Quincy. Samuel Gordon Tucker served Kingston and Magnolia four years. Thomas Eynon Williams was three years at North Wilbraham. I have just time to mention three of our native sons who found their fields of service outside our borders: Enoch Hale Burt, born in Westhampton, spending 37 of his 49 pastoral years in Connecticut; Charles Edwin Gordon, born in Lawrence in 1848, serving in all our bordering New England states, and Wilbur Leroy Wood, born in Groveland and ordained there before going to Vermont and Rhode Island.

AUDITORS' REPORT

Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, President, Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society,
Boston, Mass.

Sir: — We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ending March 31, 1936, and we hereby certify that income receivable from invested funds has been duly accounted for; that all payments have been properly vouched; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds; that the cash in banks has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1936, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ending at that date.

Respectfully submitted,
Patterson, Teele & Dennis.

May 7, 1936.

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Thirteen cents per member is still asked of the churches. Seven cents of the thirteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of.....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of $377,000. It makes no charge for its service. If any extra expense is incurred (expense for legal service, for example) that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. On funds which can be combined in investment (Funds B) the Conference has earned and paid churches the last year at the rate of 4.7%. Funds which have to be kept separate in investment have yielded about 4.4%.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters. The churches may avail themselves of the service of this ability and experience without expense.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD

PRESIDENT, MR. JOHN A. DALE

CLERK, MRS. ELMER T. OTTING TREASURER, REV. GARRETT V. STRYKER, D.D.

In co-operation with the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, the Congregational Union of Springfield supervises the home missionary work in Springfield.

All contributions for home missionary work in Massachusetts by the churches of Springfield should be made to the Congregational Union, and will be credited on the apportionment. In accordance with the mutual agreement between the two organizations, ten per cent of the contributions for current work received by the Union is paid over to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

The Congregational Union of Springfield is incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts and may receive bequests and hold property.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, REV. MYRON W. FOWELL

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, by agreement with the Worcester City Missionary Society, is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of home missionary churches in Worcester in their current work, while the Worcester City Missionary Society represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for aiding churches in property matters, contributing toward the purchase and maintenance of property and the payment of building debts.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

It has been voted to omit from this volume the Reports of Boards and Committees which were printed in the Advance Reports and distributed before the meeting in Brookline. Any person desiring a copy of these Reports for filing with the Minutes may obtain it by writing to Secretary A. V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a foot-note on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members and families are reported as numbered January 1, 1936. Admissions and removals cover the year 1935. "Absent" are not additional to "males," "females" and "total," but included in them. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1936. or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i."; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r."; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

In the above table, the columns of "Additions," "Removals," "Baptisms," and "Benevolent Contributions" cover the twelve months next preceding January 1 of the year mentioned in a given line. The number of churches, members, and of Sunday Schools was enumerated January 1 of the year mentioned.

CHURCH CLERKS

The names of clerks having been omitted in the condensed Year Book schedules, they are given here. Where no address accompanies the name it is the same as that of the church. The numbers correspond to the church numbers in the schedules. Where a number is omitted it indicates no clerk reported from that church.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF MINISTERS

This list gives the names of pastors, or acting pastors, and of all Congregational ministers who are members of the Associations that guard ministerial standing.

Ministers who are not reported as having ministerial standing in this state, and who have not been installed by council, are designated by a star (*). This does NOT mean that the man has no ministerial standing.

The first column of figures gives the page on which names may be found of all in pastoral service. A blank in the first column signifies that the person is not reported as being in pastoral service in this state.

The second column of figures gives the page on which ministerial standing is recorded.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

An alphabetical list of licentiates follows this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—IF your name is not correctly printed in the preceding tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman), and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Field Secretary, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Young People's Secretary. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two,— beginning with the year 1935,— each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.
(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.
(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.
(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.
(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in cooperation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such others duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretary shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President; and he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within his territory as may welcome his services. It is intended that his field of activity shall be chiefly in the western part of the State.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Young People's Secretary shall encourage and promote Christian living and Christian activities among the young people of the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall be particularly interested in assisting each church in developing and organizing the latent Christian power of its young men and young women. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this department shall be to enlist the earnest and systematic co-operation of women in the cause of missions, to support the special work committed by the national Home and Foreign Boards of the denomination to this Commonwealth, to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ. The voting members of this department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the department. The women members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference, together with an equal number of members to be elected by the department, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the department's work.

2. The department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee, which shall propose to the department the additional members of its executive committee. This nominating committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them, some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:
   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.
   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.
2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:
   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.
   (b) A Program Committee, of which the Registrar of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Registrar on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

LOWELL, MAY 17, 18, 1937

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS.—President, Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. John Albree, Swampscott; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice, Rev. Robert Wood Coe.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation.....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

According to the vote of the Conference, contributions for the year 1937 are divided as follows, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing church:

American Board	41.00%
Board of Home Missions	42.50%
Council for Social Action	2.50%
Mass. Cong'l Conference and Missionary Society	13.00%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1.00%

Checks should be made payable to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Honorary Life Membership in the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society may be secured by a gift of thirty dollars, by a church or individual. Gifts made at different dates within the limits of any one fiscal year may be applied to Honorary Life Membership, if the wish for such application is expressed when the gifts are made.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1937, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

MINUTES OF THE 138th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

MONDAY MORNING

The 138th Annual Meeting of the Conference was called to order at 10.00 o'clock by the Moderator, Mr. Wilbur E. Rowell of Lawrence.

The Service of Worship was conducted by the Chaplain of the Conference, Rev. Howard J. Chidley of Winchester, who indicated the "Marks of a Vital Church" as still the same as those which rendered the tabernacles "amiable" in the heart of the Psalmist. In the church today, lonely hearts find highest fellowship, both human and divine.

The Moderator announced the appointment of committees as follows:

Business Committee—Mr. Roy A. Hovey, Chairman; Rev. J. Harold Dale, Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Mrs. Ethelbert V. Grabill, Rev. Carl H. Kopf, Mr. S. H. Thompson, Mr. Thomas Todd.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Henry Lincoln Bailey, Rev. Arba J. Marsh, Rev. John H. Sargent.

Deacons Appointed to Serve at the Communion Service Tuesday Evening—Mr. Warren S. Woodward, Chairman; Messrs. Edward B. Cornell, Walter W. Grant, George M. Heath, Percy C. Judd, Royal T. McCloughry, Raymond R. McCoy, John R. Peacock.

The Advance Reports of the Conference committees, which had been sent by mail to pastors and delegates, were submitted for discussion as follows:

The report of the Committee on Religious Education was presented by Rev. Harry T. Stock, Chairman. Sections of the report were signed by the chairmen of the following subcommittees: Children's Work, Miss Mildred Widber; Young People's Work, Rev. Leon E. Grubaugh, who is the Adult Adviser of the Pilgrim Fellowship; and Summer Conferences,

Rev. Ray Gibbons. Among major tasks for 1937–38 are the development of the Pilgrim Fellowship, energetic promotion of summer conferences, and systematic promotion of the Pilgrim Highroad among young people's groups of the state. This report was accepted.

The reports of the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry were presented as printed, and accepted.

The report of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald, who stressed the importance of certain sections: those dealing with the trend towards Fascism under the guise of patriotism; the gambling peril; and the multiform menace of the liquor situation. The following recommendations, after strenuous debate from the floor, were adopted:

1. To abolish the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission and to leave the matter of granting and revoking all licenses for the sale of alcoholic beverages to the local authorities.
2. To limit the number of licenses of all classes to not more than one to every 1,000 of the population of each town and city.
3. To forbid the granting of licenses of all classes to so-called clubs organized for the purpose, wholly or chiefly, of selling alcoholic beverages.

The Committee is also instructed to study the matter of further restricting the hours of sale of alcoholic beverages and to take any action in the matter which it may deem advisable.

The report of the Woman's Department and the report of the Boston Seaman's Friend Society were accepted.

The report of the Committee on Missions and Apportionment was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Hugh Penney of Lowell. It was recommended that the goal for apportionment giving in 1937 be $350,000. This recommendation was adopted.

It was recommended also that the apportionment giving in 1938 be divided, unless otherwise designated by the donors, according to the following schedule:

American Board	40.00%
Board of Home Missions	41.00%
Council for Social Action	2.50%
State Conference	15.50%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1.00%
	100.00%

This recommendation was discussed quite at length and the matter was referred to the Business Committee. It was announced that a hearing would be held in the evening in one of the rooms in the church.

The report of the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply was accepted, after a few words from the Secretary, Rev. Charles C. Merrill.

At 11.35 Rev. Frank Jennings, Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, outlined areas where Protestantism can do effective work by, and only by, co-operation. United Protestantism now faces the most urgent social exigencies.

After a brief recess, the Rev. Raymond Calkins of Cambridge gave a masterly address on "The Dignity of Missions." Missions can be rebuilt upon adequate foundations only on the four basic Christian assumptions, implicit in the Feeding of the Five Thousand:

1. The claim of Christ to be the Saviour of every person.
2. The common hunger of people for spiritual reality.
3. Human incompetency to meet the need which Jesus alone can satisfy.
4. When disciples, under Christ, face their total tasks, meager supplies become adequate resources.

MONDAY AFTERNOON

At 2.00 o'clock the Conference reassembled and the worship service was conducted by the Chaplain. His subject was "God and a Vital Church."

The next business was the reports of officers of the Conference. The first report was that of the President, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, who presented a comprehensive forward-looking report, which may be found elsewhere in these Minutes. He made a recommendation that the Conference make whole-hearted endorsement of the following resolution, and at his request Rev. J. Burford Parry and Mr. Elbert A. Harvey, addressed the Conference on this recommendation, with the result that the Conference

Voted: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society endorse the recommendation of the Executive Committee of the General Council that an effort be made by the denomination to raise the sum of $1,500,000, to be used, principal and interest, for the payment of a $500 annuity to our aged ministers, their widows and orphans, who are not fully protected by the annuity plan. The splendid services rendered to our churches by these brethren lays upon us a moral obligation to protect them in their old age."

The report of the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, which is printed elsewhere in these Minutes, was then presented to the Conference, reviewing the year's work. A special feature was the roll-call of Massachusetts ministers, each of whom had been pastor of one Congregational church for more than thirty years.

The Acting-Treasurer of the Conference, Mr. Arthur W. Davis, at this point presented his report, which is printed elsewhere.

Reference was inevitably made in all these reports to the long years of wise and conscientious service rendered by the late Treasurer, Rev. Oliver D. Sewall. See page 35.

The following officers and committees were then elected:

Moderator—Rev. Clarence E. Hellens, Fall River.
Vice-Moderator—Mr. Ethelbert V. Grabill, Jamaica Plain.
Recording Secretary—Rev. William Boicourt, Shirley.
Chairman of Department of Woman's Work—Mrs. Robert P. Trask, Lexington.
Vice-Chairman of Department of Woman's Work—Mrs. Percy C. Campbell, Watertown.
Trustees—1937–1941:
Rev. Dwight L. Cart, Marblehead, Essex South Association.
Mrs. Will R. Moody, East Northfield, Franklin Association.
Mr. Frank Auchter, West Springfield, Hampden Association.
Mrs. John L. Findlay, Taunton, Old Colony Association.
Miss Ethel Howard, Worcester, Worcester Central Association.
*Mr. Arthur E. Barlow, Worcester, Member-at-Large.
Mr. W. W. Ollendorf, West Medway, Member-at-Large.

* Mr. Barlow declined to serve and Mr. S. H. Thompson was elected in his place.

1937–1938:
Mrs. Horace F. Holton, Brockton, Pilgrim Association.
(To fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Francis L. Cooper.)

1937–1940:
Mr. William F. Farley, Waltham, Suffolk West Association.
(To fill the unexpired term of Mr. Holley A. Wilkinson.)

Executive Officers

President—Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Belmont.
Secretary—Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Wollaston.
Treasurer—Mr. Myron S. Burton, Auburndale.
Field Secretary— Rev. George A. Tuttle, Northampton.
Secretary of Woman's Work—Mrs. Mary R. Carver, Auburndale.
Young People's Secretary—Mrs. Manley F. Allbright, Allston.

Committees

(All terms expire at the Annual Meeting in the year indicated.)

Program Committee—Rev. Roswell F. Hinkelman, Framingham Center, 1938; Mrs. Elbert A. Harvey, Chestnut Hill, 1939; Mr. George A. Rogers, Monson, 1940; Rev. Frank H. Gardner, Pottersville, 1940.

Board of Pastoral Supply—Mr. Burton S. Flagg, Andover, 1940; Rev. K. A. Handanian, Ware, 1940; Mr. Sargent H. Wellman, Topsfield, 1940.

Trustees for the Seaman's Friend Society—Rev. William B. Oliver, Vineyard Haven, 1938; Rev. Robert M. Bartlett, Longmeadow, 1940; Dr. E. H. Bigelow, Framingham Center, 1940; Rev. A. P. Pratt, Greenfield, 1940; Mr. Donald H. Whittemore, Brookline, 1940; Rev. Edmund A. Burnham, Essex, 1940.

Trustees of the Board of Ministerial Aid—Rev. Robert W. Coe, Brookline, Mr. Carleton L. Ellison, Framingham.

Committee on Religious Education—Rev. Earl Vinle, Springfield, 1939; Rev. William B. Mathews, New Bedford, 1940; Rev. Clyde H. Roddy, Great Barrington, 1940; Miss Bessie M. Stratton, Newton Centre, 1940; Miss Mildred C. Widber, Boston, 1940.

Committee on Relation of Churches and Colleges—(Term expiring in 1938)—Rev. Garrett V. Stryker, Springfield; Mr. David R. Porter, Gill; Miss Margaret R. Hamlin, Amherst; Rev. Robert M. Bartlett, Longmeadow; Rev. John A. Hawley, Amherst.

Regional Committee—(Term expiring in 1940)—Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Belmont; Mrs. Robert P. Trask, Lexington; Rev. Robert L. Underwood, Fitchburg.

Committee on Moral and Social Welfare—Dr. John F. Jordan, Peabody, 1939; Mrs. Benjamin C. Lane, West Roxbury, 1940; Rev. Harold E. Martin, Foxboro, 1940; Mr. Herman Richter, Bridgewater, 1940.

Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry—(Term expiring in 1938)—Rev. Francis L. Cooper, Brockton, Rev. Vaughan Dabney, Newton Center; Rev. Edward U. Cowles, Westfield; Rev. Frank E. Duddy, Cambridge; Rev. Daniel I. Gross, Athol; Rev. Albert J. Penner, Northampton.

Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League—(Term expiring in 1938)—Rev. Manley F. Allbright, Allston; Rev. Edward C. Camp, Watertown; Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Dorchester; Mr. Philip Emerson, Lynn; Mrs. John H. Hollis, Swampscott; Mr. A. W. Robinson, Natick; Rev. Edwin B. Robinson, Holyoke; Rev. E. Talmadge Root, Somerville; Mr. S. H. Thompson, Lowell.

Congregational Representatives on the Massachusetts Council of Churches—(Term expiring in 1940)—Rev. Frederick W. Alden, Taunton; Mr. James S. Allen, Winchester; Rev. B. Kenneth Anthony, Belmont; Miss Lydia Chace, Westport; Mrs. Vaughan Dabney, Newton Centre; Rev. John A. Douglas, Centerville; Rev. Frank E. Duddy, Cambridge; Mr. F. H. Grebe, West Newton; Rev. Ferdinand J. Loungway, Jamaica Plain; Rev. James H. Perkins, Boston; Rev. Harry T. Stock, Boston; Rev. Andrew Richards, Dorchester; Mrs. Earl Taylor, Watertown; Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Belmont; Rev. Olin B. Tracy, Melrose; Rev. Raymond A. Waser, Amherst; Mrs. Charles L. Ziegler, Waban.

Nominating Committee—(Term expiring in 1939)—Mrs. James S. Allen, Winchester; Mr. W. W. Ollendorff, West Medway; Rev. George E. Cary, Bradford; Rev. S. Ross, Swift, Hinsdale.

Committee on Church Attendance—(Term expiring in 1938)—Mr. Eskel O. Carlson, Hyde Park; Rev. Clinton W. Carvel, North Andover; Rev. George L. Thurlow, Concord.

Committee on Preaching Mission—(Term expiring in 1938)—Rev. Frederick W. Alden, Taunton; Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, Westboro; Rev. Richard H. Bennett, Belmont; Rev. Robert W. Coe, Brookline; Rev. Francis A. Drake, North Hadley; Rev. Harry W. Kimball, Needham; Rev. Roy L. Minich, Malden; Rev. Andrew Richards, Dorchester; Rev. Ralph H. Rogers, Auburndale.

Rev. Alexander McKenzie, Manager of the Pilgrim Press Book Store, then spoke on "What Ministers are Reading." Mr. McKenzie carried into the pulpit fifteen books, upon each of which he made fresh, discerning comments. The books were: "The Greek Way," Edith Hamilton; "Motive and Method in a Christian Order," Stamp; "The Feast of Quails," Chidley; "Manual of Congregational and Christian Churches," Burton; "The Art of Living," Peale; "A Theology for Christian Missions," White; "The Psychology of Christian Personality," Ligon; "Great Men of the Bible," Bowie; "Paradoxes of Jesus," Sockman; "A Chain of Prayers Across the Ages," Emrich; "The Business Administration of a Church," Cushman; "Discovering Jesus," Weston; "We Are Able," Weigle; "The Flowering of New England," Brooks; "In the Steps of St. Paul," Morton.

Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, School Minister, Phillips Andover Academy, spoke effectively upon what is central in all religion: "The Idea of God." God is spirit, as Jesus insisted, and the things of the spirit, like friendship and loyalty and love, can never be weighed or measured. Religion has been defined as the acceptance of the idea that "what is highest in religion is deepest in nature."

At 4.20 a seminar was held by the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald, Chairman, presiding. Mrs. Royal Whiting commended the use of the literature now being prepared by the Council for Social Action. Special numbers of "Social Action," for example, have been ordered in large quantities by groups and organizations throughout the country.

Mrs. Margueritte Bro of the Council for Social Action in the Chicago area, gave a vital and timely address. With illustrations from many states, she spoke of new interest and new life coming to churches, large and small, which undertake to serve life as they find it in their immediate communities.

At 6.00 o'clock there were four simultaneous supper conferences:

Mr. Wilfrid H. Chapin presided at the conference held for laymen at the First Congregational Church. Mr. Frank Auchter of Springfield addressed the laymen present on "The Layman and the Vital Church." The attendance was one hundred eighty-five, ninety per cent of whom were men representing churches east of Worcester. There were four associations not represented: Barnstable, Berkshire South, Brookfield and Worcester North.

There was a conference for the women, Mrs. E. V. Grabill, presiding, at the Highland Church, at which two hundred and sixty-seven women were present. The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Department followed in the auditorium. Mrs. Grabill reviewed the year's work, and after new directors and committees were elected and presented, she introduced the new Chairman, Mrs. Robert P. Trask. One interesting item reported by Mrs. Carver was the preparation of supplies for parsonages, schools and hospitals, during the year, valued at $13,352.

The young people met in the dining hall of All Souls Church. There were two hundred forty-seven at the supper and about twenty-five more came in for the program after the supper. Mr. Stanley Maxwell, President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship, presided and presented Rev. Leon Grubaugh, who explained the purpose of the National Pilgrim Fellowship. Mr. Maxwell gave the results of the survey which had recently been made in our state. Mr. Porter Bower of the Pilgrim Press spoke on the "Pilgrim Highroad," and the new Pilgrim Fellowship binder. Rev. Ray Gibbons emphasized attendance at summer conferences. This was followed by the main address of the evening by Mrs. Margueritte Bro of the Council for Social Action. After this address the group moved into the parish house to witness the play, "C'est la Guerre," put on by the Peace Players of Malden.

The ministers' supper conference, Dean Vaughan Dabney, presiding, was held at the First Presbyterian Church, with an address by President Albert W. Palmer on "The Ministry's New Day." President Palmer warned that the Totalitarian State is a religion rivalling Christianity today. It has its sacred writings, its symbols, its messiahs, its pageants and requirements for "church membership." It is a revival of the Roman worship of the State. Wherever it comes to power, Christianity is driven to the wall. Totalitarianism, like other religions, has its denominations. They claim to be different, but in reality Communism, Fascism, Naziism are one religion: the worship of the State.

MONDAY EVENING

The service of worship was conducted by the Chaplain, who read Hebrews 11: 1–12, and led in prayer.

Music was furnished by the Eliot-Union Church choir, under the direction of Mr. Fred Booth.

Rev. Henry Lincoln Bailey presented the Necrology of the Conference, giving brief items of interest in the life and work of pastors and former pastors who have died during the past twelve months.

A service of appreciation of Rev. Oliver D. Sewall, the late Treasurer, who died March 16, 1937, was conducted by Rev. Edward C. Camp of Watertown, who spoke with feeling and discernment, and preceded his own remarks by reading an appreciation written by Rev. Frederick H. Page, President Emeritus, whose illness prevented his personal participation.

The work of the Board of Ministerial Aid was presented by Rev. Austin Rice of Wakefield, for which an offering was taken, amounting to $162.98.

An address was then given by President Albert W. Palmer of the Chicago Theological Seminary, entitled "Walking with God, Today." Preceding the address the choir sang, appropriately, an anthem, "Oh for a Closer Walk with God." President Palmer spoke with sincerity and simplicity. He began by challenging our God-given imagination to picture to ourselves what walking with God meant for Enoch, Micah and the two who walked toward Emmaus. He ended with an appeal to walk with God today along those paths where His ongoing purposes depend upon our co-operation. The growing edge, so to speak, is that area in the world where great social changes are already taking place.

TUESDAY MORNING

The session was opened by the Moderator at 9.00 o'clock. On the recommendation of the Business Committee it was VOTED: That the Conference notes with special gratitude the careful preparation made by the churches of Lowell for this meeting. No need has been overlooked. We express our thanks especially to the minister and people of Eliot-Union Church.

The Business Committee also reported that it carried out the instructions of the Conference and forwarded the following telegram to Dr. Page:

"The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, in session at Eliot-Union Church, Lowell, sends love and best wishes with prayers for a speedy and complete recovery."

The Business Committee reported on the matter of apportionment percentages, previously referred to them, and upon which a hearing had been held, and recommended that the apportionment percentages for 1938 be as they were in 1937, as follows:

American Board	41.00%
Board of Home Missions	42.50%
Council for Social Action	2.50%
State Work	13.00%
Boston Seaman's Friend	1.00%
	100.00%

and that the State Conference Trustees be urged to take such advance steps as are deemed necessary to accomplish the work of the Conference. This recommendation was adopted.

A highly inspirational address was given by Prof. Edwin P. Booth of Boston University, who spoke upon Evangelism and the secret of the success of our outstanding evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, from the standpoint of the Church Historian, under the title, "Tell no Story but Your Own." Evangelism is limited to no type of theology or personality or degree of education. It is effective, however, and effective only, when one is able to speak of his own experience of God in Christ.

Two important addresses were given by Rev. George W. Owen of Hyde Park and Rev. Paul B. Myers of Mattapoisett, upon the subject of "Children at Work in a Vital Church." At Hyde Park, baptized children are accounted child members of the church and brought once a year for reconsecration. Special work for and by the children makes them feel that they are a vital part of the whole church. At Mattapoisett, which is a smaller church with only two rooms, one above and one below, Sunday School Departments meet at different hours and in complete co-ordination with the church worship service.

A very vital section of the Conference program was then presented by the Committee on Religious Education, under the general title, "Young People at Work in a Vital Church." Rev. Harry Thomas Stock, Young Poeple's Secretary of the Congregational Education Society, spoke on the National Pilgrim Fellowship and told of its beginning and growth. Rev. Leon E. Grubaugh, Adult Adviser of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship, spoke on the work in the state and urged the co-operation of the churches in the special group meetings which are being held. He also urged that churches reply to the questions asked in the State Young People's Survey.

Rev. Ray Gibbons, Chairman of Summer Conferences, stressed the importance of this growing phase of activity in vital churches.

Mr. Roger Babson, Moderator of our General Council, was discovered in the audience and introduced to the Conference and spoke briefly on the importance of the Young People's Work.

The session was closed by a service of worship by the Chaplain, who spoke on the subject, "People and a Vital Church." The main business of the ministry is the care of souls. People are lonely and long for friendship, especially those suffering from poverty and sickness and sorrow. In many cases laymen and laywomen can do what the minister himself cannot do in this service of all the people. In many parishes, unfortunately, the only contact between church and people is the appeal for money.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The session was resumed at 2.00 o'clock.

The matter of choosing the place for the next Annual Meeting had been referred to the Business Committee, and they reported their decision to accept the invitation of the Edwards Church, Northampton, to hold the meeting there. However, Rev. J. Frank Robinson of the Allin Church, Dedham, urged that the meeting be held at his church, inasmuch as they are planning to celebrate their 300th anniversary at that time, and it was VOTED: That the Allin Church, Dedham, be substituted for the Edwards Church, Northampton, as the place of the next Annual Meeting.

Inasmuch as Mr. Arthur E. Barlow of Worcester declined to serve as a Trustee, the Nominating Committee presented the name of Mr. Samuel H. Thompson of Lowell, who was elected a Trustee-at-Large.

The Business Committee presented the following resolutions, which had been submitted to them by Rev. Edward C. Camp:

Whereas, a law was enacted by the legislature in 1936, requiring the payment for transportation of pupils to private schools not run for profit in whole or in part under certain conditions; and

Whereas, this law is held by a great number of people to be unconstitutional in spirit and also in letter and a violation of the agreement in the constitutional convention when this article was passed; and

Whereas, it constitutes a violation of the fundamental principles of entire separation of church and state; and

Whereas, we freely and fully recognize the right of any citizen or body of citizens to establish schools for the teaching of any system of religious truths, provided no aid, direct or indirect, is given such schools from the public funds; therefore

Be It Resolved: That this Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, representing over 600 Congregational and Christian Churches with more than 170,000 members, the far greater number of whom are of voting age, respectfully request and urge that the Massachusetts Legislature pass House Bill No. 1218, repealing the act of 1936 named above, at the beginning of its next session in January, 1938, to which time this bill has been referred; and further

Be It Resolved: That copies of these resolutions be sent to the President of the Massachusetts Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, respectively.

These resolutions were adopted.

Rev. Joseph L. McCorison of Braintree announced the New England Institute of International Relations to be held at Wellesley College, June 29 to July 9, 1937.

Mr. Rowell presented Rev. Clarence E. Hellens of Fall River, the Moderator-elect, who spoke briefly.

The Chairman of the Credentials Committee was authorized to complete the roll. This roll, as completed, is as follows:

Number of churches represented:

By pastor only	83
By pastor and one delegate	73
By pastor and two delegates	100
Total churches	290
Individuals	574
Total net enrollment		605

The Recording Secretary, in co-operation with the staff, was authorized to complete the Minutes.

Supt. Arthur J. Davis, representing the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League, spoke of the insidious, and, sadly enough often unsuspected, encroachment of the liquor power upon every vital interest of the church.

Rev. Henry C. McDowell, representing Negro Congregationalists at Galangue, West Africa, presented phases of African tribal life which, sympathetically understood, afford opportunity to preach Christ both as interpreter and "finisher" of Africa's higher faith. We may call them primitives, as compared with our present civilization, if we humbly and penitently remember that we of this present civilization are ourselves primitives, as compared with the New Age that ought to come.

At 3.00 o'clock Rev. Hugh Vernon White spoke on the topic: "God Still Loves the World." This topic, he said, is contrary to the prevailing nationalisms of the time, political, economic, and now even religious. A world of men and not of nations must be the object of our love if our love is to be like God's. The love of God is passionate and particular. Christianity, almost alone, stands for the worth and dignity of the person.

At 4.30, under the auspices of the Andover Women's District, a pageant, "Sealed Orders," was given in St. Anne's Church, under the direction of Mrs. Nathan Pulsifer of Lowell, presenting in dramatic form certain phases of Congregational work in Massachusetts.

A Fellowship Supper at 6.00 o'clock was enjoyed in spacious and beautiful Memorial Hall in the City Library Building. President Timberlake made various introductions, including a number of newcomers to Massachusetts pulpits. Rev. Ewart Turner, for four years pastor of the American Church in Berlin, spoke on conditions in Germany today. As Americans, he said, we are concerned. Historically, Germany has been almost revered as the fountain head of our Protestant faith, and for many college generations, almost idealized as the seat of free and untrammeled learning.

The Moderator announced that at the close of the evening service, this 138th Annual Meeting would stand adjourned.

At the evening service held in First Congregational Church, music was furnished by the First Congregational Church Choir, and the Chaplain read the Scripture lesson and offered prayer.

The Conference sermon was preached by Rev. Ralph Sockman of Christ Church (Methodist Episcopal) of New York City. His sermon pictured Christ as both Prince and Pioneer. We need Christ in His regal power. We need the more enduring power that follows service. One illustration, of many, may be set down here. Safe progress can be made only on condition that we keep remembering what is behind us historically. We need to look back, however, as a motorist does, who can see what is behind him while keeping his eye on the road ahead.

The Chaplain, assisted by Rev. Hugh Penney, administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, after which the meeting stood adjourned.

Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary.

William Boicourt, Recording Secretary.

IN APPRECIATION OF REV. OLIVER D. SEWALL

By Rev. Frederick Harlan Page

The Congregational Churches of the Commonwealth have suffered a great loss in the death of Dr. Sewall. His illness came so suddenly, and was so brief, that it has been difficult for many to realize that his friendly face will be seen at the Conference office no more. To his associates of the Conference Staff, however, the shock of his sudden departure has deepened into affliction which follows upon personal bereavement. At first when his desk was closed it seemed as if he might be out on one of his many errands among the churches, and would be back in the morning; and when it was open, it was as if he would return at the close of some committee meeting. It is good for us all that the soul finds comfort in the thought of the life to which he has gone, and that our Heavenly Father is "not a God of the dead, but a God of the living," as Jesus said.

It is easy to utter a casual remark that Dr. Sewall had lived to a good age, for he had passed the mark of three score and ten by two years. His retirement would have come a year from this time. But he was not old in any sense of the word. The driving-wheel of his daily accomplishments had not slackened.

He passed through three stages in his career as Treasurer. He was called at first to the treasurership of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society when its operations were still almost entirely of a missionary character and when its funds, and its collections from the churches, were relatively small. Within two or three years a great change happened. By the legacy of Deacon Stone of North Andover, the Society received nearly a million dollars. It did, in fact, become a million dollars by good investment a little later on. This great gift reconstituted the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society eventually. It threw a great and happy burden upon the Treasurer, in the investment and care of so much additional income, amounting at times to more than the total receipts from the churches. It led also to the movement for enlarged service to the churches, which resulted in 1928 in the consolidation of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. The Treasurer's duties increased by leaps and bounds, and his advisory character in all the general policies of the enlarged organization gave great significance to his services. A still further development in the enlargement of the functions of the Treasurer came to Dr. Sewall when the churches began to learn that under the new charter of the consolidated organization it was possible for them to place their own invested funds in the care of the Conference. While at first slow to perceive the advantages which this gave to them, investment committees of the local churches began to awake to the great relief which this afforded them. Here was security and expert investment knowledge freely at their disposal. The result was a very large commitment of the church funds to the Conference — a movement which was increasingly appreciated as the severities of the depression bore down upon local treasurers.

Had Dr. Sewall failed at any point in this on-going movement affecting his department, as many a man might, who had come at first into a much smaller service, it would have been most unfortunate. But he grew with the growth of the Conference and of its treasury operations. It might be fairly said of him that no more could have been expected had he been brought up in a banking house instead of spending the larger part of his life — over thirty years — in the pastorate.

It has been said that where a cleryman having natural business abilities is called in later life to an executive career, he is apt to become a first-class business man; and he brings to the exercise of his business capacity the kindness and grace and patience which has been acquired in the pastoral ministry. Certainly this was true of Dr. Sewall. He was a tireless worker, for no one tired him. He was a wonderful listener, and his prime motive of helpfulness surmounted many seeming impossibilities in situations which brought confusion and dejection to many who came, with their difficult problems, to his desk. A flowing fund of humor acted like the oil of joy to his mental machinery. It has reminded me of the spring which I know on a seashore in the State of Maine. When the tide is low, the spring can be seen and heard bubbling away; but when the great waters sweep in with a mighty tide, you can neither see it nor hear it. The great weight of waters subdues it into silence, but it is still flowing, and as soon as the tide gets down again, there is the quiet murmuring of fresh and clear waters as if for much of the day there had been no heavy pressure of the ocean upon them.

Because Dr. Sewall placed no limit on his own willingness to serve the Conference, and in view of his seemingly inexhaustible vitality he continued to go among the churches, as invitations came, for preaching services and for anniversaries and other occasional addresses, but most of all to assist church committees in ecclesiastical business problems which confronted them. His handling, in particular, of the special problems arising from the Metropolitan water development, among the Swift River Valley churches, was notable. Naturally here, as in all his treasury operations, he had invaluable assistance from the Finance Committee of the Conference and from other members of the Staff, and from the legal counsel of the Conference. But he had those fine traits of character, not always in the possession of executives, which enabled him to receive and to give in the most effective interchange of co-operative wisdom. To have all this in an unaffected demeanor of modesty is to be gifted indeed. Dr. Sewall would have been the last man to claim for himself distinction of character. He would have said that such traits as he possessed were common enough, and that most men had them; and this is quite true. It was in his possession of so many of the finest common traits with which men are endowed and in his exercise of them in a rare combination that we see his distinction.

Dr. Sewall would have said that he had no outside interests, and this is true. All kinds of enterprises, were they ecclesiastical or social, which aimed to minister to people at a disadvantage were vital concerns in his life. In this way he became interested in the Good Will House — a social settlement in East Boston for the benefit of Italian immigrants, and later for such Italians as were glad to avail themselves of the gracious hand and spirit of this organization. From being a Director, he naturally became President of this corporation, and it was under his administration that the work of this social settlement attracted the great gifts which later on magnified its ministry in East Boston.

When the administration of the Massachusetts Board of Ministerial Aid passed from Dr. Emrich's hands to Secretary Covell, and later when it was necessary to choose a new administrator because of Secretary Covell's sickness, the Board of Trustees were at their wits' end to secure one having the peculiar faculty required in the wise and kind ministration of funds to those aged and infirm Congregational ministers in Massachusetts who needed assistance. I shall not forget that Board meeting, when at length the question of a successor came up. Various names were discussed and found lacking in some point or other — health, or time, or knowledge of the ministry. At length, after a period of silence, the Directors looked all around the room and up to the ceiling and out of the window, and then with one consent looked pointedly at Dr. Sewall, whereupon, seeing what was inevitable, he consented to take the office. And after being duly and hastily elected, he remarked, in his unfailing humor, "Now, brothers, I want you to appoint a committee to notify my wife of what you have done."

There is a folk-lore story of a certain people trying to represent the spiritual life of the hereafter in terms that comfort our material senses, that whenever a good man dies who is greatly esteemed for his leadership and attainments, his kindred and friends and neighbors who have gone into the next world before him come down to a high hill within sight of the cemetery, and there they wait in silence until the friends have fulfilled the last ministry in the burial of the dead. As soon as the burial place is deserted, they all come down from the hilltop to the grave, and with joy and rejoicing and all the manifestations of welcome, take him with them to the Celestial City. The spiritual truth which this means to represent gives us great comfort. We cannot know what so active a spirit as that of Dr. Sewall may be doing in his new life, but surely he who was developing up to the last day when he was parted from us will in that new country, our real home, continue to grow and to serve and to give and receive the ministries of friendship and affection. One cannot think of him there without thinking of Dr. and Mrs. Emrich, who esteemed him so highly, and of John Walker, with whom he was so intimate, and of Henry K. Hyde, who had so much to do, as a trustee with his early attainments as Treasurer. Surely life in the blessed Community means friendship again and all its joys, because whatever of the dear hopes of life we cherish for the life to come, of friendship we may be sure that it will survive.

He did not say good-bye, for he had no thought of being sick when he closed down his desk for the last time.

In all Dr. Sewall's earlier years there was loneliness, tempered by his fondness for his parishioners and their children. His marriage brought him happiness, opened the door into the life of the coming generation, which he found as charming as it is bewildering. It stirred his humor, and awakened his devotion. Is not this the very best reaction?

So we see the man, do we not, who went in and out before us? He seemed as dependable as a bridge which carries a great traffic, when in an unexpected flood it is swept away. But the bridge was not the man. It is only one symbol, affording us a beautiful memory of his character. The man himself is a spirit, and during all the years of his life he has been building a nobler symbol — a holy temple to the Lord, — what St. Paul calls "a house not built with hands, eternal in the heavens." In this temple we who have known him have always found high above all other traits the spirit of service, brotherliness and hope.

Our best tribute to him is not in our words: rather it is in our consecration to the upbuilding of that same holy temple to the Lord. We pledge ourselves anew in his memory to this supreme task for us all.

[We tried, but it was impossible to secure a copy of Rev. Mr. Camp's Eulogy.]

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Neither to this occasion nor to my own feelings would I be true did I not preface this report with a brief tribute to my late co-worker. Oliver D. Sewall has been held in high regard and will be greatly missed by his fellow-members of the Staff. To us he was the senior member. In our Staff meetings his long acquaintance with the work of the office,—with the policy of the Conference, the records of ministers, the history of churches and the details of administration,—gave sympathy to his approach to all problems, candor to his appraisal, wisdom to his advice and authority to his judgment. In Room 611 he was not only Treasurer of the Conference, he was the Office Manager,—the personification of Industry, Friendliness and Understanding.

Of course, we knew the time of his retirement was not a great way off. We were apprehensive of that event, but we were totally unprepared for and left confused by the sudden report that his illness was actually serious. None better realize than we, who shared with him the executive responsibilities, what a loss the churches and pastors of the Conference sustained when Dr. Sewall was called unto the reward of the Faithful Steward.

That the financial affairs of the Conference have suffered no impairment in this critical situation is due in large measure to the immediate rallying of the Finance Committee of the Trustees, with the Chairman of the Board, Thomas Todd, and our honored President Emeritus, Dr. Page, to the assistance of the Treasury. Particular gratitude is due Trustee Arthur W. Davis, for his willingness to assume immediately the office of Acting-Treasurer, along with his regular business cares, until a successor should be appointed to complete Dr. Sewall's term. Mr. Davis put fully half his time at the disposal of the Conference.

The Treasurer

In the early deliberations concerning the selection of a new Treasurer, the opinion was widely expressed that he should be a man who had had some business training and experience. It was conceded, too, that he would need to have a religious background and a church interest. The responsibility of making the nomination was given to the Finance Committee of the Board, of which Mr. Roy E. Hovey of Wakefield, is Chairman. Upon their recommendation the Trustees, as provided by our By-laws, have appointed to fill the vacancy on the Staff until this meeting, Mr. Myron S. Burton. They are also nominating him to the office of Treasurer of the Conference for next year.

Mr. Burton is a son of Dr. Charles E. Burton, Secretary of the General Council. Myron Burton is an Alumnus of Carleton College. He has had graduate work in Business at the University of Minnesota. In 1930 he received appointment by the American Board as Business Manager of the Fenchow Hospital in China. In 1936 he returned for his first furlough, and this year was granted an extra year for study at Chicago University. We rejoice that the opportunity of applying his business experience and training in behalf of the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts and under the auspices of the Massachusetts Conference and Missionary Society, has for him and Mrs. Burton an appeal stronger than the romance of service in China.

Annuity Fund Membership

One of my last conversations at Dr. Sewall's desk was regarding a dream he had for the benefit of the younger men of the Conference. He wanted to help them join the Annuity Fund. The Conference now gives to the ministers of the State on small salaries assistance in paying the first premium as members of the Annuity Fund. We only help with the first premium because the Pilgrim Memorial Fund gives assistance with the later premiums, but not with the first one.

Beneficial as this is it does nothing for the younger ministers whose salaries are over $1,700 when they join the Annuity Fund. Dr. Sewall wished to help these men also. There were something like 120 of them in the State last year, but only eight of them became members of the Annuity. Dr. Sewall's plan was to raise a Fund of $100,000, the income of which would be used annually to pay in whole or in part the first premium of all ministers entering the Annuity. Some day I hope we can establish in Massachusetts such a Fund as a Memorial to Dr. Sewall.

"Debt of Honor" Fund

However, for the time being, another and a more pressing need is before us. A great objective has been set before our Conference, of which Dr. Sewall was unaware. This is the "Debt of Honor Fund" proposed by the Executive Committee of the General Council.

I have been speaking above of membership in the "Expanded Plan" of the Annuity Fund. Before this "Expanded" and self-sustaining plan came into being,—there was what is called the "Original Plan" Annuity. Many of our older ministers joined this plan and are dependent upon it now. The maximum Annuity was to be $500. This annual amount could be received by a retired minister in return for the membership dues over a period of years paid by himself, with a contribution from the Pilgrim Memorial Fund, and with a percentage paid by the churches from the Apportionment.

During the earlier years, when many ministers were in active service and paying in their premiums, no money was set aside from the Apportionment as the churches' share toward the future payments on Annuities. The entire Apportionment contributions were devoted to other causes that seemed more urgent at the time.

Now these older men are reaching retirement age. Their Annuities are becoming due. For the next several years an increasing amount will have to be taken from the Apportionment if they are to receive the full amount of their Annuities. This very year, our Conference is asked to make an additional payment of $2,000 from our Apportionment receipts to meet this moral obligation of the churches. A greater amount will be needed in subsequent years. And this can only be done at the expense of the Missionary Work of the Church.

It is now proposed that the financing of the Church's share of the Original Plan Annuities be cared for without taking money from the Apportionment. This is to be done by the raising of a Debt of Honor Fund. The members of our churches will be asked to provide a special fund, by three-year pledges, to make good our word to more than 1,300 ministers, widows and children. The amount required to meet the churches' share of the remaining Original Plan Annuities is $1,517,000.

The Executive Committee of the General Council, with the backing of the American Board and the Board of Home Missions has inaugurated this Plan and submits it to the State Conferences with the earnest hope that they will give it their hearty approval. May I propose that the Churches of Massachusetts acclaim this plan as having their whole-hearted support in discharging completely and magnanimously a Debt of Honor to the Veterans of the Cross.

The Per Capita

Another concern of Dr. Sewall was the irregular payment by the Associations of the Per Capita. It would rejoice his heart to know that this year the income from the Per Capita is greater than for several years past. All too few of our church members and officials realize that their church belongs to a great nation-wide denomination, which has a vital contribution to make to the welfare of the nation,—that the Association, the State Conference and the General Council are worthy of the loyal support of every Congregational Church in the Commonwealth. There has recently been published a leaflet on the Per Capita,—a plain and interesting statement of its need and purpose. Sample copies will be found on the "Pilgrim News" table in the Vestry. Pastors are invited to order enough of these to distribute among their church officials.

Stewardship

A return for our Per Capita payments has come recently to Massachusetts in the visit, at our invitation, of Dr. Warren H. Denison, Assistant Secretary of the General Council. We were able to arrange for him to speak before Churches, Associations and Conference Groups upon the theme of "Christian Stewardship." Dr. Denison was received with sincere appreciation wherever he spoke, because he gave a timely emphasis to a neglected element in our Christian living. The spirit of Stewardship is essential to the progress of the Church. Therein lies a secret of vitality and power. It is the one key to the problem of church finance, and alone can offset the increasing tendency to adopt gambling practices in raising money for church support. My regret is that more of our churches, and church officials, did not have the opportunity of hearing Dr. Denison's message. He has promised to make another visit soon, and I shall be glad to make reservations for his time.

A second important contribution of the General Council to our churches is Dr. Burton's Manual. Here is a compendium of Congregational usages, forms, procedures that is worth many times its cost. Every pastor should have one on his desk, especially if he has recently joined our fellowship. Each church ought to buy one for the use of the Clerk, the Executive Committee or the Deacons.

Missionary Promotion

The members of the Conference will be glad to know that the Apportionment receipts from the churches during the first four months of 1937 have shown a steady increase. month by month, over the receipts during the same period in 1936. Of course, this is not conclusive proof that the Missionary giving of the whole year will be better than last, but it is the most hopeful sign we have seen for many a day.

The promotional plans which we shall follow in Massachusetts in co-operaton with the Missions Council, include several interesting features. The Missions Council has reopened at the Congregational House the New England Regional Office. In charge of this office will be the new Assistant Secretary of Promotion, the Rev. James E. Walter, recently pastor at Orange, Conn. We heartily welcome Mr. Walter to Massachusetts and to his new position. Our best wish is that he will find our Churches, Associations and the Conference making many demands upon his leadership.

Speakers

In keeping with the general policy of promotion your state office will endeavor to make it possible for every church in the State to have during the next two years at least one visiting speaker representing the Board of Home Missions and one speaker representing the Foreign Work. This will require a change in our method of assigning speakers to churches and church groups. At present it is our custom to provide speakers upon request,—and the church that asks for the most gets the most. Mrs. Carver, who has charge of this important department, informs me that since January, 1936, she has made over eleven hundred appointments for 275 churches,—an average of four missionary speakers in each of those churches. But 300 of our churches had no speakers at all. This, while there were five churches that each had twenty or more guest speakers from the Boards or the Conference. In the interest of Missionary promotion our office has endeavored to supply as completely as possible every request for assistance. It would seem that some organizations and churches have had the advantage of the free service of our Speakers' Bureau in setting up their programs, to the disadvantage of a general service to all churches.

How can this condition be remedied? We have no desire to refuse any legitimate request for a speaker. We want to supply the needs of every church. In order to create Missionary interest and to provide adequate information there is undoubtedly a place for a voice from the field, but my own experience leads me to believe that the surest foundation for Missionary enthusiasm is personal effort and study. In order, therefore, that our office may more evenly distribute the available speakers, may I ask the pastors and women's organizations that have been depending so completely upon our bureau, to voluntarily undertake to do more for themselves in the way of research, study, reading and speaking,—and encourage their members to do the same. And do this not alone to release speakers for other appointments in neglected areas, but more particularly for your own real advantage. Instead of doing the easy thing of coming to Mrs. Carver's desk whenever a missionary program is to be provided, or a series of meetings arranged for, do the harder thing,—yet the more profitable, more adventurous and more thrillingly creative,—depend upon yourself. In setting up our State-wide program I plead for the consideration and co-operation of the 32 churches that had during the past 15 months on the average of no less than 13 missionary speakers each.

Two other features of our promotional program will be, first, a series of regional conferences similar to those held last year for ministers and for laymen,—meeting in small groups to think through together the question as to whether Christianity has a vital and saving message for our age, and how that message can best be proclaimed. Also this year we wish to offer again to individual churches the advantages of the "Church Officers' Visitation" plan,—the "C. O. V.," when your executive officer and a Mission Board representative will sit down with church officials to solve together some of the problems of the church.

Ministers' Days

As indicated in the report of the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, that committee is co-operating with the State office in planning two series of "Ministers' Days" covering a period of several weeks beginning in October. These will take the place of the "Convocation."

Last year Andover-Newton Seminary offered on the Tuesdays of fifteen consecutive weeks three Seminar Courses especially adapted to pastors in the field. Our plan is to help pay the expense of Congregational ministers in the eastern part of the state who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity for study next season.

We are now also arranging for ministers in the Western area, a similar Pastors' Day for ten weeks in Springfield. Dean Weigle of Yale has agreed to co-operate in providing one course, and through the auspices of Andover-Newton we are to have the assistance of Dr. Cabot in a Seminar on "The Art of Ministering to the Sick." Fuller announcement of these Courses will be given as the program develops. Our sincere effort will be to make the money, set aside in the Conference budget for Convocations, yield the greatest assistance possible to all our pastors, by these practical and intensive courses of study.

Preaching Missions

The Program of the Parish Preaching Mission has been progressing quietly and effectively. An excellent preparation for the year was made at the Retreat which we sponsored for Missioners and Pastors in September at Andover-Newton. Additional impetus was given our work by the National Preaching Mission in Boston in December. Our churches were well represented, and they have since in many communities entered into a program of an inter-denominational Mission. The Conference is indebted to the Woman's Department for their faithful and painstaking labor in arranging for the entertainment of Congregational Ministers during the Boston meeting.

We have the records of about thirty-five Parish Preaching Missions held during the year, and know of several being planned for next Fall and Winter. It is none too early to begin arrangements for securing a Missioner, and to set aside a definite time in the church year. Again this Fall we shall arrange for a "Retreat" and expect to have in it the assistance of President Albert W. Palmer of Chicago.

Your Preaching Mission Committee has assisted the President in summing up the thought and work of the year in a leaflet entitled "The Preaching Mission,—What it is; How to Prepare for it; Its Major Objectives; Conserving Its Results." Rev. Harry Kimball and Rev. Ralph Rogers did the major work in its compilation and editing. We believe it will have lasting value in encouraging and guiding pastors and church officials in the use of this form of "dignified, informed, intelligent Evangelism."

One cannot immediately and completely appraise the results of a Parish Preaching Mission, yet judging from the sincere comments and expressions of appreciation from both Missioners and Pastors I feel that there is no service to the churches that lies within my responsibility which is more important. The Missioners who have freely given their time and energy to this call have truly been doing "the work of an Evangelist." They have our sincere gratitude for their valuable contribution to the spiritual life of the churches of the state.

Laymen's Movement

From the usual attendance at Association Meetings one would wonder if laymen were interested in the Church—or if there were any laymen in our churches. But in working with our Laymen's Committee,—with a response that would seem to indicate that they count me as one of themselves, we have discovered some facts about our men. In a series of five regional meetings for Laymen held across the State we learned that there are many interested, capable, devoted men, anxious for the future of the Church. These meetings were held in Lawrence, Middleboro, Framingham, West Springfield and Housatonic. Three of these were general discussions of Men's Work in the Church and two meetings were specifically for Deacons. Dr. Frederick L. Fagley assisted most helpfully in these, as also in a series of three Lenten Conferences for Ministers in South Hadley Falls, Shelburne Falls and Lee. This experiment in Laymen's Conferences will result in a large attendance of men at this Annual Meeting, and during the coming year in a more extensive use of conferences for laymen, with a more intensive consideration of the relationship of the Layman and the Church.

"Pilgrim State News"

Another experiment that seems to be proving its worth is the publication of the Pilgrim State News in conjunction with the Missions' Council as a monthly periodical upon a subscription basis. Here again our success is due to the assistance of the Woman's Department in securing subscriptions,—but especially to Rev. Raymond Blakney, the able Chairman of the Editorial Board, also to Mrs. Allbright who has served as Business Manager. We think the News speaks for itself, particularly the current May issue. Will you heed its appeal for your quarter as you pass the News stand in the vestry. Let me suggest that churches might well vote from their budgets enough money to place the Pilgrim State News in every home of the church membership. This would be for church interest a profitable investment! Then let us have the news of your activities and achievements.

Your President is becoming aware of his growth in this office by the increase of his correspondence and in the number and the importance of his interviews. When all goes well in a church, naturally not much is said about it. But once some problem arises, word seems to come directly to our office. That is as it should be and demonstrates the value of the relationship between the Conference and the Churches. The assistance we gave the Board of Pastoral Supply during Dr. Merrill's absence from the office and the passing of Dr. Sewall, enlarged our sphere of activity. Under these circumstances, the co-operative and devoted spirit of the whole staff has been a remarkable and happy experience. Secretary Bliss will himself report regarding his particular field.

A full year of service by the Field Secretary in the Western Associations has further proved the value of this type of work by the Staff and the wisdom of the choice of George Tuttle for this position. He has promoted in that area similar programs and plans to those carried on through the rest of the State, applying himself particularly to the problems of the aided churches and the yoked-fields. My hope is that before long other areas of the state may receive the benefit of similar intimate and constant counsel. This should be the trend of our staff organization.

May I add a word of appreciation from myself, the Staff and the Conference to those members of the Board of Trustees whose terms expire with this meeting. Thomas Todd of Concord has represented the Middlesex Union Association. He has served for four years on the Finance Committee and for the past twelve months has been the Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Mrs. Ambert G. Moody of Northfield, representing Franklin Association, has given four years of service on the Aided Church Committee. Mrs. Kenneth W. Forman of Danvers, representing the Essex South Association, has been on the Missionary Committee and lately on the Aided Church Committee.

Mr. Edward W. Sherman of New Bedford, nominated by the Old Colony Association, found his place on the Finance Committee. Rev. Theodore Bacheler of South Hadley Falls, came from the Hampden Association. This year he was Chairman of the General Conference Committee and was formerly a member of the Appraisal Committee. Rev. Paul G. Macy of Worcester was sent by the Worcester Central Association, and served on the Missionary Committee.

Mention should also be made of the leading part which Mr. Macy has taken in the notable achievement of a consolidation of Congregationalism in Worcester,—the uniting of the three churches, Pilgrim, Piedmont and Union,— in the Chestnut Street Church. Although this has meant the withdrawal of both Mr. Macy and Mr. Beach from the leadership of the united congregation,—as is seemingly the necessity in such reorganizations,—that does not detract from the accomplishment but rather enhances it, for these three congregations in Worcester have performed what might well be called the feat of the year in our Conference, and have given to other communities an example of what can take place, when the people are so minded, in the unification of Protestantism in our changing society. Our earnest hope is that at Chestnut Street the union of spirit and purpose may reach complete consummation. This would bring the greatest joy to Mr. and Mrs. Macy.

A week ago today our President Emeritus underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract from his right eye. The operation has so far been eminently successful and Dr. Page expects to return to his home tomorrow with the keen anticipation of being able once more to see the faces of his friends and once again to read his Bible. While your prayers, I know, will be that he may fully realize his heart's desire, let me conclude with the suggestion that the Conference send to Dr. Page a message of remembrance and affection.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

There is a spirit of adventure, new every Sunday and fresh every week, in visiting the churches of this commonwealth. No two churches are alike. They face different opportunities, are set in different situations, are composed of different people. Some are in cities, some in towns and rural communities. Forty use languages that remind one of that day of Pentecost when they spoke "with other tongues as the spirit gave them utterance." Since the last Annual Meeting in May, 1936, as Secretary of the Conference, on Sundays and week days, I have made 138 official visits to the churches of the Conference, not counting the numerous conferences with church officials in the office at 14 Beacon Street. Of these 138 visits, 40 were at foreign-speaking churches and missions, 51 city churches, and 47 rural churches. Among these visits there may be 7 or 8 duplicates, that is, 2 or more visits to the same church because of special need.

Of all our 617 churches in this commonwealth, Holyoke, Second, with 1,958 members, heads the list as the largest in membership. The largest Church School is in Dorchester, Second Church, with 1,021 members.

The longest pastorate still active, is held by Rev. Andrew Groop, who has been the faithful and beloved minister of the Finnish Church in Fitchburg, since 1895, a period of 42 years. Rev. Charles S. Holton has been at Newbury for 40 years, Rev. J. Lee Mitchell at Attleboro, Second, for 36 years; Rev. T. Nelson Baker at Pittsfield, Second, for 36 years; Rev. Edwin B. Robinson at Holyoke, Grace, for 35 years; Rev. J. Harold Dale at Billerica for 34 years, Rev. Arthur G. Cummings at Middleboro, First, for 32 years; Rev. Charles A. Bidwell at Belmont, and Rev. Edward C. Camp at Watertown for 31 years, and Rev. H. E. Thygeson at East Falmouth and Rev. Austin Rice at Wakefield for 30 years. All these make a noble record, of which we are proud, and for which we thank God.

The longest ministerial career, still in active service, so far as I know, is that of Rev. Albert F. Pierce, now serving the church at Revere, Point of Pines. Dr. Pierce began his ministry in 1869 at Bridgton, N. J., and was ordained in 1871.

One different, but long and useful career worthy of record, is that of Mr. Edward Brown, who has been the sexton of our church in Marlboro for 61 years.

The church having the largest additions on confession is Dedham, Allin, with 85. There were 118 churches with no additions. The largest giving to denominational missions was made by Boston, Old South, with $13,041. The next in order of giving are Dalton, Brookline, Harvard, Cambridge, First; Pittsfield, First, and Worcester, Old South.

Realizing that the forces of evil are too strong for a divided Protestant Church, the trend today is toward closer co-operation. The denominational differences mean very little, if anything at all, to the young people, and they cannot see why people in the community should walk and work and play together from Monday until Saturday night, and then on Sunday, divide up into small groups and some go this way to a church and others go that way to another church. During 1936 the Congregational church at Dover and the Unitarian church there agreed to hold union services indefinitely, with one minister, Rev. William B. Rice, one church service, one church school, one young people's group, one young people's choir, and so forth. It works well and the people are happy. Neither denomination surrenders to the other and neither denomination has a copyright on its own distinctive ideas.

A notable achievement is the coming together into one united church, of the Plymouth, Piedmont and Union Churches in Worcester, under the leadership of Rev. Paul Macy and Rev. Joseph Beach, assuming the new name of Chestnut Street Church.

The church at West Yarmouth, on Cape Cod, to which we used to make a grant of $175 a year, is now served by Rev. Carl Schultz of Hyannis, without extra remuneration; and Yarmouth, which was yoked with West Yarmouth under Rev. Allan Burtt, is now served happily and effectively by Mr. Malcolm Matheson, being yoked with South Dennis. This was brought about largely through the helpful leadership of our Minister-at-Large, Rev. J. B. Lyman.

By a rearrangement of our Armenian work, made necessary by the removal to California and to New Jersey of two of our ablest Armenian ministers, Rev. Kapriel Bedrosian of Worcester and Rev. A. K. Yeramian of Chelsea, the entire Armenian work is carried on now with a saving of $1,842 in grants from the Conference.

The Swedish Church in Fitchburg, to which we used to make a grant of $240, is no longer the Swedish Church, but the Pilgrim Church of Fitchburg, using English altogether and receiving only spiritual aid from the Conference and all the blessings we can command.

This consolidating of Protestant forces is bound to go ahead, but it must be under wise leadership. All the permanent values of the several groups must be conserved. Freedom of thought and worship must be maintained. The emphasis must be concentrated on commitment to the service of our Lord Christ, in a life built on a fundamental conviction as to God and the Christian life purpose. Your President and Secretary, individually and through the Home Missions Council in the Massachusetts Council of Churches, are working toward this end. Mrs. E. Talmadge Root of Somerville has so happily expressed this philosophy of co-operation that I quote her: "We have sought unity on the basis of the intellect, and creeds have divided us; on the basis of the feelings, and rituals have separated us; but the deepest faculty of the soul is the will, and may not the common purpose to seek first the Kingdom of God, unite us?"

Set in the midst of a rapidly changing world, our Conference ought to bring one or more fields to or toward self-support every year and thereby be enabled to push out into new fields where new work should be undertaken. For example, there are 62,000 Polish people in the Connecticut Valley, many of whom are not in the Roman Catholic Church. We had a small work among them at Easthampton which was discontinued about two years ago because our missionary, Tony Demoracski, moved out of town. Our financial condition was such then that we were obliged to reduce expenses. Now the financial situation, as a whole, is somewhat better. We ought to study this particular field, in co-operation with Hampden, Hampshire and Franklin Associations, and discover the need and see what our duty is there. On the higher levels of the Polish population there are many very capable and high-grade people, especially among the young people, who should be won for the service of Christ.

In a town in Eastern Massachusetts of 15,000 population there are 700-800 Finns, but not more than 5 or 6 families of them are at all interested in the Christian Church. If we can find the right kind of a man we ought to put him in that town to work as a friendly visitor among those fine people, and show them the superiority of Christ's way of life to Communism.

There is an urgent need of more work among the Finns between Worcester and Gardner in Paxton, Holden, Rutland and Princeton.

A recent survey made under the direction of Prof. Charles Zahniser of Boston University, makes these challenging discoveries, that 43% of the children and youth in South Boston receive no religious education from either Protestant or Catholic sources; in Taunton 39%. In the central Back Bay district of Boston there are only 912 persons between 5 and 19 years of age; but there are 10 Protestant churches, in any one of which this entire number could be served. But in the North and West Ends there are 14,000 such young people, and no facilities under Protestant auspices to serve one-tenth that number.

We want to help worthy students in our seminaries. They are a group of splendid young men. In the five leading seminaries in New England there are about 200 student pastors. But unless two or three days a week are given to the church, the student pastorate does not effectively promote the Kingdom of God. At Yale, a student who takes a church is required to reduce his time at the school to three-quarters and take 4 years instead of 3. This is a good plan. The trouble in many cases is with the church; it is so often looking for a Woolworth bargain. A very important part of the minister's and the church's work is done Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

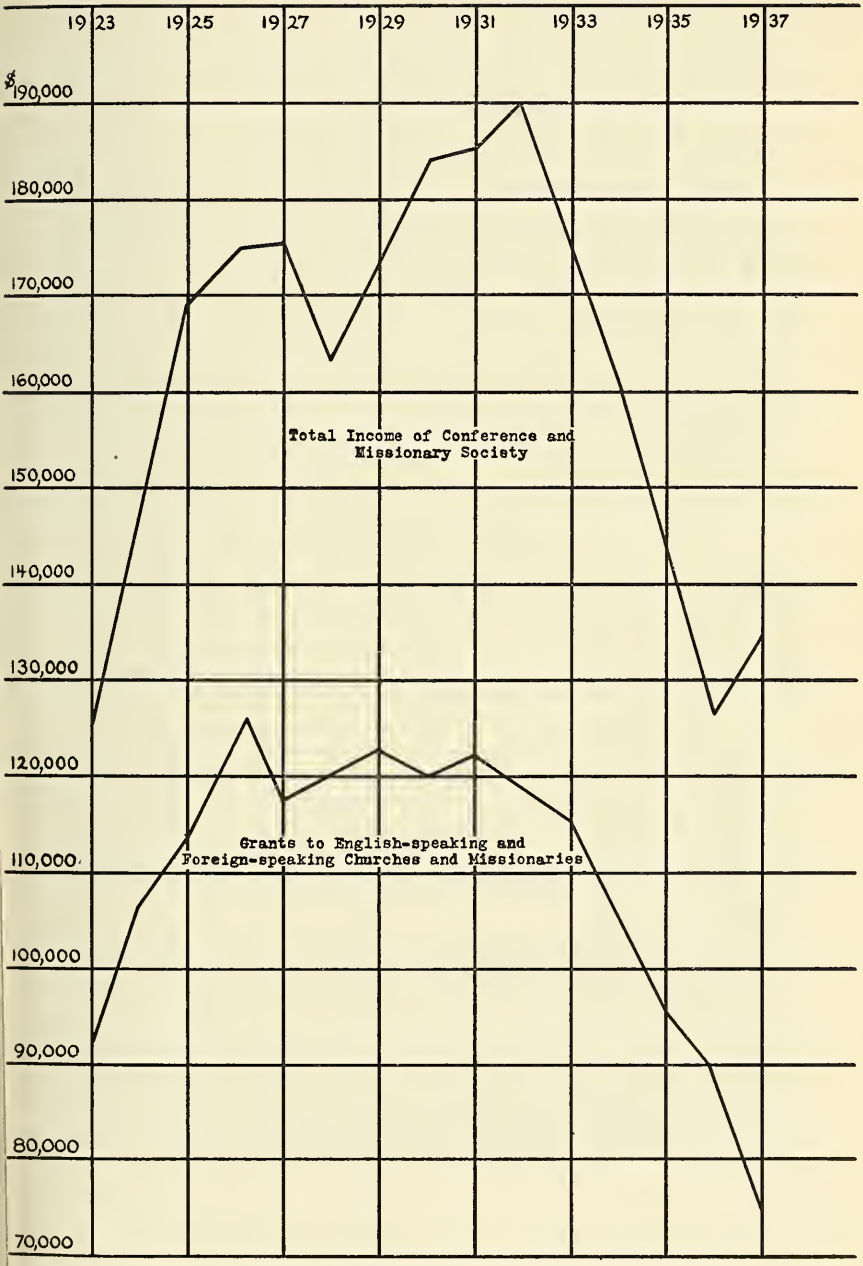
We ought to be able every year to enter some new field where need and opportunity combine to make a clear Macedonian call for help. The promise and appeal of many a small rural church, many a field as yet uncultivated for Christ, has as much romance and adventure in it as can be found in the annals of the American Board, the American Missionary Association, or the Congregational Home Missionary Society. We can enter these new fields if you will only give us the money to sustain such work. We need to rise above the mere business aspects and the legal requirements, as important as these undoubtedly are, and see the human need, the latent possibility, and obligation resting upon us to make disciples of all peoples and teach them of Christ, and make His Kingdom of larger dimensions in this fair and happy commonwealth of ours. Go back a moment to 1799 when the Massachusetts Missionary Society was founded. Its avowed purpose was "the spread of the knowledge of the glorious gospel of Christ among the poor heathens and in the remote parts of our country." The first to sign the constitution was David Sanford, Pastor of the Church in Medway. The first Treasurer was Deacon John Simpkins of Boston. And it was "a society of Massachusetts missionary men, not a missionary society for Massachusetts." In the words of my friend and predecessor, Secretary John Walker, "In 1805 the Secretary of the London Missionary Society (distinctly a foreign missionary society) was made a corresponding member of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. The Massachusetts Missionary Magazine, which the Society began to publish in 1802, and which became the progenitor of the Missionary Herald of our time, contained quite as much news of foreign missions as of home missions." So you see how in the early days the rural church and the city church, and the people of foreign countries were all tied up together in the tangled skein of missionary organization and program.

I have been studying the figures of income and grants to churches in more recent years. I wish many of you could sit in with our Committee on Aided Churches month by month and hear the appeal of the various fields for assistance, and our reply, "But we haven't the money. We must reduce our grants and not take on new obligations." And if only you knew the ministers and the churches and the people of their parishes personally, as we of the Staff know them, the appeal and the opportunity would get you. Let me make figures interesting. In 1923, before we had the generous bequest of what is known as the Stone Fund, which of course was given to the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society before it was consolidated with the Massachusetts Conference in 1928, the total income for the Society, from churches, invested funds, the Woman's Home Missionary Union and legacies was $126,995 and the total amount of grants to aided churches was $89,335, which is 70.34+% of the income. In 1929, after the Society and the Conference were merged, the grants to churches were $117,567, or 62.34%. In 1936, the percentage of grants was 60.54% and in the year that closed March 31, 1937, the percentage of grants was 56.04%. Comparing the years 1923 before the Stone Fund, and 1937, the churches and the invested funds and so forth gave $126,995 in 1923, of which the aided churches received 70 1/3%. In 1937 the corresponding income was $9,000 larger, but the amount of grants to aided churches was $13,000 smaller.

The unknown author of an early Christian letter written about 150 or 200 A.D., and addressed to an unknown man called Diognetus, says of the Christians of that day: "In spite of blameless lives they are hated. What the soul is in a body, this the Christians are in the world. The soul is enclosed in the body, and yet itself holdeth the body together: so Christians are kept in the world . . . and yet they themselves hold the world together."

My friends, this work that you are doing in 183 churches and other fields in Massachusetts, through 164 missionaries, is of supreme importance for Christ and it is helping to hold the world together. We of the Staff and the Trustees and the committees of the several associations, and the 164 missionaries renew our pledge of loyalty to this work for the hopeful year ahead.

GRAPHIC COMPARISON OF TOTAL INCOME OF THE CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY, AND TOTAL GRANTS TO ENGISH-SPEAKING AND FOREIGN-SPEAKING CHURCHES AND MISSIONARIES



NECROLOGY

HENRY LINCOLN BAILEY

As fully and appreciatively as my knowledge and time permit, I want to call to your remembrance 38 ministers who by birth or pastoral service or membership in our associations belong in this roll call of those who now have "passed to where beyond these voices there is peace." It is a noble list of venerable men, half of them past 80, one almost 102, only two below 60, their average 77. All but five had served one or more of our Conference churches. They were born in 14 states and five foreign countries, nine of them in Massachusetts, their deaths occurred anywhere between New Hampshire, Florida and California, 14 in this state and one in Ceylon. Seventeen colleges, Yale leading, helped educate 29, (I do not know about the others), and I credit 11 seminaries with sharing their professional training, Union, Andover and Hartford ranking 1-2-3. Besides those to the manor born, there were 13 from seven other denominations, some of whom transferred into Congregational ranks. Only three were in active service in our own churches, and it happens that these three began their ministry in three other denominations.

Alfred Clarence Church, once a Free Baptist, came to the Free Congregational Church of Andover 12 years ago. He dropped dead in a Boston railroad station on January 7. Arcturus Zodiac Conrad had a five-year Presbyterian pastorate in Brooklyn before his notable service with us, 12 years at the Old South in Worcester where the membership grew from 372 to 936, and 32 years in Park Street, Boston, where the 348 had increased to 1,864 three years ago. Yet he carried on well past 80 before having a young colleague in his final year. Rosa Orchard Roemer and her husband came into our fellowship with the Christian merger a few years ago. She had been ordained at the age of 47, and was associate pastor in the Amesbury Christian church, although only Mr. Roemer's name has appeared in the tables.

Thomas Sims had the unusual honor of being pastor emeritus of two of our churches. He began preaching in England as a Primitive Methodist in 1869, was ordained in Toronto in 1875, and held Congregational pastorates in North Dakota, Tacoma, Wash., and Toronto before coming to the First Church in Melrose in 1897. He retired 21 years later with emeritus rank. But he couldn't stay retired. Well past 70 he began again at First Church, Millbury, pastor seven years and emeritus another seven before his death in Florida in March at the age of 87. D. Turner Conlan was educated at Boston University and the Harvard Law School and practised in Boston. Then the gospel loomed larger than the law. After serving as superintendent of city missions in Boston and Providence he was ordained at the age of 58. He had pastorates in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont before coming to Courtland Street, Everett, in 1924 for an 11 year term, sickness compelling his retirement at 81, with emeritus rank. Four other men, once pastors of our churches, held the emeritus relation elsewhere. Samuel Dunham, 101, was ordained at West Brookfield and stayed seven years. After a brief Connecticut pastorate he went to a Presbyterian church in Binghamton, N. Y., serving 29 years. Four years later he took another pastorate in the same city, retiring after eight years at the age of 79. He parallels Thomas Sims in holding emeritus honors from both these churches. Millard Fillmore Hardy began his ministry with six years at Whately and six at West Boylston. Then his native New Hampshire and Vermont kept him busy. At the age of 62 he took charge for the second time of his home town church in Nelson, serving 20 years and living on to 86 as emeritus. Burton Wellesley Lockhart, a Nova Scotia Baptist, came from Connecticut to our Third Church in Chicopee for five years, going thence to Manchester, N. H., for a 27 year service, with 17 years of emeritus rating ere he died at 81. Charles Henry Rickets, 84, began his career in 1880 with the Thorndike church in Palmer. Four years later he crossed the state line for two short pastorates before going to Norwich, Conn., for 35 years, plus four as emeritus.

After this exhibition of lengthy pastorates let me introduce Charles Russell Bruce, born in West Brookfield in 1854 but serving no church in this state. After Amherst, Chicago, Yale and Andover had given him eight years of training he went to Iowa for his first pastorate. In 41 years, with 15 out in the middle when he was editing a country newspaper, he had 16 pastorates, five of them in double fields, chiefly in North and South Dakota. He died in South Carolina in December at the age of 82.

Turning now to the men who have at some time been our fellow pastors, there are 24 who now march past you in alphabetic sequence. John Harrison Allen, 55, youngest on my list, was two years at the Riverside Church in Haverhill 10 years ago. He was trained in a Baptist university, ordained by the Disciples 13 years later, and had 11 years of Congregational fellowship at the last. Samuel Colcord Bartlett, son of Dartmouth's famous president, spent most of his professional life in Japan, but on an extended furlough gave a year to our church at Colrain. He was one of the original band of student volunteers in 1886, and went from college to Japan, returning for a seminary course later. John Bicknell, born in Cummington, was also a missionary. He went to Ceylon in 1902, came home three years later, had a four-year pastorate in Maine, and was with our Mansfield church five years. Then Jaffna College called him back to be its president, and he died in office at the age of 59. Park Andrew Bradford, graduate of Andover, had Congregational pastorates in Michigan and Presbyterian in Kansas. Coming east again he was pastor at Scituate two years and two at Tyngsboro, followed by five years of residence here in Lowell at the turn of the century. He had other short pastorates in Connecticut, Vermont and New York, and died in Chicago in his 83d year. Charles Frederick Clarke, 66, was ordained a Reformed Episcopalian in Toronto. Five years later he reformed further, became a Congregationalist and served at West Newbury one year and Groveland three. Then he heard the West a-callin', and with a year's stopover in Dakota he reached the coast and in 32 years served seven churches from Seattle down to Oakland, dying in San Francisco in April last year. William Colbert Detling was an Ohio man first, last and almost all the time. If the Year Book figures are correct he came twice to Massachusetts, being ordained at Centerville at the age of 40 and graduating from Boston University at 50. He was pastor at Centerville a year, and his life span was 79 years. George Harland Dunlap had been a pastor 37 years in northern New England before he ventured two miles beyond the state line for his final parish at Ashby in 1914. He stayed eight years, then retired to Roxbury for the last 14 of his 85 years. Albert Frost Earnshaw, born in 1870 in England, educated at Princeton and Union, was pastor of the Central Church in Chelmsford, 1904–08. William Clark Gordon, ordained a Methodist, very soon came into our ranks. He was nine years at the Second Church in Westfield, nine at Auburndale and two in Ware, his native town, from which Howard University called him in 1922 to its School of Religion. While driving to his summer camp last June, a sudden heart attack at Peekskill ended his career at 71. Elwood C. Hall, a Christian minister, served the New Bedford Christian church, now a part of our United church, a few years in the '90s. He was born and died in New Jersey, and most of his 80 years were spent there. George Ross Hewitt lacked a few hours of reaching 85 when he died at his Roxbury home. Born in Glasgow, he came here in youth and received a belated education, being 27 when he graduated from Phillips Andover in '79, going thence to Harvard and Hartford. After two years in Vermont he became a fixture in this state, with pastorates in West Springfield, Fitchburg, Eliot in Lowell, West Medway and Enfield. Edward Allison Lathrop, 68, came from Minnesota to Hartford Seminary and had two five-year pastorates at Shrewsbury and Essex. Two short terms in North Carolina and Georgia preceded his removal to Pasadena, where as landscape gardener he preached a gospel of paradise on earth. Arthur Gilbert Lyon, 64, was born in Raynham and besides pastorates in Maine and Florida he served our churches in Sutton, Haverhill Riverside, Lowell Pawtucket and Arlington Heights. He died March 18 in his Lake Helen, Florida, parish. Another recent death in Florida was that of Robert MacDonald, 76, who emerged from a Baptist career of 20 years to render brilliant service at Plymouth Church,

Worcester, for a decade ending in 1925. He retired to Methuen but kept his standing in Worcester Central Association. Charles Pinckney Holbrook Nason had a perfectly good Congregational background but was evidently foreordained to be a Presbyterian. Born in a clergyman's family 95 years ago in Newburyport, he studied at Williams and Andover. Sandwiched between Presbyterian pastorates in Buffalo and Philadelphia was a 13-year service at Central Church, Chelsea. He was a Grand Army man, and U. S. consul at Grenoble, France, for 13 years. Frank Herbert Palmer was pastor at Essex, Weymouth and East Bridgewater, 13 years between 1882 and '98. In the meantime he became editor and then publisher of the periodical Education. He was born in Cambridge and died in Arlington 83 years later. Lawrence Perry, trained at Boston University and Hartford to be a preacher, went from the seminary into dry goods for three years before taking a pulpit at Greenwich. He was assistant pastor at Jamaica Plain and Worcester, then pastor at West Wareham, Wayland, Dracut and Hingham until 1920. He died in March a year ago, aged 75. Clarence Pike had seven New England pastorates, one of them a double field. Every move took him into another state. He began at Amesbury in 1884 and was later at Ashland and at Royalston. His final parish was in Vermont, but again he moved. He was 78 when he made the inevitable crossing last September. Oliver Dana Sewall is next on my list. I yield the privilege of his eulogy to the next speaker, but I can say I loved him too. Elmer Ellsworth Shumaker was broadly educated, Harvard, Princeton, Berlin, Yale. Four profound volumes he wrote. Four of our churches he served, in Newburyport, Cambridge, Boston and Adams. He lived 74 years, much of the time in his native state, Pennsylvania, where he died in November. Gustaf Staaf, born in Sweden, dying in Minnesota, 15 months ago, was for five of his 84 years a pastor of our Swedish churches in Fitchburg and Springfield. Henry Albert Stimson did too much in his 94 years to be even generalized in this brief survey. Union Church in Worcester was his second parish and his only pastoral contact with Massachusetts, but we are fortunate still in the service of his daughter, Mrs. Elbert A. Harvey. New York City had 350,000 people when he arrived there first in 1842. In 1893 he became a pastor there, ending as emeritus until last July. He touched organized Congregationalism in a score of ways. William H. Thurston, a Brookline boy and Newton graduate, was a Baptist pastor in Maine before joining our fellowship when he became pastor at South Amherst in 1918. After three years there, he retired to Foxboro. He was 67 when he left us in September. Squire Steppen Wood was 44 when ordained. He belonged to New York state, but his 10 pastorates in 22 years included Goshen, Peru and Oakham in this state.

Four other men, not pastors but members of our Associations, cannot be overlooked. Edward Bertram Lund spent 13 of his 76 years as Scandinavian missionary in Worcester, early in this century. William Gay Ballantine came from his Oberlin presidency to a chair in Springfield college 40 years ago. The city also felt his cultural influence and honored him. He had lived 88 full and fruitful years. Isaac Ogden Rankin had been a Presbyterian pastor 16 years in New York state when he came to Boston to help edit The Congregationalist in 1896. Officially and later unofficially he filled a literary pulpit with sage counsel and inspired and inspiring verse. He was a man of spiritual insight and uplifting influence. I have saved to the last the man I would rank first, James Levi Barton. Never a pastor, he belonged to all the churches as a secretary of the American Board. He was a missionary statesman of world renown. Our International Congregational Council made him its president in 1920 for a 10-year term. He was the field marshal of Near East Relief during the war and beyond. They called him chairman, but he had no time to fill a chair, he filled a uniform on the field. His other activities were too many and varied to be even hinted at. And his friendship is one of my choicest memories.

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS
Accountants and Auditors
1 Federal Street, Boston

Ralph M. Timberlake, Esq., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir: — We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ending March 31, 1937, and we hereby certify that income receivable from invested funds has been duly accounted for; that all other income shown by the books of the Society has been duly accounted for; that all payments have been properly vouched; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds; that the cash in banks has been verified, and that in our oponion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business on March 31, 1937. and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ending at that date.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) Patterson, Teele & Dennis.

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Thirteen cents per member is still asked of the churches. Seven cents of the thirteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of.....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of $377,000. It makes no charge for its service. If any extra expense is incurred (expense for legal service, for example) that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. On funds which can be combined in investment (Funds B) the Conference has earned and paid churches the last year at the rate of 4.7%. Funds which have to be kept separate in investment have yielded about 4.4%.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters. The churches may avail themselves of the service of this ability and experience without expense.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD

PRESIDENT, MR. JOHN A. DALE

SECRETARY, MRS. WILLIS B. ROBINSON TREASURER, REV. GARRETT V. STRYKER

In co-operation with the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, the Congregational Union of Springfield supervises the home missionary work in Springfield.

All contributions for home missionary work in Massachusetts by the churches of Springfield should be made to the Congregational Union, and will be credited on the apportionment. In accordance with the mutual agreement between the two organizations, ten per cent of the contributions for current work received by the Union is paid over to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

The Congregational Union of Springfield is incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts and may receive bequests and hold property.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, REV. MYRON W. FOWELL

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, by agreement with the Worcester City Missionary Society, is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of home missionary churches in Worcester in their current work, while the Worcester City Missionary Society represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for aiding churches in property matters, contributing toward the purchase and maintenance of property and the payment of building debts.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

It has been voted to omit from this volume the Reports of Boards and Committees which were printed in the Advance Reports and distributed before the meeting in Lowell. Any person desiring a copy of these Reports for filing with the Minutes may obtain it by writing to Secretary A. V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members and families are reported as numbered January 1, 1937. Admissions and removals cover the year 1936 "Absent" are not additional to "males," "females" and "total," but included in them. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1936. or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days iu the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i."; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r."; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF MINISTERS

This list gives the names of pastors, or acting pastors, and of all Congregational ministers who are members of the Associations that guard ministerial standing.

Ministers who are not reported as having ministerial standing in this state, and who have not been installed by council, are designated by a star (*). This does NOT mean that the man has no ministerial standing.

The first column of figures gives the page on which names may be found of all in pastoral service. A blank in the first column signifies that the person is not reported as being in pastoral service in this state.

The second column of figures gives the page on which ministerial standing is recorded.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

An alphabetical list of licentiates follows this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—IF your name is not correctly printed in the preceding tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman), and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Field Secretary, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Young People's Secretary. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two,—beginning with the year 1935,—each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.
(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.
(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.
(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.
(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in cooperation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such others duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretary shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President; and he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within his territory as may welcome his services. It is intended that his field of activity shall be chiefly in the western part of the State.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Young People's Secretary shall encourage and promote Christian living and Christian activities among the young people of the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall be particularly interested in assisting each church in developing and organizing the latent Christian power of its young men and young women. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this department shall be to enlist the earnest and systematic co-operation of women in the cause of missions, to support the special work committed by the national Home and Foreign Boards of the denomination to this Commonwealth, to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ. The voting members of this department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the department. The women members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference, together with an equal number of members to be elected by the department, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the department's work.

2. The department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee, which shall propose to the department the additional members of its executive committee. This nominating committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them, some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:
   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.
   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.
2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:
   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.
   (b) A Program Committee, of which the Registrar of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

DEDHAM, MAY 16-18

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS. — President, Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation .....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

MINUTES OF THE 139th ANNUAL MEETING

WITH THE STATISTICS

DEDHAM, MAY 16, 17, 18, 1938

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

According to the vote of the Conference, contributions for the year 1938 are divided as follows, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing church:

American Board	41.00%
Board of Home Missions	42.50%
Council for Social Action	2.50%
Mass. Cong'l Conference and Missionary Society	13.00%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1.00%

Checks should be made payable to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Honorary Life Membership in the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society may be secured by a gift of thirty dollars, by a church or individual. Gifts made at different dates within the limits of any one fiscal year may be applied to Honorary Life Membership, if the wish for such application is expressed when the gifts are made.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1938, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

MINUTES OF THE 139th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 16–18

ALLIN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH DEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

MONDAY AFTERNOON

The 139th meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order at 2:00 o'clock by the Moderator, Rev. Clarence E. Hellens of Fall River, who presented the Chaplain of the Conference, Rev. Ronald J. Tamblyn of Holyoke. In his first Service of Worship, the Chaplain emphasized the universal, triumphant, unhurried rule of God, according to His own laws.

The Moderator, in announcing the appointment of committees, recalled the fact that we are in the presence of three hundred years of organized religion in Dedham, and called to the platform the pastor of the church, Rev. J. Frank Robinson. The committees were then announced as follows:

Business Committee—Rev. Frederick W. Alden, Chairman, Rev. Kenneth D. Beckwith, Mr. Albert L. Bliss, Rev. Russell M. Boynton, Rev. Edward W. Cross, Mrs. Elbert C. Harvey, Rev. Hugh Penney, Mr. Wilbur E. Rowell, Mr. Thomas Todd.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Theodore Bacheler, Rev. Harold E. LeMay, Rev. Harry S. Lowd.

Deacons Appointed to Serve at the Communion Service—James Y. Noyes, Theodore T. Marsh, Ralph D. Pettingell, William H. Hitchcock, Dr. Fred A. Beckford, Frank C. Heald of the Allin Church; Arthur J. Crockett, Granville A. Wiswall of the West Roxbury Congregational Church; Albin K. Parker, Harold E. Rice of the Norwood Congregational Church; Sidney A. Weston of the Sharon Congregational Church; Hibbard Richter of the Leyden Congregational Church; Arthur W. Burt of the Park Street Church.

The reports of the following committees were presented by their respective chairmen, or some member of the committee, and accepted as printed in the Advance Reports: Committee on Religious Education, Board of Ministerial Aid, Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, Woman's Department, Boston Seaman's Friend Society, Committee on Missions and Apportionment, Board of Pastoral Supply, Committee on Stewardship, Laymen's Committee, Treasurer's Report.

Reports which were discussed and amended were as follows: Committee on Moral and Social Welfare: Rev. Clarence W. Dunham presented an additional motion, expressing the opposition of the Conference to all bills extending the time of sale for alcoholic liquors. This was referred to the Business Committee.

Rev. Harry W. Kimball presented the report of the Committee on the Preaching Mission, and announced that the committee, having finished its work, was dissolved. He made the following recommendations: (1) That the State Conference constitute a committee to consist of seven members, on Evangelism and the Devotional Life and that the Nominating Committee be instructed to nominate this committee. (2) That the $600 which remains in the fund voted at Newburyport for the use of the Committee on Preaching Missions be given to this new Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, to be used by them for the cultivation of the spiritual life of our ministry. These votes were referred to the Business Committee, and at a later session were approved by them and adopted by the Conference.

The report of the Committee on the Relation of Churches and Colleges was presented by Rev. John A. Hawley, who recommended that a worker be secured to supplement the work of the minister at Amherst, in caring for Congregational students in the colleges there. Rev. J. Burford Parry, in approving the idea, spoke of other college centers where a similar work might be done. Rev. Harry W. Kimball then moved, and it was so voted, that the matter be referred to the Trustees of the Conference, requesting them to consider it and to grant hearings to ministers in any communities where there are colleges.

At 4:00 o'clock, a man known everywhere in the musical world, Prof. H. Augustine Smith of Boston University, to the joy and inspiration of a congregation exceeding the seating capacity of the church, gave able instruction and leadership in congregational singing of hymns.

Prof. Halford E. Luccock of the Department of Homiletics, Yale Divinity School, gave the first of three addresses upon the general theme, "First Century Backgrounds for Today's Church." In Speaking upon "The God of a Growing Church," Prof. Luccock defended the thesis that without God, there never has been and never can be hope for the world. And today, in the circling habit of time, we face a world much like that of the first century. Now, as then, we must have an adequate conception of God. No formula will suffice. A merely instrumental use of God is irreligious, and any attempt to limit the sphere of His operation short-circuits the whole idea of God.

There were four simultaneous supper conferences, continuing through the evening, as follows:

1. The Laymen, at the Norwood Junior High School.

Mr. Wilfrid H. Chapin, Chairman of the State Laymen's Committee, presided. The speakers were, Mr. Roy A. Hovey of Wakefield, on "A Successful Men's Class;" Mr. William L. Brooks of Fitchburg on "A Successful Deacons' Conference;" Rev. Dwight J. Bradley, Union Church, Boston, on "A Successful Laymen's Retreat," and Mr. W. W. Ollendorf of West Medway on "The Importance of Laymen's Work." President Daniel L. Marsh of Boston University delivered an inspiring address on "What Does it Really Mean to be Educated?"

By way of entertainment, Lt. Commander Walter K. Queen, chief engineer of the Byrd Second Antarctic Expedition, described with moving pictures his experiences in both the Antarctic and the Arctic regions.

The meeting was attended by 367 men from 19 associations, with others coming in after the supper.

The following resolution, presented by Mr. Arthur McClure of Woburn, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved: That this meeting go on record in favor of the formation of a Laymen's organization within the Congregational churches of our state. That the Laymen's Committee of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference lay the matter before the Board of Trustees with a request that a secretary be engaged to organize this movement and that the necessary funds be provided.

2. The Women, at the Allin Congregational Church.

Five hundred women, representing the Woman's Department, attended the Woman's Supper before the Annual Meeting on Monday. The meeting was held in the auditorium of the Allin Congregational Church. All six hundred seats were taken at the evening session, with Mrs. Robert P. Trask, Chairman, presiding. Reports were given from the different departments and the fifteen districts. Mrs. Grabill voiced the appreciation of the women for the work of the retiring Executive Secretary of the Woman's Department and presented her with a gift. A fine, inspirational address was given by Mrs. Francis J. Flagg, whose subject was, "The Vision Glorious."

3. The Young People, at the Dedham High School.

The young people met in the dining-room at the Dedham High School. About 465 sat down to supper and about 50 more came in for the program after the supper. After much hilarity, and singing led by Stanley Kindig, the group adjourned to the auditorium upstairs for the evening meeting. Mr. Stanley Maxwell, President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship, presided and led the worship service. The main address of the evening was made by the Rev. A. J. Muste of New York, after which Rev. Ray Gibbons, Dean of the new Pilgrim Fellowship Conference, gave information about the Conference. Mr. Maxwell then spoke on the financial goals of our state Pilgrim Fellowship. Miss Ruth Seabury, with her usual ease and command of the situation, led the group in singing and spoke briefly on the goals of the national Pilgrim Fellowship. The program closed with the play, "Smoke," presented by the young people of the Manchester church.

4. The Ministers, at the Unitarian Church.

President Ralph M. Timberlake presided at this meeting. The subject of the discussion was "The Vitality of Our Ministry." Rev. Hugh Vernon White spoke on "The Conviction of Christian Truth;" Rev. Richard Herbert Bennett on "Pastoral Program;" Prof. Halford E. Luccock on "The Preparation of the Preacher."

A resolution relating to Mr. Babson's general letter, prepared and presented for reference by a committee of the Suffolk South Ministers' Association, on recommendation of the mover, Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, was referred without comment to the General Council.

TUESDAY MORNING

The Moderator called the meeting to order at 9:30, and the Service of Worship was conducted by the Chaplain.

The Moderator then called upon the President of the Conference to give his annual report. He reported many actual achievements for the year and made practical suggestions for further development of the rich fellowship in and through our churches. His report, which is found elsewhere in these Minutes, was adopted by a rising vote of the Conference. Preceding his report, Mr. Timberlake read a telegram he had just received from the New Hampshire State Conference, and Mr. Bliss, our Secretary, was requested to wire a suitable reply.

The Secretary of the Conference then gave his annual report, printed elsewhere in these Minutes. Mr. Bliss stressed the importance of what is so often out of our denominational mind, our foreign-speaking work. His report concluded with the reading of the necrology. The whole congregation stood as a mark of respect. The following is the list of those ministers who have died since the last Annual Meeting, and whose ministerial standing has been held at sometime within the Conference:

Upon recommendation of Rev. Horace F. Holton, approved by the Business Committee, it was VOTED: That the Conference appoint a representative committee of three to study and clarify the question of how far a committee appointed by the Conference can speak and act for the Congregational and Christian churches of the state. The recommendation was adopted and the following were appointed: Rev. Horace F. Holton, Ethelbert V. Grabill, Harold Martin.

It was VOTED: That the appointment of a Secretary of Woman's Work be referred to the Trustees.

At this point Mr. Roger Babson, Moderator of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches, was recognized and announced that at the hearing upon denominational affairs to be held at once in the Unitarian church, he would be glad to answer any questions, and that the meeting would be conducted in a fair and Christian manner.

The following officers were then elected:

Moderator—Mr. Ethelbert V. Grabill, Jamaica Plain.
Vice-Moderator—Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, Westboro.
Recording Secretary—Rev. William L. Boicourt, Shirley.
Chairman of Department of Woman's Work—Mrs. Robert P. Trask, Lexington.
Vice-Chairman of Department of Woman's Work—Mrs. Myron H. Clark, Bedford.

Trustees—1938–1942:

Mrs. George H. Upton, Lowell, Andover Association.
Rev. Carl F. Schultz, Hyannis, Barnstable Association.
Rev. Watson Wordsworth, Housatonic, Berkshire South Association.
Rev. Eric I. Lindh, Brookfield, Brookfield Association.
Prof. Frederick C. Sears, Amherst, Hampshire Association.
Mr. Clarence E. Rice, Rockland, Pilgrim Association.
Mr. Willard C. Hill, Lexington, Member-at-Large.

Executive Officers

President—Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake.
Secretary—Rev. Alfred V. Bliss.
Treasurer—Mr. Myron S. Burton.
Field Secretary—Rev. George A. Tuttle.
Young People's Secretary—Rev. Porter Bower.

The new Moderator, Mr. E. V. Grabill, was then presented.

Rev. A. J. Muste, Director of the Labor Temple, New York City, gave a scholarly and fervent address on the question: "Is there a Return to Religion?" Surprising quotations from recent books of prominent radical writers would seem to indicate it. The pre-war hopes of an automatic, not to say atheistic progress, are gone. Hopes and special panaceas and world programs, such as Fascism and Communism, are now waning. The doctrine that the end justifies the means is replaced by the discovery that the means employed determine the nature of the end produced.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:00 o'clock, Prof. Carle C. Zimmerman of the Dept. of Sociology of Harvard University, addressed the Conference on "The State of the Rural Church in Massachusetts." Prof.

Zimmerman, who has recently directed intensive surveys of rural communities in different parts of the commonwealth, said that we do not yet realize how serious is the demoralization in rural Massachusetts, due to the depression. Family life has been weakened by long-continued public relief. Nothing short of a spiritual revival can save the people, the families, the farms and, therefore, the church itself in rural Massachusetts. At a later session it was VOTED: That the Chair appoint a special committee on the Rural Church, consisting of seven members, three of whom shall be members of the Aided Church Committee of the Trustees. The following persons were appointed:

Prof. Zimmerman has agreed to meet with this committee at some mutually convenient time.

Rev. George E. Cary reported for the Nominating Committee and the following committees were elected:

COMMITTEES

Trustees for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society—(Term expiring in 1941)—Rev. Joseph L. McCorison, Braintree; Rev. William B. Oliver, Vineyard Haven; Rev. Payson E. Pierce, Reading; Rev. C. Donald Plomer, New Bedford; Rev. Carl F. Schultz, Hyannis.

Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League—Rev. Manley F. Allbright, 1939, Allston; Rev. E. Talmadge Root, 1939, Somerville; Mr. A. W. Robinson, 1939, Natick; Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, 1940, Dorchester; Mr. S. H. Thompson, 1940, Lowell; Mrs. John H. Hollis, 1940, Swampscott; Rev. Edward C. Camp, 1941, Watertown; Mr. George F. Moulton, 1941, East Milton; Mrs. Benjamin C. Lane, 1941, West Roxbury.

Congregational Representatives on the Massachusetts Council of Churches—(Term expiring in 1941)—Rev. Osmond J. Billings, West Newbury; Mr. Wilfred H. Chapin, Fairhaven; Mrs. M. Walker Coe, Bridgewater; Mrs. Francis L. Cooper, Brockton; Mr. Arthur J. Crockett, West Roxbury; Mr. Charles H. Cummings, Springfield; Rev. Jacob M. Depoyan, Arlington; Rev. Theodore T. Dixon, North Amherst; Rev. Horace F. Holton, Brockton; Rev. John H. Lobingier, Boston; Mr. Arthur H. Merritt, Dorchester; Rev. Harry L. Meyer, Framingham; Mrs. James A. Potter, West Medford; Mr. Sidney A. Weston, Sharon; Rev. Harold B. White, Pelham; Miss Mildred C. Widber, Boston; Rev. Frederick C. Wilson, Ipswich.

Nominating Committee—(Term expiring in 1940)—Mr. Chester M. Grover, Cambridge; Mrs. Basil D. Hall, Northampton; Mrs. Clifton H. Mix, Worcester; Rev. Harold E. LeMay, Ayer.

Delegates to the General Council—(Term expiring at the opening of the meeting in 1942)—Mr. James Allen, Winchester; Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, Westboro; Mr. Myron S. Burton, Reading; Mr. Wilfred H. Chapin, Fairhaven; Mr. Harold Dakin, Dalton; Rev. Clarence E. Hellens, Fall River; Mr. Roy E. Hovey, Wakefield; Prof. Alfred C. Lane, Cambridge; Dr. Arthur L. Miles, Cambridge; Rev. Hugh Penney, Lowell; Miss Margaret Slattery, Malden; Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Belmont; Mr. Fred C. Tobey, West Stockbridge.

A resolution which had been first presented by Rev. Albert V.

House of Middlefield on Monday and further discussed Tuesday morning was finally adopted as follows:

VOTED: That the associations be requested to follow procedures suggested in Burton's Manual for calling of associational councils and that the Conference Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry be requested to send to registrars of associations copies of the text in Burton's Manual on this point.

Rev. Hugh Penney, Chairman of the Board of Trustees presented the following resolution:

Whereas, the Board of Trustees recognize the splendid spirit which Mrs. Carver has given her work as Woman's Secretary.

Be It Resolved: That the Conference in its Annual Meeting express to Mrs. Carver the sincere appreciation of the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts for her untiring interest and counsel.

Be It Further Resolved: That, the Massachusetts Congregational Conference in its Annual Meeting express to Mrs. Allbright, for the young people of our churches, their sincere thanks and appreciation for her cooperation and advice through her years of service. In passing these resolutions, the assembly rose in each instance and applauded.

Mrs. Trask, the Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work, announced that the Business Committee of the Woman's Department had recommended, and that the Trustees had approved, the following amendments to the by-laws of the Conference pertaining to the Department of Woman's Work:

That Article 8 on page 150 be consolidated to read as follows: "The object of this Department shall be to help promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world."

That the fourth sentence of the same paragraph be changed to read: "The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. These amendments were adopted by the Conference.

Mr. Penney presented the following recommendation of the Board of Trustees: that of the apportionment giving in 1939 not otherwise designated by the donors, 14% be given to the State Conference, 2.5% for the Council for Social Action and the balance be left in the hands of the Executive Committee, for action.

Rev. Dwight J. Bradley then presented the following amendment:

Resolved: That the Massachusetts Conference recommend to the Trustees of the Conference that the apportionment money be divided among the various Boards of the denomination according to the recommendations of the Executive Committee of the General Council, thereby increasing the contribution to the Council for Social Action from 2.5% to 4%.

This occasioned considerable discussion and the Moderator announced that final action would be taken the first thing on Wednesday morning.

The Business Committee announced that two invitations had been received: one from the Worcester Central Association, requesting that the Conference meet in Worcester in 1939 (or 1940); the other was a renewal of the invitation from Edwards Church, Northampton, extended a year ago, and was presented in person by Rev. Albert J. Penner. He added that the First Church joined with Edwards Church in this invitation. It was VOTED: That we accept the joint invitation of the Edwards and the First Churches in Northampton and that the Annual Meeting be held there in 1939.

At the suggestion of the Business Committee, the Conference had the pleasure of hearing Dr. William Horace Day of Connecticut speak upon the Debt of Honor Compaign.

At 3:00 o'clock, the growing interdenominational Christian Student Movement was effectively presented by three students of differing denominational affiliation, under the direction of Rev. William J. Kitchin, himself a Baptist. The first to speak was a Methodist of Boston University, John Swombley, Student Chairman of the Boston Area. The second was Miss Ruth Jackson, an Episcopalian, of Radcliffe, and the third was Paul Ward, a Congregationalist, and a member of an honored missionary family. All three expressed the insistent demand of modern youth that Christianity be incorporated in social action.

Prof. Luccock, at 4:15, gave his second address: "The Making of an Apostle." The first man elected to office in the church's history, Matthias, was never heard from again; yet he was chosen to be a "witness of the Resurrection." An apostle now, as then, is one who is a channel through whom the Spirit speaks to the people. He must be what he is talking about. You cannot get a flower show over the radio. You can much less experience religion through mere word of mouth.

At 5:45 the Fellowship Supper was held at the Dedham High School. Secretary Bliss presided, and after the supper, introduced Rev. J. Frank Robinson, who spoke in a happy mood and, in turn, presented Rev. Lyman B. Rutledge, the minister of the Unitarian Church in Dedham. Mr. Rutledge spoke on the early history of the town and then showed moving pictures of the tercentenary celebration that had been held some months previously.

TUESDAY EVENING

The evening meeting was opened with a service of song, led by Prof. H. Augustine Smith. Not soon to be forgotten was the singing of "Joy to the World." A large congregation, led by the church choir and inspired by Prof. Smith, sang with great volume and elation of spirit.

The Chaplain, assisted by the pastor of Allin Church, conducted the Service of Worship.

The annual appeal for a special offering for The Board of Ministerial Aid was made this year by Rev. Robert Wood Coe, and resulted in a collection of $256.03.

The Conference Sermon was preached by Rev. George A. Buttrick of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City. His subject was announced as "The Primacy of Christian Character," his text being Matthew 12:35: "A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things." The sermon was a challenging appeal for confidence in goodness resulting from Christian character.

The Communion Service was conducted by the Chaplain, assisted by Rev. J. Frank Robinson.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

At 9:30 the Service of Worship was conducted by the Chaplain.

At 9:45 the Business Session was opened.

The motion in regard to Conference percentages, presented the previous day by Rev. Hugh Penney and amended by Rev. Dwight Bradley, was discussed and it was adopted finally in the following form:

VOTED: That the Massachusetts Conference recommend to the Trustees of the Conference that the percentage quotas of the apportionment money be reconsidered, with the exception of the 14% to be retained within the Conference, so that in the light of further study and in accordance with sound and impartial judgment, the percentage allocated to the Council for Social Action may be increased from 2.5% to 4%; or, in case the full percentage of 4% seems too great from the standpoint of the demoninational program and its fiscal needs as a whole, that a percentage as near to 4% as may seem just and reasonable be allocated to the Council for Social action, at the discretion of the Conference Trustees.

The Business Committee reported out the following resolution, originally presented by Rev. Joseph L. McCorison, and it was unanimously adopted:

Resolved: That the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts in annual conference assembled call all ministers and churches in their fellowship to reaffirm their Protestant Faith and their loyalty to our common Protestant heritage, and to declare their allegiance to the principles of American Constitutional Democracy and to all liberties guaranteed thereunder; that in declaring our rights, we also affirm and acknowledge our duties to love and preserve our country.

We believe in the principle of absolute separation of Church and State; that all appeals to religious bigotry and racial animosities for political purpose are un-American; that appropriations of public funds for sectarian purposes are contrary to the spirit and letter of our Constitution; and that discriminations because of race and religion are a violation of that liberty which is the right of all American people.

We abhor the doctrines of Fascism and Communism and encourage all citizens of this Republic of Free People, regardless of religious affiliation, to hold tenaciously to the principle of majority rule and minority rights in contradistinction to all foreign propaganda of whatever origin.

The following resolution was also presented by the Business Committee and it was adopted:

Resolved: That this Massachusetts Conference reaffirms its faith in the validity and effectiveness of Congregational polity and expresses its confidence in the integrity of its elected representatives and its appointed officers.

VOTED: That the Conference instruct the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare to support with appropriate action legislative measures in the following areas:

1. All bills prohibiting granting club licenses.
2. All bills seeking to restrict and prevent extension of time of sale of alcoholic beverages.
3. All bills repealing pari-mutual betting; legalizing gambling.

It was VOTED: That the resolution against gambling in churches and the resolution in favor of the Lord's Day League be referred to the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare for their consideration. They are as follows:

This Conference goes on record as opposed to "the appeal to chance," in any way, in support of the work of Christ, who gave himself that we might learn to give.

The Conference appeals to the churches of the state to oppose every form of gambling, in every organization connected with the church, and requests all associations and church committees on social action to further this appeal.

We wish to affirm our belief that the greatness and strength of New England and the nation are in a very large measure the result of the sturdy character and civic virtue developed by the religious life of our forefathers. Character is the product of religion. The development of the religious life is not a matter of chance. In a time of stress and the complex interests of life, there is particular need for a time of rest and quiet, if people are to have the opportunity to develop the strength that comes from religion.

We regret the widespread commercialization of the Sabbath day, as well as the indifference with which the day is observed by many of those within the Christian churches. We call upon Christian people to observe this day for its religious purposes, believing that by such observance we can better gain those stalwart virtues which are the true strength of our country.

We view with regret the growing practice of holding military, patriotic, semi-patriotic and civic parades on the Lord's Day. We protest against the holding of such secular spectacles on Sunday, and we call upon churches and church people to make like protests in their own communities, and we further call upon such military, patriotic and civic organizations to contribute to the development of real patriotism and civic strength by observing the Lord's Day for its rightful purpose, for rest and religious uses, and that they find other times for such parades and similar celebrations.

We commend to churches and ministers the value of occasional emphasis upon the proper observance of the Lord's Day and suggest that this subject be considered in the programs of ministers' groups and local association meetings.

We urge upon pastors the value of frequent preaching upon the due observance of the Lord's Day for the purposes of rest and religious growth, and we heartily endorse all efforts being made to increase church attendance.

We reaffirm our confidence in the work of the Lord's Day League of New England, both as the representative of the churches in matters of legislation affecting the Lord's Day and its program of education, and emphasizing the importance of the observance of the day for rest and religious purposes.

As a result of a telegram from John W. Haseltine, President of the Massachusetts Selectmen's Association, calling attention to Senate Bill No. 210, filed by the above Association, then before the Senate, it was VOTED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society at its Annual Meeting now in session at Dedham commends President Wragg of the Massachusetts Senate for his vote breaking the tie vote on Senate Bill No. 210*, and urges that the Senate pass this bill."

It was also

VOTED: That a telegram be sent to the Methodist Conference now in session at Lynn, urging them to take similar action regarding Senate Bill No. 210.

It was VOTED: That five minutes of the morning session be given to Mr. Grubaugh, as the New England Director of the Debt of Honor Campaign.

Resolved: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference express its deep appreciation to the officers and committees responsible for the arrangements for this Annual Meeting, in particular to the committee responsible for this unusually splendid program. We express our thanks to the pastor of this church, the Rev. J. Frank Robinson, the committees, organist, choir, and members of the Allin Church for the careful preparation for the meeting and for their hospitality. We heartily appreciate the thorough cooperation of the pastor and people of the Unitarian church; and to the publishers of the Dedham Transcript, the police and Boy Scouts we give our hearty thanks. We appreciate the cooperation of the ministers and people in surrounding communities in providing hospitality. Finally, we express appreciation to all others, especially the Moderator, who have contributed toward the satisfaction we have felt as delegates to this outstanding Annual Meeting.

*An act regulating appeals to the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission by applicants for licenses aggrieved by the action of the local licensing authorities.

It was VOTED: That the action of this Conference at its last Annual Meeting held in Lowell in 1937, calling for the repeal of Chapter 390 of the acts of 1936, which provided for the transportation of private school pupils to and from school, be and is hereby reaffirmed.

Resolved: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society hereby endorses the proposed constitutional amendment to prohibit sectarian appropriations, introduced in Congress at the request of the League Opposed to Sectarian Appropriations, and urges its immediate passage.

At 10:30, Rev. William F. Frazier, Executive Vice-President of the Board of Home Missions, addressed the Conference. Speaking out of the richness and wisdom of an acquaintance throughout our fellowship, which is as intimate as it is extensive, he stressed the importance of the personal aspects of the Christian Church. Walls and endowments cannot save us. Only as by common Christian service to persons, we come to know each other throughout the denomination, shall our love for one another grow and our confidence in each other be increased.

At 11:30, Rev. D. Brewer Eddy, Secretary of the American Board, spoke of serious moral conditions which actually now threaten our present social integrity as well as the very future of American government. His heart-to-heart talk was based in part upon insights recently gained by a group of men, including himself, who systematically studied trends in Washington, D. C., and elsewhere.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:00 o'clock Prof. Luccock delivered the final lecture of the series: "A Venturing Church." As the church in the first century ventured out into disputed areas, so must the church of today. Routine cannot save it. Subservience to anything less than the Highest is fatal. To venture is to keep alive, and as Ex-President Lowell of Harvard University once wisely said, "Not many institutions are killed while they are still alive."

The registration for the Conference was as follows:

Pastors	309
Delegates	458
Visitors	383
Members Ex-Officiis	25
Total	1175

It was VOTED: That the Recording Secretary be authorized to complete the Minutes.

The Moderator announced that at the close of the afternoon session this 139th Annual Meeting would stand adjourned.

Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary.

William Boicourt, Recording Secretary.

THE PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

This is the day of opportunity for Congregationalism. Never has there been greater need for promulgating the religious spirit and moral principles that we have inherited from our fathers. When, on the one hand, other agencies are threatening the very basis of democracy; the freedom of the individual conscience and the right of private judgment, and, on the other hand, the Ecumenical Movement is gaining momentum, the Pilgrim spirit has a rare privilege of serving the Church and Society.

The problem that faces us is how we may make our influence effective. Surely it cannot be otherwise than by calling into use and emphasizing the complementary principle of our Separateness, that of Fellowship. We detest the centralization of authority. We naturally dread any form of organization that encourages the sway of dictatorship. Our attitude, however, cannot be simply one of negation and resentment. We must make a positive effort to perfect the technique of Fellowship, to enlarge the area of our co-operativeness, to stimulate an espirt de corps among those who share our faith and policy. If we believe in the values of fellowship we have every good reason to become enthusiastic for its practice and to rejoice in the expectancy of an ensuing spiritual revival.

The full benefits of fellowship do not happen of themselves. The strictly independent Congregational Church cannot in isolation profit by the experiences and experiments of its sister churches. While we shudder at the thought of submitting in abject obedience to authority, we can and we must be responsive to the power of suggestibility. We must believe that in every church there is the desire for improvement and the willingness to accept suggestion and to co-operate to attain a common purpose. Free churches are not necessarily devoid of a common sense that is ready to be influenced by the opinions and example of others, and to profit by their experience.

This leads to a clearer understanding of the nature of the leadership which your Conference can give to the churches of the Commonwealth. The Conference is a service institution. Its greatest service might well be that of creating occasions for Fellowship, of arranging to bring together for intimate intercourse various groups within the churches, and of preparing the way whereby the rich experience of the one may be shared by all.

We recognize that the work of the Conference Staff is that of intimate and friendly counsel with pastors and individual church groups. But important and obligatory as this friendly service is, equally helpful would be that of arranging the setting and perhaps suggesting a program for intimate conferences between groups of leaders of the similar Departments of the church life, such as the Pastors, the Sunday School executives, the Young People's leaders and the officers of Women's and Men's organizations.

In every Association there are the standard number of committees, but it is apparent to all that frequently a Religious Education Committee or a Missionary Committee or the Laymen's Committee of an Association does not hold a formal meeting from one year's end to the other. No one really is to blame for this. The committees are often appointed without anyone being named as Chairman. The Moderator of the Association, being a pastor of a church and serving for but one year, cannot undertake this responsibility. The Scribe of the Association has his clerical duties to perform and is not in any sense an administrator, therefore, so far as the particular committee is concerned, what is every one's job is no one's job. In Congregationalism in England this weakness is relieved by the fact that the Moderator of the Association is an executive officer, a minister free from parish duties, and he gives his time to furthering the common interests of the churches of his group. My personal conviction is, and the Board of Trustees shares in this belief, that there would be great advantage to the churches of our Conference if each member of our Staff were assigned to a specific area of the state and made responsible for cultivating the fellowship of the churches in that area along the lines indicated above.

In a measure we can see the benefits of such a plan in the Western Associations. Mr. Tuttle, the Field Secretary, has not as yet followed through completely such a program as I have outlined, but in his intimate acquaintance and personal contact with churches and officials of Western Massachusetts he is receiving an enthusiastic response from them and finding the solution of many parish difficulties. There is being engendered a new strength and hopefulness, particularly in the smaller churches.

Another interesting support for such a plan is a resolution adopted at the Annual Meeting of the Old Colony United Association only a few days ago. It was then voted, "That we hereby request the Trustees of the State Conference secure a Pastor-at-Large or Executive Secretary for Southeastern Massachusetts, a man who will come and live among us and function in a way similar to the present arrangement in Western Massachusetts. We would be pleased to have this plan begin on September 1st, 1938."

I have suggested to the Board of Trustees that it would be well if the Associations of Massachusetts were divided into five groups — the Western, Central, Northeast, Southeast and Greater Boston Areas; that within each one of these there should be placed a Field Secretary whose responsibility would be the cultivation of a friendly acquaintance with each pastor and church situation, the direct counseling with individuals and groups as such assistance was sought, and especially the building up of a fruitful fellowship in each Association and also between similar groups from the several Association in his area. This may not be, by any means, a perfect plan, but I thoroughly believe it will meet an urgent need. It would be a forward step in perfecting the technique of Fellowship between independent churches.

Greater Boston Regional Council

Apropos the above suggestion I am happy to report here what has been going on in the way of closer co-operation among the Associations of the Greater Boston Area. Considerable of my time during the past year has been given to meeting with and assisting a committee, some time called the "Concord" Committee and more recently "The Greater Boston Fellowship Committee", representing four Associations and under the able chairmanship of Reverend M. Russell Boynton. It has been a joy to me to see how an idea of closer cooperation dropped into this fertile soil has developed and borne fruit in the formation of a Greater Boston Regional Council. At the recent meetings of the Suffolk North, Suffolk South, Suffolk West and Woburn Associations each one gave its sanction to the establishment of this Council and elected representatives thereto.

Briefly the objectives of this newly organized Council are:

To co-ordinate the work of the four Associations.

To undertake work that the Associations individually cannot so effectively discharge.

To call together the churches of these Associations for services of united worship.

To consider means of raising the common level of the spiritual life of the churches of the Congregational Fellowship in this area.

To stimulate the activities of the service committees in the four Associations and to arrange for joint meetings of these committees.

To be charged with advancing the welfare of the churches of the Associations as a whole.

Here in Greater Boston is to be undertaken an emphasis on Fellowship, such as I have been urging for the other areas of the state. With a purpose in no way conflicting with the work of the Conference and certainly in no sense attempting to duplicate the work of either the individual Associations or the Conference, but heartily calling upon and depending upon the co-operation of all these agencies, the Greater Boston Regional Council will, I believe, show the way toward a creative Congregational Fellowship.

The assistance which your Executive Officers have been able to give the Conference through its formal committees is revealed in the reports of these committees as placed in your hands in printed form:

Mrs. Allbright with the Religious Education Committee

Mrs. Carver with the Woman's Department

Mr. Bliss with the Aided Church Committee

Mr. Tuttle with the Committee on Churches and Colleges

Mr. Burton with the Finance Committee

Your President with the Missionary, Preaching Mission, Laymens, Stewardship Committees and those on Moral and Social Welfare and on the Polity and Standards for the Ministry.

Fall Programs

In keeping with our purpose to serve the Associations, the State Committee on Religious Education and the State Missionary Committee are together uniting in offering to the Associations a balanced program for their meetings next Fall. The theme of the study will be "A Parish Program of Christian Education". This is wide enough to include the whole interest of the Church. Speakers and leaders will be made available and suggestions will be offered for the use of local leadership. The whole idea is to enable each Association at its next meeting, to present a timely and helpful discussion of issues vital to every church. A complete and definite statement of the plan will soon be sent to Association leaders with the hope that many will avail themselves of this invitation to engage in a realistic consideration of problems which concern every church worker.

"Pilgrim State News"

An important factor in making the members of our Fellowship better acquainted with one another, which in itself is essential to the beginning of co-operation, is the Pilgrim State News. During the Past year Reverend Raymond B. Blakney of Williamstown has ably and brilliantly edited our state paper. Under his hand, and in co-operation with the Missions Council, it is becoming a welcome and interesting visitor to the homes of our people. Recently the Trustees have made it possible for me to announce that the Pilgrim State News will be sent to every pastor for a year. We expect that each minister will be glad to send back to the state office his "subscription quarter" as a token of the value of the News to him, — in the matter of the "pastoral changes", if nothing else. Our main hope, however, is that appreciating what the Pilgrim State News could do for the members of his church, every pastor will become an active agent in securing subscriptions to our paper. We have at the present time 2,527 subscribers. We ought to be able to double that number by next May. The Editor is giving at least three days of his time a month, gratis, to making this little magazine worth while. Surely his fellow ministers will be glad to give some definite time and effort to getting the message and spirit of the Pilgrim State News into the homes of his parish.

The Debt of Honor

Last year at Lowell you authorized the support of Massachusetts toward the Debt of Honor Fund. Your approval at that time had much to do with encouraging the Executive Committee of the General Council in proceeding with and perfecting its plans for the campaign. I should like herewith to inscribe on a roll of honor the names of the men who have been active in the leadership of our state organization and program. Four of our active pastors were graciously and unselfishly released by their churches in order that they might undertake the directorship of our effort. They are as follows: Reverend Leon E. Grubaugh of Adams, Reverend Theodore Bacheler of South Hadley Falls, Reverend Lyndon S. Beardslee of Westboro, Reverend Hugh Penney of Eliot Curch, Lowell. Without any personal advantage or gain these men have thrown themselves enthusiastically and ardently into the promotion of the Debt of Honor. With them should be recorded the name of Reverend Robert W. Coe who has served as Chairman of the State Committee and the following men who have served as Chairmen of District Committees: Reverend M. Russell Boynton, Reverend William F. English, Reverend Olin B. Tracy, Reverend Harold S. Capron, Reverend Baldwin W. Callahan, Mr. Raymond Andrews, Mr. Frank Auchter, Reverend Carl Fearing Schultz, Reverend John H. Sargent, Reverend Harry Grimes, Reverend David J. Julius, Reverend Albert J. Penner, Reverend Harry W. Foot, Reverend Paul S. McElroy, Reverend Clement F. Hahn.

Encouraging, indeed, has been the way in which this Fund has appealed to the people at large and the response that has come from the laity when they have understood its purpose. Several of our churches, some in spite of adverse conditions, have already completed their participation and done so with great generosity. Others are in the process. Still others are planning to make their appeal this Fall. No church in Massachusetts should fail to discharge its obligation in this common undertaking of our Fellowship. Let it not be said that the Old Bay State put its hand to the plough and took its eye from the mark before the task was fully accomplished.

Ministerial Changes

During the past year there have been over eighty changes in the pulpits of Massachusetts. The Conference Office has been directly related to more than half of these. Two of our active pastors have laid down their duties here to enjoy the reward of the good and the faithful servant. These are the Reverend Archie G. Axtell, pastor of the White Oaks Church in Williamstown and the Reverend Albert F. Pierce, acting pastor of the Point of Pines Church in Revere who completed sixty-eight years in the active ministry.

Sixteen of our co-laborers retired from the parish ministry during the year. Many of them are continuing to serve the churches as interim pastors. These are: Rev. Ernest L. Baker, Rev. Arthur Barber, Rev. Arthur S. Burrill, Rev. Charles M. Crooks, Rev. William Fryling, Rev. Harry W. Kimball, Rev. Warren P. Landers, Rev. George E. Lombard, Rev. Clair F. Luther, Rev. Newman Matthews, Rev. Henry E. Oxnard, Rev. Charles R. Small, Rev. Arthur F. Virta, Rev. John C. Wightman, Rev. Benjamin A. Willmott, Rev. John E. Whitley, Twenty-nine of our ministers have removed from the Commonwealth, most of them to Congregational churches in other states.

Twenty-four ministers have transferred to other churches within our Conference.

As a result of changes in pastorates nine of our capable ministers up to the present time have been added to the number of the unemployed.

During the year we have welcomed to twenty-one churches Congregational ministers from other states and nine of our churches have seen well to call to their pastorate ministers from other denominations. Seven churches have called recent seminary graduates. Twenty changes have been in churches served by students.

Of the several attempts we have made to unite two weaker churches into a yoked parish in order that they might be able to share in a more able leadership, in only a few instances have we thus far succeeded, though others are pending.

Our church at Granville Center has been federated with the Baptist Church in Granville, and the work seems to be moving along happily under the ministry of Rev. and Mrs. Asa Mellinger. These were formerly both struggling churches with a small constituency and only about a mile apart.

A co-operative enterprise has been entered into by some ten of the rural churches in and about Pelham. With Rev. Harold B. White, formerly of Easthampton, as the mediating agency, a strong and varied program is slowly but surely getting under way. In this parish and at Southfield a Student Summer Service will be maintained by the New England Town and Country Church Commission.

Also in the western area the new ministry of Marion Phelps in the Erving-Farley-Wendell combined parish is producing worth-while results. The people of these communities are coming to appreciate the value of their respective churches and are losing their former spirit of discouragement. The awakened religious interest in Tolland should be noted. For several years the only religious center in the township has been for the most part closed. Now the church is being put in repair outside and in, and plans are already laid for the resumption of regular Sunday services during those months of the year when travel conditions are right. The work will undoubtedly go on under the leadership of Rev. Glen P. Holman, the West Granville minister, with the happy co-operation of the people of that parish.

Another interesting indication of strength is the coming to self-support of the Boylston Church in Jamaica Plain. For forty-seven years the Conference has been making an annual grant to this church. Under the splendid leadership of Howard Pomeroy, at its recent annual meeting, the church voted not to renew its application for aid this coming year. The same should be said of the Hope Church in Worcester to which Rev. Henry C. Stallard has been called, the First Church of Lynn where George B. Owen became pastor two years ago. Due to pastoral changes grants have not been requested by the Union Church in Medford, the Waldo Church in Brockton and Trinity Church, Neponset. Conference aid has been discontinued to the Pilgrim Church in Dorchester and to the First Church in Everett for an assistant.

The Conference has added temporarily to the list of churches receiving aid the North Church in Lynn and the Church in North Reading. With the encouragement and aid of the Conference the 218 year old church in Orleans, which last year voted to close and sell its parsonage, has recently decided to call a pastor and again actively serve the community.

This report should contain the record of a resolution adopted at the annual meeting of the Hampshire Association of Congregational Churches and ministers:

"In view of the elimination of the town of Enfield by the action of the Commonwealth and the loss to our fellowship of the Enfield Congregational Church: Therefore be it resolved that we express our deep loss over the dismemberment of an organization so rich in the tradition of service to the world's need; and be it further resolved that we express to our brethren of the Enfield Congregational Church who have lost their place of worship and spiritual refuge our affectionate regard and warm fraternal sympathy. We extol the long line of faithful and devoted servants of Christ who have served in the pulpit and parish of their Church. We glory in the Christian character which has been nurtured through its ministries. Though great is our sadness in the loss of this historic village we rejoice that through Christian living it is possible to create a city of God which never dies."

The erection of new buildings, sanctuaries or parish houses has taken place in:

Randolph
The Rollstone Church, Fitchburg
Phillips Church in Watertown
Robbins Memorial Church in Greenfield
Hope Church in Greenfield

In the following churches there has been undertaken extensive restoration or remodeling:

The Pilgrim Church in Cambridge
The Maple Street Church in Danvers
Grace Church, Holyoke
Lakeview Church in Worcester
Hadwen Park Church in Worcester
The Church in Wellfleet
The Church in Westminster

The former Congregational Church Building Society, now the Church Building Department of the Board of Home Missions has made appropriations in Massachusetts to eight churches. — In Grants totaling $7,500 and in Loans totaling $47,450.00, a grand total of $54,950. The churches assisted were:

Framingham, Grace
Ipswich, First and South
Randolph, First
Raynham Center, First
Revere, First
Somerville, First
Springfield, Hope
Worcester, Lake View

During the year, on the unanimous advice of the pastors of Springfield, the Conference has discontinued the financial arrangement it has had for some time with the Springfield Union whereby "90 per cent of the contributions for state work received from the churches of Springfield was retained by the Union."

The Conference will continue to co-operate with and encourage the Springfield Union just as it has been doing through the years with the Worcester City Missionary Society.

Every report that has come to hand from pastors regarding their special Lenten services and the accessions of new members at Easter, indicates that through the year there has been a general growing interest in the church and a renewal of spiritual life in our communities. This is due, I thoroughly believe, not to economic reasons, but to the consecrated and devoted work of our ministers. If the day of opportunity is before us our churches are surely awakening to their privilege and responsibility. The service and strategy of the Conference must be extended to bring to the support of our pastors every resource and moral and spiritual equipment, — a great and effectual door is open to us.

Lead on, O King Eternal, we follow, not with fears,
For gladness breaks like morning where're Thy face appears.
Thy cross is lifted o'er us, we journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

The field work of a Conference Secretary is like pastoral calling. It is intensely interesting in its human contacts; it is infinitely varied, realistic and rewarding.. In one particular it resembles the painting of the great Firth of Forth Bridge, near Edinburgh, Scotland. They paint this bridge once every three years, and it takes just three years to paint it. Since our Annual Meeting at Lowell, a year ago, I have visited 138 churches, and attended 20 meetings of associations or association committees, besides uncounted individual and church committee conferences in the office. While it is difficult to draw a sharp line between city and rural church, in general these visits have comprised 53 rural churches and 78 churches in cities, and 38 foreign-speaking churches.

The foreign-speaking work is not the most popular part of our program. One reason may be that it is not so well known, because the difference in language acts as a barrier on each side of the line, with the result that we do not know so well the personnel of the churches of foreign speech, and they do not know us so well; and naturally they feel a bit backward about coming to us or to our church meetings. I want briefly to point out one aspect of this foreign speech work that to me seems very important. It has to do with the making of happy and wholesome contacts between the two groups. The percentage of crime among people of foreign birth, in the United States, is not as high as among those of native American birth. The crime rate, however, among the first generation of the children of the immigrant, born in this country, is higher than among the people of American stock. The two outstanding reasons are that, first, in our large cities we have segregated the immigrant families into the Italian quarters, and the Greek quarters, and the Ghetto, and for the most part, in the slums; and secondly, following from this, their principal contacts with American life have been at its lower levels of vice, crime, and impurity and lawlessness. Until well into this century, the Protestant church and the public school have not done much to help the foreigner adjust himself to the new conditions of American culture. The lead was taken back about 1890, by the establishment of work in the slums by the now famous settlement houses, such as Hull House in Chicago, the Henry St. Settlement in New York, and the Andover House, now the South End House, in Boston. We are glad to praise the wisdom of the Roman Catholic Church in entering this same situation with its parochial schools, and meeting the newly arrived immigrant with ample understanding of his foreign culture and intelligent desire to help him adjust himself in his new home. We have a humble right to be proud of our own record of foreign church work in Massachusetts, by which we have brought to the Germans, Swedes, French, Finns, Norwegians, Albanians, Armenians, Portuguese, Syrians, Italians, Greeks, Chinese, Polish, the wholesome and redemptive contacts with the gospel of Jesus Christ, mediated, as it necessarily must be, thru the church, the only body Christ has in the world, and thru individual men and women who possess and radiate the Christ spirit. I shudder to think of what these groups of strangers in a strange land might have become, had not the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society gone to them with outstretched hand and warm friendly heart. This work has given and still gives them a vital contact with the spirit and the ideals of Jesus Christ and fulfils for them St. Paul's promise to the Ephesians: "You are therefore no longer mere foreigners . . . on the other hand you share citizenship with the saints and are members of His family." Eph. 2 : 19.

The earliest record I can find of helping a church of foreign speech in Massachusetts was in 1836, when we helped for 13 years a German church in Boston. In 1863, our records report a Hollander church, which for 10 years we helped. In 1867, and for 18 years, we aided a Swedish church in Boston. And, believe it or not, for 3 years we helped a Hebrew church, in the 1890's.

The Swedes seem to have been the pioneers in organizing churches that are now living: for example, the following: Worcester, Swedish, in1 880; one in Forest Hills and one in Lowell, in 1881; one in Easton in 1883; which we aided for 36 years. Our Norwegian church in Roxbury was organized in 1885 and we have aided this for 52 years. Fall River French, Clinton German, Fitchburg German, Waltham Swedish, Fitchburg Swedish — which two years ago became the Pilgrim Church (English-speaking), Worcester Armenian, Millville Swedish, Quincy Finnish, Fitchburg Finnish, whose pastor, Rev. Andrew Groop, has the honor of having the longest pastorate in the state, 43 years in that one church, and so on down to more recent times.

There is no promise of growth in these churches of foreign speech, as such. They will naturally take on American ways and imperceptibly become English-speaking churches. A year ago I told the people of the Armenian-speaking, and those of the Turkish-speaking Armenian churches in Porter Square, Cambridge, that within ten years I hoped to see in that beautiful and spacious church edifice, not a service in Armenian Sunday morning and another using Turkish Sunday afternoon, as at present, neither group understanding the other, but one great English-speaking church, composed largely of people of Armenian descent, but thoroughly American.

Many other foreign-speaking churches will disappear and their members will gradually be absorbed by some neighboring English-speaking church. This process, though, depends largely on how cordially the church of English speech welcomes the people of foreign descent into their life and work. It is up to us to extend a warm hand and heart. These new Americans will make a valuable contribution to our church and community. They are contributing now to our symphony orchestras, our laboratories of science, judges to our courts, mayors to our cities, athletes to our college baseball and football teams and marathon races, sculptures and paintings to our parks and art galleries.

We have been privileged, during the last hundred years or more to co-operate by aiding financially the following outstanding, and now self-supporting, churches in this commonwealth:

Adams now having a membership of	636
Arlington	709
Arlington Heights	476
Roslindale	867

If these great, leading churches now were once aided by the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, we can, with reasonable assurance, look forward to seeing some of the present beneficiaries of the Society become equally great, strong leading churches of our Massachusetts Conference.

The ecumenical idea, which took shape and action last summer at the Oxford and Edinburgh Conferences, is coming to expression in this commonwealth. In fact, it has been finding a feeble expression here for many years; but we hope that Oxford and Edinburg, and their immediate successor, the recent meeting in Utrecht, Holland, to draft a constitution for a World Council of Churches will hasten the movement here. This word "ecumenical," which is the Protestant word corresponding to "Catholic," represents 350,000,000 people, while Roman Catholicism represents but 331,000,000 people. The Greek work "ecumenical" is found 14 times in the New Testament, while the Greek word "Catholic" is not found in the text of the New Testament books at all. We are witnessing a thrilling movement in this ecumenical idea. It means that we shall talk less about "our churches" and more about "the church." As surface indications of this movement, I am glad to state that the two churches at North Raynham and Raynham Center are planning to reunite in a single pastorate again, under Rev. C. Leonard Holton; the churches at Sherborn and South Natick have been yoked together under the pastoral care of Rev. Lewis Chase. Two colored churches in Brockton, Congregational and Baptist, have been making love to each other with a view to union, but the much-to-be-desired consummation has not yet been realized. The two churches in Pelham have federated under the enterprising leadership of Rev. Harold B. White. In New Marlboro the three or four churches there, of which Rev. Clarence Carr is the prophetic pastor, are planning a forward looking, ecnumenical combination to be known as "The United Church, or Churches, of New Marlboro." The two Swedish churches in Beverly and Rockport, Pigeon Cove, have been happily yoked for a year and a half under the one pastorate of Rev. Oscar F. Johnson.

Two or three other similar projects are in the making but cannot be reported quite yet.

I was honored in offering the ordaining prayer at the ordination of the Unitarian minister in Westford, Rev. W. W. Lewis. He is the minister of the federated church there, comprising the Congregational and the Unitarian churches.

The very happy spirit of co-operation and good will shown us by the Unitarian church here in Dedham, in entertaining this annual meeting, is prophetic of even better days to come.

This Allin Church, Dedham, for the second consecutive year, reports the largest number of accessions on confession of faith, namely 90. Last year it led with 85 accessions. There are 175 churches that do not report any accessions on confession.

In total membership our churches on January 1, 1938, were 1413 ahead of a year ago. But our church schools show a loss of 1698; last year the loss was 3600; and comparing January 1, in the years 1929 and 1938, the loss in the later year was 19,023.

Strange to say, the peak year for church school membership was 1918, when it was over 130,000. Last January 1, it had dropped to 97,299.

The largest church school is in the South Church, Springfield, with 1016 members, with Dorchester, Second, following close behind with 990 members. Everett, First and Quincy, Bethany are tied for third place.

The apportionment contributions for the calendar year 1937 were $6,421 less than for 1936, and $437,055 less than for the year 1929.

The largest giving to denominational missions was by the Old South Church, Boston, namely $14,147, with Pittsfield, First and Brookline, Harvard holding second and third places. Boston, Old South gave $1100 more this year than in 1936.

Home expenses of our churches in 1937 were $84,036 over those for 1936; but compared with 1929, they were over a million dollars ($1,079,508) less. But the property value of the 615 churches in 1937 was about $70,000 more than in 1929.

I think there is beginning to be a Return to Religion. There are indications that people are hungry for real religion. The ecumenical movement — to refer to this once again — indicates an awakening of the churches to the necessity for a united Protestantism and Eastern Orthodoxy. The testimony of those who came back from Oxford and Edinburgh last summer was that God has put an end to our beginnings, and has begun himself. They felt that there they had met God; they had seen Christ. This is the ground of our confidence today.

RALPH M. TIMBERLAKE, ESQ., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society
Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir: — We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ending March 31, 1938, and we hereby certify that income receivable from invested funds has been duly accounted for; that all other income shown by the books of the Society has been duly accounted for; that all payments have been properly vouched; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds; that the cash in banks and office has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business on March 31, 1938, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ending at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Committee on Religious Education has thought of its task as having two important phases: first, that of helping to develop elements of a religious education program for the churches, and, second, to make such contacts with local leaders as will enable them to use the available resources of religious education.

To meet this second need, the committee took two of the meetings of the State committee into two different associations,—in January, to Fall River and in March, to Amesbury. The members of the association committees, in these two areas, were invited to sit with the state committee during the afternoon; and later, institutes were held for pastors and superintendents. During the evenings, group conferences were provided for leaders of children, young people, and adults.

The sub-committee on Children's Work held two profitable conferences with children's leaders from the associations. This is regarded as a most hopeful development, for it relates to the state committee competent women who will become effective workers in their associations.

The sub-committee on Young People's Work has continued the development of the Pilgrim Fellowship. Two meetings of the State Council of the Pilgrim Fellowship were held: one at Edgemere Lodge, on Columbus Day, and the other in Boston, during March. A sense of solidarity among the young people of the state is steadily developing. The council adopted certain program emphases which it recommends to all types of young people's organizations, and has initiated a plan of enrollment, whereby local societies register the names of their officers with the state office. Those so doing receive a certificate of enrollment. One of the features of this plan of enrollment is that it gives young people's groups an opportunity to share in certain financial goals, including Congregational Christian work within the state, within the nation and throughout the world. Although, at the time that this report was written, the letters announcing the plan had only been out a short time, a considerable number of young people's groups had sent in contributions to the financial goals adopted for the Pilgrim Fellowship. It is planned to send four young people and an adult to the first meeting of the National Council of the Pilgrim Fellowship at Rockford in June. This meeting will surely give tremendous impetus to the whole young people's program in the state.

The sub-committee on Summer Conferences has again made available to the pastors the chart of summer conferences, and leaflets describing the activities of each of them. Members of the committee are making individual approaches to churches which have not sent delegates to summer conferences.

With the approval of the state conference, the committee this year is holding the first Pilgrim Fellowship summer conference at Massachusetts State College in Amherst, on June 26 to July 3. The enrollment will be limited to two hundred young people of the high school age.

The sub-committee on Leadership Education is making a study of the degree and quality of leadership education carried on within and among the churches of the state. The results of this survey will be taken account of by the committee as it plans its program during the next year.

The travel libraries have been in use steadily throughout the year. The committee has helped to promote the reading list which is widely and profitably used.

The committee provided for a conference of association chairmen at the time of the Pilgrim Fellowship Council meeting at Edgemere Lodge. It is the judgment of the committee, expressed in formal recommendation to the state conference, that the state committee membership should be reconstituted so as to include the chairmen of association committees. This would mean that the group who develop and promote a state program and would be composed of those who are responsible for the same type of activity within the associations.

Perhaps, the most significant item of report is the plan proposed for an intensive and widespread emphasis on religious education during the next two years. The committee is suggesting to the churches the following plan:

First, that Religious Education Week supplant the usual rally Sunday. This would mean at least the following program in the churches:

That the first week of October be observed as Religious Education Week;

That on the first Sunday of October a sermon on the importance of the educational program be preached by the pastor or by someone in exchange with the pastor;

That at this service, an effective service of installation of teachers and officers be held and that the service include a consecration of parents to the responsibility of Christian nurture;

That during this week the religious education committee of the church have its first meeting, or that a well-planned session of parents and teachers be held to begin to study the parish program of Christian education.

Second, this Religious Education Week plan would be but the beginning of a two-year program which would have as its initial work the study of the new booklet, "A Parish Program of Christian Education" (ten cents from the State Conference office). This booklet represents the judgment of the members of the religious education committee as to the kind of program elements which should be included in the work of every Congregational and Christian church in Massachusetts. It is urged that sufficient copies be secured for every member of the religious education committee of every church. If there is no such committee, one of the first steps in the program would be to organize one.

Third, immediately following Religious Education Week the state committee plans to hold coaching conferences in twenty-five communities in the state. The purpose will be to sit down with pastors, superintendents, members of the religious education committees, and teachers in the churches and to discuss the most practical steps that may be taken in putting into effect the policies and plans outlined in "A Parish Program of Christian Education." The members of the staff of the Division of Christian Education of the Board of Home Missions will give three weeks to the state and will assist in the visitations to these twenty-five communities.

Fourth, the committee will seek to integrate the work of associations and of the state more satisfactorily. The proposal for the reconstitution of the state committee so as to include chairmen of association committees is one step in this direction. Often, members of association committees ask, "Just what are we supposed to do?" In an attempt to give practical guidance to such persons, the committee has adopted the following series of suggestions which constitute something of a "standard" for association committees. During the next few months, some way will be found whereby state and association committee members may discuss and adapt these to the needs of the various associations:

1. To interpret "A Parish Program of Christian Education" and to promote its use in the churches.
2. To hold at least one workers' institute within the association during the year.
3. To organize or maintain an active associational Pilgrim Fellowship.
4. To secure the attendance of key young people and of a member of the association committee at the Edgemere conference.
5. To lodge responsibility for children's work in a responsible person or committee related to the association committee on religious education and to make sure that a children's work program is carried on.
6. To help the churches to develop adequate programs of adult education.
7. To fix a quota of young people and adults for attendance at summer conferences and to attempt to reach this quota.
8. To promote the use of the best educational literature in every church.
9. To seek an opportunity to present the educational program (or some phase of it) at the association meeting.
10. To include missionary and social education and action as a part of the program for all churches.

The members of the committee want to express their appreciation of the work of Mrs. Manley F. Allbright who has faithfully served the committee and the churches. She has always been eager for counsel and guidance from the committee, has administered the program developed by the committee with fidelity and efficiency, and in countless ways has served large numbers of the churches.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

for the Year 1937

The Executive Committee of the Board of Ministerial Aid herewith submits its report for the year 1937.

The present Chairman was elected at the meeting of the State Conference held in Lowell last May. He assumed his duties early in the month of June. He wishes to record his deep appreciation of the kindness and good guidance given to him by Dr. John H. Quint and Dr. Austin Rice of the Committee, Miss Taft, the Clerk, and Mr. Todd, the Treasurer. In the very nature of the case he has been called upon to counsel with these several persons in all matters.

The Committee has held frequent meetings at the call of the Chairman and all business has been transacted with full knowledge on the part of the entire Committee. The new Chairman is impressed with the significance of the work done by this Board and holds in high esteem the general plans of procedure which are followed. It is his regret that he has been unable to do the work of visiting the recipients of our aid, who reside within the State. The hope is expressed that more extensive work may be done in this field in the future.

A year ago in our Ministerial Aid family, there were thirty ministers, forty-two widows, three single women and three children, totaling seventy-eight. Five were added to this number during the year.

The following were removed from our rolls by death: In January, Reverend D. Turner Conlan; in March, Mrs. Ida Q. Moulton; in June, Mrs. Anna Tamzarian; in August, Miss Ellen B. Foster.

There were on our rolls on December 31, 1937, thirty-five ministers, thirty-nine widows, two single women, and three children, totaling seventy-nine. There have been added already during the early days of 1938, Reverend Arthur F. Virta, Reverend William Mousley, and Mrs. Charlotte Conlan.

The grants during the year 1937 amounted to $13,605.75. From the Emergency Fund there has been appropriated $2,086.50; from the Christmas Fund $2,536.70. The average gift from the Christmas Fund was: for ministers, $49; for widows, $37.

The outlook for the coming year is that our need will be at least as great as in 1937.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Wood Coe,

Chairman of Executive Committee

January 21, 1938.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITY AND STANDARDS FOR THE MINISTRY

The Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, elected at the 1937 annual meeting of the State Conference in Lowell, has held three meetings during the year. We have conducted the first "Pastor's Day-a-Week Course" for the ministers of western and west-central Massachusetts, and we have cooperated with Andover Newton Theological School in a similar course for the ministers of eastern and east-central Massachusetts. Members of the committee, when invited, have assisted associations or committees on credentials with reference to questions pertaining to our ministry.

The western Massachusetts "Pastor's Day-a-week Course" was held at Hope Church in Springfield on Mondays from October 4 to November 1, 1937. Dr. Richard Clarke Cabot and Dr. Austin Phillip Guiles led the morning assemblies, using the theme: "The Art of Ministering to the Sick"; and Dr. Charles Allen Dinsmore presented the afternoon lecture series on "A Touch of Noble Books." A total of 43 men registered for all or part of the course; and receipts for registration, amounting to $69.25, were forwarded to the Conference Treasurer. Rev. Otto K. Jonas of Hope Church and Secretary George Tuttle assisted members of the Committee in the conduct of the course, and pastors from different associations had charge of the helpful devotional periods. The attendance and the comments from men who shared in the course were gratifying.

A one-day Pastor's Course at Andover Newton Theological School was held on the Tuesdays during the fifteen weeks of the first semester, 1937-1938. Professor Daniel Evans, Abbot Professor, gave lectures on "Christian Ethics and the Modern Mind." Professor James P. Berkeley offered a course in "Studies in the Gospel of John." Preaching and parish problems were discussed by Dr. Charles N. Arbuckle and Dean Vaughan Dabney. Professor Amos Wilder and Professor A. Philip Guiles lectured on the Oxford Conference, both of them having been in attendance there.

The committee voted to re-affirm its previous declaration, calling for the maintenance of recognized standards for the Congregational ministry.

Your committee offers the following recommendations, to be presented at the annual meeting of the State Conference in Dedham:

1. That the Pastor's Day-a-Week Courses at Andover Newton and in western Massachusetts be continued in the fall of 1938.
2. That the Conference conduct two retreats for the ministers in September, probably at Adelynrood and the Eaglebrook School.
3. That the Committee on Polity arrange meetings with the Committees on Credentials of Associations within the State, looking toward the raising of ministerial standards.

Chairman, Dean Vaughan Dabney
Rev. Francis L. Cooper
Rev. Daniel I. Gross

Secretary, Rev. Edward U. Cowles
Rev. Frank E. Duddy
Rev. Albert J. Penner

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MORAL AND SOCIAL WELFARE

Your Committee on Social and Moral Welfare if not faced with the original chaos, certainly felt that it faced a chaos equally as bad as the original. For as Rev. John Gratton of Pittsfield said, in commenting on the immoral conditions revealed in his city, "We have been torn loose from our former social backgrounds and tossed into a new era, in which we are adrift. The moral slump has hit not our city alone but the entire world." Your committee, composed of two women, two laymen and five clergymen, realized only too well that even the church of Jesus Christ seemed to be a voice crying in the wilderness of this moral chaos. What could we do to arouse the churches of our Conference in the State of Massachusetts to face with confidence, and good will, the moral problems facing us. We found first that each of us on the committee was an average person with no special endowments for the task of enlightening others. But we found that each of us had a different burning interest in at least one field of the social and moral prospect. Mr. Herman Richter and Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer were chiefly interested in International Peace and felt they could serve best if they concerned themselves with that problem. We at once made Mr. Richter chairman of a sub-committee on International Peace, with Mrs. Thayer as his helper. Mr. Richter has this to say about the work of his sub-committee on Peace:

"Since this sub-committee was set up last fall, the world has drifted measurably closer to war. There is some hope, nevertheless, that the very imminence of another catastrophe may force adjustment of ancient wrongs, may cause peoples the world over to review more critically the existing economic order (which appears to lead us, willy-nilly, into fratricidal strife), and may lead to the adoption of long overdue reforms that will lay the foundations for a stable peace. It is fatuous to believe, however, that these things will happen by themselves. Just as past crises in world history have been met with action, so must the present one be met. The need of the hour is union of our Christian peoples—not for war against the dictators, against communism, or against any of the things which are merely symptoms of grave dislocation in the economic order—but constructively for peace. It has been our hope that our sub-committee might in time come to function as a sort of clearing-house on the peace issue for members of our denomination. There are many who want to work for peace but who are confused by the numbers of organizations having peace as their goal or who cannot easily find the type of organization into which they will fit. To such, our committee can be of real service. We can also help in obtaining suitable speakers for church groups, and we trust that those who need this service will feel free to call on us."

Mrs. Benjamin C. Lane felt she knew most about the liquor problem and as chairman of this sub-committee submits the following:

"At the Annual Meeting of the Conference, last year, the Committee was instructed to bring about a number of radical changes in existing liquor legislation. As a most necessary step toward carrying out these instructions we have felt that we should know the most important provisions of the Laws now on the statute books and put them into a form available to any one interested in the control of the liquor traffic. Through the kindness of Mr. Arthur J. Davis of Boston, a Digest has been prepared, intended to inform the layman regarding the general provisions of the existing statutes. We believe that the study of this Digest, combined with investigation of local conditions based upon it will enable anyone interested in the problem to present an intelligent and convincing argument to a legislator or Legislative Committee. These Digests are available at the Conference Office, 14 Beacon Street at 10 cents per copy. The name of the booklet is, 'A Digest of the Liquor Laws and Other Suggestions from the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare.'"

Rev. Samuel L. Laviscount accepted the chairmanship of the sub-committee on Race Relations and submits the following:

1. Keep tabs on newspapers as to what they print about colored people, how they say it, especially in the editorials, and spelling Negro with a capital "N".
2. Work with two racial groups together on some great issue, such as, Peace and War, or in some Social Center work, like the Robert Gould Shaw House, or in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, or in the Urban League.
3. Keep people informed about the laws on the statute books and the laws pending before the Legislature and Congress, such as the Anti-Lynching Bill, at present in Congress.
4. Refer cases of race discrimination to the N.A.A.C.P. or the Urban League.
5. Advocate a Christian attitude when confronted with a situation involving the rights of colored persons in employment, transportation accommodations.
6. Show a friendly attitude to a colored person in public when circumstances are likely to make it embarrassing for the person, as for example, on a street car or a railroad train or in a public assembly of any kind.
7. Be certain that your idea of brotherhood is lifted from a basis of race and blood, as in Germany, or nationality, as in Italy, or an economic class, as in Russia, and is rooted firmly in the fatherhood of God, and the humanity of all people everywhere.
8. If it seems feasible, organize a kind of international club to include people of various races and nationalities living in your vicinity, especially students and young people.

Reverend Lawrence R. Howard, who accepted the chairmanship of the sub-committee on gambling, makes this report:

"Your sub-committee on gambling urges once again repeated and continued protest from the churches against the gambling mania, with action by Associations when possible. We recommend the professed purpose of the Anti-Gambling Association, but earnestly warn against leaving this matter entirely to any such official group of varied financial backing. Action like that of the Braintree ministers last December ought to be heard from in every part of the state repeatedly. They cite the Beano games, slot machines, the numbers racket, and so on, which have sprung up everywhere, in their vigorous attack. It seems evident that these things increase when legal protection is granted, for example, to pari-mutual betting on horse and dog racing. Moreover, for the state to accept revenues from this source is to take a step backward in the direction of state lotteries, for which two petitions under initiative have appeared at our state house. Specious and ably worded objections that New Hampshire and Rhode Island and their tracks, and illegal bookmakers in Boston, will get the gains we now take for the state, disregard the grocer, butcher, and small business man who lose on unpaid bills, as Senator Parkman says, as well as the fact that efforts are being made to stop legalized gambling in those states also. As the Christian Science Monitor aptly points out, 'It is the gambling promoter who makes a profit out of legalized betting.'"

The sub-committee on Civil Liberties, of which Rev. Edward Condit is chairman, says:

"The Civil Liberties Sub-Committee raises this question:—How long Massachusetts Congregationalists are to enjoy their American Protestant heritage of freedom is being determined in Massachusetts General Court by strong pressure groups, well organized and unified. Bills censoring press, radio, films, and school text-books are flooding the Legislature. On the grounds of opposing Communism, certain Fascist-principled groups are shackling American Democracy. The writer of this statement has just participated in a hearing at the State House. Notably lacking in participation at these hearings of these Un-American measures are Congregational clergy and laity. Conspicuous in participation are those who believe that American Protestantism is spiritually dead. The sheepishness of the sheep supports the wolfishness of the wolves. We are not being fleeced; we are being devoured. Those who use their legs and lungs at these hearings are getting results detrimental to religious and political liberty. We recommend persistent personal contact with your State Senators and Representatives and immediate attendance at one or more of these hearings."

Dr. John F. Jordan, who is the chairman of the sub-committee on Industrial Relations, recommends that we consider the vital questions presented in the forthcoming Economic Plebiscite and will be glad to aid any group desiring help or speakers.

Perhaps the most important problem before the Conference Committee on Social and Moral Welfare is the task of organizing the independent churches of our state in such a way that they can act cooperatively when crises arise. As a group we are convinced that pending legislation increasingly affects moral issues and our cherished liberties. Interested and centralized groups unhesitatingly bring pressure to bear. Representing our free fellowship, we are at a disadvantage. Unless our Congregational and Christian Churches can find a way to ascertain and express the intelligent opinion of their constituency there is danger that our Commonwealth will fall into moral chaos under Fascist control. The problem of organizing and circularizing the associations and local congregations was undertaken by Rev. Harold E. Martin. He endeavored to get time at Association meetings for the presentation of problems involved in taking the coming Economic Plebiscite. He asks individuals in churches and scribes of the Associations to assist him in securing the names of chairmen of the local and Association Social Action and Moral and Social Welfare Committees. He set up two important and successful seminars on the Economic Plebiscite, one at Springfield and the other at Newtonville.

One of the older and more prominent ministers of our Conference, demanded that our committee take immediate action in the Liquor situation. We decided however that no member of our Committee could represent the Conference committee unless the whole committee unanimously instructed him to do so. Then he was to speak only for the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare and not for the churches of the Conference. The question of action is an important one, as we have suggested. We have tried to be honest in the field of action. Only when the State Conference instructs your committee to take definite action in precise ways will we speak or act. The State Conference must face the problem of effective action in the field of Moral and Social Welfare.

As a committee, we found the officers of the State Conference most helpful. The trustees appropriated the usual traveling expenses and doubled our appropriation to enable us to do specific work which they approved of. The individual members of the committee through their own efforts and generosity more than equalled the appropriation of the Trustees of the Conference. As a result we are able to have printed a booklet giving a digest of the Liquor Laws and pending legislation in the field of Civil Liberties and Gambling. We propose no resolutions. We recommend the Social Action Magazine and urge you to organize local committees of Social Action to face the questions of International Peace, Liquor Control, Race Relations, Gambling, Civil Liberties, and Industrial Relations, and, above all, the problem of how to take effective action by word or deed when, as a group of Christians, our Congregational Christian Church members feel that they must act together or drift into the modern moral chaos which leads us all to a catastrophe.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT

The long established objectives of the Woman's Department of the State Conference are "the promotion of the entire work of the local church and the furthering in every way possible of the cause of Christ throughout the world." Whatever may have been accomplished this year in these fields of endeavor is due essentially to the cooperative efforts of each woman who has been intelligently at work bearing some part of the responsibility in her own church group.

State and district officers together with the Department Secretary are responsible for the promotional program, but the individual woman is of paramount importance in accomplishing effective results. Therefore, the Executive Committee of the Department has tried to strengthen the contacts with our church women throughout the state and to supply the necessary tools for the work. This plan has been implemented in many ways; some new, some old.

One new method was a two-day conference held in May at "Adelynrood", South Byfield, for the members of the Executive Committee and the District President. Mrs. William H. Medlicott, Associate Executive Secretary of the Missions Council, and Mrs. Royal G. Whiting, Regional Secretary of the Council for Social Action, cooperated most helpfully. The main themes considered were: "What Can I as a Trustee, Director, or District President contribute to the Woman's Department program in my State, District, Church?" "Worship for the Individual, for the Group." "Our Tools and How to Use Them." This conference proved so very satisfactory that a similar one will be arranged early this June.

An all-day conference for this same leader group was held in February at the Y. W. C. A., Boston. Reports of district activities were made and opportunity given for discussion of problems. Again Mrs. Medlicott shared the fellowship of the day and spoke of "The 1938 Outlook for the Church Woman."

Each of the Standing Committees has been most faithful in carrying out its particular responsibilities. A full report of their individual activities will be given at the Annual Meeting of the Department, but mention of the more important is pertinent here.

The Public Meetings Committee, Mrs. Morton D. Dunning, Chairman, has planned the Pilgrim Hall Meetings, presenting many denominational interests. Approximately three hundred women have shared in the inspiration, information and fellowship of these "First Fridays" of the month. Women from local churches have led the devotional period and soloists have rendered special music.

A new accomplishment for the Education Committee has been arranging for a representative chairman in each District. Mrs. Myron Clark, in charge of this division of our work, is calling this group together in April to formulate plans for better cooperation with local auxiliaries.

Miss Amelia J. Burrill, Chairman of the Box Work Committee, arranged an all-day meeting at the Y. W. C. A. for the District Box Work Chairmen. Assignments of work for the year were distributed and explained. Mrs. Mary D. White, one of our National Secretaries for the Board of Home Missions, was most helpful in answering the many questions and created real enthusiasm for this much needed work.

The outstanding contribution of the Social Relations and Christian Citizenship Committee has been the all-day program on International Relations arranged for the April Pilgrim Hall Meeting. A panel discussion on "How Can We Make America Safe?" created great interest. Rev. Charles M. Styron was the leader with the following members of the panel: Mrs. Frank L. Nason, Mrs. John J. Mahoney, Mrs. Waitstill Sharp, Mrs. E. E. McClintock, Mr. Theodore Smith, Mr. Robert S. Woodbury. After luncheon at the Twentieth Century Club, Mrs. Styron, Chairman of the Committee, presented two speakers, Professor Anton J. de Haas, who spoke on "Education for International Relations", and Mr. John Dickey, who discussed "The Trade Agreements Program."

During the summer of 1937, Mrs. Mary R. Carver spent her vacation in the south, visiting several of our denominational educational units. She also conducted the course in Missionary Education at the Summer Conference at Grandview, Tennessee. She has been happy to share her experiences and the inspiration derived through these contacts with many church groups. Mrs. Carver not only carries the work of the Woman's Department, but attends to the many demands of the Speakers Bureau and the promotional work connected with Home and Foreign Board projects. Her days at the office are packed full of difficult detail, but she always has an answer for each questioner.

The Department has cooperated with the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Church Societies in promoting attendance at the World Day of Prayer service held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston, as well as the services held in various centers all over the state.

A series of Lenten lectures on "A Growing Consciousness of God" by Margaret Slattery, attracted a large and enthusiastic audience.

Both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman of the Department have attendered regularly the sessions of the Board of Trustees and given much time to the work of various Conference Committees.

The Chairman and Executive Secretary have enjoyed meeting with the leader groups in a majority of the Districts. These personal contacts are immensely valuable for gaining a better understanding of the work as a whole and for discovering able local leadership.

Two conferences for State Women Presidents have given much helpful information and pleasant fellowship, one in Connecticut for the New England and Atantic States leaders, with Mrs. Medlicott in charge; the other in Evanston in connection with the Mid-Winter Council Meetings.

A survey of the year's work reveals definite and encouraging progress, but in this day of titanic evil forces presents to all of us a challenge to develop a more effective Christianity, which should be irresistible.

BE STRONG.

"Say not the days are evil. Who's to blame?
And fold the hands, and acquiesce. O shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

BE STRONG.

"It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day how long;
Faint not—fight on. Tomorrow comes the song."

REPORT OF THE BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, INC.

for the Year 1937

During the past year 40,000 seamen have visited the Sailor's Rest, Boston, and 3,524 the Society's Bethel at Vineyard Haven, Mass. All the privileges of our Bethels have been made available to all men of the sea, irrespective of nationality, creed or color.

The Society has provided 38,803 meals and a total of 18,215 beds have been occupied during the year. Eleven thousand three hundred seven seamen were provided with free beds and meals. This large number was due to the great amount of unemployment. The Society has furnished emergency cash for over 1,000 men.

Many men have been sent to the Marine Hospital in Chelsea for accidents and various ailments. The Society has also cared for a very considerable number who have come to us from the hospital and been provided for until they were in condition to go to sea again.

Clothing and wearing apparel have been furnished to 640 seamen. Shoes have been repaired for 192 men.

During the year the Society has provided 52 free concerts with an attendance of 5,525. Our Chaplain, Mr. Thorpe, has conducted 51 religious services with an attendance of 2,615 men.

During the summer our launch, the "Seaman's Friend", distributed to 859 ships in the harbor over 25,000 magazines, and sea libraries containing 3,500 books. At the Sailor's Rest we have distributed in addition some 8,000 magazines to the men coming from their ships, and sixteen libraries.

The cost for maintaining the work of the Society for the year was $46,259.55. The receipts from the churches were $6,070.49 of which Massachusetts gave $3,243.23. This was a gain of $346.29 from the New England churches and $249.46 from those of Massachusetts.

Superintendents Thorpe and Tower and their assistants have labored earnestly and successfully during the year to keep up the morale of the sailor lads. Many of these men are exceedingly grateful for the friendly and Christian treatment which they have received at the hands of the Society's workers. It has been a year of rewarding service to the men of the sea.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

The hope of the Missions and Apportionment Committee this year has been that 'Re-thinking Missions' might be 'Re-interpreting Missions'. With this thought, then, conferences were planned in the fall following the same idea used at the Concord Committee Conference in June. This intimate type of conference reaped the benefits of a smaller group—namely, a feeling of more freedom of discussion and exchange of ideas. There seemed to be an increased interest and awakening on the part of ministers and laymen alike in the Apportionment and in the problems of the Conference in general. Three such conferences of ministers and Association missionary committees were outlined. These were held on Sunday with an afternoon meeting, supper gathering and an evening meeting with a speaker on the subject of 'Stewardship.' Ample time was given to question periods. These conferences were held as follows:—September 19 at Newton Center for Suffolk and Woburn Associations; October 10 at Danvers for Andover and the two Essex Associations; October 17 at Middleboro for Pilgrim, Barnstable and Old Colony Associations.

The original hope of the Committee continues and with that still firmly in mind we approach the end of the year with a deep realization of the need for development of a WORLD INTEREST PLAN. Truly conscious of the fact that Christianity is the only agency offsetting fear in the world, we would educate for the purpose of awakening a more vital interest in missions, that thinking missions shall mean an interest in an individual as well as a cause. We would that the people of our churches should know those in the field, know what they are doing and what they have to do with, and sense what a tremendous inner dynamic motivates these workers to truly Christian service.

Foundations for such a WORLD INTEREST PLAN can be laid this spring and therefore plans have been laid for the first step. This will take the form of an all-day conference of Association missionary committees and ministers, to be held on Monday, April fourth, in Tatnuck Church, Worcester. At this time the general plan will be laid before the Association representatives. There will be general discussion as to the best and most effective way to project this plan into the churches of the Associations. It is the hope of the Committee to have a missionary speaker in every church within a given length of time. The Missions Council will provide speakers if a definite plan can be developed to use them. The Committee is deeply grateful to Mr. James E. Walter of the Missions Council for his splendid co-operation and to Mr. Timberlake for his untiring interest and advice. Indeed, by this re-interpreting of missions the people of our churches shall be awakened and we shall rise to new heights in our missionary interests.

At the request of Dr. Denison, chairman of Christian Stewardship in the General Council, the following recommendation was made to and approved by the Board of Trustees: That a Stewardship Committee of three be appointed by the President of the Conference. Rev. Harold Ockenga, Rev. Randolph Merrill and Mrs. Percy C. Campbell were appointed.

The Committee, after considering the important place the cent-a-meal boxes are filling in supplementing the decreased giving of our churches, heartily commends its continued use.

The Committee would call attention to the helpful literature furnished by the State Conference office. Copies of the Guest Book Edition of the State News were given wide circulation to the number of 25,000. This State publication, in addition to carrying valuable material about the churches of our State, also has about one half the contents furnished by the Missions Council. The committee feels that the State News, published ten times a year with the subscription price of twenty-five cents, has a distinct value and that its use should be greatly increased in all our churches. We are confident that the answer to many of our problems in this area lies in a more diligent and consistent use of missionary literature. We recommend that every subscriber to Benevolences be urged to subscribe to this publication.

THE TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONGREGATIONAL BOARD OF PASTORAL SUPPLY

The annual meeting of the Board was held June 7th and the semi-annual meeting December 6th. The attendance respectively was 15 and 16 out of a possible 21. The Executive Committee met December 6th and March 28th.

We regret to announce the resignation of Sargent H. Wellman, as treasurer of the Board. He has served for four years and while he has expressed his willingness to remain as a member of the Board, he does not feel that he can continue the work of treasurer longer. As stated in previous reports, we are greatly indebted to Mr. Wellman for his generous and in every way efficient service as treasurer during these years. It has been an especial pleasure for the Secretary to work with him.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee March 28th, Walter H. Black of Jamaica Plain was elected treasurer. Mr. Black is a public accountant with offices in the Tremont Building, Boston, is treasurer of the Suffolk South Association of Churches and Ministers and is a director of the American Congregational Association. He has served as superintendent of the Sunday School and is a member of the Board of Trustees, in the Central Church at Jamaica Plain.

Financial

As will be seen by the treasurer's report on another page, the balance at the end of the year ($1,205.05) is less by $132.44 than the balance at the beginning of the year ($1,337.49). This means that we failed to pay the expenses of the year out of current receipts by this amount. However, the year before there was a gain of $108.51 and this "working balance", as we call it, of approximately $1,200 will be sufficient to tide us over until the per-capita contributions again begin to come in from the state conferences. The loss for the year was mainly due to a decrease of $94.52 from Massachusetts, due to the fact that in this state we get the per-capita contribution on a pro rata basis and if churches do not pay or if they do not pay for all their members, we suffer our proportion of loss.

We again express our appreciation of the splendid support from the superintendents and treasurers of the several state conferences. We are also a great deal indebted to the churches and individuals which contributed a total of $471.80 toward our budget and thereby enabled us to end our fiscal year as well as we did.

Statistics from the Seminaries

As for the two preceding years, we have asked certain seminaries to give us the number of their graduates who were planning to enter the Congregational ministry. The number at Commencement, 1937, was: Andover-Newton 9, Atlanta 4, Bangor 6, Chicago 22, Hartford 11, Harvard 2, Oberlin 5, Pacific 1, Yale 8, Union, N.Y. 4, Total 72. (1936, 75; 1935, 70.)

The Coming General Council At Beloit

The Commission on the Ministry is recommending that at Beloit a committee be set up which will give hearings and conduct conferences during the Council on the problems of the ministry and will make definite recommendations with regard, at least, to (1) improving the quality of our ministry through more careful ways of admitting men; (2) devising better principles and methods of pastoral supply; (3) persuading churches to give a just opportunity to mature men; and (4) re-enaction of the Oberlin Resolution on the Ministry concerning the admission of men from other denominations. For further details see advance reports of the Beloit meeting which will be sent to all delegates.

Men From Other Denominations

The reason why this Board hopes that the General Council at Beloit will re-enact in substantially its present form the resolution passed at Oberlin concerning men coming from other denominations is that the administration of our work is at times made practically impossible by the number of men with whom we have to deal. Certain other denominations have a provision whereby the number of men admitted can be regulated and made to correspond quite closely with the need. We have no such provision. No one stands guard over the various gates through which men come into our ministry and suggests to men that they ought not to come in because they will be crowding too much the men already in. So far as men from other denominations are concerned, the trouble is that the stream is very largely in our direction. If anything like the number of men went from us to other denominations that come to us, the situation would be very different. We must not be sectarian but we must not allow ourselves to get into an increasingly hopeless and complex situation.

Interstate and Intersection Changes

A question which this office and every state office has to face is—shall churches of a state be encouraged to choose their ministers only from within the state? Shall New England churches be encouraged to choose men only from within New England? Even if this office and the state offices believed that such a procedure was wholly desirable, it would obviously be impossible to conduct our work on such a closed shop principle. The churches would not stand for it. However, it is the practice of the New England superintendents so far as we have observed and it is the practice of this office to try to see that the ministers of a state shall have a wholly fair chance at the churches of that state and that New England ministers shall have a fair chance at the churches of New England. So far as we can, we are working to overcome whatever tendency there may be on the part of churches to look far afield before they take account of the material nearby. This is a difficult problem but we are trying to be alert to it.

Securing Just, Reliable, and Adequate Information About Ministers and Churches

The difficulty here is not at all confined to the particular field in which we have to work. It is a difficulty that inheres in human frailty and human limitations. On the one side are the ministers who are afraid that if anything at all critical is said about them, it will be magnified by a church committee and they will lose their opportunity at that particular church. On the other hand are the church committees which look askance at a record which is 100% favorable, and which feel that our practice of securing information mainly from sources which have been given to us by the ministers unduly weights our records in favor of the ministers. Once in a while a church committee refuses to use our material at all because they think it is so weighted. It may be that in that very case the minister concerned thinks that he has lost the church because there was something unfavorable to him in the record we sent! Well, the only thing to do is to make the utmost effort to get at the truth. That is what the churches want. That is what every minister should want. He should be willing to stand by his record, honestly investigated, honestly set forth and honestly judged. So far as this Board is concerned, it must patiently and unremittingly seek to develop methods and attitudes by which exactly this shall be done with regard not only to ministers but also to churches, which must stand on their records in their appeal to worthwhile men.

The Situations of Individual Men

At our annual meeting in June the Secretary read to the Board an account of a single day in the office, showing the diversity of the problems dealt with in personal interviews and in correspondence. We wish that we could do more to relieve individual situations, the seriousness of which sometime seems overwhelming. However, not infrequently the solving of a given situation in a happy way brings encouragement. It not only brings encouragement to those who administer the work of this Board but it may well bring encouragement to others whose situations have not yet been solved. Patience must have its perfect work although it should never degenerate into passivity or indifference.

For the Board,

Charles C. Merrill, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PREACHING MISSION

This committee, which has been in existence for three years, was created for a definite and limited purpose. The idea of the preaching mission had been sponsored by the General Council, and it seemed wise to the Conference to develop the idea within the Commonwealth.

During the past year the Committee has printed some literature, especially a booklet which sets forth very clearly the aims and methods of the preaching mission. Under the direction of the commmittee two Retreats for our ministers were held, one in the Eastern part of the state at Adelynrood and the other at Northfield. These retreats were simple in program, with a large participation by the ministers present; they were genuine in fellowship and rich in devotion. The judgment was that they were very much worth while.

The unique setting at Adelynrood caused many of the men there to suggest that it would be of great value if the State Conference could have a similar place set apart for religious devotion where groups of our ministers and laymen and women might gather for a few days' quietness and meditation.

During the past year missions have been held at:

BOSTON, Dorchester Village
EASTON
GEORGETOWN GROTON
HAVERHILL, Riverside
MERRIMAC
NORTHAMPTON, Edwards
WHITMAN
WORCESTER, Bethany

Among the men who have served as missioners have been:

Dr. Robbins W. Barstow
Rev. Kenneth D. Beckwith
Rev. Charles M. Crooks
Rev. Paul S. McElroy
Rev. Earl R. Steeves
Rev. Olin B. Tracy
Rev. Lionel A. Whiston

A few comments from the churches where these missions have been held suggest how valuable they have been:

"This is just to thank you for securing ..... for our Preaching Mission. He did a splendid job in opening up the meaning as well as the significance of the Christian life in the modern world."

"Our people here certainly enjoyed the Preaching Mission. We appreciate your part in it, especially in sending us ..... He was very fine and went out with me making calls on the people in the parish. . . . . The services were all well attended."

"I want to thank you for sending ..... to us to be the Missioner at our Preaching Mission. What a fine spirited man he is! And what a sane, wholesome message he brought to us! We feel that the influence of the services, directly and indirectly, has been widely felt in our church and community."

"The Preaching Mission was an interesting and valuable experience. The response was good. There were many expressions of appreciation .....The church seems to be in good condition, and there is a fine group of loyal supporters, but like so many churches of that type there is needed the spark of enthusiasm and the quickening of the Spirit."

"We have been more than pleased with his preaching and his fine spirit. He far exceeded all our expectations. We are indeed indebted to his church for releasing him for the week.....Our attendance for the preaching mission this year has been much larger than last year's. We feel that a substantial foundation has been made for the continuation of these annual preaching missions .....We are already looking forward to the preaching mission for 1939."

At a meeting of the committee held in March those present came to the following conclusions:

The committee in its present form has done its work and a recommendation should be made to the Trustees that it be discontinued.

A committee on Evangelism and the Devotional Life should be created by the State Conference to carry on in a larger way the work that this committee has been trying to do. It was recognized that the word "evangelism" has certain connotations which make it objectionable to some. Yet since it is used by the General Council it seems wise to use it in the state.

The fund for the use of the Committee on Preaching Mission which was voted at Newburyport and of which some $600. remains should be given to this committee to be used by it, or by the President of the State Conference, for the cultivation of the spiritual life of our ministry and our churches, through preaching missions and through retreats.

The members of the committee expressed their convictions that any spiritual advance in our churches must come through a deepening of the life of our ministry. When our church leaders become more mightly men of God, then our church members will catch a new spirit. It was suggested that twice a year, once early in the fall and again a short time before Lent, the ministers of the state be gathered in small groups of ten or twelve for a day of thoughtfulness and heart-searching.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP

The Committee on Stewardship is a new committee recently appointed. The chairman calls attention to this fact because of the few recommendations it is ready to submit to the churches. Two meetings have been held in which the members of the committee sought a common ground of authoritative teaching concerning stewardship and the Christian's whole attitude toward finances. It was believed that such a basis might be very suggestive as to the church's method of approaching the question of stewardship.

The committee is certain that the Christian practice of liberal giving has partly broken down. All reports reveal this. Basic conceptions must be renewed. Giving must be re-established as an integral part of the spiritual life and as an inexorable law of spiritual growth both for the individual and the church. Practical programs will be suggested later. Fundamental conceptions are important now.

The convictions of the committee were that the Bible as the Word of God must be the source of any standard. If the committee itself suggested any standard, it could have no possible weight but that of our opinion or experience. Any other man or group of men may place the same authority on his experience and opinion. On the other hand, the Bible contains a body of teaching on the subject of giving and that teaching has weight with the laymen. We must return to a clear presentation of Biblical stewardship.

The committee believes that it is primarily the task of the minister to preach and practice this truth of Scripture. It must be preached as privilege and as precept, without which a life is not pleasing to God. The key to the financial situation is in the hands of the ministers.

As practical objectives the Stewardship Committee proposes to make an exposition of this teaching on giving available to ministers and young people's groups, to promote stewardship study, to foster a convenient meeting in connection with the Conference, and to organize the Tithers of Congregationalism.

REPORT OF LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE

The Laymen's Committee has held four meetings at which it has discussed objectives and plans. We have continued the policy of last year of encouraging each Association to make constitutional provision for a Laymen's Committee as an integral unit of the Association organization.

Our method has been to set up in an unorganized Association a conference of laymen, whom the pastors have named as key men in their Churches, at which would be discussed the work of men in the local Church and the aims and value of a Laymen's Committee in the Association. Such a conference is a demonstration of the kind of get-togethers that an Association committee might helpfully conduct occasionally to promote fellowship among the men of the Association and to stimulate a greater sense of responsibility not only for the work of the local Church but also for our whole denominational enterprise.

So far as we have received information, eight Associations have organized Laymen's Committees and at least three are taking definite steps in that direction. Some of these Committees have conducted Supper Conferences for men in connection with their regular Association meetings, others on nights when they might spend the whole evening together. At the conferences set up by our state committee, we have spent Sunday from four to eight o'clock, with such topics as, The Work of the Deacon, Men and the Church School, Men's Clubs and Classes, Church Finances and Business Problems, and the Objectives and Methods of the Laymen's Movement. The Conference has usually closed with a Communion Service.

Our Committee plans to emphasize next year the opportunities and methods that Association Committees may pursue to make their work effective. To develop these plans co-operatively, we may plan a state-wide conference for all Committeemen. We wish that before that time Association officers in Associations that have not yet organized Laymen's Committees might take the initiative in getting their appointment and notifying our state office.

Our Committee is anxious to meet its quota of thirty-one delegates from Massachusetts to the week-end Laymen's Conference at the Isles of Shoals, August 12 - 14 at which the Committeemen of New England will plan for more aggressive co-operative effort. We also look upon the plan of our national Laymen's Committee for the promotion of a national Laymen's Fellowship, as an integral part of our effort to arouse new interest on the part of Christian Laymen in their own Churches and their denominational enterprises. Our new book of reference, "Men and The Church", is the official source of information concerning the aims and motives of this quiet movement among our Congregational men in which there is much promise and concerning which our Church people, including the Clergy, should be informed.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE RELATION OF CHURCHES AND COLLEGES

Our report seems to divide itself into three divisions.

I. The Student Christian Movement.

The presence of the young and active Student Christian Movement in our schools and colleges opens a door of opportunity in two directions.

1. The importance of ministers, churches and Young People's Societies sending the names of school graduates to the Student Christian Movement leaders in our colleges, that they may welcome these new arrivals upon the campus, and introduce them to the Christian activities in the college life.

2. The Student Christian Movement should be alert to discover more ways of serving the churches, and of turning more graduates back into the churches, and to its services and ministry.

II. Faculty Members Helping In Church Programs.

Besides a good deal of speaking in our church programs by college professors, which is all to the good, your committee felt that there might be a place for distinctly Christian men and women on our college faculties, who love the church and are interested in its welfare, to render a little more intimate service, which would very decidedly warm the hearts of our church people toward our colleges. For example, if the little church at the cross-roads knows that Professor A., who is coming to speak to them (no matter what his subject is) is not only an expert in his department, but is also a warm-hearted Christian and an earnest worker in his local church, there is established at once a bond of sympathy between him and his hearers. The better church people will appreciate the fact that he is not only interested in education, but that he also shares with them a sense of responsibility for preparing our youth for moral leadership in the world of tomorrow.

By correspondence with members of the faculties of our western Massachusetts colleges, we found that these professors, almost without exception, were in hearty accord with our idea. While many were carrying too heavy schedules to be able to respond, more than a dozen have indicated their willingness to share, as far as time and other duties permit, in this mission of good-will to the churches. The churches should always expect to pay the speaker's expenses. The list is being sent to our Conference office with the suggestion that mimeographed copies of the same be sent to those churches which are located where they would most naturally avail themselves of these speakers.

III. A Congregational Worker Among the Students at Amherst.

It has been a matter of common observation and frequent comment that the Episcopal Church has been doing very good work in college towns. The result has come through very careful planning by a National Committee on Student Work. For years they have had regular meetings of the planning group; have issued special publicity; have sent some of their best and most attractive young clergymen into college parishes; and by special funds of money have sometimes subsidized the work among college students. As compared with this definite and long term policy, we Congregationalists have been very casual and followed a hand-to-mouth policy.

Your committee, several of whom have been very familiar with conditions at Amherst for many years, have been making a new study of the situation as it exists today. Our findings are as follows: about one-third of the students at Amherst College are Congregationalists or Presbyterians by membership or preference. Nearly the same condition holds at the Massachusetts State College.

The presence of all these Congregational students places upon us a responsibility to do what we can for them. The unanimous opinion of those who know the situation best, seems to favor securing a young theological graduate to work among them. The leaders of the First Congregational Church in Amherst, faculty members in that church, and this committee are favorable to such an undertaking. Even people outside our denomination, who have intimate knowledge of conditions in Amherst, say without hesitation, that as Congregationalists, we ought to have a young man, associated with the pastor of our First Church, whose special field would be work among the students.

The present leadership of the First Church makes this a most opportune time to launch such an undertaking. Rev. Raymond A. Waser, the new minister of that church, is a young man about thirty years old. His preaching is attracting many students from both colleges. The demands of his large parish make it impossible to spend much time in individual work with students. A young theological graduate of the right type could profitably employ all his time in work with our Congregational students in Amherst College and at Massachusetts State College and in heading up student work at the First Church. Furthermore, the First Church is the only Congregational Church situated near enough to the college to render this service.

While it is beyond the province of this committee to work out a plan to finance such a worker, we have considered that phase of the question; and without elaborating our reasons, we have come to the conclusion that his salary should be borne by the First Church in Amherst, and by the State Conference. If that were true, he would be free to promote, not only discussion groups, but also church attendance, and other church affiliations of one kind or another, in whatever way would be most helpful to the Congregational students of either college. The financing of the modest salary of a young theological graduate of the right type to do this work ought not to be difficult.

We earnestly recommend that the State Conference undertake this task, partly as an experiment in a more complete and more personal Christian service to college students. And we further recommend that Rev. Raymond A. Waser, pastor of the First Church in Amherst, and Prof. S. R. Williams of Amherst College, and Rev. George A. Tuttle, Field Secretary of our State Conference, be appointed to serve as a committee to bring this to pass.

Respectfully Submitted:

Robert M. Bartlett — John A. Hawley
Margaret R. Hamlin — David R. Porter
Garrett V. Stryker

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Thirteen cents per member is still asked of the churches. Seven cents of the thirteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One pair is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of over $528,000. If any extra expense is incurred (except for legal service, for example) that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned about 4.4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in adminstering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters. The churches may avail themselves of the service of this ability and experience without expense.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

PRESIDENT, REV. ANDREW J. STANTON, 95 Grand Street, Springfield
SECRETARY, MRS. W. H. CHURCH, 39 Pratt Street, Springfield
TREASURER, REV. GARRETT V. STRYKER, 39 Mapledell Street, Springfield

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of Home Missionary churches in Springfield in their current work, while the Springfield Union represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for certain local forms of social service.

Contributions for Home Missions from the churches in Springfield to be credited on the Apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the Union given in addition to the Apportionment and not to be credited as part of it should be sent to the Treasurer of the Congregational Union of Springfield.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, REV. MYRON W. FOWELL
RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT
TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, by agreement with the Worcester City Missionary Society, is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of home missionary churches in Worcester in their current work, while the Worcester City Missionary Society represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for aiding churches in property matters, contributing toward the purchase and maintenance of property and the payment of building debts.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not be to credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

SCHEDULE OF GRANTS AND TRUSTEES' MEETINGS

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members and families are reported as numbered January 1, 1938. Admissions and removals cover the year 1937. "Absent" are not additional to "males," "females" and "total," but included in them. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1938, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r,"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but means "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk* indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Field Secretary, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Women's Work and a Young People's Secretary. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its anual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretary shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President; and he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within his territory as may welcome his services. It is intended that his field of activity shall be chiefly in the western part of the State.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Women's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Young People's Secretary shall encourage and promote Christian living and Christian activities among the young people of the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall be particularly interested in assisting each church in developing and organizing the latent Christian power of its young men and young women. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Women's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Women's Work of the Conference. The object of this department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the department's work.

2. The department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee, which shall propose to the department the additional members of its executive committee. This nominating committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them, some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF MINISTERS

This list gives the names of all ordained Congregational ministers whose standing is held by some association in Massachusetts.

An asterisk indicates that their ministerial standing is held outside of Massachusetts.

This list includes active pastors and those without charge.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

An alphabetical list of licentiates follows this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE. — IF your name is not correctly printed in the preceding tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

MINUTES AND REPORTS

WITH THE STATISTICS

NORTHAMPTON, MAY 14-16

1939

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation .....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

MINUTES OF THE 140th ANNUAL MEETING

WITH THE STATISTICS

NORTHAMPTON, MAY 14, 15, 16, 1939

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

According to the vote of the Conference, contributions for the year 1938 are divided as follows, unless the Treasurer is otherwise instructed by the contributing church:

American Board	40.25%
Board of Home Missions	41.75%
Council for Social Action	4.00%
Mass. Cong'l Conference and Missionary Society	13.00%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1.00%

Checks should be made payable to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Honorary Life Membership in the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society may be secured by a gift of thirty dollars, by a church or individual. Gifts made at different dates within the limits of any one fiscal year may be applied to Honorary Life Membership, if the wish for such application is expressed when the gifts are made.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to fourteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1939, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

MINUTES OF THE 140th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 14–16

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The Conference was called to order at 4:00 o'clock by the Moderator, Mr. Ethelbert V. Grabill, Jamaica Plain.

The Service of Worship was conducted by the Chaplain, Rev. Raymond A. Waser of Amherst.

Rev. Ray Gibbons, pastor of the entertaining church, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the church and the city of Northampton.

The Moderator then announced the following committee appointments:

Business Committee—Mr. Frank E. Bridgman, Chairman, Mr. Lemuel LeBaron Dexter, Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Mr. William F. Farley, Rev. Horace F. Holton, Miss Ethel Howard, Rev. John A. Martin, Mrs. Ella L. Patten.

Credentials Committee—Rev. John A. Hawley, Chairman, Rev. Edward U. Cowles, Mrs. Irving Johnson, Dr. Arthur L. Miles, Mr. Harold R. Morse.

Deacons to Serve at the Communion Service—Messrs. Herbert D. Casey, Allister S. Graham, Henry C. Strong of the Easthampton Church; James Adam, F. L. Nuttleman, J. S. Pendleton of the Florence Church; E. R. Culver, Ernst H. Mensel, H. Edward Wells of the First Church, Northampton; William H. Gere, Clifford H. Lyman, Earle M. Parsons, William H. Wilson and Rev. Harry D. Sheldon of the Edwards Church, Northampton.

Rev. Fred Field Goodsell, Executive Vice-President of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, spoke on the recent Madras Conference, under the title, "The Call for Colleagues."

A group of laymen from Newton, led by Mr. Hoyt Weston, under the auspices of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, held a panel discussion on "Religion and the Layman." This group was made up of the following men: Paul M. Goddard, H. J. Pettengill, L. Sumner Pruyne, Lucius E. Thayer, David Tibbott, and Mr. Weston.

At 4:00 o'clock, 500 young people, the majority of whom were from western Massachusetts, assembled for the Annual Young People's Conference and Supper at the church in Florence. The chief address was given by Rev. Henry D. Gray, Secretary of Young People's Work, Christian Education Division of the Board of Home Missions.

Three young women from St. John's Church, Springfield, sang a number of spirituals.

Rev. S. L. Laviscount of St. Mark Church, Roxbury, Mrs. Mary R. Carver from the Conference office, and Rev. Arthur Rinden and Rev. James Hunter of China spoke on their respective fields of work.

The Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship has agreed to share in supporting the following projects:

1. The building of a new community hall in connection with St. Mark Church, Roxbury.
2. Pleasant Hill Academy, Tennessee.
3. The work of Rev. Arthur Rinden and Rev. James Hunter in China.

SUNDAY EVENING

At 7:30 o'clock, in the John M. Greene Hall, Smith College, the meeting was opened with a service of music led by Prof. H. Augustine Smith of Boston University.

The Hampshire Male Chorus then rendered two selections.

An offering was taken for The Board of Ministerial Aid, the appeal for which was given by Rev. Robert Wood Coe. This offering amounted to $245.35.

The chief address of the evening was given by Rev. John Haynes Holmes, Community Church, New York City.

MONDAY MORNING

At 10:00 o'clock the Conference convened and was opened with a Service of Worship by the Chaplain.

The first item of business was the report of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Roy A. Hovey. He presented the following recommendations of the Trustees:

That Article V, Section 2, of the by-laws, be amended by changing the words, "a Field Secretary" to the words, "Field Secretaries"; and the words, a "Young People's Secretary" to the words, "Secretary of Religious Education", as recommended by the Committee on Religious Education.

That Article VI, Section 5, of the by-laws be amended to read as follows: "The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services."

That Article VI, Section 8, of the by-laws, be amended to read: "The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as able, in the general work of the Conference."

That Article VIII, Section 2, of the by-laws, be amended to read as follows: "The department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of the Nominating Committee. This committee shall annually propose to the Nominating Committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and vice-chairman of the department, who shall be ex-officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the department shall require, to be elected by the department at its annual meeting."

All the foregoing amendments were accepted and adopted.

It was voted that the following resolution, presented by the Trustees, be adopted:

That the Conference shall approve the request of the General Council for the addition of one cent per member to the Allotment Account for two years, in order to take care of the expenses of the International Council in Wellesley in June, 1940.

The following recommendation was presented by the Trustees:

That where an association or a church changes the method of collecting the allotment per capita on the basis of the total membership to that of the resident membership, an addition shall be made on the new basis of one cent per member for the Conference and one cent per member for the General Council. It was voted that this be referred to the Business Committee.

Rev. Clarence W. Dunham presented the following motion:

That the Massachusetts Conference memorialize the General Council, asking that the column in the Year-Book devoted to absentee members be abolished and that we reaffirm our policy that the allotment be based on the reported total membership of each church. This also was referred to the Business Committee.

Mrs. Myron H. Clark, on behalf of the Trustees, presented the following proposed plan of representation for Massachusetts General Council delegates:

1. Massachusetts is allowed 36 units (144 delegates).

2. A unit of representation, as defined by the General Council, includes two ministers, one layman and one woman.

3. Twenty-five units (100 delegates) shall be elected by the Associations upon the following basis:

Class I—Associations having less than 20 churches. There are 4.
One unit of representation to be divided among each two Associations as follows:

Berkshire South	One minister	One man*
Brookfield	One minister	One woman*
Worcester North	One minister	One man*
Worcester South	One minister	One woman*

Class II—Associations having 20 to 29 churches. There are 8.
One unit of representation for each Association:

Andover	Berkshire North	Middlesex-Mendon	Suffolk North
Barnstable	Essex North	Middlesex Union	Suffolk West

Class III—Associations having 30 to 39 churches. There are 6.
Three units of representation to be divided among each two Associations as follows:

Hampshire	Three ministers	2 men	1 woman*
Franklin	Three ministers	1 man	2 woman*
Woburn	Three ministers	2 men	1 woman*
Essex South	Three minutes	1 man	2 women*
Suffolk South	Three ministers	2 men	1 woman*
Worcester Central	Three ministers	1 man	2 women*

Class IV—Associations having 40 or more churches. There are 3.
Two units of representation for each Association:

Hampden	Old Colony	Pilgrim

4. The Scribe of each Association shall notify the President of the Conference of the names of its delegates on or before May 1 of the year in which the Council is to be held.

5. The Nominating Committee of the Conference shall present to the Annual Meeting nominations to fill all vacancies in the Association delegations.

6. The Conference shall be represented by eleven units (44 delegates, one of whom shall be the President of the Conference), to be nominated by the Nominating Committee of the Conference and elected at the Annual Meeting.

7. After the Annual Meeting of the Conference, all vacancies shall be filled by a committee composed of the President and two members elected by the Board of Trustees.

*This will be the lay representation in 1941. At subsequent Councils, the lay representation of men and women shall alternate.

The following resolution was adopted on recommendation of The Board of Trustees of the Conference:

Whereas, an appreciation of personality and recognition of service faithfully performed is clearly called for by the teachings of Jesus and

Whereas, the Debt of Honor is an attempt on the part of our great Fellowship to make such appreciation practical

Be It Resolved: That we, the churches of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, pledge ourselves to support the continuing efforts to raise one-half of our original quota, or $200,000, which would require additional gifts of $83,000.

The reports of the following committees were presented by their respective chairmen or some member of the committee and were accepted and ordered printed in the records:

Committee on Religious Education
Board of Ministerial Aid
Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry

On recommendation of the Committee on Religious Education it was:

VOTED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society heartily approves and endorses the projected plan of the Division of Christian Education of the Board of Home Missions called "A Program of Progress," and that it recommends to the Trustees of the Conference that this program of advance be adopted by them and recommended to the churches of the state.

The following recommendations of the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry were adopted by the Conference:

1. That the "Pastors' Day-a-Week Courses" be continued in the fall of 1939.

2. That the Association Committees on Credentials and Association Scribes study carefully the findings of the Worcester Conference, published in the May issue of the "Pilgrim State News."

3. That the Association Committees on Credentials keep in touch with the Conference Committee on Polity, which stands ready to assist, particularly in border-line cases.

4. That the work begun by our Committee relative to establishing more uniform procedure in the licensing and ordaining of Congregational ministers in the state be continued next year.

Dean Willard L. Sperry of Harvard Divinity School then gave the first of the three addresses planned for the Conference: "The World Background in Religion."

The report of the Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life was presented and accepted and ordered printed in the records.

In giving the report of the Department of Woman's Work, Mrs. Evelyn S. Trask, Chairman, requested that the report be re-edited and printed in full, including certain paragraphs omitted for the sake of brevity in the Advance Report. It was voted that this request be granted.

The report of the Boston Seaman's Friend Society was accepted and ordered printed in the records, as was also the report of the Committee on Missions and Apportionment.

Rev. Charles C. Merrill, in presenting the report of the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, commented upon a successful exchange of pastorates between Milford, Mass., and Norwich, N. Y. The report was accepted and ordered printed in the records.

MONDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:00 o'clock, various aspects of present-day Congregational work in the state were presented under the title, "Scene in Massachusetts," as follows:

1. "Activity on the Western Front," Rev. George A. Tuttle, Field Secretary
2. "The City Church," Rev. Fred D. Bennett, Union Church, Boston.
3. "The Rural Church," Rev. Harold B. White, Pelham.
4. "The Foreign-Speaking Church," Mr. Peter V. Kolonia, Albanian Church, Worcester.

A glimpse into "The National Scene" was afforded through the presentation of "A Program of Progress," by Rev. Harry T. Stock, Secretary of the Christian Education Division of the Board of Home Missions.

Rev. Carl M. Sangree presented the report of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, which was accepted and ordered printed in the records. Mr. Sangree spoke particularly of the Digest of the Liquor Laws, printed by the committee, which is still up-to-date and available for sale in the churches.

Further reports which were accepted and ordered printed in the records were:

Laymen's Committee
Committee on Relation of Churches and Colleges
Committee on Rural Churches

The Moderator called upon the President of the Conference to give his annual report. This report, which is found elsewhere in these Minutes, was accepted by vote of the Conference.

The Secretary of the Conference then gave his annual report, which was accepted. His report concluded with the reading of the necrology, the Conference standing as a mark of respect. The following is the list of ministers who have died since the last Annual Meeting, and whose ministerial standing has been held at some time within the Conference:

Uel Anderson
Robert W. W. Campbell
Howard W. Collins
Harry L. Coole
Charles F. Echterbecker
Oliver P. Emerson
Amasa C. Fay
Charles S. Holton

Olaf P. Peterson (before 1938 Annual William G. Poor Meeting)
John Rossnagle, Jr.
Charles H. Smith
Stephen Vaitses
William A. White
Elbridge C. Whiting
Charles S. Wilder

The Treasurer presented his annual report, which was accepted and ordered printed in the records.

The Moderator presented Rev. Albert D. Belden of the George Whitefield Mission of London, England, who brought the greetings of British Congregationalism to the Conference. The Conference heartily welcomed his fraternal message and it was:

VOTED: That the greetings of the Conference be extended, through Mr. Belden, to the Congregational Assembly of England and Wales.

It was VOTED: That Rev. Charles C. Merrill be requested to carry the greetings of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference to the New Hampshire State Conference, which was then in session.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented and by ballot the following officers were elected, 223 ballots having been cast:

Moderator—Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, Westboro.

Vice-Moderator—Mr. Wilfred H. Chapin, Fairhaven.

Recording Secretary—Rev. William L. Boicourt, Shirley.

Chairman of Department of Woman's Work—Mrs. Myron H. Clark, Bedford.

Ollendorff, West Medway; Mr. Sterling L. Williams, Belmont.

The new Moderator, Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, was then presented by Mr. Grabill, and briefly addressed the Conference.

MONDAY EVENING

At 6:00 o'clock simultaneous supper conferences and evening services were held:

1. The women held their Annual Meeting at the Edwards Church, following a dinner served by the women of that church. Mrs. Robert P. Trask presided, and there were three hundred present.

The reports of the Standing Committees of the Department showed activity and progress, as did the reports from the Districts. There were delegates from each of the fifteen Districts and reports from thirteen.

Mrs. Carver gave a comprehensive report of her work. She is retiring as Executive Secretary after serving the churches of Massachusetts in one capacity or another for thirty-six years. She has been Secretary of the Woman's Department for six years, although connected with the Conference since 1926. The women of the churches have sent boxes to pastors, schools and hospitals, valued at $18,894.

The devotional service was led by the new Secretary of Woman's Work, Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl.

The speaker of the evening was Professor Georgia Harkness of Mt. Holyoke College, who gave an illuminating picture of the Madras Conference.

2. The ministers and laymen met together at Smith School. Mr. Wilfred H. Chapin presided. A letter of regret and greeting from Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, Governor of Massachusetts, was read. Hon. William H. Feiker, Mayor of Northampton, spoke felicitously. The principal addresses were given by Mr. Ronald Bridges, Sanford, Maine, Associate Secretary of the Laymen's Fellowship, and Dean Roderick Scott of Fukien University, Foochow, China, who emphasized the dynamic, progressive aspects of Christian missions in China, despite present war conditions.

TUESDAY MORNING

At 8:30 o'clock, committee meetings and simultaneous conferences were held as follows:

1. Religious Education, First Church.
2. Woman's Department, Auditorium, Edwards Church.
3. "The Open Door Church," First Church.

At 10:00 o'clock the Conference was opened with a Service of Worship led by the Chaplain.

It was VOTED: That the meeting would recess at 12:15 for the luncheon under the auspices of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare.

Dean Sperry then gave the second of his addresses: "The Foreground of American Christianity."

It being observed that there had been an oversight in not filling certain vacancies on the Nominating Committee it was

Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl, the new Secretary of Woman's Work, was introduced and spoke briefly.

It was VOTED: That the Conference accept the invitation of the Central Church, Worcester, which had been endorsed by the Worcester Central Association, to hold the 1940 Annual Meeting in that church.

Upon recommendation of the Board of Trustees it was VOTED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society cooperate in the plans of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, and if their plans materialize, hold the next Annual Meeting in 1940 in Worcester, in conjunction with other denominations.

It was recommended by the Business Committee that the Treasurer of the State Conference be directed to obtain and keep on file a record of the allotment payments of the individual churches of the Conference, classified by associations; and it was so voted.

The Business Committee also recommended that the General Council be memorialized in favor of the discontinuance in the Year-Book of the column relating to absent members; also that in view of the present confusion with reference to allotment payments, the officers of the several Associations be hereby urged to secure, as far as possible, full payment from all the churches; also that a special committee of fifteen members be appointed by the Moderator to make a study of the whole question of allotment and of establishment of a uniform basis for reporting and publishing membership data, said committee to report its recommendations at the next Annual Meeting of the Conference.

Rev. Edward M. Condit of Needham moved that in view of the uncertainty and confusion over this matter of the per capita tax, a special committee of seven members be elected by the Conference to study the matter of income and expenditure of the State Conference and that the following seven be elected: Mr. Frank E. Bridgman, Rev. J. Burford Parry, Rev. William F. English, Rev. Clement F. Hahn, Mr. Elliott V. Grabill, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, Rev. Mark Strickland.

The Moderator ruled that Mr. Condit's motion, under the By-Laws, could not be acted upon until referred to the Business Committee.

It was then

VOTED: That the four recommendations already presented by the Business Committee, together with Mr. Condit's motion, go to the Business Committee for further consideration and that they report at the afternoon session at 3:30.

The Business Committee then presented the following resolution:

Resolved: That for the present year, where an association or a church has changed, or changes, its method of calculating the allotment per capita from the basis of total membership, as set forth in the statistical tables in the Conference Minutes and Reports for 1938, pages 99–115, inclusive, to that of resident membership, as determined by the clerks of the individual churches, an addition shall be made of one cent per member for the Conference and one cent per member for the General Council.

Mr. Cooper of Campello moved, as a substitute for the foregoing, that for the present year the allotment per capita be upon the total membership as reported in last year's records and statistical tables. Before action could be taken on this motion, the Conference, according to its previous vote, recessed at 12:15.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:00 o'clock, following a brief musical service, Dean Sperry gave his third address entitled, "The Genius and Present Opportunities of Congregationalism." At the close of Dean Sperry's address, the Conference arose spontaneously and applauded at length. The Moderator, addressing him, stated that the applause and the close attention paid him must have convinced him that the members had followed him with joy and great appreciation as he led them up pleasant and illuminating slopes to a high summit of knowledge of Congregationalism, and showed them their "duties" as well as their "rights."

It was

Resolved: That the Conference express its appreciation of the series of addresses given by Dean Sperry and that we recommend that excerpts from these addresses be printed in the "Pilgrim State News," and we express the hope that they may be subsequently published in full.

Dean Emeritus Charles R. Brown of Yale Divinity School presented forcefully the Debt of Honor Campaign.

At 3:30, the Business Committee reported that Mr. Cooper, with the consent of his second, agreed to a merging of his ideas expressed in his motion to amend, with the following resolution:

Owing to the present financial stringency in our State Conference

Be It Resolved: That the churches of the state be asked to pay their per capita allotment on the basis of their total membership as shown in the tables of the Year Book; and that the officers of the several associations be urged to secure, as far as possible, full payment from all our churches. This resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote.

The Business Committee recommended, and it was so voted, without a dissenting vote, that a special committee of fifteen members be appointed by the Moderator to make a study of the whole question of allotments and of the establishment of a uniform basis for reporting and publishing membership data, said committee to make recommendations at the next Annual Meeting of the Conference.

It was suggested that the Moderator consider the appointment of some or all of those named in Mr. Condit's resolution, which resolution, after consideration, the Business Committee did not present.

The Moderator has appointed the following as members of the committee authorized by the above resolution: Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Chairman, Mr. Frank E. Bridgman, Mr. Myron S. Burton, Rev. William F. English, Mr. Elliott V. Grabill, Rev. Clement F. Hahn, Mr. Willard C. Hill, Rev. Horace F. Holton, Mr. Roy A. Hovey, Dr. Arthur L. Miles, Rev. J. Burford Parry, Rev. Carl F. Schultz, Rev. Mark Strickland, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, Rev. Harold B. White.

The Business Committee recommended, and it was so voted, that the Woburn Association be requested to reconsider the action taken at the last meeting and ask its constituent churches to calculate their respective allotments for payments to the State Conference on the basis of the total membership as reported in the statistical tables appearing in the Minutes and Reports of the State Conference for 1938.

It was voted to accept and order printed the report of the special committee appointed "to study and clarify the question as to how far a committee appointed by the Conference can speak and act for the Congregational-Christian Churches of the state."

Report of Special Committee,
Massachusetts State Conference of Congregational-Christian Churches:

> "To study and clarify the question as to how far a committee appointed by the Conference can speak and act for the Congregational-Christian Churches of the State."

The power of action in our Congregational-Christian Churches rests, in the last analysis, with the members of those churches. Individual Christians, gathered in Christian fellowship into Churches, which are in turn gathered into the fellowship of local Associations, State Conferences, and a General Council, constitute the structure of our Congregational way. All this association is on a voluntary basis, and is only so strong as the convictions and the purposes which actuate it.

Therefore, no Committee can speak or act with authority for the Congregational-Christian Churches, except it has behind it the general consensus of informed conviction.

In 1936 the General Council at Mt. Holyoke put itself on record as follows:

> "Resolutions are expression of opinion only, voicing the sentiments, positive or negative, of the people supporting them."

In 1938 the Council, at its meeting in Beloit, said:

> "Resolutions of the Council represent the opinions of those voting for them and have no binding force upon the Denomination or the Churches as such."

Committees of the Conference, therefore it would seem, on the basis of these rulings, whether they be standing or special committees, represent, act and speak for "the persons voting for them, and have no binding effect on the Churches of the State, as such."

Committees of the Conference receiving specific instructions by vote of the Conference, may expend funds of the Conference, but not of the Churches; may act for the Conference delegates, but not for the Churches; may speak for the Conference, but not for the Churches.

When Committees of the Conference appear before legislative bodies, they may express the convictions, recorded in votes and resolutions of the Conference, or may urge their own points of view, either as individuals, or as the committee as a whole, but they may not claim to speak for the Churches of the State, except as the mind of the Churches has been expressed in a referendum.

This is not to say that the Committees of the Conference have no task or scope for action. The function of the Committees of the Conference is to persuade and lead individual Christians, individual Churches, individual associations to action based on informed conviction. Committees of the Conference may recommend to Associations, to Churches, to Pastors, to individuals any course of action which seems compatible to Christian conviction; but it is fruitless for a Committee to initiate actions which the majority of our Churches are not prepared to follow.

Standing Committees of the Conference should work with and through Association Committees elected or appointed to study the work in similar fields of interest. Only thus can the rank and file members of our Churches know what is going on in their Associations and in the State Conference.

Your special Committee, therefore, would recommend that the various Committees of the Conference be urged to carry on their various programs of action through the appropriate committees of the different Associations and the committees of the local Churches.

HAROLD EDGAR MARTIN.

The following resolutions were adopted on recommendation of the Business Committee:

Resolved: That this Conference express its deep appreciation of Dean Brown's address on the Debt of Honor and that as members of the Conference we recognize the vital importance of the cause he presented and urge upon all the churches of Massachusetts to participate in the Debt of Honor to the limit of their ability and

Be It Further Resolved: That a notice and copy of this vote of the Conference be sent to all churches which have not yet participated.

Resolved: That the Conference express appreciation to the officers and committees who were responsible for the arrangements for this Annual Meeting, in particular to the committee which prepared such a splendid program. And we express thanks to the pastor of this church, Reverend Ray Gibbons, and to the organist, choir, nurse and members of the First Church, and the pastors and members of the Edwards, Florence and Easthampton churches, for their efficient preparation for these meetings and service during the same, and for their cordial and uniform hospitality. To the authorities of Smith College and Smith Vocational School for the use of buildings and other facilities, to the Hampshire Male Chorus and the Northampton High School Orchestra for inspiring music, to the local and other newspapers for notices and reports of meetings, and to the police officers and Boy Scouts of the city, we give sincere thanks. To the people of the community for their cooperation in providing accommodations for delegates and visitors, and to all organizations and persons who, in any way, have contributed to the success of this gathering, we extend hearty appreciation.

Rev. E. W. Phillips, Secretary of the Lord's Day League, and

Rev. Frank K. Singiser, Corresponding Secretary of the Massachusetts Bible Society, spoke briefly on their respective fields of work.

It was voted that the Recording Secretary be authorized to complete the Minutes, to be approved by the staff.

By rising vote, the Conference approved an expression from the floor of the efficient and able service rendered by the Moderator.

The Moderator, in his turn, complimented the Conference and announced that by common consent, following the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper this evening, this 140th Annual Meeting will stand adjourned.

The registration for the Conference was as follows:

Churches represented by Pastor alone	73
Churches represented by Pastor and 1 delegate	66
Churches represented by Pastor and 2 delegates	107
Churches represented by 1 or more delegate and no Pastor	29
Churches represented	275

TUESDAY EVENING

At 7:30, the Service of Worship was conducted by Chaplain Waser.

Rev. Douglas Horton, Secretary and Minister of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches, preached the Conference Sermon, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the Chaplain and the minister of the church, Rev. Ray Gibbons, and the deacons appointed by the Moderator at the opening of the Conference.

After a hymn and benediction, the Conference stood adjourned.

Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary.

William Boicourt, Recording Secretary.

THE PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

Judging from the Lenten programs and the number of accessions at Easter on Confession of Faith, this has been a year of definite evangelical emphasis and sincere spiritual cultivation. Reports of well planned educational programs, with emphasis upon the place and mission of the Church come from all sections of the State. "Madras", as well as Oxford and Edinborough, has evidently had a direct influence upon the thinking and the effort of our churches. We dare to believe also that the Devotional Spirit of the Pastors' Retreat at Adelynrood, at the opening of the year is reflected in the purposeful and progressive religious movement in so many of our parishes.

Next Fall we hope to have four two-day Retreats for ministers, in the East, West, South and Center of the State, with Dr. Douglas Horton as the leader. A little later in the season with the assistance of the Commission on Evangelism of the General Council, and as a preparation for "Preaching Missions" and preaching with a purpose, we expect to have a series of eight "Institutes on Evangelism" in different localities. These will be conducted by Dr. Fagley with Dr. Gaius Glenn Atkins in part and Dr. Arthur Bradford in part. The theme will be "What to Preach and How to Preach for a Decision." The fourteen Parish Preaching Missions held this year were occasions of real spiritual uplift. The thanks of the Conference is due the busy pastors who gave of their time and strength without remuneration to serve in this capacity, and to their churches which released them for this important ministry. Next year we hope to see the number and value greatly increased.

A very practical service we have been able to render our ministers has been to facilitate their joining the "Associated Hospital Service" or the "Blue Cross." Eighty-three families have been enrolled through the Conference office, and we shall be glad to help others join. New members are received in groups of five.

The most satisfying ministry this office renders is that which is given to pastors and churches in meeting personal problems and relationships. Most of these are confidential and none should be publicized. However, mention ought to be made of the public recognition of the important place of the Church in the Community and of the record of successful leadership given to five of our ministers. We have in mind the reception tendered "the fighting parson of Revere," the Rev. Ambrose Jenkins. The First Church refused to accept his resignation, and recalled him to the Pastorate. Then there was the celebration of the twenty-fifth Anniversary of Dr. John H. Quint at First Church, Chelsea, of Rev. Henry Francis Smith of West Medford; the fortieth Anniversary of Dr. Edwin B. Robinson's Ordination and the thirty-sixth of his pastorate at Grace Church, Holyoke, and the twenty-fifth Anniversary of Dr. Carl M. Gates at Wellesley Hills. It is heartening to see on such occasions how churches and communities enthusiastically voice their high esteem of the value and influence of the Christian Ministry.

Benevolences

We wish we might report an increase in Benevolent Giving for the past callendar year. Instead the record shows a decrease of ten per cent. Only one Association exceeded its giving to Missions. In Suffolk North the Apportionment rose in 1938 by 3% over 1937. The outlook for 1939 is brighter. The average gain for the first four months has been 21%. If this can only continue our record for the present year will be more in keeping with the needs of the State and the Boards and with our achievements in years gone by. What an impetus would be given our Benevolences if only the principle and program of Systematic Giving and Stewardship were more widely inculcated in the hearts and minds of our church people.

Dept of Honor

You will be interested in a summary of the support in Massachusetts of the Debt of Honor Fund. Of our 615 active churches 340 have pledged a total of $116,672.00. Only 56% of our churches have so far participated, and in some of these cases it has been a matter of a single individual sending in a personal contribution, but it has been credited to the church; and only 29% of the quota for Massachusetts has been subscribed. Connecticut has pledged 38% of its quota, and the other New England States have also surpassed us. Let me reinforce the recommendation of the Board of Trustees, — that as a Conference we continue to back this project and that all our Churches join in an effort to raise at least $200,000. — 50% of the quota originally asked of us. With 275 churches yet to respond we ought to raise the additional $83,000.

Pastoral Changes

Some important pastoral changes have taken place during the year. Twenty-four of our ministers have moved to new parishes within the State. Eighteen churches have found their new ministers in other States, while fourteen ministers have left Massachusetts. Ten Churches have called to their pulpits ministers of other denominations. We cordially welcome all these new men to the fellowship of this Conference. Eight pastors have resigned and are still without churches and seventeen ministers have retired or gone into other lines of activity. Thirty-four pulpits are vacant.

Among the ministers who have retired with honor after long and notable service are William M. Macnair, Charles W. Merriam, William S. Anderson, Lynn V. Farnsworth and T. Nelson Baker. With affection and esteem we would like to read the names of those who, — from the active ministry, — have been called to the Church Triumphant. We cherish the memory of Harry L. Coole of Rochester-Lakeville Larger Parish, Charles S. Holton of Newbury, Arthur H. Hope of Belchertown, William Poor of Upton, John Rossnagle of Lynnfield Center and Charles H. Smith of Granby.

The C. C. U.

A significant merger, which illustrates the trend toward unification of our church agencies, has recently been consummated. The Congregational Church Union of Boston and Vicinity has had through forty-three years an outstanding record of financial aid to churches in acquiring and maintaining their property. A proposal came from the Directors of the Union that it should convey its property and surrender its responsibilities to the Conference. A Joint Committee from the two Corporations, of which Judge Francis Nims Thompson, our Trustee from Franklin Association, was Chairman, worked out a plan whereby without the complication of transfers of titles and court proceedings, the desired end could be accomplished. This solution consisted of a simplification of the organization of the Union so that it becomes a small and self-perpetuating body, and the election of persons closely associated with the Conference to constitute its membership. Subsequently a special meeting of the Union adopted new By-laws and elected the following nine persons the members and directors: Rev. Alfred J. Barnard, Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, Mr. Oren C. Boothby, Mr. Myron S. Burton, Mr. Willard C. Hill, Mr. Roy E. Hovey, Rev. Frederick H. Page, D.D., Judge Francis Nims Thompson and Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake. The President and the Treasurer of the Conference have since been elected the President and Treasurer of the Union respectively, while Mr. Boothby continues as the Clerk. The officers of the Conference thus undertake a more direct relationship to the churches in their building problems.

Hurricane Aid

A venture into this field was thrust upon the Trustees and Staff after the Hurricane last September. Few of our churches escaped without some injury and over fifty were seriously damaged. A dozen of these were able of themselves to make the necessary repairs. To a group of churches of limited resources but badly wrecked, the Church Building Department of the Board of Home Missions, through Dr. William F. Frazier, has given a magnificent expression of the strength, the resources and the fraternal interest of our Congregational Fellowship. Dr. Frazier visited these churches with the President, made a thorough survey, offered practical suggestions and recommended to his Board appropriations to thirteen of them totalling $19,550 in outright grants, and loans at low interest rates amounting to $53,600.

Our Trustees in addition set aside $10,000 for the churches where the need of assistance to cover the expense of repair was less than $1,000. A committee composed of Willard C. Hill, Roy E. Hovey and W. W. Ollendorff was appointed to advise with the President and Treasurer in caring for these cases. Forty churches have been assisted with Grants and Loans totalling $11,664 and $19,400 respectively. These figures include a special grant to Hopkinton where a complete new building must be erected, and it was deemed wise to join with the Church Building Department in making sure of a conditional gift of $25,000. The foregoing figures also include some short term loans, charged to the investment account and made to churches pending assistance from New York or the completion of their financial campaigns. Our intention has been to distribute our aid wherever there was need and in proportion to the individual requirements. It has been a real joy to be your agent in expressing the good-will of the Conference toward sister churches so suddenly and tragically distraught, and marvelous to see the courage and the will to survive exhibited by both pastors and people.

Steeples

Though many churches lost their steeples in the Hurricane, the Building Department and the Conference, in making appropriations, looked upon the rebuilding of a steeple as a luxury, which a church should undertake at its own expense. So this costly project was left out of our calculations.

However, a Massachusetts layman, learning of our inability to provide for the replacing of this attractive and prominent feature in New England church architecture, protested that for a Congregational church a steeple is as religiously significant as is the altar of a Roman Catholic Church,—and this layman has given $5,000 to the Conference to be used to help churches whose steeples were razed to restore them, if the work can be undertaken during this year, and the steeple replaced practically as it was originally. Several churches have accepted these conditions. We wish, however, some other lover of the "Steepled Hills" would also contribute to this fund so that larger individual donations might be made to particularly needy parishes.

"News"

The Editors of the "Pilgrim State News" have maintained through the year its high level of excellence. The great need now is for the more active co-operation of pastors and church leaders in increasing the number of subscribers. We wish every member of this Annual Meeting would take it upon himself to be a subscription agent for the Conference paper. There will soon be an added attractiveness to this monthly publication, when articles from the "Missionary Herald" are regularly incorporated in it.

The Staff

One great pleasure of this year's activity has been the united effort and co-operative spirit of the Executive Staff. We would note with regret the recent death of Miss Leora M. Taft, for twenty-three years associated with the Treasury Department of the Women's Missionary Organizations of the State, and latterly with the Conference and with the Board of Ministerial Aid. Though not an elected officer of the Conference, Miss Taft devoted herself, with faithfulness and cheerfulness to the service of the churches, and won the esteem and affection of all associated with her.

Rev. Porter Bower has undertaken his new tasks with skill and insight and is giving helpful direction to the Pilgrim Fellowship and to the whole program of Religious Education.

Continuing until her successor should be appointed, Mrs. Mary R. Carver is completing her twelfth year of service with our churches, and now retires upon a pension. Mrs. Carver has carried with fidelity and industry the responsibilities of Secretary of the Woman's Department along with those of the Speakers' Bureau, the Project Plan and Denominational Literature. Our gratitude and best wishes go with her as she leaves the Staff to enjoy a well earned rest.

As the new Secretary of the Woman's Department the Trustees are nominating Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl. Mrs. Ekdahl is a native of New Hampshire, a life-long Congregationalist and has been a professor of Psychology at the University of New Hampshire. She comes highly recommended by those with whom she has been associated in Church and Conference work in our neighboring state, and she has the unanimous approval of the Board of Trustees.

Again this year the Trustees have given their sanction to the plan of relating the members of the Staff to different geographical areas of the State. They are prepared as a beginning to assign a Field Secretary to the Associations of the Southeast, — Barnstable, Old Colony and Pilgrim; and another to the Associations of Greater Boston, — Suffolk North, South and West and Woburn, — if and when it seems to be financially expedient without too great a drain upon the Contingent Fund.

Retiring Trustees

May I be permitted to read in recognition of their valuable contribution to the welfare of our churches and of the faithful discharge of their duties, the names of the Trustees who complete their term of office with this meeting. They are: Rev. Ernest L. Baker, Amesbury; Mrs. Luther M. Child, West Medford; Rev. John Gratton, Pittsfield; Mr. John C. Hull, Leominster; Mr. Roy A. Hovey, Wakefield; Dr. Arthur L. Miles, Cambridge; Mr. Wilbur E. Rowell, Lawrence; Mrs. Robert P. Trask, Lexington; Rev. Dwight L. Cart, Essex South, and our Moderator, Mr. Ethelbert V. Grabill of Jamaica Plain, who during his term of office has been a member of the Board. These persons have given freely of time and counsel for the direction of the work of the Conference. We thank them!

Looking Ahead

The New England Regional Meeting of the Missions Council will be held in Waterbury, Connecticut, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 27, 28, and 29. These particular days of the week have been selected in order to enable laymen as well as ministers to attend. Each of our Associations is allowed at least five delegates and Association officials are requested to secure the most influential representation possible. Dr. Arthur H. Compton of Chicago, Chairman of the Layman's Missionary Movement, will be a speaker Sunday evening.

It has been proposed that in 1940 the Annual Meetings of the several Protestant Denominations in Massachusetts be held at the same time in Worcester. This centrally located city has splendid facilities for such an Interdenominational gathering. The Worcester Central Association and the Central Congregational Church have invited this Conference to be their guests. If these plans are perfected we can look forward to an inspiring demonstration of the Spirit of Unity in Protestantism one year hence.

One thing let us do, "forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, let us press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

It is a pleasure again after twenty years, to meet in this charmed city, under the shadow, or rather in the light, cast by Smith College, one of the largest resident women's colleges in the world. The memory of Jonathan Edwards and Sophia Smith haunts us, and the living presence of teachers and ministers laboring here today inspires us. In Congregationalism, the church, the school and the college have always been close companions and warm friends.

Because of the colleges and other schools of learning situated along this Connecticut River, someone has wittily said that the Connecticut is the best educated river in the world. Perhaps as a post-graduate course in the higher levels of learning, this same river has been educated even further since 1910, by having in its pleasant valley seven Annual Meetings of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society: two here in Northampton, two in Springfield, two in Holyoke and one in Greenfield. And in 1936 the biennial meeting of our General Council was held in South Hadley at Mt. Holyoke College.

STATISTICS OF CHURCHES, MEMBERS, Etc.

In 1910 we had 599 churches and 123,328 members, 2479 infant baptisms, 122,064 Sunday School members, and 24,723 in our young people's societies. In 1938, December 31, we had a gain of 15 churches, a gain of 50,027 church members, a loss of 25,781 Sunday School members and a gain of 9,366 in young people's societies. In 1910, we had 2,479 infant baptisms, but in 1938 we had 3,767 infant baptisms, 1,288 more than in 1910.

Now to come down to recent years, comparing 1938 with 1928, we have gained 6,365 members, but lost in Sunday School membership 21,534, and gained 7,322 in young people's societies' membership. Our churches in the calendar year '38, compared with '28, received 45 fewer members on confession, but compared with 1937, they received 433 more members on confession. This may indicate a returning to the church.

In 1938, in this commonwealth we had 10.06% of all the Congregational churches in the United States, 16.71% of the members, and gave 20.46% of the total apportionment giving.

Of our 614 churches, 120 contributed nothing to state work, 103 contributed nothing to national work, 99 contributed nothing to the American Board.

The Conference puts about $68,000 into state work, of which the churches give us $31,889.

Today we have 24 churches, each with a membership of 1,000 or over. The 3 largest are in Springfield, namely, Hope, with 1,787 members, First, with 1,754, and South, with 1,700. The entire list follows: —

AIDED CHURCHES

In 1938, 10 fields with which the Conference cooperates financially have become self-supporting, or else the work has been discontinued, as in case of the Lawrence Syrian work. In this field we arranged for the two neighboring English-speaking Congregational churches to take the names and addresses of our Syrian friends, and receive them into their parishes. A fine Christian spirit was shown among the Syrian people and in the two churches. We made sure, also, that our faithful and much-loved Syrian worker, Mr. Hanna Skeirik, was suitably cared for by his many Lawrence friends. We congratulate the 9 other churches that have become self-supporting during the year.

It is the policy of our Trustees to bring our aided churches to self-support as soon as possible. In some cases this is plainly impossible because of the sparsely settled area around the church, and because of no other organized religious privileges near-by, that is, within 5 miles, or because of a greatly changed environment as in the case of Union Church in Boston. We should be recreant to our duty if we did not continue to assist in maintaining such work. Several fields we have aided 79, 81, 85, 92, 96, 100, 107, 110 years respectively, and in most of these I can see no hope of independent self-support. This is a record of real missionary work, because we expect no great financial return and no appreciable growth in state church membership. Some of these churches may in the future be yoked with other churches nearby, or federated with neighboring churches, or developed into Larger Parishes. According to statistics compiled by the Massachusetts Council of Churches there are 48 federated churches in the commonwealth, and Congregational churches are involved in 42 of them, Methodist in 21, and Baptist in 17. This indicates our stand in the matter of federation.

Two areas in the state are seriously considering the Larger Parish plan and technique. This plan offers to the churches, especially in the open country, the brightest hope within sight for effective Christian work, especially among the young people. The Conference office stands ready to help toward this end in every possible way. A genuine Larger Parish is quite different from a yoked field. It implies a multiple and diverse ministry and should have at least three churches, with a conscious community spirit pervading the entire area. I should warmly welcome any suggestion from any interested person if he thinks that his church could be made more effective and more comprehensive by the Larger Parish plan. The Larger Parish is not so much a new plan or a new organization; it is a new idea, a new spirit. And in order for it to succeed what is needed is not a new set of by laws or a few new committees; there must be new ideas, a new vision, a new spirit.

BI-LINGUAL WORK

I recently addressed a questionnaire to our bilingual ministers, inquiring about their use of English in their work, their young people, their cooperation in our denominational missionary work, naturalization among their people, and whether the trend in their own group is toward becoming an English-speaking church or toward joining with some near-by English-speaking church. There seems to be no uniformity in their replies, because their various fields of work are so different. The Albanians seem to be the most segregated from American people. Few of our group in Worcester are naturalized citizens, but in recent years, the number being naturalized is increasing.

Rev. Max Schaff, minister of our German Church in Fitchburg, replies regarding benevolence. "We do all we can to support missionary work, and gave the past year $150 to the Debt of Honor and $65 to missionary apportionment."

Rev. J. M. Reis, our Portuguese minister in Lowell, replies: "We have been contributing $40 yearly for Congregational missionary work. We have subscribed $20 to the Debt of Honor."

Rev. V. V. Sundelin, our Finnish minister on Cape Cod, writes: "We haven't done very much in missionary work, but will try to do better."

Rev. O. F. Johnson of our Swedish churches in Beverly and Pigeon Cove, replies: "The Beverly church uses English in the Sunday School, young people's societies, and in all Sunday morning services. In Pigeon Cove, Swedish is still used in all preaching services with the exception of one Sunday evening service each month. The natural evolution in Beverly is toward an English-speaking church."

Rev. L. J. Pedersen of the Roxbury Norwegian church writes that they use English in about 75% of their church work. The trend there is strong toward becoming an English-speaking church. Soon they will be strong enough to go on independently.

The Finns are adopting our American culture, and in their churches are making large use of the English language, especially in their young people's work. So are the Armenians, the Norwegians and the Swedes. In the homes these various language groups use their parental languages for the most part. Some of our ministers teach the children their parents' languages, so that they may interpret for their parents when necessary; and also and especially that the parental culture may be transmitted through the children to this, their adopted country. In music, art, culture, architecture, literature, and emphatically in Christian faith, in Christian endurance under suffering and persecution, in single hearted devotion to the church of Christ, these strangers and pilgrims, and in some cases refugees from Europe, if shown a friendly and understanding spirit as brothers in Christ, will enrich and invigorate our own religious and cultural life.

It is interesting to note that the Massachusetts Baptist Convention give to their bi-lingual work $17,967 among Italian, French, Russian, Portuguese and Filipino peoples here in this state. There are 334 Baptist churches in the state convention. This is equivalent to $53.70, on the average, from each of their churches, which corresponds to an average of $40.70 for our work from each of our 614 Congregational churches. The several Methodist Conferences put about $17,000 into similar work in Massachusetts.

We make a tragic mistake if we neglect these interesting people from abroad. They have much to give us. We are under a heavy Christian obligation to them. We are members one of another. They and their children comprise 65% of the people of Massachusetts. Our General Council allots three times as large a missionary apportionment percentage to our American Board for these and other peoples in their native lands, as we allot to the entire missionary work in this commonwealth. The Portuguese in distant Africa, the Greek and the Armenian in the Near East, the Chinese in far away China, the Albanian in his stolen homeland, the German and the Italian in their enslaved countries, these all at a distance appeal to us and enchant us even to tears. The farther away they are the greater the appeal and the enchantment. But let them move into our neighborhood, and at once we pack our trunks and we move to Brookline or Winchester, or Newton, or to Longmeadow or West Springfield. I plead with you to befriend these same people when, through the mystery of God, they seek the peace, the freedom and the Christian privileges that America affords. The Masons, our friends the Roman Catholics, the Communists, are looking after the children of these foreign-born parents and are tying together two or three generations of them into the bonds of brotherhood and comradeship. I want the church of the living Christ not to follow at a distance, but to lead the world and show our brethren in the fraternal orders, in the great church of Rome, and in Communism what is the length and breadth and height of the love of Christ.

Ralph M. Timberlake, Esq., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ending March 31, 1939, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid checks or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1939; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1939, has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business on March 31, 1939, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ending at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The committee has held five meetings during the year. It has had four subcommittees on Children's Work, Young People's Work, Summer Conferences, and Leadership Training, respectively, which have held numerous other meetings. Two main objectives have been adopted for the year's work: (1) To help ministers and churches to discover the values of the educational approach in all their activities, (2) To promote the use of the booklet "A Parish Program of Christian Education" as a means of developing and strengthening the educational program of the churches.

The committee has enjoyed the close cooperation and interest of the Department of Woman's Work. Mrs. Field, Chairman of the Education Committee of that department has been a member of the committee and other officers have attended its meetings and shared in its plans.

The "Parish Program" has been presented by the Secretary of Young People's Work and other members of the committee at twelve association meetings at several of which this was made the main feature of the program.

The committee devoted its March meeting to a discussion of the "Program of Progress" developed and launched by the Division of Christian Education of the Home Board as a national plan for all our churches. It is similar to the Massachusetts Parish Program, with these five main emphases for the year: Knowing and Using the Bible, Christian Family Life and Church Cooperation, Reaching the Unreached, Our World-Wide Responsibility, and More and Better Workers for the Church. The committee finds in this plan not a competitive, but a cooperative measure, largely an outgrowth of our state plan, which will be of great value to our churches. It approves and indorses the Program of Progress and recommends to the Trustees and the State Conference and Missionary Society that this program be adopted by them and recommended to the churches of the state.

The Young People's Work has centered in the promotion and development of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship, the organization, purpose, and plans of which are fully described in the booklet with this title, obtainable through the state office. Rev. Paul S. McElroy was elected as the Adviser for the Fellowship. The activities of this movement may be summarized as follows: a meeting of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship Council at Edgemere Lodge, in October, at which plans and methods were discussed and five projects adopted for recommendation to the young people's groups; the state Pilgrim Fellowship work; the Massachusetts Conference and Missionary Society; St. Mark Colored Church in Boston; Pleasant Hill Academy, Tennessee; and a China project. Information regarding these projects has been prepared by the executive committee of the Fellowship and furnished to the young people's organizations, and other plans have been carried out with the purpose of making the young people of the state better acquainted with our entire work. A meeting was held in February for the young people's leaders of Boston and vicinity for the further study of the projects and other work; and a similar meeting is to be held in connection with the Annual Meeting in May, for the leaders in that part of the state.

Through the cooperation of the Division of Christian Education a student worker, Mr. Kenneth Clinton, of Andover-Newton Theological School, has been at work during the year, visiting young people's groups on Sunday afternoons and evenings, for the purpose of explaining the purposes and methods of the Fellowship, and assisting these groups in the development of their work.

Summer Conferences. The first Pilgrim Fellowship summer conference was held last June, at the Massachusetts State College campus in Amherst. The attendance was 258, 58 more than had been expected. A varied and attractive program was carried out under the direction of Rev. Ray Gibbons, as Dean, and a strong faculty. Receipts from registration fees and other items were $672 and the expenses $580, leaving a balance of $92 on hand. Because of the number wishing to attend which is in excess of available accommodations, it was decided to hold two sessions in 1939; June 25-July 2, with Mr. Gibbons as Dean; and July 2-9 with Dr. Henry David Gray as Dean.

The committee has continued its former work in the general promotion of summer conferences, sending to all pastors in the state a schedule of the various conferences available to our churches, together with bulletins or other printed matter furnished by each conference for this purpose.

Children's Work. Mrs. Franklin G. Field was appointed as the member of the committee with special responsibility for Children's Work and has worked in co-operation with Miss Widber of the Division of Christian Education.

Leadership Training. A questionnaire was prepared and sent out to the churches of the state by Mr. Vinie in the effort to discover existing conditions with reference to educational leadership, the felt needs, and ways in which the committee might help to meet these. A report of progress has been made and Mr. Vinie is continuing this study.

Work of the Secretary. At the last state conference meeting Rev. Porter Bower was engaged to give one-third of his time to the work of Young People's Secretary for the state conference, the remainder of his time being occupied with the pastorate of the Beachmont Church. He has made contacts with seventeen associations by attending their meetings, holding conferences with association committees and groups, conferences and correspondence with individuals, setting up institutes and other meetings, and various other activities. He has been the executive officer of the Committee on Religious Education, attending its meetings and carrying on the details of its work. The committee expresses its appreciation of Mr. Bower's energy and skill in these activities. It is remarkable that so much has been accomplished in the amount of time that he has been able to give under the terms of his engagement, but it is very evident that the leadership of religious educational work in such a conference as this calls for the services of a full time secretary.

In view of the relationship of this office to the Committee on Religious Education and the comprehensive nature of the work involved, the Committee recommends to the Trustees and to the Conference that the By-Laws be so changed as to make the title of this officer Secretary of Religious Education instead of "Secretary of Young People's Work."

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

for the Year 1938

The Executive Committee of the Board of Ministerial Aid submitted to the Annual Meeting of the Board held on January 26, 1939 the following report:

The Executive Committee has held frequent meetings at the call of the Chairman during the year. All business has been transacted with the full knowledge of the entire Committee. Our Clerk, Miss Leora M. Taft, who has given many years of faithful service was handicapped in carrying out her work during the last part of the year by severe illness. Miss Pauline Culter, of the Conference Office, has ably assisted in the emergency. Miss Taft's knowledge of the work of the Board has been invaluable to the Committee, even though she was unable to do much of the work.

On January 1st, 1938, we had a "family" of 35 ministers, 39 widows, 2 single women and 3 children. (A) (Death has claimed 5: Reverend William A. White, Reverend Amasal Fay, Reverend John B. Carruthers, Mrs. Fannie B. Dyer and Mrs. Phoebe Williams.) Two asked to be released for 1938. The names of 2 children were also taken from the list, they having grown to manhood and womanhood. (A) 8 were added to the list. Thus, January 1, 1939, the "family" numbers:

41 widows
2 single women
1 child

78 in all

There has been distributed as follows:

Regular aid	$14,113.50
Christmas gifts	2,302.72
Emergency gifts	2,140.00
Total	$18,556.22

Twenty-eight persons were aided from the Emergency Fund. In all, about 115 persons were made happier by the gifts of 1938. The norm for Christmas distribution this year was $45 for men and $34 for women.

The following table is of interest:

Year	Regular Grants	Emergency	Christmas	Norm	Expenses
1935	$14,906.25	$2,127.76	$2,197.32	$40–32	$668.00
1936	16,467.75	1,518.50	2,079.91	40–32	485.00
1937	13,605.75	2,086.50	2,536.70	49–37	529.00
1938	14,113.50	2,175.00	2,302.72	45–34	481.00

Our invested funds now amount to $132,689.65.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Wood Coe,
Chairman of the Executive Committee

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITY AND STANDARDS FOR THE MINISTRY

The Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, elected at the 1938 Annual Meeting of the State Conference, in Dedham, has held five meetings, three by itself, one with the Congregational students of Andover Newton Seminary, and one with the Association representatives, held in Worcester. We again cooperated with Andover Newton in a "Pastors' Day-a-Week Course."

One of the important functions of the Committee during the past year was in regard to conferences held with the Congregational students at Andover Newton Theological School on October 18, 1938. With evident mutual helpfulness a large number of students and the Committee discussed numerous special problems and general ministerial standards.

On February 20, 1939, the Committee met with the Scribes and Chairmen of the Credentials Committees from the Associations, at the Chestnut Street Church in Worcester, for the purpose of studying the findings of the Commission on Ministry of the General Council, as reported by Dr. Hartshorne, and to discuss ways and means of arriving at a uniform procedure in the licensing and ordaining of men to the Congregational and Christian ministry. Upon invitation of the "Pilgrim State News" the report of the Worcester conference was published in the May issue.

Your Committee offers the following recommendations, to be presented at the Annual Meeting of the State Conference in Northampton:

1. That the "Pastors' Day-a-Week Courses" be continued in the fall of 1939.

2. That the Association Committees on Credentials and Association Scribes study carefully the findings of the Worcester conference published in the May issue of the "Pilgrim State News."

3. That the Association Committees on Credentials keep in touch with the Conference Committee on Polity, which stands ready to assist, particularly in border-line cases.

4. That the work begun by our Committee relative to establishing more uniform procedure in the licensing and ordaining of Congregational ministers in the State be continued next year.

REPORT OF THE MORAL AND SOCIAL WELFARE COMMITTEE

Civil Liberties

Civil Liberties has become a respectable issue during the last twelve months; thanks to a host of local, state, and national committees working for the rights of individual liberty and the rights of minority groups. The healthy reaction against Facism and Nazism has aided the cause of Civil Liberties by identifying them with the American Way. Our Committee suggests that the slogan on the coin "Liberty and In God We Trust" is a cause which calls forth the support of Christian people. We recommend that by letter to our legislators and by joining with groups organized for preservation of Civil Liberties, we can not only maintain the American Ideal, but further the Christian Cause.

We recommend for information and speakers:—

The Civil Liberties of Massachusetts,
73 Tremont Street, Boston, Room 322,
Miss Joan Hopkinson, Secretary.

Rev. Edward M. Condit, Chairman.

Racial Relations and Minorities

Racial and minority problems within the Massachusetts Commonwealth are a reflection of the same tensions abroad and in other sections of this country. The sub-committee on race relations and minority groups observes that increasingly the matter of minority and of racial status is being brought before the attention of Christians everywhere. Present manifestations of race ideology abroad have already crept into this country, complicating an already vexatious problem. Recognizing that these doctrines carry with them the certain denial of human rights and the destruction of human liberties, we recommend to the members of our fellowship:

That Christians everywhere maintain vigilance and alertness to combat and to recognize all the various forms of insidious propaganda which divide mankind unequally and violate the spirit and teaching of Jesus.

That we seek to put fresh content and meaning into the doctrine of human brotherhood as a reasonable and simple means of establishing the truth of the unity of mankind.

That to aid in the security, and to enhance the scope of opportunity of every race and minority group within our Commonwealth we lay increased stress upon the value and sacredness of the individual personality.

That as a further aid toward the establishment of such security and opportunity of men everywhere we turn the spotlight upon all forms of intolerance and stress anew the importance of tolerance in our American democracy; and the place which breadth of spirit had in the life and teachings of our Master.

For speakers interpreting the ideals, experiences, accomplishments of the Negro, we recommend:

The Boston Urban League, Inc.,
22 Whittier Street, Boston.

Rev. Roland T. Heacock, Chairman.

Economic Plebiscite

We helped promote the Economic Plebiscite. There appeared to be real interest especially among the young people. There were panel discussions, forums, lectures, and study classes. The results indicate that our people are just beginning to appreciate what Christianity means if we are to establish His Kingdom here on earth.

The Consumer's League of Massachusetts works for

2. An Anti-Sweatshop Crusade.
3. Mandatory Minimum Wage.

Birth Control League

Clinical help for mothers in need of contraceptive advice is still unavailable in Massachusetts. The Birth Control League has not given up hope that the antiquated State law may be reinterpreted and eventually be rewritten. The League needs the financial and moral support of new members throughout the State. The League needs more opportunities to present to Church groups, to Men's and Women's Clubs a dramatic story. The story concerns thousands of men and women who want healthy, well-nourished children; who want the privilege of voluntary parenthood which is already available to those who can afford the services of a private physician.

The Birth Control League of Massachusetts,
3 Joy Street, Boston.

Mrs. Lucius Thayer, Chairman.

International Relations

The attitude of the whole committee on this subject is expressed in the following statement:

We all want peace. We believe in democracy, the principles of collective security and a truly democratic league of nations with police powers under a World Court. We believe that the fate of our nation is bound up with that of the rest of the world. We recognize that the basic causes of war are economic and that together with the effort to create world economic justice we must Christianize our own economic order. We believe that the Neutrality Law should be so amended that any nation violating a treaty to which we are a party should be named an aggressor and economically outlawed. We are in accord with the efforts of the Council of Social Action and urge all of our churches to use the excellent study material which it is issuing on the subject of International Relations.

Massachusetts Branch of League of Nations' Association, 40 Mount Vernon Street, Boston.
Speakers on International Relations may be secured.

Herman Richter, Chairman

Anti-Gambling

Rev. Edward C. Field of Marshfield, who has become an expert in handling the gambling problem in the State has prepared for this committee a report on the technique which has been used with success in defeating the promoters of dog racing in certain communities in the State. We can do no better than to refer the ministers and lay people of the churches to him for a solution of any problem of this character which may arise in their community. He is working in close cooperation with the Anti-Gambling Association.

The New England Anti-Gambling Association, Inc.

Liquor Control

The animated discussion and request for action which came from the floor of the State Conference Meeting last May caused one of the friends of the Conference to address to the Committee a letter on necessary procedure which it wishes to share with the members of the Conference. To quote, "It is fair, I think, to start out with the assumption that all right-minded people, and many of those engaged in the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, agree that the laws relating thereto on our statute books very much need change; they differ only on the question, what changes should be made. The real question therefore, is, how to accomplish the ends sought.

To answer that question, one must consider the methods of legislation in this Commonwealth. The initiatory act is the filing in one of the houses of the General Court, by a citizen or a group of citizens, of a petition, defining the legislation sought and accomplished by a draft of a bill. This filing, in order to be considered at the Annual Session, has to be done before a date set, which is approximately the middle of January.

After filing, the petition and proposed legislation are referred to a legislative committee, which, after due advertising, must give a public hearing thereon. It is with this sort of hearing that your committee is most familiar. While the conduct of this hearing is vital, it is not by any means determinative. The fate of the proposed legislation probably will be determined by the completeness of organization preceding the hearing; for there are many members of the legislature, and a Governor, who, unless there is a complete and commanding organization of those favoring the legislation, may not be influenced in the least by what happens at the committee hearing. I am now dealing with a practical, not a theoretical or an ideal situation, and I remind you that very many of our legislators—enough often to hold the balance of power in either house—vote on these questions, not according to the right or wrong of the issues, but according as their political friends wish them to vote; and that you cannot tell which of the legislators will be so controlled. It also should be borne in mind that defeat in one of the houses is as effectual as defeat in both.

Your preliminary organization must be so complete, therefore, that you can prove to the legislative committee, or to other legislators afterwards (and even often to the Governor, because of his veto power), not only that you are right but also that you can control enough votes in their respective constituencies to defeat them if they refuse you the relief you rightly seek.

What, then of this organization? It cannot be too emphatically stated that the mere presentation to the legislative committee, even if accompanied later by presentation to each legislator, of resolutions adopted at a State Conference, is, alone, ineffectual. They represent only the sentiments of, say, 1,500 church members scattered throughout the State, not controlling an election anywhere. Nor would the effect be much different if such resolutions were accompanied by votes taken on plebiscites from the communities represented at the Conference. Nor would a hearing room of the committee packed with individuals favorable to your cause have much more effect, unless it became clear that those individuals effectually and militantly represented enough voters in enough communities throughout the Commonwealth to control elections where legislators voted against the right.

Trinitarian Congregationalists, however earnest in their resolutions, are, if alone, ineffectual in the legislature. But real progress could be reached if your committee should, very soon, seek and acquire cooperation in all groups, non-religious as well as religious, so that there would be chosen from among them an effective, practical, safe and sane representative committee that would carefully survey the situation, study the present laws, study the records of present legislators and the characters of their constituency, and then prepare petitions and bills for the Legislature with united backing."

We would like the Conference to consider whether this Committee as now organized is fitted for this work.

This letter was considered at the first meeting of the year. Rev. Harold Martin, who was appointed Chairman of the Liquor Control, sent out immediately a Questionnaire on Liquor Control to the ministers of the Conference to discover how far we could count on their support for a state organization. The response was not very encouraging. About the same proportion that responded to the Economic Plebiscite replied—190 out of the 500, and of these 104 saw no grave abuses inherent in the present system, although most of those who replied were willing to bring pressure on the legislators in favor of bills more adequately controlling the sale of intoxicating beverages. In October, Mr. Martin was obliged to resign from the Committee because of additional work undertaken in New York. Before we could secure another Chairman, a proposition was received from the Lord's Day League asking us to join with them in forming a Massachusetts United Committee to oppose the sale of alcoholic beverages on Sunday. As this group was composed of representatives from the denominational and interdenominational church temperance groups, both Catholic and Protestant, and as the Lord's Day League had made its office facilities and part of the time of its Secretary available for the work it seemed best to merge our work for liquor control with this, and Prof. Alfred C. Lane was appointed to serve us on this Committee.

Senate Bill 233 is sponsored by this United Committee. It would make unlawful all sales of alcoholic beverages on the Lord's Day, except by duly authorized pharmacists in prescription of a registered physician.

REPORT FOR THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM AND DEVOTIONAL LIFE

Your Committee has carried through one major project during the year. That was the holding of a ministers' retreat at Adelynrood on September 19 and 20. Professor Douglass V. Steere served as leader and Rev. E. W. Cross of Springfield as Chaplain.

Eighty ministers greatly enjoyed this meeting and profited from the quiet and discussion.

On the basis of our experience at Adelynrood, your Committee is projecting four similar retreats to be held in the Fall of 1939 in different parts of the state with Douglas Horton, the newly elected minister of the General Council as leader. We hope in this way to give a large number of our ministers the benefit of such a time together.

The Committee wishes to record its thanks to President Ralph Timberlake for the support and leadership which he has given it in all its discussions and actions.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S WORK DEPARTMENT

A survey of the work of the Woman's Department this past year reveals progress in every line of activity.

Promoting the work of the local church and strengthening the cause of Christ throughout the world are the primary aims of our Woman's Work. The fifteen Districts are the channels through which the Department and local auxiliaries are united. To strengthen this relationship is fundamental in all program planning. The District Presidents, now members of the Executive Committee, help formulate all plans and feel a keen obligation for their effective operation.

The Executive Committee has met three times: in June, at Adelynrood for two days; in September, for all day at the Y. W. C. A.; in March, for a morning session at the State office, with luncheon and further conference at the Walker Missionary Home in Auburndale. Mrs. William H. Medlicott, Mrs. Mary D. White, Mrs. Royal G. Whiting, Dr. Clara Sargent Shepherd, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, and Rev. John L. Lobingier have met with the group during the year, sharing the fellowship and giving helpful counsel.

The Business Committee has met regularly, guiding and coordinating all activities. The members of the four Standing Committees deserve full commendation for loyal and helpful service.

The Public Meetings Committee, Mrs. Roy H. Bradford, Chairman, has arranged seven Pilgrim Hall Meetings presenting the current missionary study subjects, "India" and "The City Church," with stimulating and thought-provoking speakers. Dr. and Mrs. Edward W. Wilder of the Madura Hospital brought us the story of their splendid work, showing pictures of this interesting project. The significant Madras Conference was dramatically described by Rev. Russell H. Stafford, making the audience feel that "There Are No Foreigners." At the Good Friday service, Professor Basil Mathews gave new meaning to "The Cross of Christ." The Northland College Choir enhanced this Easter message. "The Changing Church in the Changing City" arranged by our Conference Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, made realistic and challenging the problems of the ministers in our Foreign Speaking and other city churches. At a luncheon meeting in October, President Frank Palmer Speare of Northeastern University and Miss Hazel Lewis, vocational counselor of the Boston Y.W.C.A., discussed "Freedom in Education" and "Freedom of Opportunity."

Cooperation with the Social Action Committee afforded opportunities for interpretation of the philosophy behind the activities of our Council by Rev. Dwight Bradley and Rev. Hugh Vernon White.

The May meeting "Information Please," was conducted by the four women who have been Chairmen of the Department, under the leadership of Mrs. Morton D. Dunning.

Through the Public Meetings Committee, the Department has assisted with the Boston Post-Madras Meeting, the World Day of Prayer service, and the Lenten lectures by Miss Margaret Slattery. Many women have added significance to all these meetings through devotional services, special music and dependable attendance.

The work of the Education Committee is always very extensive. Mrs. Franklin G. Field, as Chairman, has assigned definite portions to each member and a vast amount of thought and effort has gone on behind the scenes. She, herself, has spoken effectively to many groups. "Spiritual Life Enrichment" and "The Stewardship Plan for Benevolence Giving" have been two important emphases stressed by all groups in every state. This Committee has prepared a packet of material and has sent out to the district and local leaders bulletins of practical help. Leadership education has been developed and improved through Leader Institutes, with programs built around the study books, Social Action material and other pertinent issues of the Church, as well as Methods. This year the Reading List has been supervised by the Executive Committee of the Women State Presidents, making one list for the whole country.

The Social Action Committee, Mrs. William B. Oliver, Chairman, has established representation in seven districts and these women have met with the State Committee whenever possible. Some of the sessions have been held in well-known social service centers, where observation of the work and discussion with the Director have increased the understanding of "Social Action in Boston." Mrs. Oliver has met with many groups, being particularly helpful in creating a sympathetic approach to and intelligent interpretation of this important phase of our work.

One of the most practical and realistic contributions is that made through the Box Work, Miss Amelia J. Burrill, Chairman. Fifteen interested women, one in each District, have worked as a committee to allocate the requests for supplies which come from our schools and hospitals. Many home missionary families have been generously aided and the response for Christmas boxes was very gratifying.

Once a year the Education, Box Work and Social Action Committee Chairmen of the Districts meet with the State Committees in Boston for a day's conference at which time plans are formulated for the promotion of various types of work in the women's groups throughout the state.

Mrs. Carver has ably cooperated in all these activities, planning for many speakers in churches seeking assistance, speaking often on various branches of the work, and attending to innumerable important details of administration for the Department and Conference.

The Department has been represented by the Chairman at the meetings of the General Council in Beloit and of the Missions Council in Evanston in January. Service has been given to Regional and National Committees. She and the Vice-Chairman have spoken at District meetings, Presidents' conferences, local church gatherings. Both have attended the regular meetings of the Board of Trustees and served on Conference committees.

There is inspiration as well as challenge in this work which has been committed to us—the Congregational Christian women of Massachusetts. May we weld together firmly and beautifully its many component parts, even as the integral parts of a stained glass window are welded — by one uniting strand — The Love of God — never forgetting that the beauty of the whole is completely apparent only when the light shines through — the Light of the World, Jesus Christ, shining through the pattern of our lives, of our work together, steadily, eternally.

Respectfully submitted,

Evelyn S. Trask
Chairman of the Woman's Department

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF WOMAN'S WORK

This is the sixth report which I have made as Secretary of the Woman's Department, although it is the fourteenth State Meeting with which I have been identified and the thirty-sixth year that I have been working with the women of Massachusetts. That is quite a long time to be going in and out of our churches in one capacity or another. Sometimes in driving through the state, I feel that I know towns best by ministers and churches.

My corner of the office in Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, has been just as busy a place as ever during the last twelve months. Ministers, women and young people have been coming and going with their various problems and questions. Interviews in regard to plans for carrying on the work more effectively in the local church are a large part of every day's work.

As ex officio member of all committees, I have kept in touch with the various departments of the work and assisted in every way desired. I have also spoken in seventy-seven different churches. Personal contacts, of course, are what make any task interesting.

Placing the needs of some of our home missionary families before the women's associations in our churches is a most illuminating and interesting experience. This year you helped seventy families, who, because of the decreased giving to missions have to live on such small salaries that a box of household supplies is a necessity. Some of the churches that were interested in preparing boxes have not sent in their reports, but the total value of the ones that have reported is $8,329.51.

The boxes sent to the hospitals and schools were worth $8,884.34 and the Christmas boxes $1,193.54. This makes a grand total of $18,407.39 for parsonage and other boxes. As we say over and over again, these boxes do not count on the church apportionment but are a gift of love from the women in our more prosperous churches to the ministers and families in the smaller and more isolated churches and to our schools and hospitals.

It is a wonderful thing to have acquaintance which often develops into warm friendship with the missionaries on the field. During all the thirteen and a half years, part of my responsibility has been to learn to know these workers and to make contacts for them in the churches. Many churches have a personal as well as a financial relationship with them. This year 1,000 speaking appointments were made for representatives from Africa, China, India, Japan, the Near East, the Philippines, and from various parts of our own country. It is a liberal education to know these fine folks and to share in their experiences. You should all feel a real pride and satisfaction in being so ably represented all around the world and should keep in close touch with the missionaries by letters and in other ways. Up-to-date information about all types of work may always be secured from the Conference office.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary R. Carver

REPORT OF BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, INC.

The question is sometimes asked:—"Why is there need to make special provision for seamen when we do not for men of other vocations?" The answer is—seamen live an abnormal life. Most of their days are spent on shipboard and away from home and family. They go from port to port and are often away from home for weeks or months at a time. Because of the abnormal life the mariner is obliged to live as the world's errand boy, he is the loneliest man among the sons of men. The sailor, when he comes into port, needs some homelike place, such as our Sailor's Rest, where he may go and meet friendly folks, get his mail and write letters, read books, magazines and daily papers, enjoy the free entertainments and religious services which are provided for him there.

Some wholesome recreation must be found for these men while ashore or they will likely gravitate towards the saloon or other undesirable forms of entertainment.

More than 35,000 seamen have visited the Sailor's Rest during the year and 3,500 others the Bethel at Vineyard Haven, Martha's Vineyard. Our Society has during that period housed and fed 14,249 seamen; 9,635 of these free, due to unemployment. More than half of the aided men have, as opportunity afforded, reimbursed the Society in whole or in part. Clothing was provided for 319 men and shoes for 49.

During the year the Society has provided 52 free concerts with an attendance of 6,525. Religious services have been held each Sunday evening with an attendance for the year of 2,730.

During the summer our launch, the "Seaman's Friend," distributed to 523 ships in the harbor over 20,000 magazines and sea libraries containing 2,460 books. At the Sailor's Rest we have distributed in addition some 8,000 magazines to the men coming from their ships, and sixteen libraries.

The cost for maintaining the work of the Society for the year was $43,747.82. The receipts from the churches were $5,680.79, of which Massachusetts gave $2,859.59. This was a loss of $389.70 from the New England churches and a loss of $383.64 from those of Massachusetts.

Our workers have had a difficult task in keeping up the morale of these sailor lads who have real cause for discouragement. Some of them have had no work for weeks and the present prospect is by no means promising. Superintendent Thorpe and his assistants have accomplished wonders for these distraught men.

The year has been a good one in real service to a deserving group of men.

MERRITT A. FARREN, Executive Secretary.

March 15, 1939.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

Missionary education and promotion has been steadily and consistently carried forward by the members of the staff of the Conference. Various types of meetings have been planned—retreats, ministers' group meetings, church officers' conferences, local missionary institutes, Sunday and week-day appointments.

In response to a letter from President Timberlake, the different types of meetings desired were indicated by the pastors. These requests were carefully followed up. Rev. Hugh Vernon White conducted institutes for ministers in all parts of the state. Rev. Howell D. Davies of Chicago, Secretary Ernest M. Halliday of New York, Vice-President William F. Frazier of New York, Secretary George N. White and Secretary Mary D. White of New York, and Secretaries D. Brewer Eddy and Alden H. Clark, gave time to the churches in Massachusetts for conducting church officers' visitations, as well as delivering vital messages at Sunday services. The Staff cooperated in all these efforts.

On December 12, the Committee called a meeting of the Chairmen of the Association Missionary Committees. The Executive Secretary of the Missions Council, Rev. Leonard M. Outerbridge, presented the plans for 1939 at this meeting and reports were given by the missionary chairmen of the different associations.

At the time of the Post Madras meetings in Boston, a dinner meeting was held at the Church of the Covenant for scribes, moderators, missionary committees and district presidents. All parts of the state were represented.

Through the Conference office Speakers' Bureau in charge of Mrs. Mary R. Carver, 1,000 appointments have been arranged and the churches have had the inspiration of hearing from all our missions field, both at home and abroad.

The Committee urges the more general use of the "Pilgrim State News," twenty-five cents a year, as well as the various pamphlets printed under the direction of the Missions Council. A recent and useful help is the "Program of Progress," prepared by the Division of Christian Education.

The financial statement of the churches' giving to apportionment benevolences follows by associations. While the figure for the regular giving is ten per cent less than last year, remember that the hurricane damaged churches in our state to the extent of $250,000, most of which was locally taken care of and the Massachusetts churches have also given $114,776 to the Debt of Honor, not quite one-fourth of our quota.

REPORT OF THE CONGREGATIONAL BOARD OF PASTORAL SUPPLY

This Board started as a Massachusetts organization forty-five years ago, in 1894. Twenty-three years ago, January 1916, it became a New England organization. From time to time it may be well to remind ourselves of these dates especially for the sake of new comers into the work of our churches.

The Board employs one secretary with two members of the office staff. The treasurer's work is on a volunteer basis. There are twenty-one members of the Board; nine from Massachusetts, five from Connecticut, two each from Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, and one from Rhode Island.

Two meetings a year are held—June and December—and in addition a meeting of the Executive Committee (consisting of one member from each state with the chairman and treasurer ex officiis) in March.

During this year the meetings have been as usual well attended, sixteen being present in June, and seventeen in December. The Executive Committee had an attendance of five, from five states.

Mr. Walter H. Black's first year as treasurer has demonstrated the wisdom of the Board in choosing him. Miss Dorothy E. Howe, a member of the Eliot Church in Newton, has joined the staff during the year and continues the tradition of interested and efficient service to which we are accustomed.

The treasurer's statement of receipts and expenditures for the year is appended to this report. By subtracting the balance of $1,165.73 with which we begin the coming year from the balance of $1,205.05 with which we began last year it will be seen that we failed to pay last year's bills out of last year's receipts by the amount of $39.28. This was due to a loss in the receipts from Massachusetts of $118.91 which followed a loss from the same source a year ago of $94.52. We give these figures to show the important part that church treasurers have in collecting and Association treasurers have in forwarding, the per capita contributions.

It will be noticed that approximately $600 was received from the Secretary's preaching. This means that he has supplied in thirty-seven churches. All but nine of these were vacant churches. More important than the money received is the close contact that the occupying of the pulpit at the morning service gives the Secretary in his relationship to a church. Usually a meeting with the committee seeking for a minister is held in the afternoon. The sermon is designed to help the congregation and also to help the committee in the search for a new minister and in their treatment of a new minister when he comes.

It will also be noticed that $487 has been received in contributions; $200 of this came from one individual, who during the years has shown her deep interest in the work of this Board by constant and timely financial support. Not only the actual money given is here to be considered but even more the gracious way in which it has been given. The remainder of the $487 substantially came from 16 churches in sums varying from five to twenty-five dollars. These were all churches to which we rendered some distinct assistance during the year.

Very definitely would it help our work if the Secretary could be freer in the use of his Sundays and if it were not necessary to ask for contributions from churches which we have served. This could be accomplished if the amount received from per capita contributions was slightly increased and if a modest appropriation could be made by the General Council to compensate us for the work which we do for churches outside New England.

Seminary Statistics

Statistics from the seminaries of graduates who were planning to enter the Congregational ministry, at Commencement 1938, were: Andover-Newton 8, Harvard 4, Yale 3, Chicago 16, Oberlin 8, Bangor 5, Hartford 6, Union 5, Pacific 6. Total 61. (1937, 72; 1936, 75; 1935, 70).

Guarding the Door of Entrance

As was forecast in last year's report careful study was given by a special committee at the General Council at Beloit to various questions about the ministry. The results of this study were turned over to the permanent Commission on the Ministry of the General Council of which the Secretary of this Board is now chairman. Perhaps the most significant among these questions was that relating to the standards to be used in licensing and ordaining men. A questionnaire has been sent to all the Associations in the country for the purpose of gathering information about the practices which are now actually used. It is hoped that licensure can be brought into a more definite and a higher status with a much more thorough examination of those who apply for this order in our ministry. Probably most important among the suggestions being made concerning ordination is the proposal that a thorough written examination be expected of candidates for ordination, preferably to be conducted by a State committee. After discussing this proposal at its December meeting this Board put itself on record as favoring the principle of this written examination.

The Secretary has now served for several years as a member of the Committee on Ministerial Standing of the Suffolk West Association. This has enabled him to bring the experience acquired in the office to the examination, especially, of candidates for licensure and to observe how certain experiments in stiffening this examination have actually worked.

"Fed-Up" with Students

"Last evening the ——— Church at ——— called me in for consultation. After several ministries by young men the church is asking for an older man. The young people as well as older desire one to whom they may look up and respect. What they need is another man like ——— in ———, . . . Someone ready to take a lighter task and still able to give a real spiritual ministry."

This letter from a field secretary in a New England state discloses a trend which your Secretary finds among the churches. The conventional request for a "young man" is still heard when one meets with church committees but not so much as several years ago.

A Five-Year Period is Closed

It is now five years since the present Secretary began his work. It has been a busy five years. Any dream on his part or on the part of anybody else that the executive work of this Board involved a semi-retirement has been completely unfulfilled. But it has been an interesting and rewarding five years, thanks to the cooperation of the members of the Board, the staff, the state officials, the ministers and the church committees. The Secretary and the members of the Board have tried to be guided by two leading principles. First, to recognize the autonomy of the local Congregational church and to help it choose its own minister. Second, to serve the ministers in just as brotherly a way as one knows how, to the end that the difficulties and complexities inherent in our Congregational system shall be lessened and eased in individual cases so far as possible.

For the Board,

Charles C. Merrill, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE

Our Function

We conceive our function to be to awaken on the part of the laymen in our Churches a new interest in, and sense of responsibility for, the progress of our whole Christian enterprise and to stimulate purposeful activities both in the local Church and our denominational agencies.

One Reason for a Committee

One indication that such an attempt is needed is found in the state report which shows that in 1937 our male church membership was 63,669 or 37% of our total membership and in 1938 it was 59,477 or 31½%, a loss of 4,192 from the previous year, or 6.6% loss in male membership; while the female membership in 1937 was 107,226 and in 1938 it was 112,831 an increase of 5,608, or 5.2%. In other words, the difference between the sexes increased by 9,797 or 5.7% of the 1937 total. This may partly be due to the revision of old records but certainly it is not an encouraging trend, especially in light of the hope of many of our denominational leaders that our Christian ideals may be integrated into the motives of our modern life.

Relation to our Associations

To help meet this situation we are making contacts with responsible church laymen, holding conferences with deacons and other leaders to give opportunity for interchange of experiences and convictions concerning objectives and techniques. Obviously our committee of volunteers without an employed agent cannot cover the entire state with an adequate program by its own efforts. Our aim therefore has been to stimulate our district Associations to develop their own Laymen's Committees, to help them to choose worthy objectives and methods, and thus to build up in each Association a constituency or fellowship of representative laymen. Their task in turn is to stimulate a more purposeful program in the local Churches and to foster an active interest in the work of their Associations.

Is Your Association Organized?

We deem this a wiser plan than to undertake to develop a statewide laymen's organization, or league, as some denominations have done. But if the Moderators, Scribes and other Association leaders, for lack of vision, fail to make the most of this opportunity to discover and cultivate their laymen's interest and cooperation, our Committee will feel obliged to change its policy and to build up a statewide constituency of laymen as individual representatives of their Churches with no official relation to the Associations. Some Associations are alive to this opportunity and have gone so far as to place their Association meetings on Sunday to insure the attendance of laymen.

Thirteen Association Laymen's Committees

Thirteen Associations have reported Laymen's Committees in varying degrees of organization: Andover, Berkshire South, Hampden, Middlesex-Mendon, Middlesex-Union, Old Colony, Pilgrim, Suffolk North, Suffolk South, Suffolk West, Woburn, Worcester Central, Worcester North.

Chairmen of Association Laymen's Committees

Andover	Mr. Ralph W. Pendleton
Berkshire South	Mr. Linwood J. Corser
Hampden	Mr. Frank Auchter
Middlesex-Mendon	Mr. W. W. Ollendorff
Middlesex Union	Mr. William T. Brooks
Old Colony United	Mr. Wilfred H. Chapin
Pilgrim	Mr. G. Lester Gay
Suffolk North	Mr. Arthur Robinson
Suffolk South	Mr. Elliott V. Grabill
Suffolk West	Mr. Sterling L. Williams
Woburn	Mr. Roy A. Hovey
Worcester Central	Mr. Edward F. Mann
Worcester North	Mr. James A. Pearson

Activities of Some Association Committees

Among the activities are:

Sending speakers to men's Brotherhoods.
Dinner Conferences with discussions followed by Communion services.
Helping Churches to organize men's work.
Serving as a clearing house of ideas and plans.
Encouraging participation in retreats and State conferences.
Securing a Laymen's Council of two men from each Church with occasional meetings.
Holding Sunday afternoon conference, supper meeting and Communion for Deacons.
Holding supper conference in connection with the Association meeting.

Activities of State Laymen's Committee

In addition to these typical events our state committee has held six three-hour meetings, cooperated in the programs of several of the above named conferences, conducted the Laymen's Dinner Conference at Norwood with 369 men present, sent delegates to the Isles of Shoals Summer Conference for New England, and conducted our first Laymen's Retreat at Andover-Newton on November 26 and 27.

This Retreat was our most ambitious attempt to contact our Church leaders for Christian fellowship and facing the responsibilities of Church men. Forty-eight men from twenty-seven places attended and demanded that it become an annual event. President Herrick and Dean Dabney were gracious hosts and inspiring leaders, together with Dr. Timberlake and several laymen who presided over the section discussion groups. With the general theme, "The Church and Its Mission," the groups discussed the responsibilities of the layman to influence his environment, in business and industry, civic life, education and public opinion; also to his Church, toward youth and toward our World Service.

Our Committee plans that next year there will be a retreat at each end of the State, and that our World Service will receive a major emphasis.

Activities of Men's Groups in 101 Churches

A recent questionnaire concerning men's organized groups sent to the Churches reveals that: 101 groups indicate their scope and character. Their size varies from 18 to 160 members, with a total of 7,123 men or 12% of our male membership. The chief features include: supper meetings, 75; other social activities, 40; entertainments, 47; forums, 14; and men's classes, 18.

The social features include games, outings, bowling, dances, quoits, ladies' nights, etc.;

Lectures on current topics, religious and missionary themes.

The service projects include: 9 sponsor boy scouts, 10 work for the Church budget, 6 for Church repairs, 6 promote fellowship, 4 for community betterment, 2 have father and son suppers, others mention Pastor's aid, orchestra, Red Cross, ushering, Church School teachers, observe laymen's Sunday, pageants, choirs, help for underprivileged, scouting for new families, etc.

One frankly states that the Church is never mentioned at their meetings while most of them seem to be Church centered and grade up from purely social and fellowship groups to positive centers of activity to help the Pastor and officials to attain the spiritual objectives of the Church.

Our committee is very appreciative of the inspiring and tactful leadership of Dr. Timberlake, but we realize that he is not free to specialize in doing the executive work and promotion necessary to achieve the ideals we have in mind. Members of our Committee have gladly given time and effort to initiate a laymen's movement that will help the Church to adjust itself and its effort to meet the conditions and problems that modern life is thrusting upon it. But they believe the time is approaching when our Churches will see the possibilities in this laymen's movement and that they will make it possible to provide a lay Secretary to give constant leadership to its direction and propagation.

Signed,

Wilfred H. Chapin, Chairman

LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE

Appointed by the Trustees to promote interest of Church laymen in our whole Church enterprise, local, state and world-wide; to serve in an advisory relation to Church and Association committees on laymen's work, men's clubs and classes; and in co-operative relations to our nation-wide Laymen's Fellowship, New England Laymen's Summer Conference at the Isles of Shoals, and our denominational agencies.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RELATION OF CHURCHES AND COLLEGES

Realizing the prominent role that our church has played in establishing many of our foremost institutions of learning and how much in turn the church has received from our Massachusetts colleges, this committee seeks to promote closer harmony between the colleges and churches of our state. We welcome suggestions from the people of the state, and will try to be of service in any community where our co-operation is desired.

We have published in our state paper a list of faculty members in some of our colleges who are glad to serve our churches as speakers.

We have given careful consideration to the establishment of a student pastor in some strategic college center. We feel that much needs to be done among our Congregational students to hold and cultivate their interest in the church. We realize that some church fellowships are ahead of us in this type of service, and believe that we should be more active in the mother state of Congregationalism among colleges that have been historically closely affiliated with us.

After consideration of several colleges, the best center for such a program seems to be Amherst College. We are calling a meeting of local college and church representatives to meet with our committee this spring in the endeavor to work out a definite plan.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ON RURAL CHURCHES

Your Committee on Rural Churches was created at the Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference in 1938. The Committee was appointed to consider the address given by Professor Carle C. Zimmerman on "The State of the Rural Church in Massachusetts," and to study and serve our rural Congregational Churches.

The Committee met and was organized on August 4th. Mrs. Hilda Ives, a member of the Committee, and Mr. Bliss and Mr. Tuttle of the Staff, directed a discussion of the problems of rural communities and of rural churches. Professor Zimmerman was unable to attend. A reprint of his address was distributed to the members of the Committee at a later date.

A program of work relative to the Rural Churches was considered including the following matters which the Committee believes should be undertaken and herewith submits them to the Conference:

1. The preparation of a list of the Rural Churches in Massachusetts.
2. The promotion of occasional meetings of rural Churches and ministers to strengthen the ties between the local Churches and the State Conference and to further mutual undertakings.
3. The consideration of further cooperation among rural Churches by various forms of federation including United Churches, Yoked Fields, and Larger Parishes.
4. The formulation of methods whereby the ministers of rural churches may continue their education and further Christian education in their parishes.
5. The exploration of ways by which the rural Church can aid rural population in having proper medical attention, adequate educational and cultural opportunities, and improved economic stability; and assist other agencies already interested in those various fields.
6. The distribution of literature, missionary, devotional, and social, which will help the rural minister; also the Committee or Conference to act as a clearance house in obtaining used materials and furnishings for rural Churches.
7. The presentation of the meaning and mission of Congregationalism, recruiting new members and reviving older members.
8. The recognition of rural ministers and rural Churches on the State Programs, in the Local Associations, and in such other ways as may be in the best interests of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and our Congregational Churches.

Respectfully Submitted,

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per members is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One pair is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of over $575,000. If any extra expense is incurred that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned about 4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters. The churches may avail themselves of the service of this ability and experience without expense.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

PRESIDENT, REV. ANDREW J. STANTON, 95 Grand Street, Springfield
SECRETARY, MRS. W. H. CHURCH, 39 Pratt Street, Springfield
TREASURER, REV. GARRETT V. STRYKER, 39 Mapledell Street, Springfield

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of Home Missionary churches in Springfield in their current work, while the Springfield Union represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for certain local forms of social service.

Contributions for Home Missions from the churches in Springfield to be credited on the Apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the Union given in addition to the Apportionment and not to be credited as part of it should be sent to the Treasurer of the Congregational Union of Springfield.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, REV. MYRON W. FOWELL
RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT
TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, by agreement with the Worcester City Missionary Society, is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of home missionary churches in Worcester in their current work, while the Worcester City Missionary Society represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for aiding churches in property matters, contributing toward the purchase and maintenance of property and the payment of building debts.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members and families are reported as numbered January 1, 1938. Admissions and removals cover the year 1937. "Absent" are not additional to "males," "females" and "total," but included in them. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1938, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r,"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but means "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk* indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its anual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex-officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them, some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

* Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

† Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE. — IF your name is not correctly printed in the preceding tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

OFFICERS. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation .....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1940, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

MINUTES OF THE 141st ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 15 - 16

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WORCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society held its 141st Annual Meeting in Central Congregational Church, Worcester, co-operating in the Massachusetts Interchurch Convention, which was held in the Municipal Auditorium.

The Business session of the Conference opened at 2:00 o'clock on Wednesday, May 15.

The Moderator, Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, called the meeting to order and offered prayer.

The Moderator then announced the following committee appointments:

Business Committee—Rev. John Gratton, Chairman, Rev. Edward M. Condit, Mrs. Franklin Field, Mr. Frank E. Bridgman, Rev. Bertram B. Hanscom.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Leon E. Grubaugh, Chairman, Mrs. Fannie Cobb, Rev. Elliott O. Foster, Rev. John A. Martin, Dr. Clarence D. Usher.

The Pastor of the entertaining church, Rev. Pierson P. Harris, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the church and the city.

The Advance Reports of the Conference Committees were then presented severally, and after full opportunity for discussion, were accepted and ordered printed in the records.

Rev. Vernon Cook, President of the Rhode Island Congregational Conference, and Rev. Erwin L. Ogden of the Disciples Church, Worcester, were introduced to the Conference as Honorary Delegates and were welcomed by the Moderator. Mr. Cook presented fraternal greetings from the Rhode Island Conference and Mr. Ogden extended the greetings of the small group of Disciples in Massachusetts and expressed a hope for closer co-operation between the churches of his fellowship and those of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference.

The President, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, presented his report as printed. He supplemented this report with the recommendation that a wider use be made of the "Pilgrim State News," which now incorporates so large a part of the Missionary Herald. He felt that it is so desirable that this publication should reach every family in the parish, that churches would be justified in including the cost in the church budget, even drawing in part upon benevolence money for this purpose.

President Timberlake also recommended that a message of congratulation be sent to the First Congregational Church of Winchester, which at this time is celebrating its one hundredth anniversary, and it was so voted.

The report of the Secretary of the Conference was then presented as printed. The Conference stood while the Moderator read the list of ministers, as printed in this report, who have died since the last Annual Meeting, and whose ministerial standing had been held at some time within the Conference.

The report of the Treasurer was presented, opportunity being given for questions and discussion.

These reports were accepted and ordered printed in the Minutes.

The following resolutions were presented to the Conference:

By Rev. Norman B. Cawley—a resolution concerning increased co-operation between the Associations of this state and the Board of Pastoral Supply.

By Rev. Edward C. Camp—a resolution asking for the support of the Conference in the approval of a bill to be introduced at the next session of the Massachusetts Legislature, calling for repeal of the legislation providing free transportation of private school pupils.

Mr. Camp also reported for the representatives of the Conference on the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League, especially asking that every Congregational church in the state include a small sum (five dollars or more) in its benevolence budget each year for the League; and that each church give the Executive Secretary opportunity to present the work of organized opposition to the liquor traffic; and that each church secure the maximum "No" vote when the question of licensing intoxicating beverages comes before the people.

By Mr. Roger W. Babson—former Moderator of the General Council, a resolution that the Home Boards and the Massachusetts Conference should get the sentiment of the churches on important matters before action is taken.

Also a resolution on the work of the Board of Pastoral Supply in securing pastoral transfers.

By Rev. J. Burford Parry—a resolution condemning the ruthless brutality evidenced in the invasion of peaceful, neutral countries in so many parts of the world.

By Mr. John Arthur Martin—a resolution in regard to the appointment of Mr. Myron Taylor as a special representative of the President at the Vatican.

By Rev. Charles C. Merrill—a resolution regarding the election of delegates from the State Conference or Convention and from the District Associations to the General Council.

These resolutions were referred to the Business Committee. It was VOTED: That 10:00 o'clock, Thursday, May 16, be designated as the time when the Special Committee on Allotments shall report to this body.

The work of the Board of Ministerial Aid was presented by Rev. Robert W. Coe, Chairman of the Executive Committee, and an offering taken, amounting to $140.26.

The election of officers was the concluding item of business. There were 410 ballots cast in favor of the nominees as reported by the Nominating Committee, as recorded on pages 4–6 of the Minutes and Reports of the Conference.

THURSDAY MORNING

The meeting was called to order at 9:00 o'clock by the Moderator, the first item of business being the report of the Trustees, as given by the Chairman of the Board, Rev. Alfred J. Barnard. He named certain of the Trustees, adding that others might have been named, whose character and ability gave assurance that the churches' business will always receive careful attention.

Mr. Barnard reported the action of the Trustees at their meeting on January 22, 1940, at which time they considered the resignation of Secretary Bliss, and voted as follows:

THAT Mr. Bliss be asked to withdraw his resignation incident to the following:

THAT the Board of Trustees recommend at the Annual Meeting that Article VII, Section 2, of the Conference By-laws, relative to retirement and annuity, which now reads, "Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity.", shall be amended to read: "Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan."

THAT Mr. Bliss receive at least $700 as an annuity from the Conference, provided he remains with the Conference as Secretary until the retirement age.

The above amendment to the By-laws was passed without a dissenting voice.

The recommendations of the Business Committee were then presented by its Chairman, Rev. John Gratton.

The Committee approved the following resolution, which had been presented by Rev. Charles C. Merrill:

RESOLVED: That, in accordance with the provision of the Constitution of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches with regard to amendments, we ask the General Council at its meeting in Berkeley, California, in August, 1940, to adopt the following amendment to the Constitution:

Add to Article III on Membership, section 1, on voting membership, paragraph (c) the following words:

> "In determining such nomination and election the State Conference or Convention shall assign, on a regular, permanent and equitable basis, to District Associations and to be elected by them, a share of the delegates of that Conference or Convention, such share not to be less than two-thirds of the total."

This will make the entire paragraph (c) read as follows:

> "Each State or District Conference or Convention shall determine by vote at its Annual Meeting the method of nomination and election of its own delegates and substitutes. In determining such nomination and election, the State Conference or Convention shall assign, on a regular, permanent and equitable basis, to District Associations and to be elected by them, a share of the delegates of that Conference or Convention, such share not to be less than two-thirds of the total."

This resolution was adopted by vote of the Conference.

The Business Committee recommended the adoption of the following resolution, presented by Mr. Roger W. Babson:

THAT whenever practicable, the Home Boards of our Church and the Massachusetts State Conference obtain the sentiment of our local churches on important measures before final action is taken thereon.

After some discussion, it was VOTED: That Mr. Babson's resolution be adopted and that a committee of five be appointed by the present Moderator of this State Conference, to clarify and to specify just what questions should be included under "Important measures," and how these should be referred to the churches, this committee to report at the next Annual Meeting.

Rev. Harry L. Miles of New York, by previous vote of the Conference, was presented at 9:45 A. M. to speak upon the Debt of Honor Campaign. He urged that a determined effort be made to raise the $160,000 needed to insure the success of this campaign. Pledges are now $590,000 of the $750,000 required for the churches' part of the annuities in question.

Some Massachusetts churches have done superbly, the smaller generally better than the large. Massachusetts as a whole lags behind many states. Connecticut's quota is 85% met, Massachusetts' 64% met, or $72,000 short. New Haven has pledged more than Boston, Brookline, Cambridge and Newton together.

If Massachusetts raises her $72,000 lacking, there is every reason to believe that the Debt of Honor will achieve its end.

At this point, the report of the Special Committee on Allotments was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Clarence W. Dunham. The report calls for action as follows:

1. We recommend a campaign of education among our churches for the dissemination of information regarding the allotment, its history and purposes. To this end we commend the statement issued by the Trustees of the Conference to help the churches understand the allotment account in our finances.* We urge that further information be given through our Associations of Churches and Ministers and through laymen's committees. We also recommend the continuation of this committee or a similar committee, to carry out this campaign of education.

*THE ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

The discussion at the Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society at Northampton regarding the Allotment Account indicated that there is need of more information about the purposes of the Allotment assessment, which has been 13 cents per member since 1924. The following statement is prepared by the Trustees of the "Conference" to help the churches to more fully understand the place the Allotment Account holds in our financial structure. The figures used, for the year 1938-39, are in round numbers only. The exact figures however can be obtained from the Treasurer's Report in the Annual Minutes.

INCOME OF THE "CONFERENCE"

Income From Churches
Allotment Account	$21,000
Conference share of the Benevolence Giving	30,000	$ 51,000
Income From Other Sources
Income from Endowments	70,000
Income from Mass. Woman's Home Missionary Union Endowments	5,000
Income from Unrestricted Legacies and Misc. Items	8,000	83,000
		$134,000
DEFICIT
(taken from the Contingent Funds to balance the books for the year)		8,500
		$142,500

EXPENSES OF THE "CONFERENCE"

Grants to the Churches
Aid to churches in form of grants toward pastors' Salaries	$69,500
Gifts to repair churches damaged in hurricane (exclusive of loans)	11,000	$ 80,500
Allotment Expenses (see below)		21,000
Office Expenses, Salaries, Miscellaneous		41,000
		$142,500

In other words, the "Conference" paid out to Massachusetts Churches nearly $30,000 more than it received from them. This is possible because of Endowment Income, which comes almost entirely from money left to the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society and is restricted in varying degrees for Missionary work. When the charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was amended in 1928 to permit the merging with the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, the new corporation assumed the expenses of the "Conference." To cover these expenses, the corporation is entitled to the receipts of the "Conference", or the Allotment receipts, so that Missionary funds will not be used to cover these "Conference" expenses. It is right that the "Conference" part of our organization should still pay its own charges. These expenses are:

National Council	$11,000
Board of Pastoral Supply	3,700
Massachusetts Council of Churches	1,000
Expense of assembling statistics (work formerly done by registrar)	2,300
Committees	1,000
Convocations	900
Printing and mailing of Annual Report and Advance Reports	1,100
	$21,000

The above figures will show that Allotment income only covers the expenses incurred as a result of "Conference" work undertaken by the churches at their Annual Meetings. The Allotment income has not been used to increase our office force or overhead expenses. This year the request is made by the "Conference" for 14 cents per member. The extra cent will not increase the net revenue of the "Conference" but is to cover the expenses of the International Council of Congregational Churches to be held in Wellesley.

THE ABOVE STATEMENT REFERS TO THE "CONFERENCE'S" SHARE OF THE ALLOTMENT. ASSOCIATION ASSESSMENTS ARE IN ADDITION TO THESE.

2. We recommend the simplification of the allotment account, as carried by the State Treasurer. Items can be consolidated under the general heading of expenses, such as printing and overhead.

This recommendation was adopted.

3. We recommend that through the State Conference and General Council an effort be made with the other conferences of our national fellowship to secure a more equitable collection of the allotment per capita.

This was adopted.

4. We recommend that for the present the allotment be in Massachusetts on the basis of six cents for our own Conference expenses, seven cents for the General Council, and one cent additional for the International Council. We also recommend that only such moneys be passed on to the General Council by the Treasurer of our State Conference as he shall receive, allocated for that purpose.

Upon motion by Mr. Camp, the Conference voted to strike out the words "one cent additional for the International Council."

These recommendations were adopted.

5. We recommend that the basis for allotment payments in our Conference be the total membership of each church, such as each reports to the General Council, to be published in the reports of the Council and State Conference.

This was adopted.

6. We recommend that the Conference abolish the column for absentee members in our Conference Report and that our churches in Massachusetts be requested not to report absentee members.

This recommendation was adopted by the Conference after it had been amended by striking out the words "and that our churches in Massachusetts be requested not to report absentee members."

7. We further recommend that our churches cease to employ the term "absentee members" and use the term "retired members" for such members as may be deemed by the local church to be inactive, the number of such retired members not to be included in the report of total membership in our statistics.

This also was adopted.

The Business Committee then presented the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the present Moderator appoint a committee of five to co-operate with the New England Board of Pastoral Supply and the Associations in seeking to find a solution to the problem of pastoral transfers, such committee to report to the Annual Meeting in 1941.

Mr. Cawley moved to amend this resolution by adding the words: "The Moderator to follow the principle in appointing the members of this committee that one person shall be appointed from each five or seven associations, this number to be divided on the basis of three ministers and two laymen, or four ministers and three laymen." This resolution was adopted.

The Business Committee recommended that no action be taken in regard to the following resolution presented by Mr. Camp:

We, representatives of the Congregational churches of Massachusetts, assembled in the annual meeting of our State Conference, express our approval of the bill to be introduced into the next session of the Massachusetts Legislature, providing for the repeal of legislation authorizing the free transportation of pupils of private schools and urge its passage.

After further discussion by the Conference, it was VOTED: That the above resolution be adopted as an expression of opinion by our denomination.

In place of the longer resolution presented by Mr. John Arthur Martin, it was voted to adopt the following:

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts State Conference approves the action of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America in seeking to have clarified the significance of the Myron C. Taylor appointment by President Roosevelt and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Rev. George A. Buttrick, President of the Federal Council.

In regard to the resolution requesting the recall of Mr. Myron C. Taylor from the Vatican, it was RESOLVED: That this resolution be laid on the table.

The following resolution was presented in substitution for the one presented by Rev. Roy G. Pavey:

RESOLVED: That we recommend to our Churches that they be much in prayer concerning the present world situation, to the end that our people may be granted the vision to see and the courage to do the will of God, in order that a world of freedom, justice, peace and good will may be brought to pass on earth and that we express our deep sympathy and moral support to all forces struggling for human liberty.

This resolution was adopted.

It was VOTED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference express its deep gratitude to the City of Worcester, the Council of Churches, the minister, and the members of the Central Congregational Church for the excellent arrangements which had been made for the entertainment of the 141st Annual Meeting and to the local press.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Edwin B. Nylen, placing in nomination committee members and delegates to the General Council. This report was accepted with one amendment, namely, that due to the fact that Rev. M. Russell Boynton of Newton, who was nominated as a delegate to the General Council, is already a member of the Executive Committee thereof, it was VOTED: That Rev. William F. English of Norwood be substituted in his place. The report of this committee was then adopted and the committees, delegates, etc., were elected as recorded on pages 8–11 of these Minutes.

According to the report of the Chairman of the Credentials Committee, Rev. Leon E. Grubaugh, the registration of the Conference was as follows:

Churches represented by Pastor alone	89
Churches represented by Pastor and 1 delegate	70
Churches represented by Pastor and 2 delegates	119
Churches represented by 1 or more delegate and no Pastor	32
Churches represented	310
Total Attendance:
Pastors	272
Delegates	358
Ex-officio members	28
Visitors	68
Total	726

It was VOTED: That the Minutes, as recorded by the Recording Secretary, be submitted to the Staff of the Conference for their approval, and then be entered in the records of the Conference.

The meeting adjourned Thursday noon.

INTERCHURCH CONVENTION

The following denominations participated in this Convention: Massachusetts Baptist Convention, Massachusetts Congregational Conference, Diocese of Western Massachusetts, the New England Conference of the Methodist Church, the Unitarian Southern New England Council, the Universalist Convention, and the Presbyterians.

The opening session of the Interchurch Convention was held at 10:30 A. M., on Wednesday, May 15. It was called to order by the President of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, Rev. Thomas S. Roy of Worcester.

The Service of Worship was conducted by Rev. Horace F. Holton of the Porter Congregational Church, Brockton.

Rev. Stanley High, journalist, author and lecturer, spoke on, "The Contribution of the Church to Democracy."

Rev. Richard Roberts, formerly Moderator of the United Church of Canada, spoke on "Towards a positive Central, Evangelical Faith."

At 12:30 Wednesday noon, members of the Congregational fellowship had luncheon together at the Wesley Methodist Church, President Ralph M. Timberlake, presiding.

Fifteen small conferences on vital matters of religious interest were held Wednesday afternoon, May 15, from 4:00 to 5:30, and fifteen more conferences Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30.

The closing session on Thursday evening was held in the Auditorium, with a Worship Service conducted by Rev. Paul L. Sturges of Pittsfield.

The Worcester Choral Society sang, "And the Glory of the Lord."

Governor Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts gave an address on "The Importance of the Church in the Life of the Day."

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver of The Temple, Cleveland, Ohio, spoke on "Can Society Remain Godless and Free?"

The session was brought to a climax when the audience arose and the Choral Society sang "The Hallelujah Chorus," from Handel's "Messiah," after which the Interchurch Convention adjourned.

WILLIAM BOICOURT, Recording Secretary

THE PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

The Gospel of Reconciliation is sorely needed by the world today. To preach it and to live it is the unchanging and unending task of the church. The program of the Conference is built around this great objective, to enable our ministers and people to understand more clearly the meaning and spirit of this message, to perfect the method of its proclamation, and more than all to experience its power and grace.

To this end, the year began with four Retreats for Ministers, under the leadership of Douglas Horton, Minister of the General Council. These were held in Plymouth, Adelynrood, Senexet, and Northfield. They were attended by double the number of ministers of any previous year.

Not long afterward, with the assistance of Dr. Frederick L. Fagley, Dr. Gaius Glenn Atkins, and Dr. Arthur Bradford, a series of eight Institutes for Ministers was held across the State. The topic of discussion was "The Method and Message of Evangelism". Many ministers have testified that these conferences gave a truer tone and character to their whole ministry throughout the year.

This is borne out by the many reports of a general increase in Church attendance, of improved programs in Young People's work, of a high type of Lenten Services in more of our Churches, and of a large number of accessions on Confession of Faith.

More recently, it has been our privilege to meet personally with the ministers of sixteen of the Associations for very informal but very profitable consultations regarding the work of the Conference and the Associations and parish problems. This has been a happy and encouraging experience of the strength, the practical advantages, and fruitfulness of our Congregational fellowship.

Preaching Missions

We still regard the parish Preaching Mission as an effective agency for strengthening the spiritual life of the church, and for increasing its influence in the community. The Conference co-operated in planning nine out of ten such Missions during the year. The churches and missioners are as follows: Abington, Rev. David J. Julius; Boxford, Dr. James R. Clinton; Gardner, Rev. Bertram B. Hanscom; Haverhill, North, Dr. Gaius Glenn Atkins; Newton, First, Dr. Douglas Horton; Norton, Rev. Clement F. Hahn; Pottersville, Rev. Clifford O. Simpson; Whitman, Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan; Winthrop, Dr. Gaius Glenn Atkins; Worcester, Bethany, Rev. Robert W. Putsch. This is a program in which we would gladly assist every church.

As evidence of progress in the work of the Conference, and without making repetition, let me refer you to the reports of several of the Conference Committees: for example, the Committee on Churches and Colleges, and their concern for and study of "Religion on the Campus"; the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry in their effort to improve the standards for licensure and ordination; The Laymen's Committee and their effective contribution to the whole work of the local church; the Missionary Committee with their participation in the correlation of all our efforts under the "Program of Progress".

Co-operation

As Congregationalists we rejoice to be participating in this Interchurch Convention. Here is evidence of the growing recognition that the Church is one. We can take some satisfaction in the fact that plans for this Convention received initial impetus from the vote we passed at our Annual Meeting a year ago, on the recommendation of the Board of Trustees, that, as a denomination, we would heartily join in such an effort. We welcome this opportunity of demonstrating our faith in the "unity and catholicity of the Church of Christ".

Our satisfaction in this gathering should be expressed in an increased support of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. It was Dr. Frank Jennings, Executive Secretary of the Council, who first had the vision of the possibility of this gathering. To his leadership we are indebted for the perfecting of the plans. This is but one example of the vital contribution he is making through the Council of Churches to the religious life of the State. May we bespeak from every one of our churches an annual contribution toward the work of the Massachusetts Council of Churches.

As a Conference, we are happy to have as our special guests at this convention representatives of the Disciples Churches in Massachusetts, and also representatives from the Rhode Island Congregational Conference. We hope that this may be but the beginning of a closer affiliation between ourselves and these two groups.

There are other evidences of an increasing interest in co-operative effort. In Pilgrim Association the suggestion has been made that the churches should undertake the full support of the missionary work within their bounds. This would mean a doubling of the contributions of the churches in that Association toward what is known as "State work". The Berkshire North Association is ready to take a large share of the expense for the new plant of the Colored Church in Pittsfield. The Greater Boston Regional Council, made up of four Associations, is discovering a real task in developing a "Program of Fellowship" between the stronger and the weaker churches in that area. The Pelham Rural Fellowship has developed a strong program of mutual helpfulness. This includes pastors' conferences on parish problems, special union services, laymen's meetings, daily vacation Bible schools, classes in sculpturing, and the operation of two Lord's Acre projects.

Among local churches, the co-operative spirit is evidenced in the formation of several new federations. The Central Church in Chelsea and the Baker-Maverick Church in East Boston are working on a plan for a yoked parish. In Woburn the First Church and the Montvale Church are in the process of developing a larger parish. In Framingham, Grace Church and Plymouth Church are manifesting a truly friendly concern for the welfare of their weaker sister church in Saxonville. For some time the Payson Park Church in Belmont has considered the rural church in Phillipston as its particular home missionary project. In Barre our Congregational Church is joining with the Episcopal, Methodist and Unitarian Churches in a rural missionary work to be known as "The Community Service Center of Barre". Here Christian workers will be trained to serve their fellows and young people will receive a practical education for life upon the farm.

Pastoral Changes

Within the Conference year, thirty of our ministers have been called to new pastorates within the Conference. Thirty-six of our churches found their new ministers (ten of them were students) outside the State. Fourteen of our Massachusetts men have been called to churches in other states, seven of them in New England, two to New York, and one each to Washington, D. C., California, Florida, Minnesota, and Colorado. Seventeen of our churches called to their pulpits men of other denominations, and the same number of non-Congregational men vacated Massachusetts pulpits. Nineteen of our ministers have retired or gone into other employment, and four have been added to the list of unemployed. We honor the names of six ministers who died in active service: James M. Blue, Edward W. Cross, John E.

Hunt, H. Arthur Kernen, John M. Trout, Albert V. House, together with the Chairman of the Laymen's Committee, Wilfred H. Chapin.

Grants for Hurricane Repair

Immediately after the hurricane, the Trustees voted an appropriation to assist our churches, in addition to whatever grants might be made by the Church Building Department of the Board of Home Missions. Up to the close of the fiscal year grants totalling $13,352 were made to thirty-five churches. These were made for the most part where the need was not sufficiently great to warrant incurring the expense of a mortgage as required by the Church Building Department. The churches receiving this assistance were: Becket, Federated; Blackstone; Boston, Allston; Boston, Armenian, First; Brockton, Lincoln; North Chelmsford; Cummington, West; Fall River, Pilgrim; Falmouth, North; Falmouth, Waquoit; Greenfield, First; Hadley, First; Hatfield; Haverhill, Bradford, First; Haverhill, Centre; Holbrook; Holland; Hopkinton; Lawrence, Riverside; North Leominster; Mansfield, West; Middleton; Norton, Trinitarian; Palmer, Thorndike; Oakham; Rayham, North; Sandwich, Calvinistic; Somverille, First; Sterling, First; Sunderland; Upton; West Newbury; Worcester, Armenian; Worcester, Hope.

In Marlboro the assistance was given as a regular annual grant to English-speaking churches, covering a period of ten years. In Hopkington a special grant was made, in order that the church might secure a large conditional gift. Anyone visiting that beautiful new church will rejoice that we, as a Conference, had a share in its erection.

The Steeple Fund

When we visited the village of Holland last summer nothing could have looked more desolate, or neglected than our little Church there, with the broken spire lying on the ground at one side, the belfry patched over, and the drab building badly in need of paint. What was worse was the feeling on the part of some of the villagers we interviewed that nothing could be done about it. When the pastor, Rev. Frederick J. Dark was told that through the generosity of a good layman, a gift of $250 was available to start repairs, the light of encouragement flashed from his eyes, and he rallied the community to undertake what seemed to be the impossible. The people of the parish, together with the summer residents, put on a campaign to raise the necessary funds, not only to replace the steeple, but repaint the church, shingle the roof, and landscape the grounds. In this process the church has recovered a place of importance in the thinking of the whole community, church attendance has increased, and new members have been enrolled. In September Mr. Dark wrote, "The Church looks fine. More people are coming to the services. At the communion thirty-eight persons were present. There is a deep spiritual atmosphere, and we feel very much encouraged. The church and people wish me to express their sincere thanks for the check which started this revival, and without which we probably would not have had the courage to proceed with the repairs." Sixteen communities had a like experience.

The $5,000 gift made available by an anonymous donor for help in the restoration of steeples in the Commonwealth during last year was distributed among the following churches: Blackstone, Federated; Brimfield, First; Douglas, First; Grafton, Evangelical; Holland, Orthodox; Merrimac, First; Milford, First; Millbury, First; Orange, Central; Paxton, First; Princeton, First; Shrewsbury, First; Sutton, First; Uxbridge, First; Medway, West, Second; and Wrentham, Original. From the pastor of each has come a letter of enthusiastic appreciation of the incentive, hope and zeal engendered in his church by a share in this special fund.

Due credit and hearty congratulations are extended to the following churches, which have restored their steeples without assistance from the Conference: Ashburnham; East Douglas; Royalston; and Templeton. There are other churches which for very good reasons have not yet undertaken the program of reconstruction. These are: Arlington, Orthodox; Monson, Upton, and Westboro. We hope that before long they may have the joy of completing that task.

A Church Building Program

There are three reasons why we think the Conference should undertake a definite and progressive church building program: First, the values that have been disclosed in the grants made for hurricane restoration, particularly the grants from the Special Steeple Fund. Through the impetus given by these unconditioned though limited gifts, churches have undertaken tasks which seemed insurmountable. Second, the new affiliation that has been established between the Conference and the Congregational Church Union of Boston and Vicinity — under the arrangement that has been established, the "C.C.U.", so called, will no longer continue in the Greater Boston area any program of building grants. To the Conference comes the opportunity and responsibility of carrying on a work that has been a great benefit to our churches, and of maintaining a splendid record not only within the Greater Boston area, but across the State. Third, the definite needs of the present moment — these are strategic situations that are definitely missionary in character. At St. Mark Colored Church in Roxbury, where our church, under Rev. Samuel L. Laviscount, serves an ever-growing Negro population, an active program with the youth of that parish demands a new and enlarged recreational center. The people of the Pinehurst Church in Billerica have been worshipping for years in a small, unfinished basement. This is a growing suburban community of modest homes. Rev. William W. Clark and his wife, Rev. Esther Clark, have so built up this church through the past three years that they must have a new plant. What Mr. Clark writes regarding this parish is absolutely true: "A church where the need is so great, the spirit so good, but the means so meagre, offers what strikes me as an exceptionally good Christian investment." Then there is the Second Church in Pittsfield, which Dr. T. Nelson Baker served for so many years. Now the Reverend Harold L. Nevers has been called to this church — a young man, well trained, with clear vision and fervent spirit. His is the only church ministering especially to 500 Negroes, — 175 of them young people and children. The present plant is an old, frame building, — poorly located, in bad condition, and inadequate. $30,000 would build a suitable Church and parish house at the heart of the constituency. There is no Colored church or school in the Southland that merits or needs our generous support more than this missionary enterprise right at our doors.

These are but three, perhaps the most importunate of several "frontier" situations in the State. Congregational ministers and the laymen were not dismayed in former days by the challenge of a missionary cause such as this, nor shall we be. Sensing the demands of the times, the Trustees have already appointed a Building Committee. Their first undertaking will be the securing of new money through contributions and personal gifts, so that the Conference may build up the strong foundation laid by the Congregational Church Union.

The Ministers' Room

To the American Congregational Association, the corporation which owns and manages the Congregational House at 14 Beacon Street, we are indebted for the use of a room on the same floor as our Conference offices for the ministers of the State. It has been felt that at our headquarters there should be a social room where ministers could readily gather when they have leisure time. The Executive Committee of the Boston Ministers' Meeting took the initial steps in securing a place. The Conference has sponsored its furnishing. The Associations have been asked to contribute toward its expense. Eight Associations have already done so: Andover, Berkshire North and South, Hampden, Pilgrim, Suffolk North, Suffolk South, and Hampshire. There have been a few individual contributions. The room is already proving its worth, which we hope will increase as more men discover its comfort and convenience.

Debt of Honor

Last year we accepted as our goal for the Debt of Honor $200,000. During the year thirty-eight more churches have participated. The total amount pledged in Massachusetts up to May 2nd, 1940, was $127,651. During the year we have made definite progress, but there is still much to be done. With only 62% of our churches contributing up to the present time, it surely ought to be possible for us to raise the additional $72,000 needed, if every church will do its part. The average per capita giving of our members so far is seventy-four cents. In Connecticut it is a dollar and ten cents. The Bay State surely ought to be able to equal that record. We have in Massachusetts 213 members of the Original Plan. It is for the maintenance of the annuities of these men that we call for the raising of our share of the Debt of Honor.

"Lest We Forget"

Assembled here in security and comfort, we cannot be unmindful of the calamity and destruction visited upon so many of the peoples of the world. While we attempt to strengthen our spiritual resources, we dare not allow our hearts to become numbed by the persistent pleas for compassion. There are two agencies of mercy for which we ask support from every church: The Church Committee for China Relief, and the Christian Committee for Refugees. For the former we ask that every Congregational Church in Massachusetts try to give at least one "Save A Life" unit of twelve dollars for the year. For the Christian refugees from Europe we ask from each church a share in a definite, permanent placement, or a share in a passage ticket for the refugees still abroad. In gratitude to a Providence which has so far spared our communities and our homes from the lust of war, in charity for a stricken neighbor, let us "bind up his wounds".

May we, on behalf of this Conference, express your gratitude to the Trustees whom you elected four years ago and who retire from the Board at the close of this Annual Meeting. They are Mrs. David Findlay of Athol, Mrs. Walter E. Schuster of East Douglas, Rev. Alfred J. Barnard of Roslindale, Rev. John Cummings of Marlborough, completing the term of Rev. G. Edgar Wolfe, William F. Farley of Waltham and Burton S. Flagg of Andover. As President we can testify to the faithful and valuable service they have given to the churches of the Conference, also to the thorough and co-operative work of the Staff.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

According to the By-Laws of the Conference, the Secretary "shall present to the Conference at its Annual Meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year." I have always felt that the most important part of church work cannot be expressed in statistics; also a merely statistical statement of the churches of the Conference would have to be very brief, if it were only to report the progress of religion in the churches. However, I shall try my best to follow the prescription of the By-Laws.

Comparing the years 1940 and 1929, we have these interesting figures:—

1929	(omitting fractions)	1940
Massachusetts had 11% of the Congregational churches in the country; 17% of the members, and gave 22% of the apportionment.		Massachusetts had 10% of the Congregational churches in the country; 16% of the members, and gave 20% of the apportionment.

We may add here that in 1941, the oldest Congregational church in the country, the one at West Barnstable, should celebrate its 325th Anniversary. It was founded in 1616, in London, and was driven by persecution, first to the Continent and then to Scituate, Massachusetts, and finally to West Barnstable, its present location.

The Conference congratulates all of these churches on their splendid record of achievement.

Last January 9, we held our second annual Interdenominational Bilingual Conference at the Church of All Nations. Such a meeting reminds us of the hospitable inscription on the Statue of Liberty in New York Harbor, written by Emma Lazarus:

> "Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
> A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
> Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
> Mother of Exiles. From her beacon hand
> Glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
> The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.

'Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!' cries she,
With silent lips, 'Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses, yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed, to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

James Russell Lowell called "the church the first organized democracy." Theodore Parker wrote that "Democracy says not that I am as good as you, but you are as good as I am."

It is interesting to note that at least one of our state associations has voted to find a home for one family of European refugees — a splendid thing to do.

The foundations of our democracy and of our beloved Christian faith are identical, in that they both rest upon the infinite value of the individual person as a child of God, and the fact that all persons the world over are made of one blood. One scholar, writing of race and national prejudice, puts it this way: "The effect of race prejudice on individuals who hold it is to limit their power of discrimination. It blinds a man to differences where these would otherwise be easily seen. . . . This is a sort of mental laziness due to an emotional attitude, which, being directed toward a class, is manifested toward the varying members of a class as if it did not vary."

St. Mark Church, our Negro church in Boston, is working valiantly for the proposed new building for their social center. With 20,000 colored people in Boston and a goodly proportion of them Congregationalists, they ought to have larger facilities for their work then they have at present. What young people do with their leisure time is quite as important as what they do with their work and study time.

Our Rochester-Lakeville Larger Parish is facing the future with high hope and strong courage, under the new leadership of Mr. Arthur W. Kennan. We earnestly hope that other churches of other denominations will soon join this group of churches under this effective method of church work. Not far away from the Rochester-Lakeville area, another group of churches are seriously considering this technique of church work. They are meeting and surmounting difficulties, and we hope soon they will be able to co-operate.

In all this federation and Larger Parish work, the churches co-operate not to reduce the cost, but to enrich the content of their Christian life.

The fine work of the Pelham Co-operative Parish, under the leadership of Revertend Harold B. White, is deserving of commendation. One who knows the work here well says that it is "unique in that it represents the largest number of churches and denominations in a co-operative effort, of which we have record."

The following ministers have died since the last annual meeting; their ministerial standing has been held at some time within the Conference:

Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, D.D., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ending March 31, 1940, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid checks or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1940; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1940, has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1940, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ending at that date.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TO THE ANNUAL MEETING MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The activities of the Committee on Religious Education during the past year have included the following major items.

Several meetings have been held in which careful study was given to ways and means of strengthening the religious educational work in the churches of the state and to some specific items mentioned below.

Copies of the Program of Progress were sent to the pastors of our churches, with a letter calling attention to the articles of information and suggestion appearing in the state and denominational periodicals. A schedule of summer conferences available to Massachusetts churches, with the main facts as to dates, location, cost, etc., was also sent out.

District Meetings. Five district meetings were held, in co-operation with Associational committees on missions and women's work, in September and October, for the purpose of acquainting workers with the purpose and nature of the Program of Progress and the best methods of promoting its use. These meetings were held at Worcester, North Andover, Florence, Taunton and the Andover Newton Theological School in Newton. They were well attended, every association being represented, with one exception; and many practical suggestions and plans resulted therefrom.

Children's Work. A forward step was taken in delegating to the Education Committee of the Woman's Department responsibility for the development of children's work throughout the churches of the state. This was with the cordial agreement on the part of the Woman's Department and with the understanding that the chairman of the Woman's Committee on Religious Education should be a member of the state committee, thus insuring exchange of information and co-operation in the carrying on of the work.

Young People's Work. Several items of importance may be noted under this head.

1. A pamphlet entitled Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship has been issued giving full information regarding the purposes and nature of the Pilgrim Fellowship, its place in the life and work of our churches, its relationship to other groups already organized, such as Christian Endeavor, Comrades of the Way, and the like; information regarding available materials and helps, the Constitution of the Massachusetts Council of Pilgrim Fellowship, and important facts regarding the relationship of associational and state councils. The committee would urge every pastor and youth leader to secure a copy of this pamphlet from the state Conference office and to study it with care. We especially call attention to the suggestions for making this important work an integral and vital factor in the program of every Association.

2. Summer Conferences. The Pilgrim Fellowship conferences held at Amherst last summer were successful, inspiring, and practically helpful. These will be held again this summer: the First High School Conference at the Massachusetts State College, at Amherst, June 23–30, with Rev. Paul Hobensack as Dean; the Second High School Conference, June 30–July 7, at the same place, with Rev. Otto Karl Jonas as Dean. A third conference, to be called the Pilgrim Fellowship Council, will be held at Wilbraham Academy, June 23–30. This conference is to be for the purpose of working out a definite program for the Fellowship in the state, and is open to members of the state council, officers and leaders of Associational councils, and young people who have graduated from high school up to three years above that. Full information regarding these can be secured from the folder "Pilgrim Summer Conferences — Season of 1940" and later bulletins.

3. The Pilgrim Fellowship meeting in connection with the General Council. One of the most significant forward steps that has been taken in our denomination in a long time is the holding of a meeting of the National Council of the Pilgrim Fellowship in conjunction with the meeting of the General Council. To bring such a body of selected young people from our churches into close contact with the main official assembly of the churches is something that has tremendous possibilities for the future, and the way in which the Pilgrim Fellowship meeting was conducted at Rockford College two years ago indicates that our young people are prepared to accept responsibility when they have the opportunity.

The meeting in August will be a delegated body. Massachusetts is entitled to four delegates. It is our understanding that no provision is made for the appointment or expenses of these delegates, except as they take the place of lay men or women who might otherwise be sent to the General Council. This seems a serious defect in so important an undertaking and it is to be hoped that the way will be found to send the full quota from this state and also that definite provision will be made for this in the future.

Adult Work. The committee hopes that the coming year will see definite progress made in the religious education of adults. This is needed, not only that men and women may be better fitted to meet the perplexing problems of modern life in a Christian way, but also for the sake of our children and youth. They learn far more deeply by the experience of living and growing up with adults than by what we tell them, and unless parents and other adult leaders have a positive and vital religious experience to share with them, their training will be largely ineffective.

In this connection we would call attention to an exceptional opportunity for men and women in the New England Conference of the United Christian Adult Movement, to be held July 20–27, in conjunction with the Northfield Conference of Religious Education. This will bring together some of the best leaders in this field in the country and every church should be represented there, so far as may be possible. Full information may be secured from Rev. J. L. Lobingier of the Division of Christian Education, 14 Beacon Street.

Working toward a more unified program. It has been evident for some time that much of our work could be greatly improved by a more unified program, developed co-operatively by all our state committees, and with all of them behind it and pushing it with full knowledge of the whole, instead of separate and sometimes uncoördinated or even conflicting efforts. A two-day meeting of members of the various committees was held at Concord in November and several meetings have grown out of this. There is now in view the development of a complete and well balanced program of activities for each age-group in the church which may be vigorously promoted by the entire state force, working largely through Association committees and individual churches. The Program of Progress will form the basis of this program. It needs to be further interpreted and implemented in order to secure its more general and successful application and the committee on Religious Education will work vigorously and whole-heartedly with the others in this undertaking.

Finally, the committee feels that the time has come for a more serious study and more vigorous prosecution of educational work in the churches. During the years of financial depression, this work has suffered. Unfortunately, it has been, in many cases, one of the first points at which economy was practiced. It is proving to be a costly economy. We would urge upon the churches the wisdom and the necessity of making more adequate provision in their budgets for the work of Christian education of children, young people, and adults; and, so far as possible, that additions to church staffs of educational directors or other trained leaders be given careful consideration.

For the Committee,

Herbert W. Gates, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MORAL AND SOCIAL WELFARE

Monthly meetings have been held by the Committee. At the first meeting last fall Rev. Harold Martin of Foxboro was chosen Chairman. The following month Mr. Martin announced his resignation as he had accepted a call to a church in another state. Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald of Waban was then elected Chairman. Mrs. Benjamin C. Lane has continued to serve as the efficient and faithful Secretary.

The state legislature not being in session this year the pressure upon the Committee has been somewhat less. Several of our meetings have been concerned with ways and means of co-operating with the other State committees.

A recent meeting, at which the Social Relations Committee of the Woman's Department met with us, discussed at length the German Christian Refugee problem. Some hundreds of refugees in great need of financial and moral help will land at the port of Boston this spring. Mrs. Epstein, of the Greater Boston Committee, of which Rev. R. H. Stafford is the Chairman, told us in detail of the problems and difficulties being faced by that Committee. As a result of this meeting a special Easter Appeal for help was sent out to the Ministers of our Churches. The value of that appeal will depend upon the support given to it by those to whom it was sent.

One of the most interesting undertakings of the Committee this year has been the preparing of two pages each month in the Pilgram State News. It had originally been our hope to send out mimeographed letters two or three times during the spring. These letters were to give facts of interest and importance in the social and economic field. Because of the expense and work which this would involve we were persuaded to try the present arrangement. This gives us much less space for our material and is less convenient in some ways for filing, but it goes out to more people. The editor is Prof. A. Philip Guiles (340 Chestnut Street, West Newton), and he would welcome your suggestions regarding these pages.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

For The Year 1939

The Board of Ministerial Aid, founded in 1869, makes its seventieth annual report to the churches of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

The Board pursues its method of making annual appropriations to be paid on a quarterly basis to those who are eligible to receive such regular aid. In addition to this, cases of emergency are met by appropriations from an Emergency Fund toward the needs of sickness, hospital experiences or funerals. All business transacted during the year has been officially approved by the entire Executive Committee.

On January 1, 1939, we had a "family" of seventy-eight, of which there were thirty-four ministers, forty-one widows, two single women and one child. Death has claimed seven of this number:

Rev. Edward L. Chute
Rev. Reuben J. Goddard
Rev. John C. Hall
Rev. Garabed Manavian
Rev. Edward A. McMaster
Mrs. Adda E. Breed
Mrs. Harriet M. Dyer

Grants to two of our members were discontinued because of other income made available. Ten have been added to our list, making the total seventy-nine on January 1, 1940. These are thirty-four ministers, forty-three widows, one single woman and one child.

Aside from the five persons who received regular grants from the Emergency Fund, twenty-five received special grants. Seventeen of these were regular beneficiaries, and eight were outside our regular list. From this Fund, also, we paid for forty-eight annual subscriptions to Advance for those who indicated their desire.

For comparison we submit the following figures:

Year	Regular Grants	Emergency Grants	Christmas Fund Norm	Amount	Expenses
1936.....	$16,468.00	$1,519.00	$40–32	$2,080.00	$485.00
1937.....	13,606.00	2,087.00	49–37	2,537.00	529.00
1938.....	14,114.00	2,140.00	45–34	2,303.00	481.00
1939.....	14,441.00	1,988.00	45–34	2,300.00	545.00

Our invested funds now amount to $133,114.00.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM AND DEVOTIONAL LIFE

The first project of your Committee, during the past year, was the holding of four Ministers' Retreats during the month of September, 1939. These were held at Plymouth, Adelynrood, Senexet and Northfield. Rev. Douglas Horton, Minister and Secretary of the General Council served as leader and Rev. Randolph S. Merrill of Newtonville as Chaplain.

These retreats were well attended and the interest shown has encouraged the Committee in projecting three retreats to be held in early September, 1940.

The Committee also co-operated with the National Committee under Rev. Frederick L. Fagley, in holding eight Pastor's Institutes on Evangelism in Massachusetts Oct. 39–Nov. 9, 1939. These Institutes were held at Brockton, Taunton, Andover, Fitchburg, Worcester, Springfield, Pittsfield and Greenfield. Rev. Gaius Glenn Atkins and Rev. Arthur Bradford with Rev. Frederick L. Fagley acted as leaders.

The Committee has been represented at several meetings, in union with other State Committees, in an effort to co-ordinate our State work.

The Committee wishes to express its thanks to Pres. Ralph M. Timberlake for his constant assistance and helpful suggestions and we are also grateful for the use of the state office in carrying out our projects.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITY AND STANDARDS FOR THE MINISTRY

The Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry has held only two meetings by itself during the current Conference year. On February 20, 1939, delegates to whom all matters relative to ministerial standards had been assigned by all the Associations within the State accepted the invitation of our Committee to attend a meeting in Worcester, to begin the study of the reports of our Associations made to Mr. Hartshorne in connection with his questionnaire. The intense interest revealed by the attendance and participation at that meeting led our Committee to believe that we might best serve the Conference by continuing meetings for representatives of the Credentials Committees and the Scribes of all State Associations, together with members of our Committee. To that end, three such meetings have been held, one during the Conference meetings at Northampton, and two in Park Church, Worcester.

These meetings have proven exceptionally helpful; for all Associations in our State have been seeking a greater degree of uniformity, and many Associations have been working toward constitutional amendments relative to ministerial standards and have therefore been greatly aided by sharing with this larger group the problems which face us all. J. William L. Graham, Stephen C. Lang, Harry W. Foot, President Timberlake, and Field Secretary Tuttle, in addition to members of our Committee, have served on special committees preparing statements of requirements and practices to be recommended for licensure, ordination, installation, recognition, etc. We have considered, also, another possible ranking which would correspond with the type of work now done by a "lay preacher".

The Committee has been requested by these groups to issue findings of the meetings, and this we are doing.

Your Committee offers the following recommendations, to be presented at the Annual Meeting of the State Conference in Worcester:

1. That the Officers and Credentials Committees of all our Associations be urged to study the findings issued by this Committee.

2. That all Association Committees on Credentials keep in touch with the Conference Committee on Polity, which stands ready to assist.

3. That the work begun by our Committee relative to establishing more uniform procedure in the selection, licensing, and ordaining of Congregational ministers in the State be continued next year.

Chairman, Francis L. Cooper
Charles G. Christianson

Secretary, Edward U. Cowles

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF WOMAN'S WORK

The far-reaching and established aims of Congregational Woman's Work, promoting the work of the local church and strengthening the cause of Christ throughout the world, have been, as previously, the energizing force for the work of this department. To support these aims this year three concrete ideals were adopted: to deepen the spiritual life; to strengthen the consciousness of stewardship; to look beyond the local community in an endeavor to see the picture as a whole, that the outreach of the local church may be widened through district and conference consciousness.

That there has been a definite deepening of the spiritual life is evidenced by the increase in the number of devotional groups meeting through the year. Whether this increase is due to special effort within the districts or to influences at work in the world at large would be impossible to tell, but the fact that it does exist gives added hope for the future of the church.

The strengthening of the sense of stewardship is much more difficult to appraise but the fact is most encouraging that more women are coming to realize that stewardship includes more than money gifts and are giving more freely of their time and talent.

It is a great satisfaction to report a definitely broadening District and Conference consciousness throughout the entire state. That we have become so aware of this in so short a time is the result of the past years of unremitting labor and loyalty on the part of the women who in local church and upon state committee have served so faithfully.

The Executive Committee has held four meetings. The first was a retreat at Adelynrood where the newly elected members in two days of intensive study caught a vision of the scope of the Department of Woman's Work and the important part each would play in the program of the year ahead. In September the morning session was held at the State Office with lunch and afternoon program at the Walker Missionary Homes in Auburndale. The spring meetings were also held at 14 Beacon Street in March and April. We have been fortunate in having at these meetings the counsel and advice of Mrs. Mary D. White, Mrs. William H. Medlicott, Rev. Ralph Timberlake, Rev. Henry David Gray, Mrs. Royal G. Whiting, Rev. John L. Lobingier and Miss Anita Kemp.

This year the aim of the Box Work Committee, Miss Amelia J. Burrill, Chairman, has been to emphasize especially the thought of stewardship. This has helped to make the work more personal and many churches are showing a real interest in the schools and hospitals to which the supplies are sent. The second aim has been an attempt to bring the local church groups into closer touch with the state work as a whole. Appeals sent out to the church schools for Christmas boxes met with a fine response, twelve districts having contributed. Thus the educational part of this work is begun with the children.

The Education Committee, Mrs. Franklin G. Field, Chairman, presented the Program of Progress to the women of the state at the first Pilgrim Hall meeting and in harmony with that program has stressed the three aims of the Department of Woman's Work. This committee has promoted the Reading List, the denominational publications and mission study literature, has issued three bulletins, held a conference for District chairmen and assisted in setting up district and local conferences. There is an increasing use of the conference type of District meeting. The committee has stressed the importance of study groups so planned that they offer something of interest to women of all ages and temperaments.

At a meeting of State Conference Committees held at Concord in November the Religious Education Committee voted to entrust to the Department of Woman's Work the promotion of the program for the children of the church. A meeting of Association and District children's leaders was called and plans made for the furtherance of this work.

The Public Meetings Committee, Mrs. Roy H. Bradford, Chairman, has planned the Pilgrim Hall meetings and brought for our inspiration many outstanding speakers. The programs began with "Church Work with a Plan," a presentation of the Program of Progress by Rev. Harry T. Stock and Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake. On that afternoon a conference was conducted by Miss Pattie Lee Coghill of Florida, extension worker of the Board of Home Missions. Miss Mary McClure's message, "China—Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," and the Christmas inspirational service conducted by Rev. Ashley Day Leavitt left the thought for the closing year on a high spiritual plane. The January meeting, "The Church in Time of War," in charge of the Committee on Social Relations and Christian Citizenship, introduced Rev. Charles M. Styron of Lincoln who brought the thought, "The Present Situation and the Christian Point of View," while Rev. John L. Lobingier presented, "A Definite Church Program to Meet the Situation." An afternoon meeting presented Mrs. Wilhelmina S. Davis and Miss Olive K. Pitman, who demonstrated methods of teaching Social Action. "Moslems and Christians" was the subject of the February meeting by Miss Zakeya Esa, a teacher in the United Presbyterian Girls' College in Cairo. Rev. Robert G. Armstrong, Superintendent of the New Hampshire Congregational-Christian Conference, brought a stirring message to the March program when he spoke on "Churchmanship." The April program presented the Schauffler College Choir, always welcome guests in Boston. The year has closed most fittingly with an address by Miss Helen Frances Smith, Information Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, on the subject "Temples Still Undone." A Home Missions Institute followed this in the afternoon participated in by Miss Smith, Rev. James E. Walter, Associate Secretary of the Missions Council, and some of our own church women.

We are very grateful also to all who have brought a message in worship and in song—Mrs. Eleanor Gulick Gutterson, Mrs. Samuel M. LePage, Mrs. Frances Dunlevy, Mrs. Charles E. Reidt, Mrs. Edward C. Camp, Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl, Miss Louise Fay, and Mrs. Franklin G. Field.

The Committee on Social Relations and Christian Citizenship, Mrs. Erwin L. Shaver, Chairman, reports an increase in the number of District social action chairmen. The committee has sent out suggestions for programs, co-operated in the reading list and held two demonstrations of teaching social action in women's groups. The refugee and delinquency problems have been stressed. A list of suitable plays is being prepared. A conference of social action chairmen was held in April for discussion of a more concrete program.

In reviewing the year from this point two major activities stand out; the promotion of the program for children's work and an institute held in Springfield in April. This institute was planned by the women of Hampden District and shared by Franklin, Hampshire and Berkshire. The Chairman, Vice Chairman, Chairman of the Education Committee and the Executive Secretary attended, each leading a discussion during the seminar period.

The Chairman here wishes to express deep gratitude for the co-operation of all who have served in office this year, local presidents and District chairmen, and the Executive Committee, which includes our women trustees, District presidents and chairmen of standing committees. These last mentioned chairmen have met regularly as the Business Committee to plan the work of the department and they have indeed done this well. All of these women have brought a little nearer the realization of our common aim, that of united work for Christ's Kingdom.

A report of the work of the department would not be complete without a tribute paid to the outstanding service rendered this year by Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl, Executive Secretary. Her untiring interest in the work, even to the slightest detail, her acquaintance throughout the state and grasp of the entire Conference picture, acquired in so short a time are of great help to the increasing number of women who call upon her for advice.

May the women of Congregational Massachusetts go on to future service with renewed consecration. May the fine pattern drawn by the splendid women who have shown us the way be the high standard toward which we strive so that each year, as greater tasks are faced, they will be met with that courage and devotion which are worthy of our goodly heritage.

Respectfully submitted,

Augusta F. Clark

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF WOMAN'S WORK

As I come to the writing of my first annual report as Executive Secretary of Woman's Work, it is with a deep sense of gratitude for the most satisfying year of my life from the standpoint of opportunity for service. The days and most of the evenings with occasional Sundays have been full of conferences and committee meetings, interviews and speaking engagements, correspondence and creative work.

My vacation was spent in part visiting some of our home mission fields and conferring with leaders in woman's work in other sections of the country. I attended a number of the sessions of the Missionary Conference at Northfield and the Pilgrim Fellowship Conference at Amherst, the School of Democracy held at Andover Newton Theological School and participated in the Conference on Successful Marriage at Simmons College, helping to conduct the seminar which had to do with the contributions community organizations such as the church can make. I also attended the Regional Meeting at Waterbury and the Mid-Winter Meetings at Evanston, Illinois.

Coming into this office in June, my speaking engagements did not begin until fall, but since that time they have led me into over fifty local church groups. In addition to those, I have participated in some twenty District and Association programs and have had scattered appointments out of state and with secular organizations.

In the way of creative work I have prepared worship and consecration services for particular needs, discussion group questions and study outlines for distribution and use, as well as soliciting and editing material for the pages assigned to Massachusetts Women in the "Pilgrim State News."

It is interesting to note that the demand for home missionary parsonage box applications has far exceeded the supply for several months and a waiting list accumulated before each group of applications could reach us from New York. Some seventy families were taken care of by about sixty churches.

Although there is much emphasis placed by our leaders on the educational aspect of women's organization programs and more and more of our societies are planning and presenting a large part of them by depending on their own resources, there are still needs for speakers from our mission fields and elsewhere who may bring the message from broader experience. Eight hundred speakers have been sent out to serve our churches and many recommendations made that have not been recorded. It has been a rich privilege to make and renew acquaintances with our missionaries on visits from the home fields and on furloughs from foreign lands and then to be able to send them forth into our church groups.

With the accent on varied and balanced programs for our women's organizations, young people's groups, church schools, men's clubs and church services, requests come for many types of speakers. In view of this a speakers' list is in process of being compiled to be ready for use next fall by our ministers and program chairmen.

And now with another year ahead, I pray for a renewal of consecration to this glorious task of serving you in the Congregational churches of our state.

Respectfully submitted,

NAOMI G. EKDAHL

THE BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, INC. PRESENTS INFORMATION PLEASE

Questions which thoughtful Congregationalists in Massachusetts want to have answered concerning this Society which they help to support and which is doing their work for deserving seamen.

Question: What does the sailor need ashore?

Answer: He needs a home, shelter, warmth and food. He needs clean entertainment to keep up his morale when out of work. He needs the uplift of simple, sincere, religious services. He needs friends to counsel and guide him and to make him feel he is still a part of a family. All these he finds at the Sailor's Rest in Boston and the Bethel at Vineyard Haven.

Question: What special services does this Society offer?

Answer: A free employment agency to make contacts between shipping agencies and the unemployed seamen. An opportunity to open bank accounts in co-operation with a reliable savings bank. An arrangement for competent care in sickness at the Chelsea Marine Hospital and a home to come to on leaving the hospital. Legal advice, when difficulties are encountered through ignorance or inexperience. Loans (generally repaid) to carry a seaman to distant work or home. Launch service during the summer months for distribution of sea-libraries and magazines among the ships in Boston. Launch service at Vineyard Haven continues the year round.

Question: How are the finances handled?

Answer: The income from Endowment and Trust Funds with rents received from our Hanover Street stores is sufficient to pay all salaries of Executives, and the wages of the men (all ex-sailors) who are employed at the Sailor's Rest and the Bethel.

All money received from churches and individuals goes into the work among and for the seamen.

The cost of maintaining the work for 1939 was $45,043.09. The receipts from the churches were $5,309.92, of which Massachusetts gave $2,710.93 This represents a loss of $370.87 from the New England churches and a loss of $148.66 from those of Massachusetts.

Question: Does the sailor himself pay anything?

Answer: A charge of fifty cents is made for a night's lodging and two square meals. If a seaman is without funds, he is served just the same. This past year 12,802 men were housed and fed and of this number 8,304 were unable at the time to pay. A large proportion of the men do pay when they obtain work. Pretty good evidence of the character of the men we serve and of their appreciation of what we do for them.

We trust our answers to the above questions will convince you of the real value of our work and that you will continue your co-operation and support.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

During the past year, the Committee has endeavored to co-operate fully with other committees of the State Conference in formulating a comprehensive Program of Progress which might clarify and unify the work and purpose of all committees and also prevent duplication of effort. Early in the fall, in conjunction with the Religious Education Committee and Woman's Work Committee, five District meetings were planned and held throughout the State for the purpose of bringing together, for conference, the Association Committees on Missions, Religious Education, and Women's Work. These District meetings were held as follows:

September 26—Andover-Newton Theological School
September 28—Adams Square Church, Worcester
October 2—North Andover Church
October 3—First Church, Florence
October 5—Central Church, Middleboro

On November 21-21, the Committee was well represented at a joint meeting of the Conference Committees held in the Trinitarian Church at Concord. This meeting was of great value in correlating the work of all committees and showing the need for further co-ordination. A comprehensive Program of Progress was fully discussed, and it was generally agreed that the task of making the program effective in the local churches lay, in large measure, with Association officers, committees, and local pastors.

On January 15, 1940, the Committee again participated in a joint meeting of Conference Committees held at 14 Beacon Street, for the purpose of considering five objectives of the Program of Progress according to the following age groupings:

(1) Children
(2) Young People
(3) Young Adults
(4) Adults

The five objectives were as follows:

(1) Knowing and Using the Bible
(2) The Home
(3) Increase, Reaching the Unreached
(4) Missions
(5) More and Better Workers

Practical suggestions were offered by the various Committees for a unified and correlated program according to age groups.

It is gratifying to note that, despite heavy demands made upon many of our churches for repairs caused by the hurricane, the giving for Congregational benevolences from our Massachusetts churches was only 1/10 of 1% less than last year. Eleven of our Associations increased their giving over the previous year, and 253 churches increased and 50 churches maintained the amounts given for benovolences. In view of this encouraging showing, the Committee wishes to recommend that the Conference adopt a goal of $300,000 for the coming year. This would mean only a slight increase in the per capita giving for missions. The past year it has been $1.46 per member, and for the coming year we would endeavor to increase it to $1.56 per member.

The Committee again urges fuller use and circulation of "The Pilgrim State News." The World Service Program materials for church schools are recommended. The pamphlet "A Program of Progress", is commended for its valuable suggestions in building a unified parish program of Christian Education.

We further suggest:

That Sunday Schools adopt the use of duplex envelopes for weekly contributions as a means of training children in benevolence giving.

That young people's societies and young adult groups undertake some missionary education in conjunction with their regular program.

That the Treasurer of Benevolences, where possible and practical, be a separate office other than the Treasurer for church current expenses.

That Association missionary committees should include, as far as possible, a representative from each of the following groups: Woman's Department; the Pilgrim Fellowship; and the Laymen's Fellowship.

The Committee wishes to acknowledge the helpful co-operation and encouragement of Mr. Timberlake, President of the Conference, who has given generously of his time and experience in the work of the Committee.

These are days when, as Christians, we deeply need the vision and faith which comes from the knowledge that ours is a Gospel for all mankind, and that the religion of Jesus Christ involves not only shared experiences but shared resources. Vital Christianity is reflected in the missionary motive, and it is the high privilege and joy of the Christian Church always to be challenged by the need of those beyond the borders of the local parish. The ministers and members of our Massachusetts churches are asked to offer up prayers continually for the wider work and the farther outreach of Christ's Kingdon of love here on earth.

Miscellaneous organizations served with reference to positions for ministers or Christian workers	13	14	19

If there were space it might be worthwhile to try to put substance into some of these figures.

> The callers, for instance, with whom have been discussed matters that relate so fundamentally to the life of the churches and to the lives of ministers.
> The letters, which cannot be handled as a matter of routine but to each one of which such thought must be given as evinces a real effort to deal with the problem suggested.
> The total number of "settlements completed" which as a whole have involved a great deal of correspondence and much personal conference. A part of the latter has been the Secretary's meetings with church committees both in the field and in the office. Such meetings must not be slighted either as to time or attention.
> The records of ministers which have been sent as promptly as possible, largely in response to requests.

Attention may be called to the increasing service being rendered to churches outside New England — 46 as against 33, 18, and 19 respectively in the three preceding years. This would seem to indicate that there is a real call for the National Board of Pastoral Information which is now being considered by the General Council's Commission on the Ministry. The number of miscellaneous organizations which turn to us for suggestions for their executive officers is also increasing.

Financial Report

This increased work which the office has been called upon to do is shown in the Treasurer's report which will be found on a subsequent page. The expenditures have exceeded the receipts by $239.99. (Note: the telephone and telegraph was $28.49 and the postage was $38.14, more than last year.) This brings down our working balance to $925.74 which is undesirably low. Included in the "Contributions from individuals and churches" (9 individuals and 17 churches) is $80 from the New York Congregational Conference. This will be increased to $100 next year and is appropriated in view of the increasing service that we are rendering the churches of the State of New York.

The amount received for the Secretary's preaching is a gain of $116.69 over the preceding year. However, he continues to make this preaching fundamentally serve the work of the Board in helping churches secure ministers. Of the total number of 43 pulpits supplied 38 were in this class. The fees from ministers for whom supplies were arranged were $36.25 less than last year. This is due to the new rule that the usual ten per cent will not be asked for fees of $15 or less. No fees are charged ministers for registering with this office as desiring churches or for preaching as candidates.

Items of Interest

The Board has held its usual two meetings during the year, in June and in December. The attendance has been seventeen and sixteen respectively out of a total membership of twenty-one (nine from Massachusetts, five from Connecticut, two each from Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, and one from Rhode Island). The Executive Committee (consisting of one member from each state with the chairman and treasurer ex officio) has met twice. These meetings are characterized by a careful discussion of the policies and problems of the Board.

The figures of graduates of seminaries who were planning to enter the Congregational ministry at Commencement, 1939, were : Andover, 10; Atlanta, 3; Bangor, 7; Chicago, 15; Hartford, 4; Harvard, 4; Oberlin, 4; Pacific, 3; Union, 4; Yale, 12. Total 66. This compares with an average for the four preceding years of 69.

In this connection it may be noted that the Andover-Newton Seminary launched a new adventure by inviting the Secretary of this Board and an official of the Massachusetts Baptist State Convention to examine the members of their senior class "with reference to their general fitness for the ministry, on the practical side." The examination was both oral and written and took two full days of the examiners' time.

The General Council Commission on the Ministry, of which your Secretary is chairman, has given careful study to standards for licensure and ordination which it will ask the General Council to consider at the coming meeting at Berkeley and if thought best recommend to conferences, associations, and churches.

The questionnaire which was devised in 1935–36 as a means of securing fuller and more accurate information with regard to ministers has been revised this year and we believe definitely improved. Informants are asked to express themselves with regard to (1) a minister's conduct of worship and preaching, (2) his pastoral work, (3) his work with young people, (4) his administration of a church, and (5) his personal characteristics. The corresponding blank with regard to churches is being filled out by church officials with gratifying care.

The leaflet "How a Congregational-Christian Church May Secure a Pastor" issued in 1938 has now been supplemented by a briefer leaflet entitled "Advice to Advisers" which deals with the problem of recommending a minister to a church or helping a minister to change. Both these leaflets are published by the General Council but were prepared in this office.

Statement of Principles

At the last meeting of the Board the members discussed the question as to how far the work of the Board was understood by ministers and churches. To the end that it may be better understood the following statement has been prepared with the approval of the Executive Committee.

In helping New England churches to secure the most efficient pastoral service the Board is not to assign or to appoint ministers to churches. If the independence of the local church has any meaning at all it means that a Congregational-Christian church has the right and the duty to choose its own minister. Moreover, no denominational official or organization, even though set up by the churches as a whole to help them, has a right to force himself or itself upon a church. If a church definitely indicates that it wants to go its own way this desire must be respected even though the way does not seem to be a good one.

But a Board like ours has a right to offer its service to churches and when such an offer is accepted the Secretary will proceed in at least two ways. First, he will discuss with a responsible committee or officers of the church or if desired with the church itself the best procedure for securing a minister. Next, he will afford the church reliable and adequate information about ministers. This information will be given in response to definite requests about individual men who have been called to the attention of the church in various ways. When asked to do so the Secretary will make suggestions of his own. In all available ways the office will follow through to help a church in due time to arrive at its own choice of its own minister.

According to the figures in the statistical report already given, 60% of the total settlements completed in our territory of which we had knowledge were carried through with important help from this Board. It is fairly to be presumed that in the remaining 40% the State offices had a large part. It seems clear that as time goes on, instead of turning away from the agencies which the churches have set up to help them in securing effective pastoral service they are more and more turning to them.

While this paramount emphasis upon the relationship of the Board to the churches is inherent in the object for which the Board exists, a definite responsibility to the ministers must also be recognized. For one thing effective pastoral service is impossible unless there be some attempt to help ministers in making desirable changes. Again as long as we encourage ministers to have a family life we must take account of their financial needs and of the care that they ought to have for those dependent upon them.

When a minister wishes to change it is his privilege to approach the Board and discuss the matter with its Secretary. If after such discussion (based perhaps upon the principles suggested in the leaflet "Advice to Advisers") a change still seems desirable the Secretary will naturally suggest ways and means by which it may be brought about and will help the minister to make contacts with churches.

At this point there comes in the difficulty of the number of men who approach the Board in this way. For example, at the present moment the Secretary has the names of 315 men on his list who at one time or another have indicated a desire to change. Obviously contacts for all these men cannot be arranged at the same time. Moreover, this large number causes a difficulty when any desirable church becomes vacant. Such a church is asked to consider a confusing number of men and in turn our office gets too large a number of requests from the church for information about men. (For example, during the current year in response mainly to requests we have sent 56 records to one church, 43 to another, 40 to another, 31 to another and to churches which have not even yet called men we have sent 36, 31, 26, etc.)

It is also to be remembered that if the Board has no right to force its service upon a church a minister has no right to demand that the Board find him a church. Freedom must be accorded the Board and its Secretary as to other organizations and officials in our Congregational-Christian fellowship. If the Secretary is unjust or mistaken in a particular instance the minister or the church has recourse to the members of the Board from his State and ultimately to the Board itself.

Because of the difficulties which seem inherent in our Congregational freedom the Board must be as sympathetic in its attitude and as helpful in its action as is humanly possible. We welcome comments, pro and con, on our attitude and on our action, as well as on this statement.

For the Board,

April 5, 1940 CHARLES C. MERRILL, Secretary

REPORT OF THE LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE

In these days of seemingly unending problems which we have been attempting to solve by every devise known to man, more and more of us are coming to the realization that we must look to God for guidance and help. Now as never before, there is need for Christian leadership and action. Permanent and happy solutions to our local, national and world-wide problems will not be attained unless we, together with other Christian laymen, assume this leadership.

With these thoughts uppermost in our minds, your committee has again this year encouraged the formation of laymen's committees within each Association, suggesting that they can be of unlimited value to the local church by carrying out the following program:

1. Arrange several meetings of men during the year; supper meetings during the winter months, an outing during the summer, perhaps a week-end retreat for the prayerful consideration of church problems.

2. Help men to become informed about the work of the local church, the Association, the State Conference, the General Council and its affiliates. Many men know little or nothing about the work of these latter organizations.

3. Compile lists of speakers who are available and willing to give their time to assist the various men's groups in becoming still more effective.

4. Assist in the formation and development of men's clubs, brotherhoods, and Bible classes in churches where such organizations are not already functioning.

5. Promote the discussion in these local church groups of methods and means for making the church an increasingly valuable and potent factor in the life of the community it serves.

In order to promote interest in activities such as those just suggested, your committee has sponsored several meetings during the year to which the men of our churches were invited.

Supper Conference at Northampton

The first in this series of meetings was held at Northampton in connection with the last annual meeting of the Conference. More than 300 laymen and ministers heard Ronald Bridges of Sanford, Maine and Dean Roderick Scott of Fukien University at Foochow, China, speak on various phases of Christian work. Also several members of this committee spoke briefly of plans and programs for men's work during the coming months.

Second Annual Retreat

Our second annual retreat was held again at the Andover-Newton Theological School during the week-end following Thanksgiving. This was indeed a retreat. Once on "The Hill" one felt that all worldly cares had been left behind and there was now an opportunity for co-operative Christian discussion and worship. The attendance was not large, due probably to the holiday week-end and consideration will be given this year to holding this annual event at some more favorable time.

Conferences on Church Financing

At the suggestion of this committee, several of the Association Laymen's Committees in October sponsored meetings to discuss church financing. These meetings were well attended and resulted in an enthusiastic discussion of our financial problems and a helpful interchange of ideas.

Regional Rally

On Sunday afternoon, April 7th, a regional rally of Congregational men was held in the Old South Church in Boston. All men in the five Greater Boston Associations were invited, and nearly one thousand men were given the opportunity of listening to Lieut. Gov. Horace T. Cahill, Prof. Herbert Gezork of Wellesley College, and Ronald Bridges of Sanford, Maine, give their views on the need for Christian leadership and action. So far as we know this was the largest gathering of Congregational men ever to be held in this State.

In addition to these activities your committee participated in the sixth annual laymen's conference at the Isle of Shoals last August and in the two joint meetings of the Conference committees, the first at Concord and the second at Boston.

Wilfred H. Chapin

It was at the meeting in Concord that the committee suffered the sudden loss of its chairman, the late Wilfred H. Chapin of Fairhaven who had given so unselfishly of his time to this committee for the past several years. This unexpected loss of his efficient leadership and wise counsel was a blow from which we have not yet recovered, but he has left with us memories that will not be forgotten and a challenge to go forward with renewed vigor in the days to come.

We are very appreciative and much indebted to Mr. Timberlake for the inspiration and guidance he has given this committee during the past year, particularly since the passing of Mr. Chapin. Members of the committee have given freely of their time to our entire program in order to assist the local church, through its laymen, to meet the increasingly difficult problems that present-day events are thrusting upon it.

Arthur McClure, Secretary

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE RELATION OF CHURCHES AND COLLEGES

The Committee on the Relation of Churches and Colleges has held six meetings during the past year. Last May we met with officials of Amherst College and laid the foundation for closer co-operation between the local church and the college. The completion of these plans has been postponed due to the resignation of the First Church minister.

November 15 we held at Wellesley College an all-day conference on "Religion on the Campus". Over sixty attended, representing the leading colleges and universities of the state and churches interested in student work. A keen interest was manifested. As a result a special committee was appointed to make a survey of the colleges and universities of the state regarding the status of the teaching of religion in the curriculum, religious life on campus, and the relation between the college and the church. This committee is composed of the following: Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Boston; Charles Butler, Babson Institute; Rev. George Tuttle, Florence; Dean Homer Little, Clark University; Miss Eleanor Kitchin, Sargent-Boston University; Miss Eliza Kendrick, Wellesley College; Rev. Burns Chalmers, Smith College; Rev. Robert M. Bartlett, Longmeadow.

The survey committee met at Clark University on February 26 and prepared a questionnaire which has been sent to all Protestant colleges and universities in Massachusetts. The committee believes that valuable data will be gathered. We hope to establish a closer relation with these institutions of learning. We hope to be able to recommend a definite program of action which our churches will be able to follow.

We welcome all suggestions. We stand ready to serve at all times.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON ALLOTMENTS

At the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society in May 1939, a special committee of fifteen members was appointed by the Moderator: "to make a study of the whole question of allotments and of the establishment of a uniform basis for reporting and publishing membership data, said committee to make recommendations at the next Annual Meeting of the Conference." This committee has held regular meetings monthly beginning with the fall of 1939. It has aimed to study the matters assigned to it from every possible angle.

Your committee feels that we all recognize that in the freedom of our Congregational Churches if we are to have co-ordinating bodies such as the State Conference and the General Council it is essential that churches and Associations of churches assist in bearing the expenses of such bodies. Such moneys as are paid by individual church members, individual churches and Associations, is a matter purely of good will and recognition of the fellowship of our churches.

Your committee has assumed that it was authorized to consider the necessity of an Allotment, the methods of raising Allotments if desired, the objects to which the Allotment is paid, the limitations of its use, and any penalties upon individual churches for not meeting their Allotment assessments.

We have investigated the methods employed in other denominations and in other Conferences of our own fellowship to secure the funds necessary to carry on the work of the Conference and the General Council, and we have reached the conclusion that there is no more satisfactory method than that of our own present method of the so-called allotment, that is, a per capita request by the State Conference from each Church based on its membership.

A brief history of our allotment method presents essential facts. In 1824 a tax was imposed on each delegate to the General Association of Massachusetts, to cover expenses. After this year the tax varied from year to year as expenses varied, and depended upon whether balances in the treasury were large or small. The allotment account as we have it now has a history going back to 1868. The expenses incurred by the joint "General Association (Ministers) of Massachusetts" and the "General Conference of Congregational Churches of Massachusetts", included the miscellaneous expenses of the registrar and the cost of printing the annual report. The allotment in that year was set at two cents per member and was ample. In 1878, the Conference was asked to help with the expenses of the National Council. This was first on the basis of one cent per member, increased in 1913 to two cents, in 1914 to four cents, in 1920 to seven cents, in 1924 to eight cents, remaining at that figure until 1935, when it was reduced to seven cents. This has been the basis since that time for the part of the allotment requested from our churches and paid through the State Conference to the General Council. It is to be remembered that one of the seven cents is for the mileage fund to pay part of the travelling expenses of delegates to the General Council meetings.

In recent years six cents per member has been asked from each church in our Conference for the expenses of the Conference, thus making the total of thirteen cents per capita requested of each church for the work of our fellowship through the State Conference and General Council.

As shown by a statement recently issued by the Conference regarding allotment income and expense, the $21,000 received in income from our churches were distributed as follows:

General Council	$11,000
Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply	3,700
Massachusetts Council of Churches	1,000
Massachusetts Congregational Conference toward expenses of committees, convocations, assembling statistics, printing and mailing reports	5,300
	$21,000

From the above it will be noted that no allotment income has been used to increase the office force or overhead expenses of the State Conference. This year, as last year, an additional cent per member is being asked by the Conference to be passed on by the Conference to the General Council to cover the expenses of the planned International Council of Congregational Churches to be held in Wellesley. This request terminates at the end of these two years.

Of the $56,350.97 received by the General Council in the year 1939 from the Conferences of our fellowship, $11,423.63 were paid by our Massachusetts Conference. These figures include the additional one cent per member to cover the expenses of the planned International Council of Congregational Churches to be held in Wellesley. It is important to note from these figures that Massachusetts paid 20.3% of the total amount received by the General Council. On the other hand, the membership of our churches in Massachusetts (174,451) is approximately 16.6% of the total membership of all of the churches in our national fellowship.

In the history of the allotment account it has been noted that the Per Capita request from each of our Massachusetts churches was based on the resident membership in two periods 1868–1877 and 1884–1887. In all other years, the allotment requested has been based on the total membership of each church. During our Conference fiscal year 1939–40, 405 churches of the 614 churches paid the allotment in full, as based on their total membership. These churches represent 114,128 members. Also, many churches have paid 1938–1939 allotment during this year, and undoubtedly payments for 1939–40 will be received at the time when the treasurers of their Associations make their customary payments. In addition 52 churches have paid their 1939–40 allotment in part and their payments represent 65% of their allotment. Altogether 85% of one year's allotment was collected.

Your committee feels there is the necessity for some form of allotment funds to meet the expenses of our State Conference and General Council. We recommend:

1. A campaign of education among our churches for the dissemination of information regarding the allotment, its history and purposes. To this end we commend the statement issued by the Trustees of the Conference to help the churches understand the allotment account in our finances. We urge further information be given through our Associations of churches and ministers, and through layment's committees. We also recommend the continuation of this committee or a similar committee to carry out this campaign of education.

2. We recommend the simplification of the allotment account as carried by the State Treasurer. Items can be consolidated under the general heading of expenses, such as printing, and overhead.

3. We recommend that through the State Conference and General Council an effort be made with the other conferences of our national fellowship to secure a more equitable collection of the allotment per capita.

4. We recommend that for the present the allotment be in Massachusetts on the basis of six cents for our own Conference expenses, seven cents for the General Council and one cent additional for the International Council. We also recommend that only such moneys be passed on to the General Council by the treasurer of our State Conference as he shall receive, allocated for that purpose.*

> * We call the attention of the Conference to the fact that in recent years our State treasurer has not received allotment moneys in full from all of our churches, and so could not pass on to the General Council the full amount requested by such. The deficiencies have been met each year by funds held by the General Council to the credit of our State Conference. These funds have now been exhausted. Unless Massachusetts churches pay their allotments in full, there will have to be cuts made in the mileage fund allowance made by the General Council for expenses of our delegates to the Council.

5. We recommend that the basis for allotment payments in our Conference be the total membership of each church, such as each church reports to the General Council to be published in the reports of the Council and State Conference.

6. We recommend that the Conference abolish the column for absentee members in our Conference Report and that our churches in Massachusetts be requested not to report absentee members.

7. We further recommend that our churches cease to employ the term "absentee members" and use the term "retired members" for such members as may be deemed by the local church to be inactive, the number of such retired members not to be included in the report of total membership in our statistics.

8. We recommend that in the statistics printed by our State Conference in place of the present column for absentee members, there be recorded the percentage of per capita tax or allotment paid by each church, this step to be taken to encourage 100 per cent report by our churches.

For the Committee,

Clarence Dunham, Chairman

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Thirteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Seven cents of the thirteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of over $575,000. If any extra expense is incurred that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned about 4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters. The churches may avail themselves of the service of this ability and experience without expense.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

PRESIDENT, MRS. FRED C. BRIGHAM, 78 Bowdoin St., Springfield

SECRETARY, MRS. GEORGE S. PERKINS, 46 Sunapee St., Springfield

TREASURER, MRS. ARTHUR P. IRVING, 2044 Allen St., Springfield

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of Home Missionary churches in Springfield in their current work, while the Springfield Union represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for certain local forms of social service.

Contributions for Home Missions from the churches in Springfield to be credited on the Apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the Union given in addition to the Apportionment and not to be credited as part of it should be sent to the Treasurer of the Congregational Union of Springfield.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, REV. MYRON W. FOWELL

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, by agreement with the Worcester City Missionary Society, is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of home missionary churches in Worcester in their current work, while the Worcester City Missionary Society represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for aiding churches in property matters, contributing toward the purchase and maintenance of property and the payment of building debts.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members and families are reported as numbered January 1, 1938. Admissions and removals cover the year 1937. "Absent" are not additional to "males," "females" and "total," but included in them. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1938, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r,"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but means "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk* indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its anual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex-officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them, some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

Minutes and Reports — With the Statistics

ATTLEBORO, MAY 16-18
1941

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation .....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

1941

MINUTES OF THE 142nd ANNUAL MEETING

WITH THE STATISTICS

ATTLEBORO, MAY 16, 17, 18, 1941

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council of Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1941, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

MINUTES OF THE 142nd ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 16 - 18

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, ATTLEBORO
MASSACHUSETTS

The 142nd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order at 2:00 o'clock on Friday, May 16, by the Moderator, Mr. George F. Moulton of Milton. He presented Prof. H. Augustine Smith of Boston University as the Director of the congregational singing and Rev. Albert J. Penner of the Second Congregational Church, Holyoke, as the Chaplain for the meeting.

After ten minutes of singing, led by Prof. Smith, the Chaplain conducted the Service of Worship.

The Moderator then appointed the following committees:

Business Committee—Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan, Gardner, Chairman: Mr. Gregory Allyn, Framingham; Mrs. Franklin G. Field, Brighton; Mr. William F. Farley, Waltham; Rev. Egbert W. A. Jenkinson, Methuen; Rev. Eric I. Lindh, Brookfield; Mr. Harry P. Steadman, Dalton.

Credentials Committee—Rev. J. Harold Dale, Billerica, Chairman; Mr. Everett R. Brigham, Billerica; Rev. Edward A. Driscoll, Lenox; Rev. A. Robert Harrison, Barre; Rev. S. Whitman Anthony, Brighton; Rev. Robert L. Dutton, Holden.

(The last two named were secured to fill vacancies caused by the absence of two of the above.)

Rev. J. Lee Mitchell, the pastor of the entertaining church, presented Mayor John MacIntyre of Attleboro, who gave an address of welcome to the Conference.

The Moderator formally presented Dr. Mitchell, calling attention to the fact that this year, 1941, marked the fortieth anniversary of his pastorate in the Second Church. Dr. Mitchell welcomed the Conference on behalf of the church and gave a brief sketch of its historical background and its important place in the life of Attleboro.

The Advance Reports of the Conference Committees were then presented and received. After discussion and some changes, as noted below, they were ordered printed in the minutes.

Rev. George E. Cary of Bradford moved that:

Any changes in the percentages used in dividing undesignated benevolence gifts received by the Treasurer be voted upon by the Conference at this Annual Meeting, and that until such changes are made, it be the desire of the Conference that the percentages shall be those authorized by it through action taken at the Dedham meeting in 1938, namely: —

State Conference	13
Seaman's Friend	1
Board of Home Missions	41¾
American Board	40¼
Council for Social Action	4

This was referred to the Business Committee.

Rev. Francis L. Cooper of Campello recommended that the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry be made a permanent committee of the Conference. This recommendation was referred to the Business Committee, and the Moderator specified Saturday morning at the business session as the time for further discussion of the matter.

Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Chairman of the Special Committee of the Conference on the Allotment, reported for that committee, as follows:

ALLOTMENT COMMITTEE

The special committee of the Conference on the Allotment appointed in 1939 and continued by vote of the Conference in 1940 submits its final report. We call the attention of the Conference to the general success of the per capita payments by the Churches during the past fiscal year. Of the 612 churches in our Conference, 89% have paid in whole or in part. Sixty-three churches have paid nothing, but of these 63, 3 churches are inactive. Of the remaining 60, 22 churches have a membership 1 — 100; 31 churches 100 — 500; 7 churches have a membership 500 and over.

We call particular attention to these Associations that have contributed all per capita payments in full for the year ending March 31, 1941:

Berkshire South
Essex North
Suffolk North

This 100% record is due largely to the efforts of the treasurers and scribes of these Associations.

Allowance must be made for the fact that some churches pay after the Annual Meeting of the Conference.

Changes are being made in the printing of statistics for the year. The General Council is placing a "star" in the lists of churches to indicate that the starred churches have paid their per capita allotments in full. We also call the attention of our churches to the omission of the "Absentee Column" in the coming issue of the state Minutes and Reports. This is in accord with the vote taken by the Conference last year upon recommendation of your committee. While the national Year Book will continue to use such a column, we trust that soon it also may be eliminated.

We continue to urge our churches to use the term, "Retired Members", for such members as may be deemed by the local Church to be inactive. The number of such retired members not to be included in the reporting of total membership.

1. We recommend the following amendment to the by-laws of the Conference, to come as Section 4 of Article IX:

> "4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes as may be designated and shall allot the same among the churches on such basis as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee."

2. We recommend that the Conference vote that the Conference make public at its next annual meeting the names of the churches that have paid nothing on the per capita Allotment during the fiscal year, and that due notice to this effect be given to the churches when Allotment statements are issued.

3. At the last session of the General Council at Berkeley the following vote was taken: "That the State Conferences be requested to contribute annually to the General Council for the next biennium, eight cents per capita on the total membership to be distributed as follows: six cents per member for the expenses of the General Council, one cent per member for the mileage fund, and one cent per member for the World Council of Churches, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, and the International Congregational Council, the International Congregational Council being a first charge." This calls for an additional one cent per member. Believing it was the democratic method for the Churches themselves to be informed of this proposal, your Committee circularized our churches and asked for a vote by the churches or financial committees if the church favored or was against this proposal. Twenty-six replies have been received. Three asked for further information; 17 favored the proposal; 6 were opposed. Possibly this is a fair ratio for the entire state, 3 to 1.

Your committee has no specific recommendation in this particular matter. We believe in leaving the decision in such to the vote of the Conference. We do recommend that such a vote be taken.

We are assuming that this committee expires at this session of the Conference, but we do urge continuing enlightenment of our churches by the Trustees regarding the Allotment payments and purposes for which such payments are used.

Respectfully submitted,

CLARENCE W. DUNHAM, Chairman.

Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer of the Conference, presented his annual report and it was VOTED: That the report of the Treasurer of the Conference as submitted be accepted with appreciation.

By request of the Moderator, the Secretary of the Conference, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, then introduced Robert L. Calhoun, Professor of Historical Theology in the Divinity School in Yale University, who gave the first of three addresses on the general theme, "The Impact of God on Human Life," namely, on "God as the Holy Spirit."

At the close of the afternoon session, a public hearing was held on the question of continuing the Board of Pastoral Supply after Dr. Merrill's retirement, and the vote taken showed that the meeting was nearly evenly divided on the question.

At 6:00 o'clock the Fellowship Supper was held in the supper room of the Second Church.

FRIDAY EVENING

The evening session opened with a Service of Worship conducted by the Chaplain, followed by music, under the direction of Prof. Smith.

The President of the Conference, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, presented his annual report, which is printed elsewhere in the Minutes and Reports.

President Timberlake then presented two of his associates in the work of the Conference, Rev. George M. Tuttle, Field Secretary for the western Associations, and Rev. Porter Bower, Secretary of Religious Education, each of whom spoke briefly on his work.

An anthem was sung by the choir of the Second Church.

The Secretary of the Conference, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, presented his annual report, which is printed elsewhere in the Minutes and Reports.

SATURDAY MORNING

The meeting was called to order promptly at 9:00 o'clock, with the Service of Worship in charge of the Chaplain.

Professor Smith directed the singing of the hymns.

Rev. John A. Hawley of Amherst was then called upon to present the Debt of Honor Campaign. He called attention to the fact that there are still many churches in Massachusetts which have done little or nothing for this cause, and stressed that $193,000 is still lacking on the quota, based on a total of 12% of the home expenses, printed in full on pp. 25-26.

It was VOTED: That the reports presented by the President and the Secretary of the Conference be accepted and printed in the Minutes and Reports.

Rev. J. Herbert Owen of Worthington reported for the Special Committee on Pastoral Placement, authorized last year at the Annual Meeting at Worcester. His report was received and the following recommendation was adopted:

THAT this Conference recommend to its Associations that at their fall meetings they provide for a discussion of the problems involved in the total relationship between pastors and churches.

Upon recommendation of the Business Committee, the proposed amendment to the By-Laws concerning the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry was brought before the meeting. After full discussion of the matter, it was VOTED: That the By-Laws of the Conference be amended by adding to Article X, Section 2, Paragraph (d), the following paragraph:

> (e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen; and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefor in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the state. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy

At 1:15, Miss Phoebe Fraser of Atlanta, Georgia, presented her work under the Board of Home Missions in the Southeast, with especial reference to our Negro fellow-Congregationalists.

The Chair recognized Rev. Harry W. Foot of Dalton, Chairman of the Nominating Committee of the Conference, who presented the nominations for officers and committees.

It was VOTED: That the report of the Nominating Committee be accepted.

The following persons were named as tellers:

Rev. James G. Brown, Lee
Rev. Charles W. Keirstead, Lawrence
Rev. Charles G. Christianson, Swampscott
Mr. Harry P. Steadman, Dalton

There were 381 ballots cast in favor of the nominees reported by the Nominating Committee, as recorded on pages 4–12 of these Minutes and Reports.

The Trustees were requested to appoint three members to serve on the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry:

1 in the 5 year class
1 in the 3 year class
1 in the 1 year class

The Chairman of the Board of Trustees announced that Rev. Porter Bower is to continue as Secretary of Religious Education to September 1, 1941, on half time.

Rev. Horace F. Holton called attention to the fact that Congregational delegates to the Massachusetts Council of Churches had not been elected. This appearing to be an oversight, the Moderator announced that such action would be taken at the afternoon meeting.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon session was called to order by the Moderator at 2:00 o'clock and the business of the morning was continued.

It was VOTED: That the Trustees name ten persons as Congregational representatives on the Massachusetts Council of Churches.

The Chairman of the Nominating Committee presented the following list of names as the members of the Nominating Committee to serve for the coming year:

Mrs. William C. Prentiss, North Brookfield
Rev. Frederick C. Wilson, Ipswich
Rev. Harold S. Capron, Whitman
Rev. John A. Douglas, Centerville

It was VOTED: That the further report of the Nominating Committee be received and that the Secretary of the Conference prepare and cast one ballot for the list of names which has just been read.

This was done.

The Moderator then presented the Chairman of the Business Committee, Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan of Gardner, who recommended that Rev. Frank Jennings, Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches be called upon to speak on the work of the Council.

After Secretary Jennings' address, the Conference considered and accepted the invitation of the Second Church of Newton in West Newton as the meeting place for the Conference in 1942. Recognition was given also to a later invitation received from the South Church, Peabody.

The Chairman of the Business Committee then presented the following recommendation of the Trustees:

It was VOTED: That the By-Laws of the Conference be amended by adding after Article IX, Section 3, the following section: —

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

It was VOTED: That a brief memorial be prepared for Joseph Mather Smith, who was a member of the West Springfield Church for 76 years and served as Deacon for 65 years, and that this memorial be presented to the Conference and a copy sent to the family.

Rev. George W. Owen of Hyde Park introduced the following resolution:

RESOLVED: By the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society at its Annual Meeting at Attleboro, May 16–18:

1. That we express our approval of the attempt which is being made by the Committee on Food for the Small Democracies under the chairmanship of former President Herbert Hoover to prevent starvation in Europe.
2. That we ask our churches and ministers to give moral support to the work of this committee in every way possible. (Financial support is not needed.)
3. That we ask the Massachusetts Senators and Representatives in Congress to forward this work in every way possible, especially through the removal of the blockade restrictions that prevent the sending of food to the peoples who need it.
4. That the Secretary of the Conference be asked to give publicity to this resolution, especially by transmission to our Senators and Representatives.

This resolution was referred to the Business Committee for its consideration and report. The Business Committee reported that this resolution, having been brought to the attention of the Conference and being of such a nature as to preclude any unanimous action by the Conference, it was their recommendation that the matter be left to the individual conscience.

The following resolution concerning labor disputes was laid on the table:

In view of the fact that the American Way of Life is endangered, not only by the present war between foreign nations, but also by the increasing spirit of greed and strife within our own borders which is manifesting itself in controversies between organized labor and corporations which have received government contracts, and

Whereas the present time offers a superb opportunity for the exercise of reason, of a spirit of co-operation and of genuine patriotism when disputes arise, now therefore be it

RESOLVED: By the representatives of the Congregational Churches in Massachusetts, in conference assembled,

That we call upon all citizens engaged in controversy concerning labor policies on the one hand and profits on the other to sink their differences, to manifest a high degree of patriotism and to use every means at their command to reach amicable and just settlement of all controversies without resort to strikes or lockouts, and we most heartily approve and commend the adoption of a "cooling off period" in connection with the adjustment of labor disputes and difficulties. And be it further

RESOLVED: That the weight of public opinion be directed against those who refuse to exercise a spirit of conciliation and of co-operation in this period of national peril.

It was VOTED: That the fraternal greetings of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference be sent to the New Hampshire State Conference, now in session; and a telegram conveying such a greeting was sent by Secretary Bliss to Secretary Armstrong at Concord, N. H., where the meeting was being held.

It was moved and seconded that the Conference ask the Trustees to reconsider the matter of apportionment percentage. After full discussion, which included an explanation by the Treasurer, the motion was lost.

The following resolutions were adopted:

RESOLVED: That we, the members of this Conference, hereby express our sincere appreciation of the service rendered by Rev. Porter Bower as Secretary of Religious Education and of his work with the Young People of our churches: a service which is the more noteworthy because of the small amount of time which he has been permitted to devote thereto. We regret that Mr. Bower is soon to leave us, but we wish him all success and happiness in the work to which he has been called.

RESOLVED: That the members of this Conference, being convinced of the urgent need for full-time secretarial leadership in the important work of religious education, do heartily approve the recommendation of the Committee on Religious Education to this effect and do earnestly request the Board of Trustees to give this matter careful consideration and to make provision for such full-time leadership if it is possible to do so.

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, assembled in the Second Church, Attleboro, for its 142nd Annual Meeting, hereby wishes to express its heartiest appreciation of the hospitality of the Pastor and people of the Attleboro church for the care evident in the planning of the arrangements, the bountiful meals, the fine music, to the Mayor for his greeting, to the people who so graciously opened their homes for our comfort and convenience.

We would also express our gratitude to the speakers and leaders on the programs, the chaplain, the moderator, the lecturer and all who contributed in any way to its success.

The Business Committee acknowledged the receipt of the resolution from the Andover Association which expressed its strong disapproval of the time chosen for the Annual Meeting, so as to include a Sunday, and recommended that the Program Committee for next year take notice.

RESOLVED: That this Conference go on record as favoring the passage of the enabling legislation relating to week-day religious education now pending before the General Court of Massachusetts, to wit: "Absences may also be permitted for religious education at such times as the school committee (of the various towns and cities) may establish" —

(Revision of Senate Bill 373 and House Bills 394 and 395)

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the churches be urged to study the advantages of a co-operative community approach to the opportunity which passage of this legislation may present, and that they give earnest early attention to matters of possible leadership and subject matter."

RESOLVED: (1) that notice of all important matters of business to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting of the Conference be included with the Advance Reports and sent to the churches at least one month in advance of the meeting, with the request that the churches inform themselves and express their opinions.

(2) that for the purposes of this resolution the following shall be deemed important matters:

a. Recommendations of Conference committees, both standing and annual.

b. Proposed changes in the policies of the Conference which depend for their success upon the support of the churches.

c. Recommendations submitted to the Conference by the Associations.

d. Matters in which the Conference or its committees, in their representative capacity may desire to speak for the churches or their members.

In accordance with Recommendation #2 of the Allotment Committee it was VOTED: That the Conference make public at its next Annual Meeting the names of the churches that have paid nothing on the per capita Allotment during the fiscal year, and that due notice to this effect be given to the churches when Allotment statements are issued.

On account of the pressure of business, the two addresses by Professor Calhoun and Professor Hans Kohn came later than the time scheduled on the program. Professor Calhoun graciously gave precedence on the program to Prof. Hans Kohn of Smith College, who spoke on "War Aims and Peace Aims."

After singing by the congregation, Professor Calhoun gave his second address, somewhat condensed, on "The Living Christ as the Holy Spirit."

Following this address there were two simultaneous supper meetings: one for the women and the other for the laymen and ministers.

The women met at 5:45 for a reception at the Masonic Temple. Following this, a supper was served, and after supper a business meeting of the Woman's Department of the Conference was held.

At 7:45 there was an address by Miss Ruth Seabury, Secretary of the American Board, on the Second Mile gifts and their consecration.

Brief addresses were also made by Mrs. Mary D. White, retiring Secretary of the Home Boards, Miss Elizabeth Coffin, who is about to go to the West Central Africa Mission of the American Board, and Rev. S. L. Laviscount.

The Laymen and ministers met in the supper room of the Second Church. After the supper, singing was directed by Professor Smith and addresses were made by Moderator William E. Sweet of the General Council, on the theme, "The Church in Such an Hour as This," and by Dr. Harold Major of the staff of the National Association of Manufacturers.

SATURDAY EVENING

At 8:45 both groups gathered in the Second Church to see the moving picture, "A Savior is Born."

Previous to the showing of this picture there was a short business session at which Recommendation #3 of the report of the special committee of the Conference on the Allotment was discussed, and it was VOTED: That the Conference adopt the recommendation of the General Council at Berkeley, namely, "That the State Conferences be requested to contribute annually to the General Council for the next biennium, eight cents per capita on the total membership to be distributed as follows: six cents per member for the expenses of the General Council, one cent per member for the mileage fund, and one cent per member for the World Council of Churches, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, and the International Congregational Council, the International Congregational Council being a first charge." This calls for an additional one cent per member.

SUNDAY MORNING

The Conference convened Sunday at 10:45, in the Second Church, for the Service of Worship led by Dr. Mitchell.

Music was furnished by the choir and organist of the Second Church.

The Scripture Lesson was read by Rev. Robert L. Dutton of the Congregational Church in Holden, a member in boyhood of the Second Church.

The work of the Board of Ministerial Aid was presented by Rev. Austin Rice of Wakefield, and the offering taken amounted to $143.53.

The Conference Sermon was preached by Rev. Benjamin T. Marshall, minister of the First Church, Haverhill, on the theme, "Our Dominant Confidence," from the text Psalm 62:5.

The Communion was administered by Dr. Mitchell, assisted by the following Deacons: Milton P. Dutton, Thomas K. Bliss, Edwin F. Thayer, E. Sheldon Smith, Albert J. Carpenter, Dr. William M. Stobbs, Vernon A. King, George H. Brown, all of the Second Church, Attleboro, and Thomas Sadler of the Bethany Church, South Attleboro.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:30 the third and last address in the series by Professor Calhoun was given on the theme, "The Holy Spirit in Man."

At 3:30 Rev. Arthur O. Rinden of Diongloh, China, spoke on "Life and Conditions in the Foochow Mission, China."

The program was brought to an impressive climax by the Commissioning Service for Miss Elizabeth L. Coffin as missionary of the American Board to the West Central Africa Mission.

Rev. Edgar H. S. Chandler of Central Church, Jamaica Plain, conducted the service.

Mrs. Myron H. Clark, Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work of the Massachusetts Conference wished Miss Coffin Godspeed, on behalf of the Department.

Rev. and Mrs. Duane V. Waln, at present on furlough in this country from their work in Chilesso, West Central Africa, welcomed her to Africa.

Miss Mabel Emerson, Secretary for the Africa Missions of the American Board, presented Miss Coffin with the commission of the Board.

A prayer of consecration was offered by Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, President of the Conference.

Miss Emerson introduced other newly appointed missionaries who have not yet been commissioned.

Then followed the singing of the hymn of consecration "Take my Life and Let It Be, Consecrated Lord to Thee."

According to a previous announcement by the Moderator, the 142nd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference stood adjourned.

REPORT OF THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

According to the registration cards, the attendance at the Annual Meeting was as follows, comparing this year's meeting with those of 1939 and 1940:

	1941	1940	1939
Pastors	245	272	245
Delegates	338	358	317

PILGRIM FELLOWSHIP RALLY

The Pilgrim Fellowship Rally of the Young People of the Congregational Churches, under the leadership of Rev. Porter Bower, Secretary of Religious Education in the Conference, was held Sunday afternoon in the Trinitarian Congregational Church, Norton.

The opening Service of Worship at 3:30 was conducted by Rev. Arthur O. Rinden of Diongloh, China.

A dramatic presentation of Congregational work at home and abroad, prepared by Rev. Paul S. McElroy, of Manchester, under the title, "Congreview," was presented by the following persons: Rev. Roland T. Heacock of Springfield, Mrs. Franklin G. Field of Brighton, Rev. Arthur O. Rinden of China, and Mr. Hans Abraham, representing the Jewish refugees.

Rev. Mr. Rinden then spoke on the work of the Foochow Mission in China.

Moderator William E. Sweet of the General Council spoke on the theme "Do we have what it Takes?"

Supper was served at 5:00 o'clock.

The evening Service of Worship was led by the Pilgrim Fellowship Council, and an address was made by Rev. William E. McCormack, minister of the First Congregational Church, Springfield, after which the meeting of the Pilgrim Fellowship stood adjourned.

THE STATUS OF THE DEBT OF HONOR IN MASSACHUSETTS, MAY, 1941

Speech delivered at the State Conference, Attleboro, Mass. May 17, 1941

By John A. Hawley

From 1914 to the end of 1921 all our Congregational ministers were urged to join an Annuity Plan, with the expectation that they would get $500 per year after they were sixty-five, if they had served thirty years or more in the Congregational ministry. Their widows were to receive $300. This $500 was to come from three sources. $100 was to come from their own payments. $200 was to come from the income from the Pilgrim Memorial Fund. And the last $200 was to come from the benevolences of our churches.

Those benevolences were then running about three million dollars per year; and it was expected that they would go up to five millions. If they had staid at three millions, or had gone to five millions, you would never have heard of the Debt of Honor. But, instead of going up, they have gone down to less than half of what they were; and consequently have put the last $200 of these annuities in jeopardy.

There are now about 1,250 of these annuitants, of whom one thousand are eligible for their annuities.

The present status of the Debt of Honor in Massachusetts is due to several things which were entirely beyond our control, such as: The Recession of 1937; the Hurricane of 1938; and the World War since 1939.

Besides these causes, there were many ministers and churches which saw the Debt of Honor too small. Very little was said about quotas, in the early months; but it was generally understood that we needed a million and a half dollars; or, an average of a dollar and a half per member for our entire denomination. One church of over 350 resident members sent in $15 and asked that the incident be closed. That would be about four and a quarter cents per member. I do not know what church they expected would be glad to make up the remaining one hundred and forty-five cents.

I have a list of thirty-six churches with an average membership of over 450, which have given altogether less than $3,000 to the Debt of Honor; or, an average of about seventeen and a half cents per member.

Besides all these churches which saw the Cause too small; there were many churches which refused to see it at all.

Over two hundred churches, out of six hundred and fourteen in Massachusetts, or just about one-third of all the churches, have given nothing to the Debt of Honor. While many of these are the smaller churches, the list also includes many large churches. There are thirty-two churches in the State with an average membership of three hundred and eighty, which gave nearly $20,000 to the apportionment in a single year, which have not given a cent to the Debt of Honor. Some of these churches have had good and sufficient reasons; but others have resorted to all sorts of excuses and alibis; until we are about ready to agree with the candidate for ordination who thought that procrastination was one of the doctrines of the Congregational denomination. If these old ministers come to destitution and starvation, a large part of the responsibility will rest upon these churches which either saw the matter too small, or refused to see it at all.

What, then, is our present status? In the entire country there has been raised about $630,000 of which Massachusetts has given about $140,000. The Debt of Honor Commission has decided that in general, twelve per cent of a normal year's Home Expenses is a fair total goal for the average church. Twelve per cent of the Home Expenses of all our churches in the State would be about $333,000. Our churches have given $140,000, leaving about $193,000 more which is needed. In other words, the task in Massachusetts is about two-fifths done.

Are there any Associations which have reached this twelve per cent quota? Just one. A few others are approaching the goal. While others are lagging far behind; having raised only one-eighth or one-twelfth of what they should.

How many churches in the State have reached a twelve per cent quota? Only twenty-eight. There are twelve others which have neared that goal. If we are generous enough to include them, then there would be only forty out of six hundred churches.

As we look at the picture: One-third of the churches having done nothing; only seven per cent coming up to their goal; and the entire task in the State only two-fifths done: I submit to you that an appropriate costume for me today would have been one of sackcloth and ashes; typical of the humiliation we ought to feel over the shame and disgrace that our beloved State has not done better.

How can we do it?

Our hope is in those who are willing to see the task in its full size and urgency.

There may be even a grain of hope in the churches which have done little or nothing. They certainly have not exhausted themselves by giving to this. They must have resources, if we can reach them.

There is real hope in what many individuals have done. A well-to-do man promised one hundred dollars, before church. After the story had been told in the morning service, he doubled his pledge, and his wife and five children all put in pledges. A woman whose pastor thought that she might give fifty dollars, gladly gave $500. A man in eastern Massachusetts told his minister he would give $100. After church, he said that he had raised his pledge two and a half times. and that he would try to get his friend, Mr. B., to match him, at $250.

There is real hope and heartening in what many churches have done. The French Church in Pittsfield has given $110. A German Church in Fitchburg with only 57 members has given $150. One of our Negro churches has sent in forty-nine pledges to the Debt of Honor. Go north from Springfield, and two churches in Northampton have given over $3,200. One in Greenfield over $1,400. One in Amherst over $2,500. Go south from Springfield and four churches in Hartford have given over $11,000, and four churches in New Haven have given over $19,000.

There is real encouragement in what the Associations can do. One Association with no very large churches, and with no very rich churches, has pledged over $10,000, coming within about $1,600 of its twelve per cent quota. We must work through the Associations: stirring the Executive Committees to resolute action; so that the churches will be willing and eager to do their part.

Again, there is tremendous appeal in the character of these aged annuitants. One of them, a man beloved across the whole county where he lived, died suddenly and left a widow who has been a cripple for twenty years. Would you like to go and tell her that the Congregational churches cannot make up the last two-fifths of her annuity? Some of these faithful old ministers are in desperate need of the full annuities, which they had every reason to believe would be available for them as they faced the uncertainties of old age.

Finally, there is confidence in the character of our denomination. Congregationalism represents democracy at its best. Our churches are made up of the substantial, intelligent, forward-looking, middle-class of society who have a sense of justice, and some conscience about the fulfillment of their obligations to these aged ministers and to God.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Moderator, delegates, and friends: We have in this Annual Meeting for the first time, beside the regular delegates, "Honorary Annual Members". At the time of our appeal for special support for the work of the Conference last fall the Trustees voted that every individual who contributed ten dollars or more should become an Honorary Annual Member of the Conference. Thirty-eight persons qualified for this Honorary membership: among them five ministers, two of them retired, one of them the pastor of an aided church; seventeen women and sixteen men, distributed through eleven of the Associations. I am happy to announce that members of our churches and friends of the Conference subscribed over $2,500. While speaking of the gifts of the churches, let me say that in eleven of the Associations the contributions toward our general benevolent program last year were in excess of the gifts of the year before. The Trustees also wish to have for the permanent record of the Conference "A Book of Memory" in which shall be recorded from the very beginning of the incorporation of the Massachusetts Home Misssionary Society all those who have made bequests in their wills to the Missionary Society, and since 1928 to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. That Book will have a place of honor in our office, and also at the Annual Meetings. In this way fitting recognition will be made of the generous support which the members of our churches are giving to the work of our fellowship.

It would not be out of order for me to review some of the items that enter into the service of the Conference to the churches and to the ministers.

There is, first of all, the investment of the trust funds of the churches. Over one hundred churches now commit to the care of the Trustees something over $600,000 — the funds of the individual churches. The Conference is now the representative in Massachusetts for the Church Building Society, and appropriations are made upon the investigation and recommendation of the State officers regarding the needs and obligations of the churches. We make grants to the weaker churches of the Commonwealth. I sometimes wonder why one church is called a "mission church" simply because it gets a grant from the State Conference in order to continue the preaching of the Gospel. I like to look upon all our churches — the strong churches, and the small churches — as outposts of the Kingdom. However, we must continue to make grants to those churches that need supplemental help.

We play an important part in the placement of pastors. I might have said this afternoon that of the eighty-one settlements made in Massachusetts this last year, fifty-one per cent came also under the care of the State Office, some of them entirely so. This is a service we are glad to render, and will continue to give as occasion arises.

Then there is the program of the Woman's Department, the salary of the Secretary and expenses of that Department, which serves so many of the churches through the organized work of the women; the Laymen's State Committee, and the activities it carries on; and the work for youth, through the Department of Education, the Pilgrim Fellowship, and the high-school conferences — four of them this year; all coming under the care and guidance of members of the Staff of the Conference.

In the matter of speakers, over a thousand appointments are made each year for the churches by the Speakers' Bureau, through the Conference Office. We are continuing what was begun several years ago in the program of Preaching Missions, believing that a neighboring minister, in a series of special services can be a great help in furthering the spiritual life of any church. This fall we are to have Dr. Clinton, the Preaching Missioner of the Board of Home Missions, in Massachusetts and we are glad to offer his services to several of our churches.

To the ministers, as a Conference we aid every young man who wishes to join the Annuity Fund, paying up to as high as seventy-five per cent of the first year's premium. We give to our ministers the benefit of the united registration in the Blue Cross, and are saving their families the added expense which has accompanied the increase in service.

We plan for our pastors as a help for their spiritual life the annual Convocations — the Retreats. Our interest in the pastor is not limited to supplementing his salary, nor helping him in time of emergency or need. We believe that if as pastors we may confer and consult with one another, if we may pray and worship together, it will result in the development of our own inner resources. This next September — September 15 and 16 — we are holding the Convocation for 1941 at Andover Newton Theological School. Dr. Stafford of Boston, Dr. Maurer of New Haven and Dr. Micklem of Oxford will be the three leaders of our thought.

For both churches and ministers we publish the "PILGRIM STATE NEWS", which is becoming year by year much more effective and interesting, under the able editorship of Rev. Raymond Blakney and Rev. Wilfrid H. Bunker.

For the Associations this past year, we held a conference for Moderators and Scribes, with twenty out of the twenty-one Associations represented. Out of that Conference, with its exchange of opinion and experience, I believe that already there is being felt an upward turn in the esprit de corps of the Associations of the State. The Conference is interested in helping all leaders in the Associations, and will this summer pay ten dollars toward the expense of any of the Association officers or committee members who wish to attend the United Christian Adult Movement Conference at Northfield.

I would like to speak of the progress that has been made in the relating of the larger to the smaller churches. We have developed this last year in the city of Woburn a partnership between the First Church and the Montvale Church. Dr. Robert Grey has become the pastor of both churches, and Vaughan Abercrombie, student assistant, has become the leader of the Sunday School and young people's work of both churches. These two men were in my office just this week to tell me of the advantages they saw for both churches, in this new relationship.

Something similar has been accomplished for the Central Church in Chelsea and the Baker-Maverick Church in East Boston. Last year I mentioned the relationship between the Payson Park Church, Belmont, and the Phillipston Church. Now the Plymouth Church in Belmont has taken under its wing the Lincoln Church in Brockton — the Colored Church. Returning from an appointment on a Sunday evening recently, I went to a meeting in the Town Hall of Belmont, and arrived in time to hear the Colored pastor of the Lincoln Church concluding his sermon. He was preaching to a hall filled with the members of the Plymouth Church. The Colored choir of the Brockton church was with their pastor. There was being established an intimate and friendly relationship, not simply between a strong church and a weaker sister, but between one of our white churches and a Colored church.

Something still more indicative of a fine co-operative spirit is the relationship that has developed in Framingham, between Grace Church, Plymouth Church, and the Edwards Church. Small in membership at the present time, the old church standing on the hill in Saxonville has become quite a burden to the loyal band of resident members. By formal vote the members of both Grace and Plymouth Churches have designated a part of their apportionment giving, through the Conference, for the support of the pastor in the Saxonville Church. Hope Church in Springfield has undertaken to do a similar thing for the church in Oakham and for the Chapel at Sixteen Acres.

We adopted two years ago the "Program of Progress" for our churches. We have in the Conference several committees and departments of work. The "Program of Progress" has an unlimited number of items in it — things that might be attempted in the church. The several committees were taking this many-sided program and each was approaching the churches with the ideas for furthering its particular plans and suggestions. We have discovered that there was consequently a good deal of overlapping. So the committee chairmen have been meeting together, and have developed a Co-ordinating Council, whereby the several committees will unite their suggestions along the lines of the "Program of Progress" under three age-group Divisions — the Adult, the Young People, and the Children. These three Divisions will then pass on to the churches a correlated program for interests of these age groups. We hope soon to have a united, progressive program working through this new Co-ordinating Council.

During the year we have consummated the affiliation between the Congregational Church Union and the Conference. The Congregational Church Union was a society of ministers and laymen whose particular objective was to assist in the building of new churches. They did a splendid piece of work. The C. C. U. (as it is commonly called) and the Trustees of the Conference have been practically united in one organization. The Congregational Church Union will continue simply because there are some reversionary clauses in some of its property titles. However, the main thing is that to the Conference has been transferred not only some of the property of the C. C. U., but the great work of financial assistance to churches which the C. C. U. has done within the Boston area. We, as a Conference, ought to take up this missionary task and carry it on over all the State. I have listed here seven building projects where as a Conference we ought to assist the church in building an adequate sanctuary or a parish house for its educational program. In Pinehurst, Billerica, they started a church basement and roofed it over. in the hope some time of finishing it. In the meantime a State highway has cut across the property, so that they can't build in that spot. They have bought land to the rear and side. This is the only Protestant church in the community. The Church Building Society of New York bas said to them, "We will give you $5,000 if the Conference of Massachusetts will give you $5,000." We ought to do it. It is a challenge and an opportunity. It means $10,000 for the Pinehurst Church, and it would be a real missionary effort. Other opportunities are the Riverdale Church, Dedham; Park Avenue Church, Arlington; the Westminster Church, which was burned, with only $7,000 insurance.

The Plymouth Church, Belmont, is about forty years old, and was aided for thirty-five years — up to five years ago. Since this church was organized there has grown up the Payson Park Church, a mile away, where they have congregations of five hundred. On the other side of Belmont there has developed the Winn Brook and the Belmont Hill sections, — both good residential districts, three-quarters of a mile from the Plymouth Church. Two months ago one of the denominations of Boston asked if it might build in that new area. The Council met, called in the pastors of Belmont and other representatives. It was decided that this was the opportunity for Plymouth Church, and the Plymouth people caught a vision of what they might do: move their church into this new area, and serve this larger community, where there is a public school with seven hundred children in the sixth grade and under, more than half of them Protestants. They had made up their mind this was to be their task in years to come. Then a week after the annual meeting, on Saturday morning, the church was burned to the ground. Now they must move and build again. They have bought a new lot in the new area. They want to build a sanctuary and parish house that will meet the needs of these homes and families, a church just as fine as any in suburban Boston. This is a tremendous task for the present membership—the challenge is greater than they should face alone. Here is an opportunity for the denomination to step in — a Congregational opportunity. We have been given the first chance. Can we take it? The Conference ought to have a Building Fund, and it ought to carry on and continue the work of the C. C. U. of Boston, so that we can supplement and aid a church program such as is desired by the Plymouth Church in Belmont.

I hope you read the report of the Churches and Colleges Committee today. There are in New England 20,000 Congregational students; in Greater Boston, between 5,000 and 6,000. Rev. Fred Bennett of Union Church tells me that in his parish there are fifty schools, such as hair-dressers', art schools, music schools, where boys and girls from the homes of Massachusetts come. In Harvard there are 1,000 Congregational boys, in Radcliffe 800 Congregational girls, in Wellesley a great many. There is one denomination in Cambridge that has a man giving his full time as college pastor to relate the boys and girls of his denomination to the churches of that denomination in Cambridge. In Boston one of the denominations not strong in New England has a pastor giving all his time to the students of that denomination in Greater Boston. With the exception of "Mass. State", we are relying on the local pastors. These busy pastors of our churches in college towns are doing what they can, are giving what time they can in attempting to meet the opportunities. The Committee on Churches and Colleges brings in a recommendation to you: that we attempt an experiment whereby we seek to do as a denomination something definite, something progressive and concrete for the Congregational students in our colleges. And the need is not just simply to touch the Congregational boys and girls; but in these areas to bring religion into the life and thinking of these boys and girls who will be the leaders in our communities.

Congregationalism is not providing the leadership for its own churches and societies. Of the American Board missionaries, only 45% are trained in our Congregational schools. Only 22% of the ministers who became pastors of Congregational churches in 1937, 1938 and 1939 were trained in Congregational seminaries. We in Massachusetts have as fine an opportunity as any section of the land, and we have been simply neglecting it. Here are the students, the churches, the leadership requirements. One of the finest pieces of missionary work is this work of the church for the students in the college communities of the State.

In regard to the Military Camps, let me recount what we are attempting to do with the other denominations, through the Massachuetts Council of Churches. The problem arose on the Cape, when Camp Edwards was opened. Dr. Pond of Falmouth was the leader, and set the pace for the other Camp areas. The Council decided to have a united Camp Service Committee, representing the several denominations. Mr. Ollendorff, Mr. Long, Mr. Penney, Mr. Tamblyn, and Mr. LeMay are our representatives. We began with one director, whose job was to make a study of the whole field. He served until the first of May. It has now been decided to have in the four Camp areas — Edwards, Devens, Westover, and Boston — Camp Pastors who will represent all the denominations. You have received the appeal that has come from our committee, suggesting that on May 25th a special offering be taken to raise our share toward this united work with the boys from our homes who are in these Military Camps. We want also to have funds whereby we can assist the churches in these areas to provide programs that will make a churchly approach to the boys of the Camps. The Camp Pastor is not going to be a Y. M. C. A. director, to put on entertainments, or open a canteen; but he ought to enable the church to be a real church in its service to the boys away from home. Let the church be more of a church in these particular areas.

All the pastors have received the announcement of our Conference Plan for next fall, inviting them to enter into a program for the strengthening and encouraging of the churches: a simple, united evangelistic effort. The basis of it is the Christian stewardship of life. The modern Prodigal Son lives near some Protestant church today. He is lost from the Christian fellowship. This is a program which seeks to save these men and women and youth who are "lost". It is to be conducted by the people of the church, under the leadership of the pastor; first, to renew the loyalty of the members, and to bring them back into the life and worship of the church; second, a program of lay evangelistic visiting, whereby trained leaders of the church will visit, two by two, homes where there are suitable prospects for church membership. A great deal has been done in this way in Worcester and Adams, and is being planned in Everett, Springfield, and Woburn. We are hoping that every church that does not have a better plan will make some effort in line with this, so that during next year we can increase church attendance by 10%, church membership and church giving by a like amount.

I believe that, if together we can encourage the "out-reach" of the churches, we shall see them arise in a splendid way for the help of all people in this troublous time. This is a day of opportunity for the church of Freedom, of Faith, of Fellowship — when our church with its heritage, its polity, democracy and faith can serve the nation. Who knows whether we have not "come to the Kingdom for such a time as this?" If ever there were a year when we should enter upon a program of Loyalty and Evangelism, this is the year. Such is the program your Trustees propose. We invite you to co-operate one with the other, that we may go forward in the Name of the Lord.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

I heard Prof. Rufus Jones, eminent and beloved Friend, tell recently of a call he had the honor to make, upon Baron Friedrich von Hügel, the great Roman Catholic mystic. After an interesting visit, Mr. Jones asked von Hügel on what grounds the Roman Church would canonize a person and make him a saint. This was von Hügel's reply: "First he must have been absolutely loyal to the Church. Secondly, he must have done an impossible thing, that is, a miracle. Thirdly, he must have had a radiant face." I am glad to pay sincere tribute to some ministers and laymen this past year, whom I have met, who could easily, by this test, make the grade to sainthood in the Congregational and Christian Churches in this Commonwealth.

Many of our churches have been in a depression, either financial or spiritual or both; some beset by a sense of frustration, many people bewildered by a clouded vision of God in the present world disorder, and nearly all embarrassed by the prevailing sensate culture in which we are living. And yet, against these heavy odds, both minister and people are bearing witness to Christ, in word and in life, with the intelligence of a philosopher and the devotion of a saint. I might mention many, but there is a church that suffered the largest percentage of loss in the state. Last year it had a total of two members, and admitted none during the year, but lost a total of two members, or one hundred per cent. But it paid its entire allotment account. It is a Congregational church and its minister is a Baptist.

Here are three churches in a small community in another part of the state which have written in asking for one of us to meet with them some evening soon to confer about the three churches uniting into one church, preferably a Congregational church. President Timberlake has asked me to go to them next Monday evening. I do not believe in stealing a church or a minister from another denomination. I believe too much in interdenominationalism. But these various groups have decided among themselves that they prefer our fellowship because such a church is governed entirely by the Congregation with no outside authority, but with all the outside help possible. I shall work with them to this end, because the world-wide fellowship in Christ is far more valuable than membership in any one particular denomination. The three churches involved are a Methodist, a Baptist and a church named the Pedo-Baptist Congregational Society (Unitarian). There's a good interdenominational co-operation right there in that one name. And speaking of interdenominationalism, here is another one: the Congregational Church in Nahant, a member of the Essex South Association, has as its official name: "Independent Methodist Society." This confirms what many of us have realized, that Congregational and Independent are at times synonymous.

This co-operation among churches is in line with the trend of the times and in it lies the hope of the world of tomorrow. And in larger areas of fellowship it is my strong conviction that every Congregational, every Protestant minister, so far as it lies in him, should cultivate a most friendly relation with the Roman Catholic priest and with the Jewish rabbi in his locality.

An eminent Jewish rabbi in Greater Boston told me, not long ago, that he had a class in his synagogue every year, in the Life and Teaching of Jesus. And he added: "I look upon Jesus as the greatest of our prophets."

And in line with this thought, I want to add another word, namely, the increasing importance and value of the older men in the ministry. The times today, and especially tomorrow, demand deep thinking disciplined by wide experience. The very existence of the church is being attacked by the insurgent barbarism across the ocean and by the ignorant indifference right here at home. I yield to no one in my admiration of the young men in many of our pulpits and theological schools and churches. They are seeing visions and dreaming dreams, and I like the splendid words of George William Curtis, great literary leader of a hundred years ago: "Where, without the dreams of young men, lighting the future with human possibility, would be the deeds of old men dignifying the past with human achievement?"

Nevertheless, the older men, with their rich content of experience, their insight into human nature, their Christian philosophy of God and man, provided they are still alive and vital and keep their minds open to the light, are desperately needed in the leadership of the church and the nation in the difficult days ahead. In law and other learned professions, an older man, with open mind, is likely to be headed for the President's cabinet in Washington, or for a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court. Let us, in the service of Christ, honor ourselves by utilizing both the young men and the older men, in the work of the Church of Christ.

This reminds me of long pastorates, that is, those dating from 1915 and earlier. There were 22 last year. The palm for the longest still belongs to Rev. Andrew Groop of the Finnish Church in Fitchburg, holding a record of 46 years as pastor of that one church. Dr. Mitchell of this Second Church, where we are now holding our Annual Meeting, celebrates the 40th anniversary of his pastorate this very year. And Rev. Eber E. Craig in the neighboring town of Attleboro Falls, has been in that pastorate since 1915, and Rev. Arthur G. Cummings has been at his Middleboro church since 1905. The 22 longest pastorates, that is, from 1915 or before, have been reduced to 20 this year, by two men being promoted to larger areas of service in Massachusetts; and I thank God they are still among us today. To name them is to praise them: Rev. Raymond Calkins of Cambridge, and Rev. Fred V. Stanley of Cohasset. Here are two more reasons for the value of the older men in Christian leadership.

LONGEST PASTORATES

Charles B. McDuffee, Saugus, Cliftondale	1915

The 26 churches with a membership of 1,000 and over remain the same as recorded in my report last year. Naturally they cluster around the largest cities. Of these 6 are in Hampden Association, in and around Springfield and Holyoke; 5 are in Suffolk West Association in Boston, Newton and Brookline; and 5 are in Woburn Association in Melrose, Reading, Winchester, Wakefield and Stoneham. The others are:

3 in Suffolk South
2 in Suffolk North
1 in Hampshire
1 in Middlesex-Mendon
1 in Old Colony
1 in Worcester Central
1 in Pilgrim

They are as follows:

One hundred and twenty-eight churches reported no additions on confession of faith.

One hundred and ten churches did not pay their allotment account, and 10 of these were in the largest membership group.

The following churches may observe anniversaries in 1941 (25 years and multiples) as follows, beginning with the oldest Congregational church in America:

ANNIVERSARIES OBSERVABLE

Barnstable, West	1616
Gloucester, West	1716

Worcester, Hadwen Park	1916

I still have increasing admiration for the high intelligence and warm devotion of the leaders and people in our rural churches. They cannot make grandstand plays, because there are not enough people in the vicinity to fill even a small grandstand. But these communities are feeding our cities and city churches both with food and with people. And the boys and young men, the girls and young women, now in our rural churches may some day become the sons-in-law and the daughters-in-law of you who are now bank presidents, mill agents, school teachers, deacons, trustees, ministers in our large city churches. It behooves the city church to look well after the welfare of the rural church.

I still believe in the value of cultivating the friendship of our people of foreign stock, who constitute about two-thirds of our Massachusetts population. They are here to stay with us. I beg of you to get acquainted with any of them who may be living near you. Invite them to your church if they are not already connected with some other church. They are well worth knowing and you, whose ancestors came over on an earlier boat, are worth knowing. In any case, we are all of us in the same boat now, and the waters outside are rough, and the sky overhead is dark and angry. You'd better get acquainted with your neighbors. We do well to remember that the foreigners and the Negroes are not problems. They, like us, are just people, individual persons, whom Christ thought were worth dying for, even while they were yet sinners.

It seems to me ridiculous to think of every person who is different from us as a problem, when he is just a person. Thomas Paine, 175 years ago said: "The sublime and the ridiculous are often so closely related that it is difficult to class them separately. One step above the sublime makes the ridiculous, and one step above the ridiculous makes the sublime again."

Church work, for Jesus Christ, is great work, at times difficult, at times exasperating, at times baffling, but always great, and tremendously worth while, and just now, the most needed work that one can do.

We remember these servants of Christ with appreciation and high regard

* New Funds, receiving interest for part of the year, or funds which had changes in the principal during the year.

May 12, 1941

Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, D.D., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society,
Boston, Massachusetts

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1941, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid checks or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1941; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1941, has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1941, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF WOMAN'S WORK

This second year as Executive Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work has been for me one of unceasing activity and constant challenge. I am grateful for this opportunity for service.

The work of this office seems to resolve itself into four aspects: office work which includes interviews and correspondence, committee work, field work and editorial and creative writing.

As member ex officio of all committees of the Department of Woman's Work, I attended all meetings, planned the agenda for business and executive committee meetings and conferences of district chairmen and for special institutes. Editor and major contributor to the two pages in the monthly issues of the "Pilgrim State News" entitled "Massachusetts Women," I also assist with the Education Bulletin, which is published by the Education Committee of the Department of Woman's Work.

Program helps and worship services have been made available to our women's organizations this year, some of these the contribution of women in our churches, our office in this way becoming an educational center and a clearing house for much helpful material.

This office made two direct contacts with the local church woman's organization this year, in the fall when the year's program of Pilgrim Hall meetings was sent and in the spring when the Reading List was sent. Other important material accompanied them. Distribution otherwise takes place through district meetings and is made by district chairmen.

My field work comes about only as I am personally asked for and when there is no interference with committee or other special work. I believe it is, however, exceedingly important, as after all woman's work is done in the churches. In the fall my assistance was especially solicited in many churches where reorganization of the women's societies was going on. I have had nearly fifty local church engagements, practically all of them in different churches from last year, and twelve district and association appointments. Several others have been out of state and with secular organizations. At that, many invitations had to be declined because of other responsibilities.

As a part of my general conference duties, I am a member of the Conference Religious Education Committee, scribe of the Missions and Apportionment Committee, convener of the Children's Division and a staff member of the Adult Division. I have conducted the Speakers' Bureau with its over 800 engagements, not counting numerous recommendations. Efforts have been made and more are on foot for the coming year to render more effective service through this Bureau, particularly in the way of providing churches which have not had missionary guest speakers in recent years.

Most of my vacation last summer was spent in the Dakotas observing our missionary work among the Indians. I was a member of the faculty of the Northern New England School of Religious Education, a member of the Conference Planning Council which met at the United Christian Adult Movement Conference at Northfield and I attended some of the sessions of the Pilgrim Fellowship Conference. I also attended the mid-winter meetings at Evanston reporting as a member of the Family Life Committee appointed at the conference of women state presidents last year. I am now serving as a member of the committee setting up the Institute of International Relations to be held at Wellesley in July, this institute being sponsored by the Council for Social Action as it co-operates with the Friends.

Respectfully submitted,

Naomi G. Ekdahl
(Mrs. Adolph G.)

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF WOMAN'S WORK

As the reports of the Standing Committees are to be printed, and will be available at the annual meeting in May, this report will be an outline of the work done in the Department as a whole. There have been four Executive Committee meetings; the annual three-day Retreat at Adelynrood in June and three all-day meetings at Congregational House. The first gave direction and courage for the work of the year ahead, as Mrs. White, Miss Uline and Mrs. Whiting brought messages from the larger work, and Miss Fonnie Davis and Mrs. Albert Patten led the worship services. One cannot adequately describe Adelynrood, but all who have experienced its inspiration know what it means to the Department work. The regular meetings followed the usual business, except that half of each day has been given to the business of the "Second Mile Gift Committee" — the special group for the study and promotion of a united missionary gift — under the leadership of the Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Morton Dunning.

The April meeting of the committee was well fitted to close this year's work and to plan for even better in the year ahead. The entire Executive Committee together with the Second Mile Gift Committee, the Education Committee and its District Education Chairmen all met together in sessions similar to the meetings of the Missions Council at Evanston. At this time a tour was made of the Congregational offices at 14 Beacon Street, and at the afternoon session there were present presidents of Woman's Work in New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

The Box Work, or Friendly Service Committee, under the chairmanship of Miss Amelia Burrill, reports that even in this time of many and varied emergency calls their work has held its place well in the forefront of our activities. There have been many calls for available education material from a number of new groups and new personal interest is everywhere evident.

The new Children's Work Committee, Mrs. Harold Hannum of Shelburne Falls, Chairman, has made its work definitely felt in many of the churches. Its first task, — a study of needs throughout the State — revealed a lack of leadership training, as well as lack of knowledge of the fine printed material available. There is great need for missionary education.

The Education Committee, Mrs. Franklin Field, Chairman, has promoted the reading list, and prepared the chart displayed at the State Conference. It has published three bulletins of suggestions helpful in Woman's Work, and has made a special effort to extend the use of denominational publications.

Interest and attendance have been maintained in the Pilgrim Hall Meetings, and Mrs. Allbright and her committee wish to express their appreciation to those who have contributed to their programs. We wish especially to thank Dr. Page for bringing to the March meeting his most interesting history of the Conference from its incorporation in 1799 to the present time.

The committee on Social Action and Christian Citizenship, of which Mrs. Erwin L. Shaver is Chairman, held its first meeting in June. Each member chose the subject in which she was most interested, spent the summer studying and then made a compilation of materials which are on file in the office of the executive secretary. The materials are of great value to those wishing to plan meeting programs or study groups. The state was divided into regions and two regional meetings have been held.

The first meeting of importance in the year's work was held at Edwards Church, Northampton, with Franklin, Hampden, Hampshire and Berkshire participating. The occasion was the visit of Mrs. McClintock to Massachusetts. The second important event was also held in the western part of the state — the first Ministers' Wives' Retreat held at Northfield. The speaker was Mrs. Ralph Harlow of Northampton.

A Retreat for Ministers' Wives of the Eastern area was held on March 31, at Andover-Newton Theological School, with Prof. A. Philip Guiles of the Faculty delivering the main address.

Two Regional vice-chairmen have been appointed from the Worcester and Springfield areas to consult with the chairman and Business Committee on matters pertaining to work in their part of the state.

The Executive Committee is grateful to Mrs. Medlicott and Miss Dorothy Cushing of the American Board who addressed them at the February meeting.

Five members of the Executive Committee attended the United Christian Adult Conference at Northfield in July, and more than a hundred delegates from the Massachusetts Woman's Work were at General Council Sessions at Berkeley in August. The Chairman and Executive Secretary represented the department at the Mid-winter sessions of the Missions Council at Evanston, and Mrs. Field was a member of the Southern Study Tour.

Though the report of the Second Mile Gift Committee will be given in detail elsewhere, this report wishes to recognize the importance and far-reaching influence of its work. In its threefold effort we shall serve State, Home and Foreign needs through a new gift, over and above all former giving. The amount raised will be divided equally with Conference, Home and American Boards.

In January Mrs. Dunning resigned from all committee work. Mrs. Field was appointed Vice-Chairman of the Woman's Department, and as such, became automatically chairman of the Second Mile Gift Committee. We should pause for a moment to consider that the ideal of this committee represents a vision, an idea, and a deep desire of Massachusetts women — namely — a statewide, united missionary gift — a voluntary "Second Mile" contribution from each church group.

We very much regret Mrs. Dunning's resignation from the Business Committee, where she served faithfully for four years.

The Chairman feels very grateful for the fine fellowship, the inspiration, and the opportunity for service in the Department of Woman's Work.

Respectfully submitted,

Augusta F. Clark, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

One result of the coördinated program of the state conference which is in process of development has been to reduce the number of meetings of the regular committees. This committee has held three meetings since the last state conference, in which it has been engaged with various items of business the chief of which are noted in this report.

1. The Coördinated Program. The purpose of this program and its general plan have made it predominantly educational and, therefore, a major concern of this committee. It grew out of a joint meeting of chairmen of committees with the conference staff in which the need for a more closely coördinated program of work in the churches which the state conference might promote was strongly felt. This was followed by a two-day meeting of conference committee members at Concord in November, 1939, then by a meeting of committee chairmen with staff members, at which it was agreed that the desired coördination would best be achieved by developing a well balanced program for each age group: children, young people, and adults, with each conference committee contributing to its development and sharing in its promotion.

Further staff and group meetings were held out of which has grown the plan of "Committee and Program Organization" described in a mimeographed outline which has been quite widely distributed. In its simplest terms, this plan calls for the organization of three age-group divisions: Children, Young People, and Adults, on each of which each of the conference committees are represented, together with other persons qualified to contribute toward the building of its specific program, and to each of which a staff member of the conference is assigned. To save an excessive number of large meetings, an Executive Committee, known as the Program Directors is proposed, to consist of the conference staff and the chairman of the conference committees and of the three divisions. All of these head up in a Coördinating Council, composed of the staff and the entire membership of the conference committees, and the Woman's Department.

The details of this program were worked out by a group composed of the conference staff and chosen members of the various committees, meeting at Northfield, July 20–27, 1940; in connection with the Adult Conference and the Religious Education Conference held at that time. They have been further studied and developed in meetings of the conference committees, the age-group divisions, and program directors.

While it will take time and much careful work to fully develop this plan, it is the conviction of those who have worked on it that it will accomplish two important ends: the creation of a better balanced program for the churches which the state conference can heartily recommend to local associations and churches, and a better understanding on the part of each conference committee of the purposes and work of the other committees and more effective co-operation on the part of all committees.

2. Children's Work. At one of the earlier meetings above mentioned, our committee voted that the responsibility for developing and promoting the program of children's work be delegated to the Department of Woman's Work of the State Conference, with the understanding that the chairman of the Woman's Department Committee on Religious Education be always a member of the state committee on religious education.

The Woman's Department has accepted this responsibility and is meeting it with its usual energy and effectiveness and with increasingly good results. In addition to practical suggestions on the best methods of work with children in the local church, attention has been given to the strengthening of leadership training for workers with children through institutes, loan libraries, and the use of the many excellent community training schools and summer conferences.

3. Young People's Work. This centers largely in the Pilgrim Fellowship which has made considerable progress in Massachusetts during the past year. Detailed information as to its organization and program are given in the folder "The Pilgrim Fellowship in Massachusetts" which can be secured at this meeting of the state conference or from the conference office. We strongly urge every minister and every leader and worker with young people to become thoroughly informed with reference to this important movement and to give it the heartiest possible support.

The Pilgrim Fellowship summer conferences have been very successful. Three were held in the summer of 1940, two for high school young people at Amherst and a leader's planning conference at Wilbraham. For 1941 four conferences are planned as follows:

At Amherst, June 22–29, High School age, Rev. Albert Penner, Dean
Wilbraham, June 22–29, Leaders Conference, Rev. Ray Gibbons, Dean
Wilbraham, June 29–July 6, High School age, Rev. Pierson Harris, Dean
Franklin, June 21–28, High School age, Rev. William Usher, Dean.

The committee cannot too strongly urge our churches to make the fullest possible use of these conferences and of the Conference of Religious Education at Northfield and other summer conferences for more advanced work. Full information as to dates, cost, nature of each conference, etc., will be sent to each minister as in past years. The summer conference has proved its value as one of our best means of training and enlisting of workers in the church school and in the church at large.

The committee calls attention to another item in connection with the Pilgrim Fellowship and that is the Massachusetts Council, made up of two representatives appointed by each local association and four from the senates of the summer conferences. Most of the associations are appointing representatives to this council but a few have not done so as yet. We urge that every association make such appointment and provide for the necessary expense of attendance upon meetings of the Council which are not numerous, but are important. The experience which the young people have in this Council is the best sort of training for church work and will richly repay the moderate cost.

4. Adult Work. Of especial significance in this field is the New England Regional Conference on Adult Work to be held this summer in connection with the Northfield Conference of Religious Education during the last week of its session, July 19–26. The conference of last summer was inspiring and full of practical helpfulness. Any church that will secure the attendance of some of its men and women will be well repaid. Its significance has been recognized by the state conference in its vote to meet a share of the expenses of any member of a state or association committee, up to $10, who will attend this conference next July. We commend this to the attention of each association and each local church.

5. Week Day Religious Education. There is now before our state legislature a bill which, if passed, will permit pupils to be excused from the public schools for the purpose of religious instruction under suitable conditions and supervision. There seems to be a fair chance that this bill may be passed. If it is, it will create a situation that should be of concern to every pastor and every church. There is real danger that our Protestant churches may be confronted by an opportunity and a responsibility which they are not adequately prepared to meet. We recommend that this subject be given careful study by the leaders of our churches. The Education Department of the Massachusetts Council of Churches has made this one of its major items of work and can give helpful information.

6. Director of Religious Education. For several years this committee has called attention to the need for a full time director of religious education without results. We urgently recommend and request that this matter be given attention. It is simply impossible for the important work for which this committee is responsible to be carried on with any effectiveness without more continuous skilled leadership. This is strongly felt by the educational committees of the various associations. At a meeting of these committees held two years ago it was requested that the educational director should meet with the educational committees of the associations at least twice during the year. It was also requested that a series of institutes be held throughout the state. The Pilgrim Fellowship calls for active service if its growth is to continue. As has been intimated, the Coördinated Program is largely educational and will call for close attention. These are but a few of the reasons why the Massachusetts Conference, the largest in the country, should be no longer content with a minor fraction of the time of one secretary in this department.

None of this is any reflection on the ability and skill of Mr. Bower. The committee fully appreciates the value of his services and what he has accomplished in this office. It is impossible, however, to do justice to the religious educational interests of our churches or to provide the needed leadership and service under the present one-third time arrangement, no matter how able the person may be. We therefore request that this matter be given immediate and careful attention by the Trustees and that provision be made in the budget for more adequate leadership in this department.

7. At a recent meeting of the Trustees a vote was passed asking this committee to investigate the causes of the decreasing membership and attendance in the church schools of the state. This request was considered by the committee and a special committee was appointed to study the problem and to make recommendations for its solution. The situation is not limited to Massachusetts but is widespread throughout the country and in churches of other denominations as well as our own. Studies that have been made reveal at least two contributing causes: the decrease in the number of children which is having its effect upon public school enrollment as well as that of church schools, and the general feeling that the program of our church schools does not command the interest of children in comparison with other programs which emphasize creative activity. The special committee appointed to study this matter consists of Mr. W. P. Buckwalter (chairman), Rev. W. R. Usher, Mrs. Marcus Morton, Dr. Harry T. Stock, and Prof. Arthur W. Leighton. They will report with recommendations at as early a date as possible.

For the Committee,

Herbert W. Gates, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MORAL AND SOCIAL WELFARE

Because of resignations and the inability of members of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare to be present at meetings of this committee it has been in a rather disorganized state since the last annual meeting of the Conference.

At a meeting in the fall Rev. Roswell F. Hinkelman of Framingham was elected chairman and Mrs. Benjamin C. Lane graciously consented to serve again as secretary.

The committee has been represented at hearings at the State House where we have opposed the proposed lottery for old-age assistance, favored a bill which would prohibit the sale of liquor on Sundays, and opposed pari-mutuel betting at horse and dog tracks. We have co-operated with the Massachusetts Council of Churches, the Massachusetts Civic League and other groups to arouse sentiment in such matters as these coming up before the present legislature.

Our committee is represented on the three age-group divisions (Children's, Young People's, and Adult's) through which our Conference is seeking to carry on more effectively the educational work of our various state committees. The chairman of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare represented it during the Adult Conference at Northfield last summer when plans for these age-group divisions were set up by members of the staff and various committees and departments of our state work.

A few churches and individuals have written to this committee and have been helped in matters of refugee work or specific programs and speakers.

We have sought to get the matter of social action introduced into the programs of Association meetings, particularly emphasizing the need of churches and ministers being aware of and utilizing the resources already available in city, state, and federal agencies that can help in solving some of the specific problems of individuals within our churches.

We have co-operated with the Council for Social Action in the total educational program, particularly seeking for a wider reading of the magazine, "Social Action."

A hope that this committee might bring together the Social Action chairmen of the various Associations once or twice during the year to discuss and plan for a program within the Association and the local church has not materialized as yet, but we believe it would be an effective way in which this committee might serve during the coming year, and would make for a more concerted program throughout the state.

We would like to commend the Conference of the United Christian Adult Movement to be held at Northfield this summer from July 19–26 and urge that churches or associations send one or more adults to it, for this would give a real stimulus to the work of social action and the total adult work in our churches and Associations.

Florence G. Lane, Secretary
Roswell F. Hinkelman, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

To meet present opportunities and to plant seeds of constructive effort which shall bear fruit later, has been the twofold aim of the Committee on Missions and Apportionment this past year.

A survey of the minutes of its seven meetings, and one sub-committee meeting, show the following promotional and educational projects carried out:

1. Setting up an intensive schedule of appointments for Rev. George Shepherd of China during the first half of December, in such areas as Fall River, New Bedford, Middleboro, Cambridge, Melrose, Fitchburg and Lunenburg; also co-operating in using certain available dates of Dr. Hugh Vernon White.

2. Preparing of brief Calendar items by Mr. Macnair of the committee, designed to focus the attention of our Church people on the work of our State Conference and missionary interests generally.

3. The holding of an institute for Church missionary committees, benevolence treasurers, Pastors and others interested, from the four greater Boston Associations, at Newton Center on January 12th. A most successful gathering, with 200 in attendance, for help in preparing which our appreciation goes to Rev. James Walter, as well as those who took part in the program.

4. Copies of the program of this gathering were sent to all the Association Missionary Committee chairmen in the state, with an accompanying letter, suggesting the value of similar gatherings in their areas, and offering the services of this committee toward that end.

A similar gathering is projected for the Worcester area on May 21, in conjunction with a laymen's gathering at which Moderator Sweet will be present.

5. The committee has tried to see that new ministers coming into the state are put in touch with 14 Beacon Street as soon as possible, meeting the State Conference staff and the officers of the various boards. The minister is the key person in the missionary activity of the Church.

6. At the suggestion of the committee, a letter was sent out from the state office to 31 Churches which have been "non-giving Churches" over a period of three years, with a very favorable response.

7. A representative of this committee was appointed on each of the three age-group divisions, Children's, Youth, and Adult, in line with the effort to channel the work of the various state committees through these three age-groups.

The committee has the following plans in mind as future projects, and would name them at this time as recommendations:

(a) A meeting of all Association Missionary Committee chairmen in early May, between the Association meetings and the State Conference.

(b) A get-together of Association Moderators and Scribes, chairmen of Association Missionary Committees, Religious Education Committees, Laymen's Committees, and presidents of the various Women's Districts. on Saturday, May 17th, at 1 P.M., during the State Conference at Attleboro.

(c) It recommends that the State Laymen's Committee this fall sponsor, in various parts of the state, meetings of those interested in Church finance, specifically those responsible for the Every Member Canvass, with a view to keeping a well-balanced stewardship approach in all Church giving.

The committee has worked in close conjunction with the Department of Woman's Work, having Mrs. Clark, state chairman, as an active member of the committee, also Mrs. Ekdahl, Secretary of Woman's Work, as convener and chairman of this committee.

We have also had the most cordial co-operation from the Missions Council, Mr. Walter being made an ex-officio member of the committee, and sitting in on most of its meetings.

Mission study books were purchased for the various Association Missionary leaders.

The ever willing support and helpful advice from Mr. Timberlake, President of the Conference, has been appreciated.

We were sorry to lose one of our committee during the year through resignation on account of ill health, Mrs. Morton Dunning of Wellesley Hills. In her place we were pleased to welcome Mrs. Franklin G. Field of Brighton, who has already been so active in the work of the Woman's Department.

The chairman is deeply grateful for the fine support which has come from all members of the committee, the many fruitful suggestions and the willingness to accept assignments for carrying out its work, especially the efficient work of Mrs. Ekdahl as secretary of the committee.

Surely any adequate facing up to the total task of the Church must include a place for its missionary program in all its aspects. The crucial condition of the world only makes this the more obvious, confirming us in our faith that in Christ alone is there redemption for the world. All Christian people, ministers and laity alike, may well ponder these three questions: Is your God big enough to share? Are you sharing Him? Can you keep Him and not share Him?

Gifts to the Apportionment from the Churches of Massachusetts in 1940 were slightly less than the year before. The loss of $854 however, was not borne proportionately. In fact our own State Conference showed a gain of $1,640 and the Council for Social Action a gain of $125. The Board of Home Missions was the heaviest loser, with a net loss of $1,998; the American Board's loss was $591; and the Boston Seamen's Friend Society's loss was $30.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITY AND STANDARDS FOR THE MINISTRY

The Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, continuing the helpful policy of the two previous years, held a fourth conference meeting with Associational scribes and chairmen of committees on ministerial standing on October 1, 1940, at Park Church in Worcester. We have had, also, two meetings by ourselves. Following the expressed purpose of these four conference meetings to bring about a greater degree of uniformity relative to ministerial standards throughout the state, the Committee on Polity offers for approval the following "Licensure Standards and Procedure", to be presented at the Annual Meeting of the State Conference in Attleboro.

Licensure Standards and Procedure

A. Purpose

Licensure gives the privilege of preaching wherever invited and of fulfilling the functions of a Christian Minister in church work and public worship, except conducting funeral services and performing the rites of Baptism and the Lord's Supper (which, however, may be authorized by special vote of the particular Church, with the approval of the Association), and except performing the marriage ceremony, when strict conformity to the Law of the state must be observed.

B. Requirements

1. Resident active membership in a Congregational-Christian Church for at least one year.
2. Appearance before Association Committee on Credentials, for examination.
   a. Actual experience in Christian service.
   b. Satisfactory knowledge of Congregational history and polity. (See: Fagley's "Congregational Churches" and Burton's "Manual", pp. 1–72).
   c. Written sermon, which candidate may be asked to preach.
   d. Adaptability for Congregational-Christian leadership, as judged by Committee's inquiry and observation.
   e. Evidence of having met standard scholastic requirements: graduation from a college of recognized standing, and the completion of one year in a theological seminary of recognized standing.
   f. Written statements on: Call to the Christian ministry, Christian experience and beliefs, reason for seeking licensure, and reason for seeking licensure in Congregational Churches.
   g. An expressed purpose to proceed later with ordination.

C. Procedure

1. After thorough examination of the candidate, the Committee on Credentials shall refer the applicant to (a) the Committee on Polity and (b) the Association, which has power to accept or reject the applicant.
2. Each licentiate should have an adviser, who shall confer with the licentiate at least once a year.
3. Ordinarily, the license should be issued for one year only; and it should be renewed annually, upon application.

4. Normally, the license — and especially the renewal of the license — should be sought within the bounds of the Association where the licentiate is carrying on his work.
5. A service of consecration should be held at the time of the initial licensure, if possible. (See Burton's "Manual", p. 182, for example).

A Suggestion

The common practice among the Massachusetts Congregational Churches is that the power of licensing and ordaining of ministers is vested in the local Association. While still adhering to this principle, it is recognized that there would be value to the Associations in having the advice and counsel of a Standing Committee of the Conference.

To this end it is recommended that the Committee on Polity and Standards be organized in the following way:

The Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry shall be a standing committee of the Conference.

Membership. Its membership shall be made up of ten ministers representing as wide an area of the Conference as possible. Two members shall be elected each year, to serve terms of five years. Beginning in 1941, elections shall be made to fit in with this policy.

Meetings. The Committee shall meet, ordinarily, five times a year, on the third Monday of September, November, January, March, and May. As may be necessary for consultation with candidates, the Committee shall meet in the eastern and the western parts of the state. Four members shall constitute a quorum.

Duties. In addition to establishing and maintaining high standards for our Congregational ministry, this Committee shall receive from each Association for its review and judgment all applications for licensure and ordination. The Committee, according to its own established procedure, shall act promptly on each application, and shall, after due deliberation and examination, inform the Association of its recommendations.

It is understood that, having received the recommendations of this State Committee on Polity, the local Association still maintains full authority to decide upon the licensing or ordaining of any candidate.

Chairman, Francis L. Cooper
Charles G. Christianson
Frank E. Duddy
Secretary, Edward U. Cowles

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELATION OF CHURCHES AND COLLEGES

The Committee on the Relation of Churches and Colleges has held six meetings in various sections of the state. We have held two conferences for ministers interested in work with college students (one at Northampton, one at Cambridge), where we discussed the questionnaire findings on "Religion and the Campus". The committee is impressed with the need of strengthening the work of our church in the life of the colleges of our state. We feel strongly that this is one of the most strategic matters now before our conference. Something should be done; and something can be done. The critical situation calls for immediate action on our part. We believe that the following recommendations, which were passed at our last meeting in Boston on April 3, 1941, will help materially in strengthening the influence of our church in the life of our colleges, and will lead to a revitalization of religion among some of our important student groups.

1. Recommended: That an annual conference for Congregational pastors working with students be held in conjunction with the Student Christian Movement Staff Conference, and that the Massachusetts Congregational Conference subsidize the same on behalf of our ministers attending to the extent of $50, the same to be used more particularly for those men residing 50 miles or more from the conference meeting place (which is now Northfield).

2. Recommended: That we heartily approve the proposed college student summer conference to be held in conjunction with the Pilgrim Fellowship Conference, meeting again this year in Wilbraham; and that we endorse as of marked value the Interdenominational Conference of the New England Christian Student Movement to be held at O-At-Ka June 9–16.

3. Recommended: That the Wilbraham College Conference consider the possibility of promoting Pilgrim Fellowship groups among college students.

4. Recommended: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society set aside the sum of $3,000 to be used in one or more of the following projects:

   a. A graduate student counselor in religion, who would work with college students as a representative of the local church. One or more of these student counselors would be placed in college centers where the situation promises to be most advantageous. (Several situations are now ripe for action.)

   b. A student pastor in one or more university or college centers. (One or two situations are developing that offer a real challenge.)

5. Recommended: That we express our sense of need for a curriculum conference on the teaching of religion in our colleges, a conference of church leaders and administrative heads of our colleges, and our willingness to co-operate in such a conference.

6. Recommended: A. That a larger interest in the religious needs of college students can be created throughout our fellowship by placing on the fall programs of all our association meetings speakers who shall impart information concerning the work of this committee. B. That a list of Congregational ministers in college communities, who will take it upon themselves to become acquainted with and follow up new Congregational students, be prepared. C. And that our churches be urged to acquaint such ministers in these college communities with the presence of their young people in their midst; and that an effort to register such college students be undertaken when our speakers present the work of our committee at the fall association meetings.

REPORT OF THE LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE

The State Laymen's Committee, formed to assist the Laymen's Committees of the Associations and other laymen's organizations of the churches, and designed to stimulate laymen's activities, endeavors to help make the Church a more potent factor in the life of the Community, the Nation and the World and has striven during the year to perform these functions. The Committee conceives, in part, its task to be:

1. To help laymen of the churches present the need for more effective instruction in Christian principles and concepts.
2. To aid in and encourage use of religious educators, leading citizens and well selected printed material for developing basic instruction in Christian principles.
3. To co-operate with the Association Laymen's Committees and laymen's organizations of churches interested, in helping the churches more effectively meet their problems.
4. To help organize and assist Men's Church Groups in localities where Associations are not now operating.
5. To counsel with and aid men's organizations when needs arise for help from laymen who will share experiences and offer suggestions pertaining to laymen's responsibilities in church activities.

The State Laymen's Committee is made up of representative laymen from all parts of the state who have been selected because of their experience and leadership. They are chosen from among those who are in touch with what is going on among the men's organizations, thus keeping the Committee in contact with the whole field.

Regular meetings of the Committee are held at which time information is gathered and plans are made to render assistance where needed.

The Committee, apart from its advisory and counselling relationship, from time to time sponsors and arranges meetings for laymen. The Laymen's Retreat, at Andover Newton Theological School on September 13, 14 and 15, 1940, was such a gathering of laymen from all parts of the State. At this Retreat subjects presented and discussions entered upon were along these lines:

The Congregational Set-up.
Discussion of Congregational matters in General and in Particular.
Laymen's Work for the Year Described and Discussed.
Phases of Work by and with Laymen in One Church.
What are we for as a Church, anyway?
Rethinking Congregationalism.
Present-day Outreach.

The findings and recommendations of this Conference were assembled and sent to the Laymen's Committees and other laymen throughout the State for their information and help in their respective fields.

The Committee has co-operated with the Program Committee in planning for the Annual Meeting of the Conference, May 16, 17 and 18, 1941, to be held at the Second Congregational Church in Attleboro. The arrangements for the Laymen's Meeting and laymen's participation at the Conference have been carefully considered. The program gives recognition to two leading laymen, Governor William E. Sweet, Moderator of the Congregational Churches of the United States and Mr. Francis E. Harmon of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, who will speak to the Laymen and Ministers at the Conference.

The Committee has voted its approval of the Isles of Shoals Conference to be held August 15–18 and plans to co-operate in matters of attendance of laymen from Massachusetts.

The State Laymen's Committee has in prospect the Annual Meeting of the Committee early in June at which time plans for the coming year will be determined upon, including the Laymen's Retreat in September, 1941.

The Committee acknowledges with much appreciation the co-operation and practical assistance rendered at all times by the President of the Conference, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, and members of his staff, who have facilitated the activities of the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
Clarence C. Beasley, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM AND DEVOTIONAL LIFE

Your Committee, during the past year, has been active in many ways. During the month of September, under the auspices of this Committee, three Ministers' Retreats were held at Adelynrood, at Wheaton College, Norton and at Williston Academy, Easthampton. The leaders at these Retreats were Rev. Hugh Vernon White, Rev. Boynton Merrill, Prof. Nels F. S. Ferrè, and Rev. Arthur H. Bradford. Dr. White and Prof. Ferrè discussed the theme of "Revelation — Man's Approach to God and God's Approach to Man," and Dr. Merrill and Dr. Bradford led in very interesting conferences on "Pastoral Relations" and "Planning the Church Year." The retreats were well attended and from the response received they seemed very vital.

On recommendations of the Planning Council, this work of sponsoring Minister's Retreats has now been turned over to a department of the Executive Staff, and since that time the Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life has been working on items of the Program of Progress, which seemed to be especially related to the work of this committee, such as Public Worship, Church Membership and Increase.

The Committee took the liberty of enlarging its membership, when the new work was undertaken, by adding the names of Rev. Eric W. Grimshaw, of Worcester; Rev. Fred D. Bennett, of Boston; Rev. Paul B. Myers of Taunton and Rev. Harlin M. Campbell of Everett.

One meeting was held with Rev. Frederick L. Fagley of the General Council Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life and it was through the work of our Committee that the printed cards for use in looking after absentee members were made available to the ministers and Churches.

Respectfully submitted,

THE TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONGREGATIONAL BOARD OF PASTORAL SUPPLY

For the Year Ending March 31, 1941

The meeting of the Board in December was mainly occupied with the discussion of future policy. The cause of the discussion was the announcement by the Secretary of his retirement March 31, 1942, in accordance with the understanding when he took office seven years ago that he should retire at seventy years of age. Every member of the Board present participated in the discussion which was felt to be an unusually profitable one. As a result a committee was appointed to formulate the issues which seemed to confront the churches at this time in connection with the future of the Board and to secure an adequate discussion of these issues. The committee consisted of Rev. Horace F. Holton of Massachusetts, chairman, Rev. Asa M. Parker of New Hampshire, Mr. Burton S. Flagg of Massachusetts, and Mr. Burdette C. Hopkins of Connecticut. Under date of February 20th this committee through the State offices sent a circular letter to the "Congregational Churches and Ministers of New England". In this letter four choices were outlined for handling the future of the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply:

1. Shall the Board be continued as at present, and a new full-time secretary secured?

2. Shall the work of the Board be carried on with a reduced staff and the actual counseling with churches and ministers devolve entirely upon the State Superintendents?

3. Shall the Board be continued as at present with its field enlarged to include New York and the Middle Atlantic Conferences?

4. Shall the Board be merged with a proposed National Bureau of Pastoral Information?

Consideration of these choices by churches, ministers, and laymen, individually or in groups, was called for, the results of such discussion to be sent to Chairman Holton, at 22 Avon Street, Brockton, Massachusetts. In addition the expression of personal opinion was invited. All the material thus secured will be carefully studied and summaries of opinion will be presented to the Board at its Annual Meeting, June 9th. It should be said that the Board in no sense has made up its own mind. It is not conducting this discussion because it has any preconceived theory. It does believe that a work of so great importance as is entrusted to the Board should be handled in the very best way possible and in accordance with the most intelligent judgment of the churches of our constituency.

Meanwhile, we have to report another year of service, the statistics for which are as follows:

STATISTICAL REPORT

	1938–39	1939–40	1940–41

It will be noticed that in general the figures are below those of the preceding year but approximate those of the year 1938–39.

Finance

On a subsequent page the Treasurer's report is given. Again the expenditures have exceeded the receipts by $410.31, and our working balance has been thereby decreased. This is largely due to the decrease in the appropriation from Massachusetts which was $3,400 instead of $3,700 as in the previous year. We are venturing to ask Massachusetts for $4,000 for the coming year not only in order that our working balance may not still be further decreased but also that the Secretary will not be under the necessity of raising so large an amount in contributions from churches and individuals and may also be freer in the use of his Sundays. The past year, for example, the amount received from his preaching was $635.40 of which all but $114.70 came from preaching in vacant churches. This year as the year before $100 was received from the New York Congregational Conference. The amount for "office supplies and sundries" includes $34 for the circular letter to churches and ministers with reference to the future of the Board.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES

The figures of graduates of seminaries who were planning to enter the Congregational ministry at Commencement, 1940, were: Andover, 12; Atlanta, 3; Bangor, 8; Chicago, 10; Hartford, 4; Harvard, 3; Oberlin, 2; Pacific, 1; Yale, 9. Total, 52. This compares with an average for the four preceding years of 64.

This year as last, the Secretary of the Board served as an examiner for the seniors of Andover-Newton Theological School.

A RESTATEMENT OF THE OBJECT OF THE BOARD

At the Annual Meeting in June, Article II of the By-Laws was revised to read as follows:

> "The primary object of this Board shall be, in co-operation with its constituent state conferences, to secure for the Congregational Christian churches of New England the most effective pastoral service, thereby also helping Congregational Christian ministers to obtain pastorates."
> Previously the By-Law had read:
> "The primary object of this Board shall be, in co-operation with its constituent State Conferences, to secure for the Congregational and Christian Churches of New England the most effective pastoral service."

The purpose of the change was to make it more clear that while the work of the Board was primarily to help the churches it nevertheless was also constituted to help ministers.

MEETINGS

Attendance at the two meetings of the Board were as follows: at the Annual Meeting in June, fourteen; at the Semi-Annual Meeting in December, nineteen. The total membership is twenty-one. At the Executive Committee meeting April 1, 1940, five of the nine members were present.

PERSONNEL

The Board once more wishes to express its appreciation of the service of the two members of its staff, Miss Bridgman and Miss Howe, whose interest in our work is only equalled by their effectiveness. We are also greatly indebted for volunteer service to our Treasurer, Mr. Black, and our Auditor, Mr. Flagg, who with the Secretary constitute the Office and the Budget Committees and act as nearby counselors to the Secretary between the meetings of the Board.

STANDARDS

It would appear to your Board that the most significant event with regard to our Congregational Christian ministry during the past year was the adoption by the General Council at Berkeley of a set of "Standards for the Congregational Christian Ministry". These were of course adopted "for recommendation to churches, associations, conferences, and denominational officials". They were based upon the returns from a questionnaire which had been sent out to registrars of associations, to state superintendents, and to other interested and informed people. They probably represent the high water mark in an effort to suggest the principles which should obtain in admitting men to our ministry. If these standards can be measurably lived up to during the years which are ahead the work of such a Board as ours will indeed be greatly eased, but of far greater importance, the whole quality of our ministry and the life of our churches will be changed. To the observance of these standards everyone who cares for the attainment of such results should devote himself.

For the Board,

March 31, 1941 CHARLES C. MERRILL, Secretary

YOUR WORK FOR THE SAILOR
Planned and carried on by the BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY

The following information should be of interest to every Congregationalist in Massachusetts. This Society is working for deserving seamen in your name and you want to know what is being done.

The Comforts of Home

Warm quarters, good meals, and a comfortable bed are furnished for fifty cents to men who can pay for them. Those out of funds receive the same treatment, and in most cases pay their debts when they again have work. Necessary articles of used clothing are supplied to the men as far as possible. Scarves, mittens and wristers knitted by friends of the Society are given as needed. Shoes are kept in repair, and many necessary stitches are taken on well worn clothing. Baggage is checked free, and winter clothing is cared for during the summer until needed in the fall.

Emergency Service

If taken sick, he is sent at once to the United States Marine Hospital either at Boston or Vineyard Haven, where he is visited once a week by our Social Worker. If he needs a place in which to convalesce, our home is open to him, and special diet needs are looked after as much as possible. When out of work, our free employment service helps him to a new job on another ship. If he is stranded penniless and is worthy we aid him financially. At Vineyard Haven, our launch is ready all the year to render assistance to visiting boats, and distribute books and magazines.

Keeping Up the Morale

Friendly people meet him and are ready to advise him in any way he desires. He finds a library with good books, magazines and newspapers. There are games and companionship with both men and women. Wholesome entertainments are given two evenings a week. There are lectures, concerts, plays both educational and amusing which are followed by simple refreshments. Special holidays are celebrated in real home style and are free to all seamen. During the summer, books and magazines are carried by launch to the boats in the harbor.

Building Character

Simple religious services are held each Sunday night giving an uplift which the men need. On Christmas and Easter Sunday special decorations add to the appeal of the messages. The "Hold Fast" Society at Vineyard Haven pledges its members to the Christian life and to fellowship with all wearing the same badge, in whatever port. From Hanover Street, members of the Anchor Alliance go out promising to refrain from intoxicating liquors, and to try to keep to the ideal of clean, wholesome living upheld by the Alliance. Part of its object is to create loyalty and a feeling of common brotherhood among seamen of all nations.

Through these four channels we strive to do the work intrusted to us by you, for all seamen who seek our aid.

Arthur J. Crockett,
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Herbert W. Gates,
Field Representative

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of over $630,000. If any extra expense is incurred that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned a little less than 4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitab'y and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, REV. MYRON W. FOWELL

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, by agreement with the Worcester City Missionary Society, is responsible for the financial assistance and the supervision of home missionary churches in Worcester in their current work, while the Worcester City Missionary Society represents the fellowship of the Congregational churches of the city and is responsible for aiding churches in property matters, contributing toward the purchase and maintenance of property and the payment of building debts.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council· "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members and families are reported as numbered January 1, 1938. Admissions and removals cover the year 1937. "Absent" are not additional to "males," "females" and "total," but included in them. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1938, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r,"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but means "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk* indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its anual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex-officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

* Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

† Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE. — IF your name is not correctly printed in the preceding tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

OFFICERS. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation .....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council of Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1942, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 143rd ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 18 - 20

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, WEST NEWTON
MASSACHUSETTS

The 143rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order at 2:00 o'clock on Monday, May 18, by the Moderator, Rev. John Gratton of Pittsfield.

The Secretary, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, conducted the Devotional Service.

The Moderator then appointed the following committees:

Credentials Committee—Rev. John A. Hawley, Amherst, Chairman; Rev. Ralph H. Long, Falmouth; Mrs. Arthur F. Sisson, West Newton; Rev. Frederick C. Wilson, Ipswich; Rev. Watson Wordsworth, Housatonic.

Business Committee—Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Dorchester, Chairman; Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, Westboro; Rev. George E. Cary, Haverhill; Mrs. Francis L. Cooper, Brockton; Mr. George A. Mansfield, Waltham; Rev. Ronald J. Tamblyn, Holyoke.

Rev. Boynton Merrill, pastor of the entertaining church, warmly welcomed the Conference. He stated that it was the first time since the erection of the church, twenty-five years ago, that the sanctuary had been used for a business meeting, and he was glad to have the Massachusetts Conference transact the Lord's business therein.

At the request of the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, Dean Homer Little of Clark University, came forward and was presented to the Conference and spoke briefly.

At 2:30 o'clock, the Conference was privileged to hear Rev. Douglas Horton, Minister and Secretary of the General Council, who delivered the keynote address on "The War Strategy of the Church."

The Moderator announced that Mr. Roger W. Babson had intended to come to the Conference and present to the ministers copies of his new book, "The Open Church Door Experiment". Illness, however, having prevented his coming, the Conference, by vote, sent a message of greeting and appreciation.

The Advance Reports were then presented as follows, in each case an opportunity being given for questions and discussion, after which each report was accepted by vote of the Conference and ordered printed in the Minutes.

Churches and Colleges, Rev. Robert M. Bartlett
Evangelism and Devotional Life, Rev. Bertram B. Hanscom
Laymen (No member present to report)
Missions and Apportionment, Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan
Moral and Social Welfare, Rev. Francis A. Drake
Polity and Standards for the Ministry, Rev. J. W. L. Graham
Religious Education, Rev. Paul S. McElroy
Woman's Work, Mrs. Augusta F. Clark
Woman's Work, Mrs. Naomi G. Ekdahl
Board of Ministerial Aid, Rev. Robert Wood Coe
Board of Pastoral Supply, Rev. Charles C. Merrill
Boston Seaman's Friend Society, Rev. Herbert W. Gates

At 4:00 o'clock a much appreciated feature of the Conference program was that which provided for ten simultaneous meetings of "Special Interest Groups", with the following chairmen:

Churches and Colleges, Rev. Robert M. Bartlett
Evangelism and the Preaching Mission, Rev. Bertram B. Hanscom
Laymen, Clarence C. Beasley
Missions and Apportionment, Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan
Moral and Social Welfare, Rev. Francis A. Drake
Pastoral Placement, Rev. Charles C. Merrill
Pilgrim Fellowship Conference Faculties
Polity and Standards for the Ministry, Rev. J. W. L. Graham
Religious Education, Rev. Paul S. McElroy
Scribes of Associations, Rev. Alfred V. Bliss

At the Fellowship Supper at 6:00 o'clock, held in Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, an address was given by Rev. Phillips E. Osgood, rector of Emmanuel Church, Boston.

Special music was provided for the occasion by the chorus choir of the Church of the Armenian Martyrs, Worcester, under the leadership of Mr. George M. Tomajan.

MONDAY EVENING

At 8:15 in the Second Church, West Newton, the Service of Worship was conducted by Rev. Boynton Merrill, with music by the chancel choir, under the direction of Mr. William Lester Bates, the organist of the church.

The work of the Board of Ministerial Aid was presented by Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman of the Executive Committee. An offering amounting to $187.68 was taken for this work.

Rev. Raymond Calkins of Cambridge preached the sermon, on the text, "Thus Saith the Lord."

TUESDAY MORNING

At 9:00 o'clock the Conference opened with a Devotional Service led by Rev. Edwin B. Robinson of Holyoke.

At 9:15 the Moderator introduced Prof. Rufus Jones of Haverford College as "Our Christian brother who has put all churches and all Christian people in his debt."

At 10:00 o'clock Annual Reports were presented by the following officers: Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, President; Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Secretary; Mr. Myron S. Burton, Treasurer; Rev. Carl F. Schultz, Chairman of the Board of Trustees. These reports were accepted by vote of the Conference

After the Secretary's report, Rev. William M. Macnair presented the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That men serving in the armed forces of the nation are given honorable discharge when their term of service comes to an end. Men who have served the Christian Church should also be given honorable discharge as they retire from active duty.

This year the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss has reached the end of his period of service as Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Therefore, in recognition of his faithful and devoted service, this Conference hereby places upon record its high appreciation of his long and loving service of the churches, especially those of the rural areas and those of our foreign-born brethren.

As a Christian gentleman, as a devoted worker and friend of the churches, he deserves and now receives our commendation and approval as he retires from office.

This recommendation was unanimously approved by a rising vote.

In accordance with the request of the President, Rev. Paul S. McElroy was called upon to speak on behalf of the Pilgrim Fellowship Summer Conferences.

The President also suggested that the Business Committee prepare a resolution of greeting to our ministers who have gone into the chaplaincy.

The Treasurer of the Conference presented his report, printed copies of which had been distributed to the members of the Conference. This report, together with that of the Secretary, is printed elsewhere in the Minutes and Reports.

The fourth report was that of Rev. Carl F. Schultz, Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Upon recommendation of the Business Committee, Rev. Edward C. Camp addressed the Conference on behalf of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League. Mr. Camp is a representative of the Conference on the Board of the League. The report was accepted.

Also upon recommendation of the Business Committee, the following resolution was presented by Rev. Samuel Young:

RESOLVED: That in view of the basic importance of the Sunday services of worship, we view with concern the multiplication of appeals for conferences, institutes and mass meetings that conflict with the Sunday services of worship in the churches.

Many of these appeals are in the interest of causes that are not only important, but often religious, and sometimes in the nature of an emergency. However, the multiplicity of these appeals has become a matter of serious competition with the regular church attendance, which is so vital to the welfare of our communities and to the extensive work of the churches.

The appeals for recreation and commercial enterprises present serious difficulties, in view of which it seems desirable that the religious and progressive forces should work together.

The pastors and churches desire to promote all worthy causes, but believe that a careful guarding of the services of worship will, in the long run, not only enable the leaders and workers in the church better to coöperate, but most effectively and basically promote the values and causes represented by the conflicting appeals.

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference, therefore, respectfully requests that religious and social service organizations avoid conflict with the regular and well established services of the churches, and help them keep Sunday as a day of reverence and spiritual development.

It was VOTED: That this resolution be adopted, and that a copy be sent to His Excellency the Governor of the State and His Honor, the Mayor of Boston.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon program was opened by a Panel Discussion on the relation of Churches and Colleges in our state work. Among those who participated were Rev. Carl H. Kopf, who told of his work as a pastor in a city of many colleges and soldier groups.

Rev. William B. Easton, Jr., Director of Religious Education in the State College at Amherst, told of his work and urged continued coöperation of the churches. Others who participated were Rev. Messrs. Robert M. Bartlett, Longmeadow and John H. Leamon of Cambridge. Upon motion of Mr. Bartlett, it was VOTED: That the Trustees be asked to give favorable consideration to a plea that more money be found for this student work.

At 3:00 o'clock Rev. James E. Walter, Associate Secretary of the Missions Council, gave an informing address on the religious issues in present-day national and world affairs.

Rev. Hugh Penney of Lowell then spoke on the work he has been doing, under the auspices of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, in coöperating with chaplains of the Fort Devens area in their religious programs.

Rev. Frank Jennings, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, spoke on the coöperative work of the thirteen denominations associated in the Council in three fields, as follows: (1) Institutional Ministries; (2) Church, Industry and Labor; (3) Preparation for the Coming Peace.

Rev. Daniel W. Staffeld, Director of Weekday Church Schools for the Massachusetts Council of Churches, discussed the initiatory steps now being taken to launch in Massachusetts weekday religious instruction. He insisted that this must not be undertaken until adequate preparation has been made. In two fields in this state this fall, in Boston and Haverhill, work will begin.

The Special Interest Group on Pastoral Placement recommended that the Conference at this session appoint a committee of four laymen and four ministers to study a plan of exchange of pastorates or any other adequate plan for improving conditions in regard to pastoral placement in Massachusetts, in consultation with the President of the State Conference and the Secretary of the Board of Pastoral Supply.

The Business Committee recommended the adoption of this plan and it was so voted. The nominations for this committee were referred to the Nominating Committee of this Conference.

Prof. Alfred C. Lane, acting for the Special Interest Group on Moral and Social Welfare, presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED: That we recommend to the Conference that it pass a resolution, commending to the authorities of the government that in moving all citizens or non-citizens, all Christian courtesy be used and that in their treatment we give an example of how we should wish Americans in enemy hands to be treated.

It was further recommended that a copy of this resolution be sent to the administration at Washington.

Rev. C. W. Keirstead and Rev. William E. Gilroy, acting for the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS discrimination against individuals because of race or color is not only contrary to all ideals of democracy and Christian brotherhood, but is also, so far as American citizenship is concerned, a denial of constitutional rights and

WHEREAS the false notion of white supremacy and the effort to maintain it by unfair, undemocratic and illegal means is manifestly a menace to the cause of democracy in the present world conflict and a threat of future conflict and peril, we urge, as a matter of justice as well as for contributory reasons, that everything practicable should be done by our national authorities in civil, army and naval affairs to end such discrimination and to accord to all citizens, regardless of race or color, the full rights and privileges to which they are entitled. It is a preposterous situation that calls upon any class of citizens to make equal sacrifices and accept equal dangers without according equal rights and privileges. Therefore

BE IT RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States and to the Secretaries of the War and Navy Departments.

Following this session there were three simultaneous supper meetings: one for the women; one for the laymen and ministers, and one for the young people.

At the women's meeting, which took place in the Second Church, there was a reception followed by a business meeting, with Mrs. Myron H. Clark presiding. Officers and committees were elected, as recorded on pages 16 and 17 of these Minutes and Reports, and special messages were brought by Mrs. Franklin G. Field and Mrs. William H. Medlicott. The Women's Second Mile Gift was dedicated at this meeting. Then followed a buffet supper, at which there were about 300 women.

The laymen and ministers met for supper at the Central Church, Newtonville, Mr. Clarence C. Beasley of Boston presiding. Rev. Walter W. Van Kirk, Secretary of the Department of International Justice and Good Will, Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, was unable to be present, owing to an accident to the airplane in which he was flying from Texas to New York. In his place Rev. J. Quinter Miller, also from the Federal Council, was present and spoke on, "The Kingdom of God and the Churches." About 260 men sat down to the supper.

Under the leadership of Rev. James W. Lenhart, now serving the Conference as ad interim Secretary of Religious Education, the young people held their annual meeting of the Pilgrim Fellowship, at the Unitarian Church in West Newton. Two hundred young people sat down to the supper, which was followed by the election of officers. Then the Deans of the various Pilgrim Fellowship Summer Conferences at Wilbraham, Williston and Andover Newton reported on the plans for their respective conferences.

These simultaneous supper meetings adjourned in time for those present to reach the Second Church for the evening service.

TUESDAY EVENING

At 8:15 a service of worship was held at the Second Church, West Newton, with Rev. Boynton Merrill conducting the service. Mr. Bates and his young people's choir of seventy voices furnished the music.

The church was filled to its seating capacity and many people were standing.

The sermon was preached by Rev. William E. Park, President of the Northfield Schools, on the words of Paul, "We are Saved by Hope." Mr. Park is the son of Rev. J. Edgar Park, President of Wheaton College, who was pastor of the Second Church from 1907 to 1927.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

At 9:00 o'clock the meeting was opened by a devotional service, led by Rev. David Fraser of West Somerville.

The Conference was privileged to hear at this time Miss Mildred McAfee, President of Wellesley College, who discussed the question of adjustment, religiously, between opportunities and ideals of the church in the college environment and the church life and standards in the communities where the students go from college.

Rev. Harold Capron, Chairman of the Nominating Committee of the Conference, presented the nominations for the officers and committees of the Conference, including the nominations for executive officers made by the Board of Trustees.

The Moderator then appointed the tellers.

During the balloting, Rev. John A. Hawley of Amherst reported for the Credentials Committee. The completed report appears at the close of these Minutes.

The Moderator introduced Rev. Myron W. Fowell of Worcester, the nominee for Secretary, who spoke briefly.

The Business Committee introduced the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, at its Annual Meeting in West Newton, May 18–20, 1942, following a suggestion of the President of the Conference, sends to you, the Congregational Chaplains of our state in the service of the armed forces of our country, sincere greeting and appreciation and Christian love. We admire your courage and faith; we pray for the blessings of Christ to be with you; we pledge to you our hearty coöperation and support, and we earnestly seek for you and for all the fulfillment of the will of Christ, that His Kingdom may more fully come. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you ever.

This resolution was passed, with the understanding that a copy be sent to each Congregational Chaplain.

The Business Committee then presented the invitation of the South Congregational Church, Peabody, for the Conference to hold its Annual Meeting with them in 1943. The Conference accepted with appreciation.

The tellers reported that the Conference had elected the officers as listed on the ballot and recorded on pages 13—16 of these Minutes and Reports.

The Conference voted unanimously that one ballot be cast, electing the nominees chosen by the Nominating Committee for the various committees of the Conference, the delegates to the General Council and representatives to other organizations, as recorded on pages 16—21 of these Minutes and Reports.

Rev. Mr. Hawley reported progress for the Debt of Honor Campaign. Reports were also made by other ministers who had achieved success in their churches in the Debt of Honor Campaign.

The resolution presented by the Hampshire Association regarding regional secretaries was referred by the Moderator to the Board of Trustees as coming under their jurisdiction rather than that of the Annual Meeting.

The Moderator called upon Mrs. Naomi G. Ekdahl, Executive Secretary, Department of Woman's Work, and Rev. George A. Tuttle, Field Secretary for Western Massachusetts, each of whom made a brief address.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:00 o'clock, Rev. George W. Shepherd, a well-known missionary of the American Board and intimate advisor of Generalissimo Chaing Kai-shek, spoke on the theme: "Is the White Man Finished in Asia?"

At this point Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee of Westboro announced that, according to the morning newspapers, Rev. Harry L. Oldfield of West Springfield had died suddenly and it was VOTED: That we express our deep sympathy to Mr. Oldfield's family and to the West Springfield Church in a message of love and appreciation of his services in our Christian life and work.

Under the auspices of the Council for Social Action "Progress in our Effort for War Victims and Services," was discussed by Rev. Robert C. Dexter, Executive Director of the Unitarian Service Committee, and the theme, "The Terms of Peace and Afterwards" was presented by Rev. Hugh Vernon White of the American Board.

At 3:30 an address was given by J. Mendes Reis, minister of the Portuguese Mission, Lowell, his subject being "A Plane View of Portugal."

The hour from 4:00 to 5:00 was devoted to the "Ceremony of the Soil — A Service of Worship," prepared by the Christian Rural Fellowship of New York and dramatized by the Pelham Rural Fellowship, under the direction of Rev. Harold B. White.

The Business Committee presented the following resolution:

RESOLVED: That in recognition of the fact that Rev. Charles C. Merrill retires from the office of the Board of Pastoral Supply on December 31, 1942, we express to him our gratitude for his great service to our churches and ministers as Secretary of the Board, for his wise counsel, understanding sympathy and unfailing courtesy in his conduct of the work of this office, and we extend to Mr. Merrill the affectionate greetings of the Conference with all our good wishes.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Special Interest Group on Pastoral Placement, reporting Tuesday afternoon, it was announced that the following persons had been chosen to serve on the Committee on Pastoral Exchange and Placement: Rev. Messrs. George E. Cary, Haverhill; Francis L. Cooper, Brockton; William E. McCormack, Springfield; Randolph S. Merrill, Newtonville, and Messrs. H. Gregory Allen, Framingham; Frank Auchter, Springfield; Edward F. Mann, Worcester; William F. Farley, Waltham.

Rev. J. W. L. Graham, Chairman of the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, asked the members of the Conference to encourage the coöperation of their various associations to take steps towards the clarification and unification of procedure in the matter of licensing and ordaining ministers.

The following resolution was introduced by the Business Committee, and adopted.

RESOLVED: That the 143rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society desires to express and to place on record its sincere appreciation of the privilege accorded to us of sharing in the beauty of the Second Church, West Newton, and enjoying to the full its equipments and facilities for worship and fellowship. We have felt the worshipful spirit of the sanctuary; we have met with pleasure in the social rooms of the Parish House and have enjoyed the hospitality of the homes of the church; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED: That we extend to the pastor, Rev. Boynton Merrill, our appreciation of his graciousness and to him and the officers and members of Second Church our gratitude for their generous care for our comfort; to the ladies of the church for completeness of details, for the efficiency of the conduct of the Conference; to the organist, William Lester Bates, and his choirs our holy delight in the perfection of their inspiring music; and to the sexton of the church for his part in making our stay memorable.

We thank our guest speakers and the speakers from our own fellowship for their searching and helpful messages. We are mindful also and grateful for the share of many of their families and the families of other neighboring churches for their share in entertaining delegates.

We express in particular to our Moderator, Rev. John Gratton, our appreciation for his uniform courtesy, his kindly and gracious consideration and his wisdom in presiding over the sessions of the Conference.

We shall long remember our present Conference and its part in the life and spirit of our Congregational fellowship in Massachusetts.

The Moderator expressed his deep appreciation for the honor which had been done him in chosing him to preside over this Conference.

It was VOTED: That the Recording Secretary, after the evening session, be instructed to complete the Minutes, and then the 143rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference will stand adjourned.

At 6:00 o'clock a buffet supper was served at the Second Church.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

At 8:00 o'clock the Service of Worship was conducted by Rev. Boynton Merrill, with Mr. Bates and the church choir furnishing the music.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Walter A. Morgan of the Chestnut Street Church, Worcester, on the theme, "The Hunger of the Soul," as portrayed in the "Second Isaiah".

The Communion Service was conducted by Rev. Boynton Merrill.

After this service and the benediction, the 143rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference stood adjourned.

REPORT OF THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

According to the registration cards, the attendance at the Annual Meeting was as follows, comparing this year's meeting with those of 1939, 1940 and 1941:

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

Today the Church is more important to the welfare of the world than at any other time in the last 100 years — perhaps for the last 300 years. Historians, philosophers, sociologists, theologians, and some scientists, are interpreting the great world events of our age in terms of the same goal that the Church has been preaching ever since its birth in the mind of Jesus.

Here is a Professor of History at Smith College, Prof. Hans Kohn, a Czecho-slovakian Jew, dedicating his latest book, just off the Harvard University Press,

"To those Who Strove and Fought
For the Dignity of the Human Being
For the Oneness of the Human Kind."

To this twofold goal of Democracy, Christian faith adds foundations in the vision of all mankind as children of God the Father, and all these children as one family in Christ.

Once again, Professor Sorokin, a very scholarly and learned Harvard professor, Chairman of the Department of Sociology, a Russian, at one time Secretary to Prime Minister Kerensky, in his latest book does a little Christian preaching, in these words: "There must be a change of the whole mentality and attitudes in the direction of the . . . Sermon on the Mount . . . Without this change, no mechanical, politico-economic reconstruction can give the desired results."

Once again: One day this winter I heard Mr. Douglass Miller, who spent fifteen years in the business life of Germany as chargé d'affaires at the United States Embassy in Berlin, six of them under the Nazi régime — I heard Mr. Miller say that a group of men in New York City, composed of Protestants, Roman Catholics and liberal Jews, were broadcasting every week, on short wave, especially for Germany, Jesus Christ. They did not mention the names of the Prime Minister of Great Britain, the President of the United States, the Leader of the Nazi government. Only one person's name was mentioned, the name of Jesus Christ, and these broadcasts told about Jesus, what He did, what He taught about God and men, and what a civilization built on Him would mean for the world, including Germany.

To me, it is very significant that from these various sources our faith in Christ as the world's Saviour, is being confirmed in this realistic manner. It is true in a wonderful way that Jesus Christ is the only hope for the world of tomorrow. Today we are learning the reality of sin, and the deep meaning of the cross as the symbol of ultimate victory. And the church as the custodian of the Gospel of Christ has the most precious treasure in all the world. And the wise church will preserve a sane balance between its Christian social service on the one hand, and its supernatural life that is hid with God in Christ, on the other hand.

I think you can see why the church is more important to the welfare of the world today than at any other time in the last century or perhaps in the last four centuries, since the Lutheran Reformation.

One of our younger ministers, a radical Christian, in the dictionary sense of "radical" as "proceeding directly from the root", wrote me about a month ago: "Personally I am more and more turning away from all intellectualism and theology, toward a new understanding and ability to practice Christian love. This is far more difficult for me than thinking or preaching."

The minister of one of our German churches, a loyal American, and devoted Christian, wrote me a few weeks ago: "Thank you for your letter and the kindness shown in it. It feels good in this time of hate in the world to have friends who remain the same always."

Having emphasized the importance of spiritual values in church work let us consider for a while more mundane matters. I wish our Year Book of Minutes and Reports might be used more in our churches. If I were a pastor of a church, I think I should preach at least one sermon on it each year. I know of one minister who does just this thing in his own church. I think the President's Report and perhaps the Secretary's, and all other reports might well be used this way, thus bringing to the people of this Commonwealth the vital matters pertaining to the churches of our Conference. A series of church quizzes might well be prepared such as:

What minister holds the record of having the longest pastorate in the Conference?

What church has the largest membership and how large is it?

What church has the smallest membership?

What church had the largest number of new members in 1941?

How many churches added no new members in 1941?

What church made the largest contribution to our world-wide missionary work in 1941?

What church made the largest per capita contribution?

How much did our own church give to the total missionary work; how much to the Massachusetts Conference?

I wish our thoughtful young people would do a little research work and answer this question: "Why has the membership in our Church Schools dropped 2597, and in our young people's organizations dropped 2721, this last calendar year? What do the latest census figures tell us about the decreased number of young people in the public schools as compared with ten years ago? I wish our Year Book would list with a star the churches that maintain for at least the major part of the year a mid-weekly meeting for prayer, or testimony, or discussion, or study, or fellowship. I think the dropping of a midweek meeting of one or several kinds is a much more serious sympton of church life than the smallness of its congregations. There may be a causal connection between them. Let us reassert the challenge that was flung out at the ecumenical conference at Oxford, England, in 1937, in these thrilling words, "Let the Church be the Church." A mere social club will never bring in the Kingdom of God. A Rotary Club or a Chamber of Commerce, valuable in the realm of business will never bring sinful man to God nor build Christ into human hearts. I have read that when that eminent Prince of the Church, Cardinal Mercier, looked for the first time at the jagged skyline of New York City from the deck of the steamer, he pointed to the Woolworth Tower and remarked: "That must be your Cathedral."

In order for the Church to be the Church, it is not necessary that it have such a glorious edifice as this Second Church in West Newton; but with large membership or only a chosen few, it is necessary that it have the glorious spirit such as I have found in the personnel of the ministers and people of this Church, including the genial janitor.

The record of longest pastorates stands the same as last year as recorded on page 33 of the Minutes and Reports of 1941. All honor to these valiant soldiers of the cross and to their churches!

There seem to be 36 active pastors who were ordained in the last century (up to and including 1900); and 145 who were ordained in 1931 or since then.

Five thousand three hundred and sixty-two persons were received into our churches on confession of faith, in 1941, as compared with 5446 in 1940. The church receiving the largest number on confession was the First Church in Braintree, which received 80 members. But 140 churches reported no new members on confession.

One hundred and four churches out of 607 appear not to have paid their allotment account in 1941 as compared with 110 in 1940. Four of these not paying were among our largest membership churches.

Sixteen churches failed to send in their reports for this year's Minutes and Reports.

Our rural churches and communities are still the feeding hills for our larger towns and cities. In a recent year of the Roosevelt administration, the President, the Vice President, "seven of the ten Cabinet members were born in towns or villages or on farms. Of the nine Supreme Court justices four or five were born on farms or in rural villages. In the Department of Agriculture, the Secretary, the Undersecretary, seven of the 19 bureau chiefs and directors were born on Corn Belt farms or in Corn Belt villages . . . three were born on Southern farms, or in Southern villages . . . one in a New York village," one each in a Missouri, an Idaho and a Colorado village. Only two were born in large cities.

Thomas Jefferson, the American father of Democracy, said that he felt our Democracy was safe and secure so long as our population remained largely agricultural. The leadership that Massachusetts farms and villages have furnished confirms our conviction that the finest values of Democracy are born and nurtured in the rural home — the rural church and the rural community. We do well and wisely to keep these springs of our life clean, and sweet and wholesome through the sacrificial services of our rural ministers and their devoted church workers. The rural church is, or should be, the social, as well as the religious, center of the community and it looms relatively larger than any other institution there, or than many a city church in the city.

Perhaps our finest piece of adventure today stems not from Plymouth Rock, but from Ellis Island. Two-thirds of the people in this State were either born abroad or else their parents were born abroad. 187,000 Poles — 150,000 Russians — 322,000 Italians. They have friends and relatives in Europe, but they live peaceably in Massachusetts.

In this critical period of world history it is so important that we play the good neighbor, the Christian friend, to the Germans, the Italians, the French, Norwegians, Portuguese, Swedes, Finns, Greeks, the Poles, Armenians, Chinese, Albanians, and show them the immense superiority of Christian practice to the spirit of Nazism and Fascism. They have much to give to us in music, in art, in science, in philosophy, theology, religion. And one reason they fight as they do in Europe is that there the groups are segregated into nations, behind national boundary lines. In Massachusetts there is no Armenian, no Italian, no German city, but we are all "mixed up" so that each city is an American city. Let's banish forever the policy of segregating any national or racial or religious or social group. Let us look at Europe and govern ourselves accordingly.

May 8, 1942

Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, D.D., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society,
Boston, Massachusetts

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1942, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid checks or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1942; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1942, has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1942, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCHES AND COLLEGES

This committee conducted a registration of students from our Massachusetts churches who are attending colleges in our state. This matter was presented at the fall meetings of most of our associations. Registration cards were forwarded to ministers near these colleges, and we trust many contacts have now been established between our college community ministers and our young people.

The committee is actively interested in the student work at State College, Amherst, and the fine job being done there by William Easton. We are glad that our conference contributes to this project. We are also able this next year to extend a small subsidy to the First Church student worker who will be actively engaged in work among students at Amherst College.

We have continued our study of need in the state and are firmly convinced that something ought to be done at once to serve the Congregational students in Greater Boston. We have some 8,000 Congregational students in colleges in and about Boston, the largest Congregational student center in the country. Some of our churches are doing commendable work, but we feel that we should have a full-time student pastor for Greater Boston student work. Practically all major denominations have at least one full-time man engaged in this field; some have a number. We hope that our conference may be able to secure funds to launch this program. This man would aid churches that serve college students, organize student groups in these churches, provide leadership, and be a pastor to as many as possible of our neglected Congregational young people in this tremendous parish. We are bringing this appeal before the Home Boards as well as before the General Committee of our Conference and the Budget Committee. We need to wake up and get going!

We thank the following for coöperating with us in our committee conferences: Wilmer Kitchen, Henry Gray, William Frazier, Ralph Timberlake.

Three members of our committee attended the Chicago Conference on Congregational Colleges called by the Home Boards and the General Council in April. We plan a Church and College Interest Group at our State Conference and a Panel Discussion on Congregationalism and Massachusetts Colleges conducted by members of our committee. We were represented at a number of the Association meetings held this spring.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM AND DEVOTIONAL LIFE

Your Committee has held a number of meetings which have been devoted to the making of plans for the coming year. We are happy to announce that the next Ministers' Convocation will be held at Andover-Newton Theological School September 14th, 15th, and 16th. We feel that we are exceedingly fortunate in being able to secure the leadership of Dr. Walter E. Woodbury, secretary of Evangelism of the Northern Baptist Convention, and Dr. George A. Buttrick, minister of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City. It is expected that these speakers will each give a series of three addresses. Dr. Woodbury will probably deal with personal evangelism and preaching for decision. We have suggested to Dr. Buttrick that he speak on the subject of prayer.

Your committee wishes to stress the vital importance of family visitation as a part of the permanent program of the church. In this connection we recommend the pamphlet on "The Method of Visitation Evangelism and Suggestions for Messengers", by Rev. Leon E. Grubaugh. Mr. Grubaugh writes from a knowledge born of many years of fruitful experience in this field. Copies of this pamphlet may be obtained at our state office.

We urge that all the churches of our Massachusetts fellowship observe the World Communion Service Sunday, October 4th. This observance is sponsored by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. In these days when there is so much of hatred and disunity abroad in the world, it is imperative that Christians everywhere should maintain an unbroken fellowship. Nothing expresses this fellowship more convincingly than the World Communion Service.

Your Committee wishes to recommend that wherever it is possible that preaching missions be held in our churches this coming fall. You will be happy to learn that Dr. James R. Clinton will be in the state during the fall months to assist our churches in carrying out such preaching missions. We recommend to the ministers of our churches that they procure from President Ralph M. Timberlaké copies of the pamphlet entitled "The Preaching Mission" which has been prepared by the Preaching Mission Committee of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. We believe our ministers will find this pamphlet very suggestive and helpful as they plan preaching missions for their churches.

REPORT OF THE LAYMEN'S COMMITTEE

Continuing its coöperation with the Laymen's Committees of the Associations and other similar organizations in individual churches, we have endeavored to stimulate laymen in their efforts to help the churches more effectively to meet their problems. The plan for accomplishing this has included the following methods:

1. To enlist more laymen who will participate in the programs of the churches.
2. To inform laymen concerning the problems of the churches and to make more real the methods by which problems may be tackled and solved.
3. To challenge laymen to "examine the genuineness of their personal loyalty to Jesus Christ and its implications for daily living and fruitful service."

To implement its stimulation of laymen's activities, a Week-End Conference for laymen was held at Andover Newton Theological School, September 12–13, 1941, under the auspices of our committee. Seventy-two laymen were present. The program included:

1. Discussion: "Financing the Church."
   Leader — Rev. William F. English, Norwood
2. Quiet Hour and Devotions.
   Leader — Rev. Edgar H. S. Chandler
3. Discussion: "A Program for Lay Evangelism."
   Leader — Rev. Leon E. Grubaugh, Adams.
4. Discussion: "Week-Day Religious Education."
   Leader — Rev. Erwin L. Shaver
5. Address: "Congregationalism, Its Opportunities and Dangers."
   — Principal Nathaniel Micklem,
   Mansfield College, Oxford, England

The Report of the Findings Committee appointed at this Conference is as follows:

"We find that our laymen are realizing more and more their responsibility for the efficient conduct of the work of the churches, and are assuming that responsibility with increasing thoroughness.

"We find that as laymen we humbly need both education in church history, polity and methods, and the inspiration that accrues from conferences and retreats of this kind.

"We find that discussion of such topics as 'Financing the Church', 'Lay Visitation and Evangelism', and 'Week-Day Religious Education' in our current program has proved and demonstrated the educational and inspirational value of deliberate consideration of church problems under able leadership. Therefore we recommend that further conferences of this nature be arranged by this committee and the laymen's committees of the local Associations of churches.

"We find that visitation in the homes of the parish for purposes of lay evangelism and of acquainting parishioners with the work and needs of the church is an essential of wholesome and efficient church life and growth, and we recommend that laymen interest themselves in systematic parish visitation along the lines of preparation and for the purposes which have been emphasized in this Conference.

"We also recommend that laymen carefully study the opportunities presented by the new State law permitting release of children from the public schools for purposes of religious education in their churches or elsewhere, and support, whenever and wherever possible, this additional method of strengthening the church program of religious education.

"Underneath and behind the helpful spirit and inspirational atmosphere of this gathering, we find a deep current of determination moving in the hearts and minds of the laymen present, which we believe will lead to more effective work in the local churches and bring to us as laymen the glow of reflex action and spiritual exaltation; and we recommend that our laymen prayerfully again dedicate themselves to the purpose of making their churches the efficient institutions they should be in promoting and preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

The suggestions of the Findings Committee were shared as widely as possible by sending the Report "to Congregational ministers and laymen of Massachusetts." As a result, this Committee has responded to numerous requests throughout the state to assist in conferences and discussions, and in supplying leaders for group meetings of laymen.

To be of further service to laymen who have the desire to be equipped to take over added responsibilities in their churches, a course of study along the lines of "church history, polity, methods and the inspiration that accrues" is being arranged at Andover Newton Theological School during May and June. This will be a six-weeks' course on Friday evenings. Definite announcements of this course are under way. Due to the depletion of leadership in some churches and some areas, caused by ministers' and others' being called into War Service, it is most important to train laymen who can take over and carry on.

Arrangements have been made for the Supper Meeting for Laymen and Ministers on the evening of May 19, 1942, as a part of the Conference program at our annual meeting at the Second Church in West Newton.

Looking toward the meeting of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches at the University of New Hampshire, June 18–25, 1942, the State Laymen's Committee is coöperating in urging and securing attendance of laymen at this most significant meeting during this trying year.

We acknowledge with much appreciation the coöperation received from President Timberlake and members of his staff in connection with all our plans and efforts during the year.

Clarence C. Beasley, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

The Missions and Apportionment Committee has tried to function in accordance with its name during the past year, stressing a vigorous program of missionary education and promotion, and linking up Church Finance, the Apportionment and Stewardship generally, as an interrelated whole.

With one or two exceptions, the committee has met monthly through the year, appointing its representatives on the three age-group divisions, and seeing that Association missionary committee chairmen were kept informed on the latest mission study books, and, where necessary, supplying them with copies.

A general summary of the committee's activities would be to say that it has tried to keep our Churches and various Association officers "missionary-conscious," making them realize the continuing need of undergirding our entire missionary program, of keeping informed on the latest developments in the work on the field, and the latest methods of promotion, such as visual education.

In particular, three major projects have been carried out by the committee during the year. Last fall, in conjunction with the State Laymen's Committee, church finance seminars were sponsored in all the Associations of the state in which it was possible to arrange them. More than half the Associations were served in this way, with the best of leadership from our Boards and state officials, and with excellent results in terms of attendance and the reaching of the key people concerned with Church finance. We trust and believe the results will be seen in increased giving.

The second project was a seminar on "The Best Use of a Missionary Speaker," held on the afternoon of February 17th, in conjunction with the meeting of the New England Regional Committee, to which the chairmen of all the Association Missionary Committees in the state were invited. This meeting, which dealt largely with techniques, was most profitable to all who attended. Copies of the proceedings were sent to any of the chairmen who had not found it possible to come.

The third project is planned, but is not to be put into effect until the meeting of the State Conference, at which time a period is to be provided for "Interest Groups," missionary interests being one of these groups. The committee is carefully planning the use of this period so that it will be of the utmost benefit to those of our churches and Associations who will attend.

The committee is gratified to notice that Apportionment giving in Massachusetts is such that Massachusetts' share is about $3,000 over the amount budgeted.

The chairman would express his appreciation for the fine support of all the members of the committee, especially Mrs. Ekdahl, who has served as secretary, and Rev. James E. Walter, who as ex officio member from the Missions Council, has been of great assistance. During the year, Rev. Robert L. Underwood of Fitchburg, chairman of the New England Regional Committee, was asked to serve as an ex officio member of the committee, in order to coördinate the efforts of these two committees, and he kindly accepted.

No reference to the war situation has been made, and none need be made, other than to say that the world enterprise of the Christian Church will be more needed, not less, when the present world struggle has ended, and a new order is to be built on the ashes of the old.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MORAL AND SOCIAL WELFARE

Our Committee on Moral and Social Welfare held four meetings at 14 Beacon Street, Boston. In addition a supper meeting was arranged by the Women's Department of the Suffolk Association to which our members were invited and at which occasion Rev. Dwight J. Bradley was the speaker. This meeting was held at the Y.W.C.A. in Boston. We were given a stirring challenge and outline by the Director of our Council for Social Action in terms of what we might do and the issues before us.

We find ourselves at a point in history when the foundations of our Christian faith are being tried and tested in the fire of a second world war. This catastrophe has taken on the proportions of total war for the vast majority of the nations and the peoples of the earth. We hold to the principle that each individual's conscience in the sight of God is infinitely significant, and we find ourselves of differing minds in regard to our Christian attitude to the war. Some believe that, as Christians, we should do all that we can to back up the war effort of the United Nations in order to bring about as speedily as possible a complete victory over the forces of Nazism, Fascism and Japan. They further believe that this war has been forced upon us and is none of our doing. In consequence, they feel that we have the necessity before us of taking appropriate action or else being willing to accept any program which may be imposed upon us by the godless people who would do the imposing. There is another group within our committee which believes that war in itself is unchristian, and that to engage in such an effort will be defeating the very things at the start that we say we are fighting for. This latter group could not, as Christians, either bless, sanction or support the war. It is their conviction that Jesus Christ came on earth to live, to preach and to demonstrate another way, which is the way of dynamic, self-sacrificing love, and that such a way leads men to a cross. They conceive that the military machine geared to a war-tempo with the forces of propaganda and mass opinion behind it is antithetical to the way which our Master took and the way which he expects us to take. However, both groups are united in their fellowship in Christ which binds them each to each in the high task of discipleship. They recognize that there are certain constructive things that can be done by each group to help in the emergency: such as aiding young men in the Army and Navy by writing to them, enlisting our churches to write to them and to send them New Testaments, articles of clothing and food; further still, to organize recreation and socials for them in the towns near the Army camps. It was also stated that we should, in the same fashion, help those young men who have been assigned to Civilian Public Service Camps for the duration of the war, and who are there for reasons relating to their conscientious objections to war. In contacting them, our church people can learn more about the work of the American Friends Service Committee whose definite program of peace action holds the respect of countless persons and groups in every nation of the world.

We recognize at this time the great need for the organizing in our churches of study groups to consider the task of world order and organization. We would recommend to all of our churches the materials prepared for us by the Commission for the Study of World Order, of which Professor Robert L. Calhoun is Chairman, which include a study packet and also copies of the November 15th issue of Social Action entitled "The Struggle for World Order" by Vera M. Dean. These materials can be secured from the Council for Social Action, 289 Fourth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

We would also recommend to the churches the use of the outline on Schools for Democracy, also prepared by the Council for Social Action. It may act as a proposed plan for the setting up of such schools in certain areas, adapting the plan to the needs of each community in which it is tried.

In regard to the matter of week-day Religious Education, it was recommended strongly by one of our members that we look into the Australian Plan, as it has many benefits. The matter of securing the best possible teachers, of paying them a salary, and seeing to it that the whole experience for the children involved will be as beneficial as could be made came before our committee. It was stated that certain test places may probably be chosen by the Massachusetts Council of Churches where the plan of week-day Religious Education might be tried on an experimental basis, in order that everyone including other communities might learn from the experience.

It was voted that our Committee give its unanimous approval to the State Conference of the plan of Parish Visitation in our church parishes. Several outstanding results were cited to warrant the success of this plan. It was further voted that ample preparation should be made in advance with the president of each group within the church coöperating.

It was voted that our committee send a request to the State Conference Program Committee to have some portion of its program for the annual spring meeting devoted to a consideration of "Peace Aims."

A notice was received by our committee in the form of a strong protest against the liquor traffic and also another against the gambling in our state.

It was brought out that our responsibility as Christians not only lies in the field of organized labor, where the task of evangelism and of social adjustment needs so desperately to be carried out, but also in the rural sections of our country as well. Certain significant developments in that field were reported on, among them being the work of the Rural Life Committee of our Council for Social Action, the development by Prof. Arthur E. Holt of Merom Institute at Merom, Indiana, as the Rural Laboratory of our Congregational Christian churches, the expansion of the "Friends of the Soil Movement", and the Ceremony of the Soil by Howard and Alice Kester, which will be presented at our State Conference meeting by ministers of the Pelham Rural Fellowship. It was pointed out that the need for rural reconstruction is of a vital concern to our nation during this present war emergency.

Our committee wishes to extend its sincere word of thanks to the Reverend Alfred V. Bliss for his generous help to us, and also to the Reverend George A. Tuttle.

FRANCIS A. DRAKE, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITY AND STANDARDS FOR THE MINISTRY

The new standing Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry has held four meetings during the Conference year, continuing the efforts of the former special committee to bring about a greater degree of uniformity relative to ministerial standards throughout the state. We offer, for approval, statements pertaining to: "I. Licensure Standards and Procedure" and "II. Ordination Standards and Procedure." Though Mr. Harold S. Davis of our committee has prepared a thorough legal statement pertaining to installation, recognition, etc., it seems wise to withhold any publication of these findings until after the General Council's action on similar matters at the June meeting.

For the benefit of Association officers, the Committee on Polity has prepared questionnaire forms for candidates for (1) initial licensure, (2) license renewal, and (3) ordination. These may be procured from the Conference office.

Following are our recommendations pertaining to licensure and ordination:

I. Licensure Standards and Procedure

A. Purpose

Licensure gives the privilege of preaching wherever invited and of fulfilling the functions of a Christian Minister in church work and public worship, except conducting funeral services and performing the rites of Baptism and the Lord's Supper (which, however, may be authorized by special vote of the particular Church, with the approval of the Association), and except performing the Marriage Ceremony, when strict conformity to the Law of the State must be observed.

B. Requirements

1. Resident active membership in a Congregational-Christian Church for at least one year previous to application.
2. Appearance before Association Committee on Credentials, for examination.
   a. Actual experience in Christian service, and recommendation from the pastor or officers of his home church.
   b. Satisfactory knowledge of Congregational history and polity. (See: Fagley's "Congregational Churches" and Burton's "Manual," pp. 1–72.)
   c. Written sermon, which candidate may be asked to preach.
   d. Adaptability for Congregational-Christian leadership, as judged by the Committee's inquiry and observation.
   e. Evidence of having met standard requirements, namely: graduation from a college of recognized standing, and the completion of one year in a theological seminary of recognized standing.
   f. Written statements on: call to the Christian ministry, Christian experience and beliefs, reason for seeking licensure, and reason for seeking licensure in a Congregational Church.
   g. An expressed purpose to proceed later with ordination.

C. Procedure

1. After thorough examination of the candidate, the Committee on Credentials shall refer the applicant to the Association, which has power to accept or reject the applicant.
2. Each licentiate should have an adviser, who shall confer with the licentiate at least once a year.
3. Ordinarily, the license should be issued for one year only; and it should be renewed annually, upon application and appearance before the Association Committee on Credentials for consultation and examination.
4. In the case of application for license renewal on the part of a candidate coming from outside the State, the candidate should meet the requirements of the Massachusetts Conference.

5. The license — and especially the renewal of the license — should be sought within the bounds of the Association where the licentiate is carrying on his work.
6. A service of consecration should be held at the time of the initial licensure. (See: Burton's "Manual," p. 182, for suggestion.)
7. Application forms for initial licensure and for license renewal examinations may be obtained from Association scribes or from the State Conference office.

II. Ordination Standards and Procedure

A. Purpose

Ordination is the recognition by the Church of God's calling of a man or a woman to the ministry. As such it is an acknowledgment both of the individual's unique relation to God's purpose and of his ability to carry out that purpose.

B. Requirements

1. Candidate should have had a license to preach (complying with standards of the Massachusetts Conference) for at least one year. (See: Section I, Par. B, 1.)
2. Standard scholastic requirements should be: (1) graduation from a college of recognized standing, and (2) graduation from a theological seminary of recognized standing.

C. Procedure

1. Candidate should confer with the Committee on Credentials of the Association, by application to the Scribe. This committee should examine the candidate with reference to the above specific requirements and also to the more general requirements, such as: a call to preach, commendation from his home church, adaptability for Congregational-Christian leadership, etc. The Committee on Credentials should confer with the State Conference Committee on Polity in all borderline cases.
2. Following such conference, and with the approval of the candidate on the part of the Committee on Credentials, the Church may request the Association to coöperate in the sending of the letter missive for an ordination council.
3. An interval of two weeks or more should elapse between the examination for ordination and the public service of ordination.
4. Application forms for ordination examination may be obtained from Association scribes or from the State Conference office.

The Committee:

J. William L. Graham, Chairman
Edward U. Cowles, Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

In the absence of a paid secretary, the Religious Education Committee has been seriously handicapped in its work this past year. Without a paid secretary, it has been impossible to give adequate help to the many urgent needs within our churches. The committee members have all assumed heavier responsibilities and have tried to hold things together as best they could until the appointment of a paid secretary. The bulk of the routine and office work, formerly carried on by a part-time secretary, has been carried on, in addition to her other duties, by Mrs. Ekdahl of the Department of Woman's Work. and voluntarily and without remuneration by the chairman of this committee. These matters, which have included much correspondence and many speaking engagements, have consumed such a great amount of time that there has unfortunately not been opportunity to give much of the needed leadership to the pressing demands of such matters as the church school, the promotion of Association work in the Pilgrim Fellowship, college work, and the like.

Pequests were made to the Associations through the scribes for an opportunity for some member of the State Committee to acquaint the Associations with state religious education plans. This met with a favorable response from several Associations. Arranging for the summer Pilgrim Conferences was delegated to a subcommittee on Summer Conferences, consisting of Reverend Fred D. Bennett, Reverend Robert Dutton, Miss Evelyn Scott, and Reverend Paul S. McElroy as Chairman. Upon the recommendation of Dean Ray Gibbons, it was voted to discontinue the Pilgrim Council Conference of Wilbraham. It was also voted to hold three Pilgrim Conferences again this year with the Reverend Pierson Harris serving as the Dean at Wilbraham Academy, the Reverend William R. Usher serving as the Dean at Dean Academy, and the Reverend Edward Cowles serving as the Dean at Williston Academy.

Upon recommendation of this committee a meeting of Association Pilgrim Fellowship officers and presidents of local church young people's societies of Greater Boston was held and considered to be a successful venture making for increased Pilgrim Fellowship consciousness.

It is the hope of the committee that some permanent arrangement for state leadership in our Religious Education program will be made in the very near future.

Paul S. McElroy, Chairman

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF WOMAN'S WORK

Each year of service as Executive Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work brings new developments and added responsibilities which crowd the days and weeks, but in turn offer great personal satisfaction.

Packets which are sent to presidents of local women's organizations each spring and fall, as introduced during the last two years, not only provide our leaders with material but inform them of what else is available. This procedure has shown that if resources are known they will be used, judging by the many requests and letters which come to my office.

The department of the Pilgrim State News entitled "Massachusetts Women" is planned from my desk to carry practical help and inspiration to church women as individuals as well as members of women's organizations. Frequent letters of comment testify to its value. My work of editing also includes issues of the Education Bulletin and the Caravan, sent out by the Education and Children's Work Committees respectively.

My field work is automatically limited by the numerous committees which I attend as ex officio member and conferences of district workers for which I help plan and set up programs. It appears that I am able to go into only about sixty local churches a year where I am personally asked for. This means, however, declining many invitations not only for the reason mentioned, but because of conflict of organization meeting days.

The local organizations ask for help with reorganizing, with budget making, especially in changing from money-raising events to pledging, and for address or discussion-leading on topics concerned with missions, the church woman, the Christian home, and personal religion. Besides women's organizations, I am invited to parents' clubs and church school workers' groups for talks on psychology and mental hygiene; I speak also at Lenten meetings, church services, and Mothers' Day banquets. I have occasional speaking appointments at institutes of other denominations and at secular meetings.

Last summer I taught the course in Woman's Work at the Northern New England School of Religious Education, conferences at Pleasant Hill, Tennessee and Olivet, Michigan, and a course in World Friendship at Kings Mountain Academy, North Carolina. I also participated in our denominational meetings at the United Christian Adult Conferences at Northfield. Since I therefore had no summer vacation, my holidays this year consisted of two weeks around Christmas when I visited several fields of our Negro and Spanish speaking work in the South.

This year I have been a member of the Education Committees of the Northern New England School of Religious Education and the Religious Education Conference at Northfield as well as the Planning Committee of the International Relations Institute to be held at Wellesley College.

In the fall I was asked by the trustees of the conference to care for the office work formerly done by the Reverend Porter Bower, when part-time secretary of Religious Education, until his successor is appointed. This period has extended until the present writing. This has involved considerable correspondence, consultations and occasional Saturday afternoons with young people's groups. I was most fortunate in that the Reverend Paul S. McElroy continued as Pilgrim Fellowship Advisor and also served as Chairman of the Religious Education Committee, giving unsparingly of his time.

Other general conference duties have been ex officio membership on the Religious Education and the Missions and Apportionment Committees, the Adult, Youth and Children's Divisions, and supervision of the Speakers' Bureau. Mrs. Paul Bogosian is office secretary of the bureau and devotes most of her time to it. It is almost impossible to measure the service of this bureau. The eight hundred and more appointments, and the vast amount of correspondence involved therewith on our books, give only a part of the story. The past year we sent, for the first time, letters and request blanks with a partial list of speakers to every minister and woman's organization president, while another list later went to every local church Friendly Service Chairman. This gave opportunity for direct approach from the churches to the speakers. There is no way to know definitely to what extent these lists are used, but frequent word comes to convince us that this service is decidedly worth while. At a Seminar for Association Missionary Committee chairmen, the Missions and Apportionment Committee coöperated with the New England Regional Committee in discussing the use of missionary speakers at which it was my privilege to present the procedures, problems and hopes of the Speakers' Bureau. The bureau is eager to assist missionary chairmen in setting up itineraries of speakers or teams of speakers within their associations.

Although there have been moments of discouragement, it is our conviction that our women are maintaining their responsibilities toward the church and its outreach despite the added claims upon time and money in the line of defense. One evidence of this is that fifty-five of our women's organizations sent boxes of clothing and supplies or money gifts into sixty-seven home missionary pastors' families this year. Providing these parsonage box applications is another service of our office. We continually bear to our women the thought that no one but church folk will support the church and that more, rather than less, church work must be done so that this world of ours may turn its course away from spiritual chaos toward the coming of the Kingdom.

Naomi G. Ekdahl
(Mrs. Adolph G.)

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF WOMAN'S WORK

Three years ago, the Congregational women of Massachusetts set before themselves the ideals of realizing more fully the obligations of stewardship, the deepening of the spiritual life, and of bringing the Department of Woman's Work together into a "Conference Consciousness" which would spread till it should reach to the farthest corners of the state. But they could little foresee that before many months a world calamity would make any effort toward these ideals doubly important. As this year comes to its close perhaps the quality which marks the Woman's Work most strongly is its unity — the feeling of responsibility to the State Conference, to the work of the denominational Boards and to the World Church. They caught this vision at the great Atlantic City Conference, where, through their representatives, ten million women now are united under one organization.

The usual four executive committee meetings have been held; the first, the Retreat at Adelynrood in June, gives a seriousness, a feeling of great responsibility; and, in addition to the dedication of the work, there is that which the influence of the place itself always brings — a rededication of our very lives.

The April meeting is always important in its review of the year just passed and its anticipation of the new one to come. This time the spring meeting was a specially happy one as Barnstable's chairman, Mrs. Chandler, reported that the Women's and Missionary Committee of the Barnstable Association this year becomes an integral part of the Department of Woman's Work. For the past year a small committee, representing the missionary interest, has carried on the initiation of their new set-up and program. The Women's and Missionary Committee will continue to work under, and be responsible to, the Barnstable Association but is organized in a manner similar to that of the State: Chairman, Vice-Chairman — acting also as Second Mile representative — secretary, treasurer and members representing the interests of Education, Social Action, Children's Work and Friendly Service. The spiritual basis of the Second Mile is being stressed that it may be fully understood and emphasized before numbers are urged.

On February 20th several groups at different parts of the Cape, sponsored on a community and interdenominational basis, services for the World Day of Prayer. Fifty were present at the service at Wellfleet and they were equally well attended in other communities.

The fine work being done by the women's groups on Cape Cod is already making itself felt in other parts of the state.

Welcome to you, Women's and Missionary Committee of Barnstable Association! We hope that we may be as much of an inspiration to you as you are to us.

Fine work is being done in each District toward a much stronger Social Action program, — Andover, Berkshire, Hampden and Pilgrim having reported that increased interest has resulted in real action. Hampden's two meetings with different race groups present where modes of living and housing problems were discussed, record real progress.

Many local groups have taken care that no needy ones should go unassisted in their communities. In November a Workshop for Social Action was held in Boston where practical help and inspiration were given by Dr. Dwight Bradley.

It was with real regret that the resignation of Mrs. Harold Hannum was received. As Chairman of the Children's Work Committee she worked with initiative and enthusiasm. Our best wishes go with Mr. and Mrs. Hannum into their new work in Vermont. Mrs. G. Wilmer Hathorn, of North Andover, has carried on untiringly and the report of an increase of seventeen churches giving for Christmas Box work at Christmas and the new gift for a nursery for Grant's Hospital is very encouraging.

The Education Committee, Miss Louise Fay and Mrs. Paul McElroy chairmen, have completed the usual arduous work on the Reading List and have issued the Bulletin. On April 10th an all day conference was held at Mt. Vernon Church, the Education and Social Action Committees coöperating. Dr. Hugh Vernon White and Mrs. Whiting assisted in the program.

There has been an increased interest in the Friendly Service work under the chairmanship of Miss Amelia Burrill. Many churches have reported this year which hitherto have done little or nothing. A conference of Friendly Service Chairmen was held in the autumn and nine Districts were represented. The advantage of exhibits has been strongly emphasized in all Districts.

The Pilgrim Hall meetings, planned by Mrs. Allbright and her committee have been very well attended, and we wish to express sincere appreciation to our guest speakers for bringing real help from their deep experience. To those who have led in the devotional thought and have brought lovely messages in song we also wish to express our gratitude. The ushers have done their work faithfully and well.

The Woman's Second Mile Missionary Gift, started last year, has now become a part of the National Woman's Gift effort. It is expected that this concerted effort will result in an immediate and decided lift in the giving of our churches. Although definite amounts have been pledged to the American Board, the Home Board and the State Conference for our three definite projects, we have set no money goal. We ask that every woman share in the gift in a spirit of sacrifice and thanksgiving as an American and in loving thought for the women in other countries who have given their all. Whatever the amount received will be divided equally among the three projects.

Members of the Executive Committee attended the United Christian Adult Conference at Northfield in July. In addition the Chairman attended the Missionary Conference, the General Conference, the Conference at Star Island and the mid-winter sessions of the Missions Council at Evanston. The chairman of the Social Action Committee and of the Children's Work Committee were members of the Southern Study Tour.

The Chairman has met with leaders' groups in Andover, Barnstable, Essex South, Franklin, Hampshire, Middlesex Union, Middlesex-Mendon and Woburn and had the privilege of participating in the Community Day of Prayer Service at Lawrence.

The Chairman feels deeply the coöperation which has been given in such a friendly way throughout the state and is grateful to each District President for their help and judgment which have created a strong, unified department. To Mrs. Ekdahl and the chairmen of the standing committees, closely identified with the work each step of the way, to Mrs. Field, who has cheerfully carried so much of the load, "Thank you," seems quite inadequate.

To the fine women who laid the foundation of the Department of Woman's Work the entire state is grateful. It is due to their judgment, foresight and to their prayers that the work of each year is made possible.

Augusta F. Clark, Chairman
(Mrs. Myron H.)

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID
For the Year 1941

The Board of Ministerial Aid has conducted its work for the year with the utmost care. Every attention possible has been given to the welfare of those receiving aid either through the regular grants or appropriations from the Emergency Fund. Regular meetings have been held and all actions have been approved by the entire Executive Committee.

The development of old age assistance provisions in the several states of the union has been an object of careful study. We have endeavored in tactful fashion to acquaint the recipients of grants with the fact that in some states it is possible to increase the amount of annual income by transferring their requests from our Board to the State Department charged with the responsibility for old age assistance. It is too early to know yet what the reaction is. The Board, however, considered it important to give information in the matter.

During the calendar year grants have been paid as follows:

Regular grants to 37 ministers	$5,899
42 widows	6,298
2 single women	300
1 orphan	120
	$12,617
Emergency grants to 14 ministers	1,200
14 widows	660
1 single woman	20
Subscriptions to Advance	75
	$1,955

We have lost from our roll by death the following:

Rev. Alexander J. Cameron
Rev. Bernard Copping
Rev. Charles A. Forbes
Rev. Washington Forbes
Rev. Frank W. Hemenway
Rev. Martin F. Mevis
Rev. Charles Olmstead
Mrs. Augustus H Fuller
Mrs. George Savary

On January 1, 1941, we had on the roll: 34 ministers
37 widows
1 single woman
1 orphan

73

On January 1, 1942, we have 30 ministers
39 widows
2 single women
1 orphan

72

For comparison we submit the following figures:

	Regular	Emergency	Christmas Fund
Year	Grants	Grants	Norm	Amount	Expenses
1938.....	$14,114	$2,140	$45–34	$2,303	$481

REPORT OF THE CONGREGATIONAL BOARD OF PASTORAL SUPPLY

This Board consists of twenty-one members, nine from Massachusetts, five from Connecticut, two each from Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, and one from Rhode Island. These members are elected by their respective state conferences. As usual two meetings of the Board have been held during the year, the annual meeting in June with an attendance of nineteen, and the semi-annual meeting in December with an attendance of eighteen.

At the June meeting reports from the Committee which had been appointed to elicit public opinion with regard to the future of the Board showed opinion to be definitely divided. It appeared that a considerable group felt that the work of the Board as now conducted ought to a large degree to be given over to the state conference offices, while another considerable group believed that the Board should go on substantially as now. In view of this division the Board decided to propose a year of experimentation, no successor to the present Secretary to be appointed on his retirement March 31, 1942, but the office to be kept open in charge of the present woman office secretary for the purpose of keeping records and giving out information.

This proposal was sent to the executive boards of the several state conferences and was also considered at a meeting of the superintendents of the New England and certain other eastern state conferences. Here again opinion was divided. The superintendents submitted a proposal to ask the present Secretary to continue until October 1, 1942, with the further thought that the Board should go on as at present, with perhaps the addition of the New York, Pennsylvania, Middle Atlantic and Ohio Conferences, and the office moved to New York. The Trustees of the Massachusetts Conference passed a vote in favor of this plan but subsequently rescinded it in favor of a strong resolution for keeping the office in Boston. The Connecticut State Conference voted in favor of the year of experimentation. Maine, Vermont, and Rhode Island, favored the plan suggested by the superintendents. New Hampshire had not taken action.

At its December meeting, therefore, the Board decided to ask the Secretary to remain until January 1, 1943, which he reluctantly consented to do.

Meanwhile, the Commission on the Ministry of the General Council, as instructed by the 1940 meeting of the Council, had been considering the question of a "National Bureau of Pastoral Information." This consideration came to a head in January at a meeting in Evanston, Illinois, of a Committee of Nine, three from the Commission on the Ministry, three from the Executive Committee of the General Council, and three from the State Superintendents. This Committee recommended that in view of war conditions and of the financial situation the establishing of the proposed National Bureau be at least postponed and that meanwhile our Board and the Mid-West Pastoral Relations Committee, which serve the churches in matters of supply for more than one state, be asked to establish such a relation as will enable them to act as a national agency. It was further recommended that this extra service be compensated by appropriations from the General Council and from the state conferences which are not now supporting these two agencies. This recommendation has been approved by the Commission on the Ministry of the General Council, and will go before the Council at its meeting in Durham, New Hampshire, in June.

Your Board will hold its annual meeting early in June, when thorough consideration will be given to the future of the Board, especially in view of the additional work which may be asked of it by the General Council.

FINANCE

See Treasurer's report on another page. As usual a budget was made out at the beginning of the year and we have been able to keep under that budget by $45.65. At the beginning of the year we had a cash balance of $515.43. We closed the year with a cash balance of $552.98, a gain of $37.55.

Death of Treasurer Black

We regret so announce that Mr. Walter H. Black of Jamaica Plain, who had recently been serving the Board as Treasurer, passed away in June. At the meeting of the Board in December the following minute was passed:

> The Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, at its first meeting after the death of its late treasurer, Walter H. Black, wishes to put on record its full appreciation of the service he rendered this Board from the beginning of his term in April, 1938, until his death. It is but simple truth to say that his character was of the highest, that his competence for this office was entire, and that his interest in and devotion to the work of this Board was unflagging. We are glad to recall that what he did for us was but a part of the continuous and varied service he rendered the Kingdom of God during all the years of his life. Mrs. Black is assured of our deep sympathy in her great loss.

The New Treasurer

We take pleasure in announcing that Mr. Arthur W. Moffatt of the First Church in Braintree was elected Treasurer at the December meeting of the Board. He is connected with the Auditing Department of the United Shoe Machinery Company and is Treasurer of his church at Braintree.

Theological Seminaries

The figures of graduates of seminaries who were planning to enter the Congregational ministry at Commencement, 1941, were: Andover-Newton, 12; Atlanta, 2; Bangor, 6; Chicago, 15; Hartford, 10; Harvard, 3; Oberlin, 3; Pacific, 0; Union, 6; Yale, 11. Total, 68. The total for the same seminaries in 1940 was 59. The 1941 figure compares with an average for the six preceding years of 67⅔.

This year, as for two years past, the Secretary of the Board served as an examiner for the seniors of Andover-Newton Theological School.

Other Items

On account of the disappearance of the Boston Transcript efforts have been made to publish current pastoral changes in other Boston papers and in other New England papers. Only partial success has been achieved. We understand that our list appears regularly in the Saturday issue of the Hartford Courant, and, occasionally, of the Providence Journal.

A change has taken place in the office staff through the resignation of Miss Dorothy E. Howe to become office secretary at New Haven, Connecticut, for the New England section of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. We greatly regretted to have Miss Howe go. She had been with us since September, 1938. Her place has been taken by Miss Florence N. Johnson, whose previous experience with the American Board particularly fits her for her work with us.

Last spring at four state conferences and this fall at two, the Secretary has given an address on "The Acute Problem of Placing Ministers — What Can Ministers, Churches and Denominational Officials Do About It?"

Under the leadership of Rev. Theodore Bacheler of South Hadley Falls, Massachusetts, a member of our Board, an attempt is being made to improve the statement which we ask from ministers who are interested in registering with our office. It is believed that a real gain is possible in this important matter.

No Sadness of Farewell

This is the last report for the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply which its present Secretary will sign, as his lengthened term expires December 31, 1942. There come to him at this time these verses which he learned some fifty years ago from Tennyson's "In Memoriam":

"And hear at times a sentinel
Who moves about from place to place,
And whispers to the worlds of space,
In the deep night, that all is well.

"And all is well, though faith and form
Be sundered in the night of fear;
Well roars the storm to those who hear
A deeper voice across the storm."

Let us hear and heed this deeper Voice across the storm. Let us help others to hear and heed.

For the Board,

CHARLES C. MERRILL, Secretary

SERVICE TO SEAMEN IN WAR OR IN PEACE BOSTON SEAMAN'S FRIEND SOCIETY

Now more than ever before the men of the Navy and Merchant Marine stand as bulwarks between us and possible destruction. Upon their bravery and courage depends not only the freedom of the seas, but our ultimate victory. Our every effort is to render all possible service to these brave sailors.

The generous response to our recent appeals for clothing, books and magazines as well as money, shows very clearly an awakened public interest in and a growing sense of our dependence on these men of the sea. We are beginning to realize the vital place they hold in our national life.

A Condensed Report of Our Stewardship for the Year 1941

Seamen lodged at the "Sailor's Rest"	4,739
Number of meals served	13,279
Material relief to deserving seamen	$1,057.44
Sunday evening services attended by	977
Free entertainments (2 a week) attended by	1,925

Four thousand five hundred (4,500) pieces of mail received for and delivered to seamen. Over 600 pieces of baggage checked free of charge.

Hundreds of sailors spent many hours in our library with its twelve hundred (1,200) volumes and current magazines.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, dinners were served free. All sailors in port were cordially invited.

In connection with the free Christmas entertainment, there was also a useful gift for every seaman present.

Sailors from Portugal, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Spain, Chili and many from Great Britain were among our guests at the "Sailor's Rest" in Boston.

It is estimated that 55,000 crossed our threshold during the year.

At Vineyard Haven our launch, Madison Edwards, made 134 trips; distributed 3,000 magazines and books; 161 Comfort Bags and 158 Knitted Articles to seamen on ships in port.

Captain Tower, Chaplain and Superintendent, made 379 visits to ships in port; held 43 Sunday afternoon services at the United States Marine Hospital.

Sunday evening services at the Bethel were attended by 540 sailors.

The total cost of operating the Society for the year was $41,195.00. Receipts for the year amounted to $38,984.00.

Every dollar contributed by churches and individuals goes directly into the work for seamen. All salaries are paid out of income from invested funds.

We are fully conscious of our responsibility to the Congregational and Christian Churches of Massachusetts and sincerely hope we shall continue to merit the support and confidence of the churches in return.

Herbert W. Gates, Field Secretary

Arthur J. Crockett, Secretary-Treasurer

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of over $695,000. If any extra expense is incurred that is charged against the principal or income of the fund involved. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned a little less than 4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitab y and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, INC.

Annual Meeting January 19, 1942

PRESIDENT, REV. JOHN B. LEWIS, 134 Westminster Street

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT, REV. ORVILLE T. FLETCHER, 979 Sumner Avenue

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT, DWIGHT L. CART, 108 Maplewood Terrace

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

Aids churches financially, promotes coöperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Missionary Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1942. Admissions and removals cover the year 1941. "Absent" members, by vote of the Conference, are not recorded in the Massachusetts statistics. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1942, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r,"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but means "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk* indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

* Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

‡ Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

+ Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE. — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.
